If any such Committed Loan Notice requests Eurodollar Rate Loans but does not specify an Interest Period, then the Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month's duration.

SECTION 2.04. Repayment of Loans; Evidence of Debt.

(a) The Borrower hereby unconditionally promises to pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Lender the then unpaid principal amount of the Loans on the Maturity Date.

(b) Each Lender shall maintain in accordance with its usual practice an account or accounts evidencing the indebtedness of the Borrower to such Lender resulting from each Loan made by such Lender to the Borrower, including the amounts of principal and interest payable and paid to such Lender from time to time hereunder.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall maintain accounts in which it shall record (i) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, the Type thereof and the Interest Period applicable thereto, (ii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from the Borrower to each Lender hereunder and (iii) the amount of any sum received by the Administrative Agent hereunder for the account of the Lenders and each Lender's share thereof.

(d) The entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of this Section 2.04 shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the Obligations recorded therein; provided, that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligation of the Borrower to repay the Loans to it in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(e) Upon the request of any Lender made through the Administrative Agent, a Lender's Loans may be evidenced by one or more Notes of the Borrower, instead of or in addition to its loan accounts or records. Each such Lender may attach schedules to its Notes and endorse thereon the date, amount and maturity of its Loans and payments with respect thereto. Any failure so to record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations. In any event, the Register shall remain conclusive and binding on the Borrower and each Lender, absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.05. Prepayment of Loans.

(a) Voluntary Prepayments. Subject to prior notice in accordance with this paragraph, the Borrower may at its option, at any time, without premium or penalty of any kind (other than any payments required under Section 2.13), prepay, in whole or in part, the Loans. The Borrower shall make any such prepayment to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of each Lender (together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon). The Borrower shall not voluntarily repay or prepay the Loans, unless on such date the Bank Term Loans are prepaid in an amount equal to the product of the aggregate principal amount of Bank Term Loans outstanding on such date immediately prior to such prepayment, multiplied by the aggregate principal amount of Loans to be prepaid on such date, divided by the aggregate principal amount of Loans outstanding on such date immediately prior to such prepayment; provided, that the Borrower shall be permitted to make voluntary prepayments of the Loans without complying with such pro rata payment requirement to the extent that the Borrower, Synchrony Bank or GECC, as the case may be, based on their respective discussions with and/or guidance received from applicable Bank Regulatory Authorities, in good faith, reasonably determines, after consultation with the Bank Lead Arrangers, that such voluntary prepayment is reasonably required to satisfy any Law, regulatory capital or liquidity requirement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any regulatory requirement or condition necessary to effect Split-off or Deregistration), which determination shall be evidenced by a written certification from the chief risk officer of the Borrower or GECC.

(b) Mandatory Prepayments.

(i) The Loans shall be prepaid with Applicable Debt Proceeds in the manner set forth in Section 2.05(d) below.

(ii) The Borrower shall make any such prepayment to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each Lender, on the date and in the principal amount required by Section 2.05(d) below (together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon).

(c) Notice of Prepayment.

(i) The Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent by telephone (confirmed by telecopy or email with PDF attachment) of any prepayment hereunder (A) in the case of prepayment of Eurodollar Rate Loans, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the date three Business Days prior to the date of prepayment and (B) in the case of prepayment of Base Rate Loans, not later than 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on the date one Business Day prior to the date of prepayment. Each such notice shall be irrevocable except to the extent contemplated by clause (ii) and shall specify the prepayment date and the principal amount of Loans to be prepaid. Prepayments shall be accompanied by accrued interest to the extent required by Section 2.07 but shall be without premium or penalty of any kind (other than any payments required under Section 2.13).

(ii) Each notice delivered by the Borrower pursuant to this Section shall be irrevocable; provided, that a notice of repayment of Loans may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other credit facilities or the closing of a capital markets transaction, in which case such notice may be revoked by the Borrower (by notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied.

(d) Application of Prepayments with Applicable Debt Proceeds. Any Applicable Debt Proceeds received by the Borrower shall be applied to prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Loans and, subject to clause (e), the Bank Term Loans, as follows:

(i) During the Initial Period, any Additional IPO Debt Proceeds received by the Borrower shall be applied first, to prepay the Loans until the outstanding principal amount of the Loans after giving effect to such prepayments equals $1,500,000,000 and second, to prepay the outstanding principal amounts of the Loans and the Bank Term Loans on a pro rata basis, based on the outstanding loans thereunder; and

(ii) After the Initial Period:

(1) with respect to the remaining portion of the calendar year ended December 31, 2014 and the calendar years ended December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016, the 2014-2016 Required Prepayment Amount of Post-IPO Debt Proceeds received by the Borrower shall be applied to prepay the outstanding principal amounts of the Loans and the Bank Term Loans on a pro rata basis, based on the outstanding principal balances thereunder; provided, that, for each calendar year, all such calculations and required prepayments shall be made on an annual basis such that to the extent, during such calendar year, the Borrower has made aggregate prepayments of the Loans and the Bank Term Loans from Post-IPO Debt Proceeds received during such calendar year (1) in an amount less than the 2014-2016 Required Prepayment Amount for such calendar year, within 10 Business Days after January 1 of the following calendar year, the Borrower shall prepay the outstanding principal amounts of the Loans and the Bank Term Loans on a pro rata basis, based on the outstanding principal balances thereunder, respectively, in an amount equal to such shortfall and (2) in an amount greater than the 2014-2016 Required Prepayment Amount for such calendar year, the Borrower may, at its option, receive a dollar-for-dollar credit in the amount of such excess with respect to its prepayment obligations under this Section 2.05(d)(ii) in respect of the Required Prepayment Amount for the immediately following calendar year;

(2) with respect to the calendar years ended December 31, 2017, December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019, the 2017-2019 Required Prepayment Amount of Post-IPO Debt Proceeds received by the Borrower shall be applied to prepay the outstanding principal amounts of the Loans and the Bank Term Loans on a pro rata basis, based on the outstanding principal balances thereunder; provided, that, for each calendar year, all such calculations and required prepayments shall be made on an annual basis such that to the extent, during such calendar year, the Borrower has made aggregate prepayments of the Loans and the Bank Term Loans from Post-IPO Debt Proceeds received during such calendar year (A) in an amount less than the 2017-2019 Required Prepayment Amount for such calendar year, within 10 Business Days after January 1 of the following calendar year, the Borrower shall prepay the outstanding principal amounts of the Loans and the Bank Term Loans on a pro rata basis, based on the outstanding principal balances thereunder, respectively, in an amount equal to such shortfall and (B) in an amount greater than the 2017-2019 Required Prepayment Amount for such calendar year, the Borrower may, at its option, receive a dollar-for-dollar credit in the amount of such excess with respect to its prepayment obligations under this Section 2.05(d)(ii) in respect of the Required Prepayment Amount for the immediately following calendar year.

(e) Subject to the terms of the Bank Term Loan Agreement, any amount required to be applied to prepay the Bank Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.05(d) may, at the Borrower's election, be applied to prepay the Loans.

SECTION 2.06. Reserved

SECTION 2.07. Interest.

(a) Base Rate Loans shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the Base Rate plus the Applicable Margin.

(b) Eurodollar Rate Loans shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the Eurodollar Rate for the Interest Period in effect for such Eurodollar Rate Loans plus the Applicable Margin.

(c) Accrued interest on each Loan shall be payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date for such Loan; provided, that (i) in the event of any repayment or prepayment of the Loans, accrued interest on the principal amount repaid or prepaid shall be payable on the date of such repayment or prepayment, (ii) in the event of any Conversion of any Eurodollar Loan prior to the end of the current Interest Period therefor, accrued interest on such Loan shall be payable on the effective date of such Conversion, (iii) all accrued interest on a Loan shall be payable upon the Maturity Date and (iv) interest pursuant to Section 2.07(e) shall be payable on demand.

(d) All interest hereunder shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days, except that interest computed by reference to the Base Rate (other than pursuant to clause (c) of the definition thereof) shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year), and in each case shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day). The applicable Base Rate or Eurodollar Rate shall be determined by the Administrative Agent, and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(e) If any amount payable by the Borrower under any Loan Document is not paid when due, such past due amounts shall thereafter bear interest at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Default Rate to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws.

SECTION 2.08. Alternate Rate of Interest. If prior to the commencement of any Interest Period for Eurodollar Rate Loans:

(a) the Administrative Agent determines (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error) that adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Eurodollar Rate for such Interest Period; or

(b) the Administrative Agent is advised by the Required Lenders that the Eurodollar Rate for such Interest Period will not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders (or Lender) of making or maintaining their Loans (or its Loan) for such Interest Period;

then the Administrative Agent shall give notice thereof to the Borrower and the Lender or Lenders by telephone or telecopy as promptly as practicable thereafter and, until the Administrative Agent notifies the Borrower and the Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice no longer exist, (i) any Committed Loan Notice that requests the Conversion of any Loans to, or Continuation of any Loans as, a Eurodollar Rate Loan shall be ineffective and (ii) if any Committed Loan Notice by the Borrower requests Eurodollar Rate Loans, such Loans shall be made as Base Rate Loans.

SECTION 2.09. Increased Costs. (a) If any Change in Law shall:

(i) subject any Lender, with respect to this Agreement, to any Taxes (other than (x) any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes in respect of which additional amounts are payable pursuant to Section 2.10, (y) any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes in respect of which additional amounts would be so payable but for an exception under Section 2.10, or (z) any Excluded Taxes) on its loans, loan principal, letters of credit, commitments or other obligations or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto;

(ii) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, liquidity or similar requirement (including any compulsory loan requirement, insurance charge or other assessment) against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, any Lender (except any such reserve requirement reflected in the Eurodollar Rate); or

(iii) impose on any Lender or the London interbank market any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) affecting this Agreement or Loans made by such Lender;

and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender or such other recipient of making, continuing, converting or maintaining any Eurodollar Loan (or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan) or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender or such other recipient hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise), then the Borrower will pay to such Lender or such other recipient, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such other recipient, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) If any Lender determines that any Change in Law regarding capital or liquidity requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's capital or on the capital of such Lender's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made by such Lender to a level below that which such Lender or such Lender's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's policies and the policies of such Lender's holding company with respect to capital adequacy and liquidity), then from time to time the Borrower will pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Lender's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) A certificate of a Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section 2.09 shall be delivered to the Borrower and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrower shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 10 days after receipt thereof.

(d) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand compensation pursuant to this Section 2.09 shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrower shall not be required to compensate a Lender pursuant to this Section 2.09 for any increased costs or reductions incurred more than 270 days prior to the date that such Lender notifies the Borrower of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Lender's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided further that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 270-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

SECTION 2.10. Taxes; Tax Documentation.

(a) Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of the Borrower hereunder shall be made free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for any Taxes, except as required by law; provided, that if the applicable Withholding Agent shall be required to deduct or withhold any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes from such payments, then (i) the sum payable shall be increased as necessary so that after making all required deductions and withholdings (including deductions or withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section) the Administrative Agent or Lender (as the case may be) receives from the Borrower an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made, (ii) the applicable Withholding Agent shall make such deductions or withholdings and (iii) the applicable Withholding Agent shall pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable Law. For the avoidance of doubt, a Tax imposed by reason of or pursuant to FATCA is a Tax required by Law to be deducted or withheld.

(b) In addition, the Borrower shall pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable Law.

(c) The Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent and each Lender, within 10 days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes (including Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) paid by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and any penalties, interest and reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto (other than any penalties, interest and expenses resulting from any bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Administrative Agent or such Lender), whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Borrower by a Lender, or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) As soon as practicable after any payment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes by the Borrower to a Governmental Authority, the Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(e) The Administrative Agent and any Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding tax with respect to payments under this Agreement shall deliver to the Borrower (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), at the time or times prescribed by applicable Law or reasonably requested by the Borrower, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable Law as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (i) the Administrative Agent and each Lender (or assignee or participant) that is a "United States person" as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent two copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that the Administrative Agent or such Lender (or assignee or participant) is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax, (ii) the Administrative Agent and each Lender (or assignee or Participant) that is not a "United States person" as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code (a "Non-U.S. Lender") shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent two complete, duly executed originals of (A) IRS Form W-8BEN, Form W-8BEN-E, Form W-8ECI or Form W-8IMY (together with any applicable underlying IRS forms), or, (B) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender that is not a bank described in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, two complete, duly executed originals of IRS Form W-8BEN or Form W-8BEN-E, together with a statement certifying that the Administrative Agent or such Lender is not a bank described in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, or any subsequent versions thereof or successors thereto, properly completed and duly executed by such Non-U.S. Lender claiming complete exemption from, or a reduced rate of, U.S. federal withholding tax on payments under this Agreement, and (iii) if a payment made to the Administrative Agent or a Lender under this Agreement would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if the Administrative Agent or such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable documentation or reporting requirements of FATCA (including those required pursuant to Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), the Administrative Agent or such Lender shall deliver to the Withholding Agent, at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Withholding Agent, such documentation prescribed by applicable Law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Withholding Agent as may be necessary for the Withholding Agent to comply with its obligations, respectively, under FATCA, to determine that the Administrative Agent or such Lender has or has not complied with the Administrative Agent's or such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment (and, solely for purposes of this Section 2.10(e)(iii), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement). All such forms and documentation shall be delivered by the Administrative Agent and each Lender on or prior to the date it becomes a party to this Agreement (or, in the case of any Participant, on or prior to the date such Participant purchases the related participation) and from time to time thereafter as required by Law or upon the request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent. In addition, the Administrative Agent and each Lender shall deliver such forms and documentation promptly upon the expiration, obsolescence or invalidity of any form or documentation previously delivered by the Administrative Agent or such Lender. The Administrative Agent and each Lender shall promptly notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent at any time it determines that it is no longer in a position to provide any previously delivered certificate to the Borrower (or any other form of certification adopted by the U.S. taxing authorities for such purpose). Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 2.10(e), the Administrative Agent or a Lender shall not be required to deliver any form and documentation pursuant to this Section that the Administrative Agent or such Lender is not legally able to deliver.

(f) The Administrative Agent and each Lender shall use reasonable efforts (consistent with its internal policy applied on a non-discriminatory basis and legal and regulatory restrictions) to designate a different applicable lending office for the Loans made by it and its Commitments or to take other appropriate actions if such designation or actions, as the case may be, will avoid the need for, or reduce the amount of, any payments the Borrower is required to make under this Section 2.10, and will not, in the opinion of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, be otherwise disadvantageous to the Administrative Agent or such Lender.

(g) Each Lender shall indemnify the Administrative Agent within 10 days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Taxes attributable to such Lender that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent, and reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(h) If any party determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified pursuant to this Section 2.10 (including by the payment of additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.10), it shall pay to the indemnifying party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made under this Section 2.10 with respect to Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including Taxes) of such indemnified party without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). Such indemnifying party, upon the request of such indemnified party, shall repay to such indemnified party the amount paid over pursuant to this Section 2.10(h) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority, other than any penalties, interest or other charges resulting from any bad faith, negligence or willful misconduct of such indemnified party) in the event that such indemnified party is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. This paragraph shall not be construed to require any indemnified party to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the indemnifying party or any other Person.

SECTION 2.11. Payments Generally.

(a) Unless otherwise specified herein, the Borrower shall make each payment required to be made by it hereunder (including under Section 2.09, 2.10, 2.13 or otherwise) prior to 1:00 p.m., New York City time, on the date when due and in immediately available funds, without set-off or counterclaim. Any amounts received after such time on any date may, in the discretion of the Administrative Agent, be deemed to have been received on the next succeeding Business Day for purposes of calculating interest thereon. All such payments shall be made to the Administrative Agent at its offices at 201 High Ridge Road, Stamford, CT 06927 or at such other office as directed by the Administrative Agent, except that payments pursuant to Section 2.09, 2.10, 2.13 and 9.03 shall be made directly to the Persons entitled thereto. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments received by it for the account of any other Person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof. If any payment hereunder shall be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the date for payment shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day, and, in the case of any payment accruing interest, interest thereon shall be payable for the period of such extension. All payments hereunder shall be made in Dollars.

(b) If at any time insufficient funds are received by and available to the Administrative Agent to pay fully all amounts of principal, interest and fees then due hereunder, such funds shall be applied (i) first, towards payment of interest and fees then due hereunder, ratably among the parties entitled thereto in accordance with the amounts of interest and fees then due to such parties, and (ii) second, towards payment of principal then due hereunder, ratably among the parties entitled thereto in accordance with the amounts of principal then due to such parties.

(c) If any Lender shall, by exercising any right of counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Loans resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a greater proportion of the aggregate amount of its Loans and accrued interest thereon than the proportion received by any other Lender, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall purchase (for cash at face value) participations in the Loans of other Lenders to the extent necessary so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Loans; provided, that (i) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest, and (ii) the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by the Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans to any assignee or participant, other than to the Borrower or any Subsidiary or Affiliate thereof (as to which the provisions of this paragraph shall apply). The Borrower consents to the foregoing and agrees, to the extent it may effectively do so under applicable Law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against the Borrower rights of counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of the Borrower in the amount of such participation.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Borrower prior to the date on which any payment from the Borrower is due to the Administrative Agent that the Borrower will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrower has made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders the amount due. In such event, if the Borrower has not in fact made such payment, then each Lender severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the Federal Funds Effective Rate.

(e) If any Lender shall fail to make any payment required to be made by it pursuant to Section 2.11(d) or 9.03(c), then the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion (notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof), apply any amounts thereafter received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender to satisfy such Lender's obligations under such Sections until all such unsatisfied obligations are fully paid.

SECTION 2.12. Replacement of Lenders. If any Lender (a) requests compensation, or is entitled to payments, under Section 2.09 or Section 2.10 or is affected in the manner described in Section 2.14, (b) does not consent to a proposed change, waiver, discharge or termination with respect to any Loan Document that has been approved by the Required Lenders but requires unanimous consent of all Lenders or all Lenders directly affected thereby (as applicable) or (c) fails to wire its applicable portion of the Loans to the Administrative Agent by 1:00 p.m. on the Funding Date, then the Borrower may, at its sole expense and effort (in the case of a claim for compensation under, or payments pursuant to, Section 2.09 or Section 2.10 or in the case of illegality, Section 2.14), upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 9.04), all its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement to an assignee that shall assume such obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided, that (i) the Borrower shall have received the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed, (ii) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Loans, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder, from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Borrower (in the case of all other amounts), (iii) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under, or payments pursuant to, Section 2.09 or Section 2.10 or from illegality under Section 2.14, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments or eliminate the illegality, as the case may be and (iv) in the case of any assignment pursuant to clause (b), the applicable assignee shall have consented to the applicable change, waiver, discharge or termination. A Lender shall not be required to make any such assignment and delegation if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Borrower to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply.

SECTION 2.13. Break Funding Payments. In the event of (a) the payment of any principal of any Eurodollar Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto (including as a result of an Event of Default), (b) the Conversion of any Eurodollar Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, (c) the failure to borrow, Convert, Continue or prepay any Loan on the date specified in any notice delivered pursuant hereto (regardless of whether such notice is permitted to be revocable under Section 2.05(c) and is revoked in accordance herewith), or (d) the assignment of any Eurodollar Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto as a result of a request by the Borrower pursuant to Section 2.12, then, in any such event, the Borrower shall compensate each Lender for the loss, cost and expense attributable to such event. A certificate of any Lender setting forth any amount or amounts that such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section shall be delivered to the Borrower and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrower shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 10 days after receipt thereof. The provisions of this Section 2.13 shall not apply to mandatory prepayments pursuant to Section 2.05(d)(ii).

SECTION 2.14. Illegality. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, if the adoption of or any change in applicable Law or regulation or in the interpretation or application thereof shall make it unlawful for any Lender to make or maintain Eurodollar Loans as contemplated by this Agreement, (a) the commitment of such Lender hereunder to make Eurodollar Loans, Continue Eurodollar Loans as such and convert Base Rate Loans into Eurodollar Loans shall forthwith be canceled and (b) such Lender's Loans then outstanding as Eurodollar Loans, if any, shall be Converted automatically to Base Rate Loans on the respective last days of the then current Interest Periods with respect to such Loans or within such earlier period as required by law. If any such Conversion or repayment of a Eurodollar Loan occurs on a day which is not the last day of the then current Interest Period with respect thereto, the Borrower shall pay to such Lender such amounts, if any, as may be required pursuant to Section 2.13. If circumstances subsequently change so that any affected Lender shall determine that it is no longer so affected, such Lender will promptly notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, and upon receipt of such notice, the obligations of such Lender to make or Continue Eurodollar Loans or to Convert Base Rate Loans into Eurodollar Loans shall be reinstated.

SECTION 2.15. Termination and Reduction of Commitments. (a) Unless previously terminated, the Commitments shall terminate on the Funding Date after giving effect to the Borrowing hereunder on such date.

(b) The Borrower may at any time terminate, or from time to time reduce, the Commitments.

(c) The Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of any election to terminate or reduce the Commitments under paragraph (b) of this Section at least three Business Days prior to the effective date of such termination or reduction, specifying such election and the effective date thereof. Each notice delivered by the Borrower pursuant to this Section shall be irrevocable; provided that a notice of termination of the Commitments delivered by the Borrower may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other credit facilities, in which case such notice may be revoked by the Borrower (by notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied. Any termination or reduction of the Commitments shall be permanent. Each reduction of the Commitments shall be made ratably among the Lenders in accordance with their respective Commitments.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

The Borrower represents and warrants to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders on the Effective Date and the Funding Date, as applicable, that:

SECTION 3.01. Existence and Qualification; Power; Compliance with Laws. Each of the Borrower and its Subsidiaries (a) is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or trust duly organized or formed, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the state of its organization, (b) has the power and authority and the legal right to own, lease and operate its properties and to conduct its business, (c) is duly qualified and in good standing under the Laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership, lease or operation of its properties or the conduct of its business requires such qualification, except to the extent that the failure to be so qualified and in good standing could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect and (d) is in compliance with all Laws, except to the extent that noncompliance could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.02. Power and Authorization. The execution, delivery and performance by the Borrower of this Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action.

SECTION 3.03. Enforceable Obligations. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Borrower and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Borrower, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject however to (a) general principles of equity, regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law and (b) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and other similar Laws affecting creditors' rights generally.

SECTION 3.04. No Conflict. The execution, delivery, and performance by the Borrower of the Loan Documents to which it is a party does not and will not (a) violate or conflict with, or result in a breach of, or require any consent under (i) the Borrower's organizational documents, (ii) any applicable Laws or judicial orders or (iii) any Contractual Obligation, license or franchise of the Group Members or by which any of them or any of their property is bound or subject except, in the case of clause (ii) and (iii) only, to the extent such violation, conflict, breach or failure to obtain consent could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect or (b) constitute a default under any such Contractual Obligation, license or franchise except to the extent such default could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.05. Taxes. The Borrower and its Subsidiaries have filed all tax returns which are required to be filed, and have paid, or made provision for the payment of, all taxes with respect to the periods, property or transactions covered by said returns, or pursuant to any assessment received by the Borrower or its affected Subsidiaries, except such taxes, if any, as are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and as to which adequate reserves have been established and maintained in accordance with GAAP, and, except for the failure to file tax returns and/or to pay taxes which failures could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.06. Litigation and Environmental Matters. (a) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.06, no litigation, investigation or proceeding of or before an arbitrator or Governmental Authority, including, in each case, relating to or arising out of any Environmental Law is pending or, to the best knowledge of the Borrower, threatened by or against the Borrower or any Subsidiary or against any of its properties or revenues that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Except with respect to any matters that, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, neither the Borrower nor any of its Subsidiaries (i) has failed to comply with any Environmental Law or to obtain, maintain or comply with any permit, license or other approval required under any Environmental Law, (ii) has become subject to, or knows of any basis for, any Environmental Liability or (iii) has received notice of any claim with respect to any Environmental Law or Environmental Liability.

The Projections were prepared in good faith based upon assumptions believed by the Borrower to be reasonable as of the date of their delivery to Lenders, it being understood that (i) whether or not such Projections are in fact achieved will depend upon future events some of which are beyond the control of the Borrower and its combined Affiliates and Subsidiaries, (ii) no assurance can be given that such Projections will be realized, (iii) actual results may vary from the Projections and such variations may be material and (iv) the Projections should not be regarded as a representation by the Borrower or its management that the projected results will be achieved.

SECTION 3.08. Authorizations. The Group Members possess all licenses, permits, franchises, consents, approvals, and other authorities required to be issued by Governmental Authorities that are necessary or required in the conduct of their businesses, all of which are valid, binding, enforceable, and subsisting without any defaults thereunder, other than any failures to possess or defaults that could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.10. No Default. No Group Member is in default under or with respect to any Contractual Obligation, license or franchise which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, and no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or will result from the execution and delivery of this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

SECTION 3.11. Disclosure. The Borrower has disclosed to the Lenders all agreements, instruments and corporate or other restrictions to which it or any of its Subsidiaries is subject, and all other matters known to it, that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. None of the reports, financial statements, certificates or other information furnished by or on behalf of the Borrower to the Administrative Agent or any Lender in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement or delivered hereunder (as modified or supplemented by other information so furnished) contains any material misstatement of fact or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that, with respect to projected financial information, the Borrower represents only that such information was prepared in good faith based upon assumptions believed to be reasonable at the time furnished.

With respect to each Foreign Pension Plan, except as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, reserves have been established in the financial statements furnished to Lenders in respect of any unfunded liabilities, to the extent applicable, in accordance with applicable law or, where required by local accounting standards, in accordance with ordinary accounting practices in the jurisdiction in which such Foreign Pension Plan is maintained. The aggregate unfunded liabilities with respect to such Foreign Pension Plans could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect (based on those assumptions used to fund each such Foreign Pension Plan).

SECTION 3.13. Labor Matters. Except as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, there are no strikes, lockouts or slowdowns against the Borrower or any Subsidiary pending or, to the knowledge of the Borrower or any Subsidiary, threatened. Except as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, the hours worked by and payments made to employees of the Borrower and the Subsidiaries have not been in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act or any other applicable Federal, state, local or foreign law dealing with such matters. Except as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, the consummation of the Transactions will not give rise to any right of termination or right of renegotiation on the part of any union under any collective bargaining agreement to which the Borrower or any Subsidiary is bound.

SECTION 3.14. Margin Regulations: Investment Company Act. The Borrower is not engaged and will not engage, principally or as one of its important activities, in the business of extending credit for the purpose of “purchasing” or “carrying” “margin stock” within the respective meanings of each of the quoted terms under Regulation U of the Board as now and from time to time hereafter in effect. No part of the proceeds of any Loans will be used

The Borrower is not required to be registered as an “investment company” as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

SECTION 3.15. Anti-Corruption Laws and Sanctions. The Borrower and its Subsidiaries and, to the knowledge of the Borrower, their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, are in compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws and applicable Sanctions in all material respects, and no action, suit or proceeding by or before any Governmental Authority involving the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to Anti-Corruption Laws or Sanctions is pending, or to the best knowledge of the Borrower, threatened. None of the Borrower or any Subsidiary nor, to the knowledge of the Borrower or such Subsidiary, any of their respective directors, officers or employees or any of their respective agents that will act in any capacity in connection with or benefit from the credit facility established hereby, is a Sanctioned Person. (i) either (x) the Borrower shall be the surviving entity with substantially the same assets immediately following the merger, reincorporation or reorganization or (y) the surviving entity or transferee (the "Successor Corporation") shall, immediately following the merger or transfer, as the case may be, (A) have substantially all of the assets of the Borrower immediately preceding the merger or transfer, as the case may be, (B) have duly assumed all of the Borrower's obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents in form and substance satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, (C) be organized in a jurisdiction in the United States and (D) the Borrower shall provide at least 10 days prior written notice of such transaction to the Administrative Agent for distribution to each Lender and, within 5 Business Days after the request therefor, the Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent such documentation and other information required by bank regulatory authorities under applicable "know-your-customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including the Patriot Act relating to the Successor Corporation (and, if requested by the Administrative Agent, the Successor Corporation shall have delivered an opinion of counsel as to the assumption of such obligations); and

(ii) immediately after giving effect to such transaction no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing (determined on a pro forma basis giving effect to such transaction).

SECTION 6.04. Transactions with Affiliates. The Borrower shall not, nor shall it permit any Group Member to, sell, lease or otherwise transfer any property or assets to, or purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any property or assets from, any of its Affiliates involving aggregate payments or consideration for any such transaction or series of related transactions in excess of $75,000,000, except (a) any dividend or other distribution (whether in cash, securities or other property) with respect to any Equity Interests in the Borrower or any Group Member, or any payment (whether in cash, securities or other property), including any sinking fund or similar deposit, on account of the purchase, redemption, retirement, acquisition, cancellation or termination of any such Equity Interests in the Borrower, (b) the Transactions, (c) the Loans and this Agreement, (d) the transactions contemplated by the Master Agreement and any amendment or replacement thereto that, in the reasonable judgment of the Borrower, is not materially less favorable to the Group Members, taken as a whole, than the agreement amended or replaced, (e) transactions that are at prices and on terms and conditions, taken as a whole, that are not less favorable to the Borrower or such Group Member than would be obtained on an arm's-length basis if the parties thereto were unrelated third parties, (f) the payment of reasonable fees to directors of the Borrower or any Subsidiary who are not employees of the Borrower or any Subsidiary, and compensation and employee benefit arrangements (other than, for the avoidance of doubt, those relating to any defined benefit plan or retiree medical plan or other retiree health benefits that are not being provided, or are not in existence, as of the date hereof) paid to, and indemnities provided for the benefit of, directors, officers or employees of the Borrower or its Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business, (g) any issuances of securities or other payments, awards or grants in cash, securities or otherwise to the employees of the Borrower or any Subsidiary pursuant to, or the funding of, employment agreements, stock options and stock ownership plans and similar arrangements approved by the Borrower's board of directors or a committee or designee thereof, (h) Permitted Securitizations and (i) transactions undertaken in order to comply with applicable Law, regulatory capital or liquidity requirements (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any regulatory requirement or condition necessary to effect Split-off or Deregistration) of the Borrower or Synchrony Bank to the extent the Borrower or Synchrony Bank, as the case may be, based on their respective discussions with and/or guidance received from applicable Bank Regulatory Authorities, in good faith reasonably determines in consultation with the Bank Lead Arrangers, that such transaction is necessary to satisfy such Law, regulatory capital or liquidity requirement, which determination shall be evidenced by a written certification from the chief risk officer of the Borrower or GECC.

SECTION 6.05. Amendments or Waivers of Certain Agreements. The Borrower shall not amend, waive or otherwise modify (a) the Bank Term Loan Agreement in a manner that would result in terms more favorable to the lenders party thereto than the terms hereof or (b) the Master Agreement in a manner materially adverse to the Lenders (other than GECC or any of its Affiliates that are Lenders) without the prior written consent of the Required Lenders.

SECTION 6.06. Limitations on Prepayments of the Bank Term Loans. The Borrower shall not repay or prepay the Bank Term Loans on any date (i) in connection with voluntary prepayments, unless on such date the Loans are voluntarily prepaid in an amount at least equal to the product of the aggregate principal amount of Loans outstanding on such date immediately prior to such prepayment multiplied by the aggregate principal amount of Bank Term Loans to be prepaid on such date divided by the aggregate principal amount of Bank Term Loans outstanding on such date immediately prior to such prepayment and (ii) with respect to mandatory prepayments, except as contemplated by and consistent with Section 2.05 of the Bank Term Loan Agreement and Section 2.05 hereof.

SECTION 7.02. Remedies Upon Event of Default. Upon the occurrence, and during the continuance, of any Event of Default other than an Event of Default described in Section 7.01(d) or (e), at the request of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent shall, by notice to the Borrower, take either or both of the following actions, at the same or different times: (i) terminate the Commitments, and thereupon the Commitments shall terminate immediately, and (ii) declare the Loans then outstanding to be due and payable and thereupon the outstanding principal amount of the Loans, together with accrued interest thereon and all fees and other Obligations, shall become due and payable immediately, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby waived by the Borrower; and in case of any event with respect to the Borrower described in Section 7.01(d) or (e), the Commitments shall automatically terminate and the outstanding principal amount of the Loans then outstanding, together with accrued interest thereon and all fees and other Obligations, shall automatically become due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby waived by the Borrower.

SECTION 7.03. Application of Funds. The order and manner in which the Administrative Agent's and the Lenders' rights and remedies are to be exercised shall be determined by the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders in their sole and absolute discretion. Regardless of how a Lender may treat payments for the purpose of its own accounting, for the purpose of computing the Obligations hereunder, payments received during the existence of an Event of Default shall be applied first, to costs and expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent and each Lender (to the extent that each Lender has a right to reimbursement thereof pursuant to the Loan Documents), second, to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on the Loans to and including the date of such application, third, to the payment of the unpaid principal of the Obligations, and fourth, to the payment of all other amounts (including fees) then owing to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders under the Loan Documents, in each case paid pro rata to each Lender in the same proportions that the aggregate Obligations owed to each Lender under the Loan Documents bear to the aggregate Obligations owed under the Loan Documents to all Lenders, without priority or preference among the Lenders.

ARTICLE VIII

THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT

SECTION 8.01. Appointment. Each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably appoints the Administrative Agent as its agent and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms hereof, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

SECTION 8.02. Administrative Agent in its Individual Capacity. The financial institution serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent, and such financial institution and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if it were not the Administrative Agent hereunder.

SECTION 8.03. Exculpatory Provisions. The Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (a) the Administrative Agent shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing, (b) the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby that the Administrative Agent is required to exercise in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.02) and (c) except as expressly set forth herein, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries that is communicated to or obtained by the financial institution serving as Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity. The Administrative Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.02), as the case may be, or in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Administrative Agent shall be deemed not to have knowledge of any Default unless and until written notice thereof is given to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower or a Lender, and the Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or in connection herewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement or any other agreement, instrument or document, or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 8.04. Reliance by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper Person. The Administrative Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to be made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. The Administrative Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrower), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

SECTION 8.05. Delegation of Duties. The Administrative Agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of the preceding paragraphs shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities as Administrative Agent.

SECTION 8.06. Successor Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent may resign upon 30 days prior written notice to the Lenders and the Borrower. Upon any such resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right, with the written consent of the Borrower (so long as no Event of Default exists), to appoint a successor. If no successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders with any requisite consent of the Borrower and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Administrative Agent gives notice of its resignation (or such earlier day as shall be agreed by the Required Lenders) (the "Resignation Effective Date”), then the retiring Administrative Agent may, on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Administrative Agent which shall be a financial institution with an office in New York, New York that has a combined capital and surplus of at least $250,000,000, or an Affiliate of any such financial institution. Whether or not a successor has been appointed, such resignation shall become effective in accordance with such notice on the Resignation Effective Date. Upon the acceptance of its appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder by a successor, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Administrative Agent (other than any rights to indemnity payments owed to the retiring Administrative Agent), and the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder. The fees payable by the Borrower to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After the Administrative Agent’s resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article VIII and Section 9.03 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent, its sub agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Administrative Agent was acting as Administrative Agent.

SECTION 8.08. [Reserved]

SECTION 8.09. Independent Credit Decision. Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

SECTION 8.10. Qualified Intermediary. With respect to payments made by the Borrower to the Administrative Agent for the benefit, or on account of any Lender (or Participant), (i) each Administrative Agent that is a “United States person” as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code will provide an IRS Form W-9, and (ii) each Administrative Agent that is not a “United States person” as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code will provide an IRS Form W-8IMY (a) certifying its status as a qualified intermediary, (b) assuming primary withholding responsibility for purposes of chapters 3 and 4, and (c) either (1) assuming primary IRS Form 1099 reporting and backup withholding responsibility or (2) assuming reporting responsibility as a participating FFI or registered deemed-compliant FFI with respect to accounts that it maintains and that are held by specified U.S. persons as permitted under Treasury Regulations Section 1.6049-4(c)(4)(i) or (c)(4)(ii) in lieu of IRS Form 1099 reporting. No Administrative Agent shall be permitted to make the election described in Section 1471(b)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 9.01. Notices. (a) Except in the case of notices and other communications expressly permitted to be given by telephone, all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing (including by electronic transmission) and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by telecopy or email with PDF attachment (unless any party has previously notified the Administrative Agent and the Borrower that it does not wish to receive notices by email), as follows:

(i) if to the Borrower, to it at 777 Long Ridge Road, Building B, Stamford, Connecticut 06902, Attention: Treasurer;

(ii) if to the Administrative Agent, to it at 201 High Ridge Road, Stamford, CT 06927, Attention: Senior Vice President - Corporate Treasury and Global Funding Operation (Telecopy No. 203-357-4000); and

(iii) if to any other Lender, to it at its address (or telecopy number or email address) set forth in its Administrative Questionnaire.

Notices sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received; notices sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next business day for the recipient). Notices delivered through Electronic Systems, to the extent provided in paragraph (b) below, shall be effective as provided in said paragraph (b).

(b) Notices and other communications to the Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by using Electronic Systems pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to notices pursuant to Article II unless otherwise agreed by the Administrative Agent and the applicable Lender. The Administrative Agent or the Borrower may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

Unless the Administrative Agent otherwise prescribes, (i) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement), and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient, at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i), of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor; provided that, for both clauses (i) and (ii) above, if such notice, email or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next business day for the recipient.

(c) Any party hereto may change its address or telecopy number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower.

(d) Electronic Systems.

(i) The Borrower agrees that the Administrative Agent may, but shall not be obligated to, make Communications available to the Lenders by posting the Communications on Debt Domain, Intralinks, Syndtrak, ClearPar or a substantially similar Electronic System.

(ii) Any Electronic System used by the Administrative Agent is provided "as is" and "as available." The Agent Parties (as defined below) do not warrant the adequacy of such Electronic Systems and expressly disclaim liability for errors or omissions in the Communications. No warranty of any kind, express, implied or statutory, including, without limitation, any warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement of third-party rights or freedom from viruses or other code defects, is made by any Agent Party in connection with the Communications or any Electronic System. In no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the "Agent Parties") have any liability to the Borrower, any Lender or any other Person or entity for damages of any kind, including, without limitation, direct or indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, losses or expenses (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrower's or the Administrative Agent's transmission of communications through an Electronic System. "Communications" means, collectively, any notice, demand, communication, information, document or other material provided by or on behalf of the Borrower pursuant to any Loan Document or the transactions contemplated therein which is distributed by the Administrative Agent or any Lender by means of electronic communications pursuant to this Section, including through an Electronic System.

SECTION 9.02. Waivers; Amendments. (a) No failure or delay by the Administrative Agent or any Lender in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereunder are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. In no event shall any waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by the Borrower therefrom be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the making of a Loan shall not be construed as a waiver of any Default, regardless of whether the Administrative Agent or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of such Default at the time.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Borrower and the Required Lenders or by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent with the consent of the Required Lenders; provided, that no such agreement shall (i) increase the Commitment of any Lender without the written consent of such Lender, (ii) reduce the principal amount of any Loan or reduce the rate of interest thereon, or reduce any fees payable hereunder, without the written consent of each Lender affected thereby, (iii) postpone the scheduled date of payment of the principal amount of any Loan, or any interest thereon, or any fees payable hereunder, or reduce the amount of, waive or excuse any such payment, or postpone the scheduled date of expiration of any Commitment, without the written consent of each Lender affected thereby or (iv) change any of the provisions of this Section, Section 2.11(c), or the definition of "Required Lenders" or any other provision hereof specifying the number or percentage of Lenders required to waive, amend or modify any rights hereunder or make any determination or grant any consent hereunder, without the written consent of each Lender; provided, further, that no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 9.03. Expenses: Indemnity. (a) The Borrower shall pay all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent, including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of a single counsel for the Administrative Agent (and, if reasonably necessary, one regulatory counsel and one local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction and, solely in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest, additional counsel for similarly affected persons), in connection with the preparation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof and (ii) all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, limited to the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of a single counsel for the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, taken as a whole (and, if reasonably necessary, one regulatory counsel and one local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction and, solely in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest, additional counsel for similarly affected persons), in connection with the enforcement of or exercise of remedies in connection with this Agreement.

(b) The Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and each Related Party (other than the Borrower and any of its Subsidiaries) of any of the foregoing Persons (each such Person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, liabilities, costs and related expenses, including the fees, charges and disbursements of a single counsel for all Indemnitees, taken as a whole, and, if reasonably necessary, a single local counsel and a single regulatory counsel to the Indemnitees in each relevant jurisdiction and, solely in the case of an actual or reasonably perceived conflict of interest, of a single additional counsel to the similarly affected Indemnitees, taken as a whole, incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement or the performance by the parties hereto of their respective obligations hereunder, (ii) any Loan or the use of the proceeds therefrom, (iii) the Transactions, (iv) any actual or alleged presence or Release of Hazardous Materials on or from any property currently or formerly owned, leased or operated by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, or any Environmental Liability related in any way to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or (v) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not such claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding is brought by the Borrower, any Lender or any other Person and whether based on tort, contract or any other theory and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto; provided, that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, liabilities, costs or related expenses have resulted from (i) the bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee, (ii) a material breach by such Indemnitee of its express funding obligations under this Agreement or (iii) disputes solely between and among the Indemnitees and not involving any act or omission by the Borrower or its Subsidiaries (excluding, in the case of this clause (iii), actions against the Administrative Agent or any other person in an agent role), in each case, as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. This Section 9.03(b) shall not apply with respect to Taxes.

(c) To the extent that the Borrower fails to pay any amount required to be paid by it to the Administrative Agent under paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section, each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent such Lender's Applicable Percentage (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought) of such unpaid amount; provided that the unreimbursed expense or indemnified loss, claim, damage, liability or related expense, as the case may be, was incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent in its capacity as such.

(d) To the extent permitted by applicable law, no party hereto shall assert, and each such party hereby waives, any claim against any other party, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the Transactions, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof; provided that, nothing in this clause (d) shall relieve the Borrower of any obligation it may have to indemnify an Indemnitee against special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages asserted against such Indemnitee by a third party. No Indemnitee referred to in paragraph (b) above shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

SECTION 9.04. Successors and Assigns.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrower without such consent shall be null and void). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, Participants and the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders and, to the extent contemplated by this Section 9.04, the Bank Lead Arrangers, the Bank Administrative Agent and the Bank Lenders ) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) Assignments of Loans by GECC (other than to its Affiliates who agree in writing to be bound by the Transfer Restrictions as if each reference therein to "GECC" included a reference to such Affiliate) shall be subject to the following restrictions (collectively, the "Transfer Restrictions"):

(i) before the date that is at least 30 days after the Funding Date, GECC shall not broadly market for sale or participation, nor assign or participate all or any of its portion of the Loans or commitments;

(ii) from and after the date that is 30 days after the Funding Date, GECC shall not broadly market for sale or participation, nor assign or participate all or any of its portion of the Loans except to the extent that (1) the Borrower, Synchrony Bank or GECC, as the case may be, based on their respective discussions with and/or guidance received from applicable Bank Regulatory Authorities, in good faith, reasonably determine, after consultation with the Bank Lead Arrangers, that such assignment or participation is necessary to reduce the principal balance of the Loans held by GECC and its Affiliates in order to effect Split-off or Deregistration or comply with any applicable regulatory requirements related to the Loans, (2) the Borrower or GECC, prior to the effectiveness of such assignment or participation, shall have delivered to the Bank Administrative Agent, (A) written notice identifying the applicable assignee and (B) a written certification from the chief risk officer of the Borrower or GECC as to the determination set forth in clause (1), (3) such assignments or participations shall not be permitted to be made to more than five (5) Persons in the aggregate (excluding assignments to Affiliates of GECC) without the consent of the Requisite Bank Arrangers; and (4) GECC shall hold, at all times, a principal balance of Loans not less than the principal balance of Bank Term Loans held by the Bank Lead Arranger (or its applicable Affiliate that is a Bank Lender) holding the greatest amount of the Bank Term Facility as of the applicable date of determination; and

(iii) no assignee of or participant in all or any portion of the Loans shall be permitted to further assign or participate its interest in the Loans without the consent of the Requisite Bank Arrangers (it being understood that each such assignee or participant may assign or participate, as applicable, 100% of its interest to a single assignee or participant without such consent).

Any assignment or participation of Loans made in violation of the Transfer Restrictions shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Agreement, but such assignment or participation shall be void and the Borrower, the Bank Administrative Agent, any Bank Lead Arranger or any Bank Lender shall be entitled to seek specific performance to unwind any such assignment or participation in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity.

(c) Subject to the Transfer Restrictions (other than, for the avoidance of doubt, in the case of any transfer to an Affiliate who agrees in writing to be bound by the Transfer Restrictions as if each reference therein to "GECC" included a reference to such Affiliate), any Lender may assign to one or more assignees (other than any natural person or the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries) all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including the Loans at the time owing to it), subject to the prior written consent of (i) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate or Approved Fund of a Lender, the Administrative Agent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and (ii) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate or Approved Fund of a Lender and any Federal Reserve Bank or other central bank having jurisdiction over such Lender, the Borrower (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, that no such consent shall be required from the Borrower to the extent that the Borrower (x) has failed to respond to a written request for consent within 10 Business Days or (y) if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

And, in the case of clause (c) above, (i) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender or an Affiliate of a Lender or an assignment of an entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment, the amount of the Commitment of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $5,000,000 unless each of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent otherwise consents; provided that no such consent of the Borrower shall be required if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, (ii) each partial assignment of a Lender's rights and obligations under the Term Facility shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under the Term Facility, (iii) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance, together with a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 payable by the assignor or the assignee, (iv) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire and (v) the assignee, if applicable, shall, prior to the first date on which interest or fees are payable hereunder for its account, deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent the documentation described in Section 2.10(e). No GECC Affiliated Lender shall be required to represent or warrant that it is not in possession of material non-public information with respect to the Borrower, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates and/or their respective securities in connection with any assignment permitted by this Section 9.04. Upon acceptance and recording pursuant to paragraph (d) of this Section 9.04, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance, the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.09, 2.10, 2.13, and 9.03). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this paragraph shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with paragraph (e) of this Section 9.04.

(d) The Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as an agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at one of its offices in the City of New York a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amount of the Loans (and interest thereon) owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive, and the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower and any Lender at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(e) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee, the assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in paragraph (c) of this Section 9.04 and any written consent to such assignment required by paragraph (c) of this Section 9.04, the Administrative Agent shall accept such Assignment and Acceptance and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this paragraph.

(f) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (each, a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans owing to it); provided, that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (iii) the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided, that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver described in the first proviso to Section 9.02(b) that affects such Participant. Subject to paragraph (g) of this Section 9.04, the Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 2.09, Section 2.10 and Section 2.13 to the same extent and subject to the same conditions as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (c) of this Section 9.04 at the time of the assignment. Each Lender that sells a participation, acting solely for tax purposes as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, shall maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each Participant in the Loans or other obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"); provided that, except as set forth in the penultimate sentence of this Section 9.04(f), no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any Loans or its other obligations under any Loan Document) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such Loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Lender, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall treat such person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register pursuant to the terms hereof as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. In consideration of this Section 9.04(f), the Participant Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower upon reasonable request and prior notice, provided that the Borrower in good faith determines it is necessary or appropriate to access the Participant Register in order to establish that the Loans and other obligations are in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations. The Borrower shall keep any information obtained from the Participant Register confidential, except to the extent that a taxing authority requires disclosure for the sole purpose of establishing that the Loans and other obligations are in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations.

(g) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.09 or Section 2.10 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant unless the sale of the participation to such Participant is made with the Borrower's prior written consent. A Participant shall not be entitled to the benefits of Section 2.10 unless the Borrower is notified of the participation sold to such Participant and such Participant complies with Section 2.10 as though it were a Lender.

(h) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such Lender, including any such pledge or assignment to a Federal Reserve Bank or any other central bank having jurisdiction over such Lender, and this Section shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided, that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(i) The Loans (including the Notes evidencing such Loans) are registered obligations and the right, title, and interest of the Lenders and their assignees in and to such Loans shall be transferable only upon notation of such transfer in the Register. A Note shall only evidence the Lender's or an assignee's right, title and interest in and to the related Loan, and in no event is any such Note to be considered a bearer instrument or obligation not in "registered form" within the meaning of Section 163(f) of the Code. This Section 9.04 shall be construed so that the Loans are at all times maintained in "registered form" within the meaning of Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and any related regulations (or any successor provisions of the Code or such regulations). For purposes of Treasury Regulation Section 5f.103-1(c) only, the Administrative Agent shall act as the Borrower's agent for purposes of maintaining such notations of transfer in the Register and each applicable Lender shall act as the Borrower's agent for purposes of maintaining notations in the Participant Register. Nothing in this Section 9.04 is intended to alter the U.S. federal income tax withholding and reporting obligations that would exist between any Administrative Agent and any Lender or between any Lender and any Participant in the absence of this Section 9.04 pursuant to Section 8.10 or as otherwise required by Law.

(j) The Bank Lead Arrangers, the Bank Administrative Agent and the Bank Lenders shall be express third party beneficiaries of, and shall be entitled to enforce, the provisions of this Section 9.04 relating to the Transfer Restrictions, and no amendment to such provision shall be made without the prior written consent of the Bank Required Lenders.

SECTION 9.05. Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness; Electronic Execution. (a) This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement constitutes the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 4.01, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Administrative Agent and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof which, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto, and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

(b) Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by telecopy, emailed pdf. or any other electronic means that reproduces an image of the actual executed signature page shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," "delivery," and words of like import in or relating to any document to be signed in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be deemed to include Electronic Signatures, deliveries or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall have the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature, physical delivery thereof or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

SECTION 9.06. Governing Law; Jurisdiction.

(a) This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the law of the State of New York.

(b) Each party hereto hereby (a) submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any state or federal court located in the Borough of Manhattan in the City of New York (or any appellate court therefrom) in connection with any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, and (b) agrees that service of process, summons, notice or document by registered mail addressed to such party at its address specified in Section 9.01 shall be effective service of process against such person for any suit, action or proceeding relating to any such dispute. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding has been brought in an inconvenient forum, and agrees that any final non-appealable judgment in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court shall be conclusive and may be enforced in order jurisdictions by suit upon the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

SECTION 9.07. Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and shall not affect the construction of, or be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 9.08. Confidentiality. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information (as defined below), except that Information may be disclosed (a) (x) in the case of each Lender (other than GE, GECC or any of their respective Affiliates) to its Affiliates and to its and its Affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents, including accountants, legal counsel, professionals and other advisors (collectively, "Lender Representatives") and (y) in the case of each of GE and GECC, to their respective Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, and other agents and representatives, including attorneys, agents, customers, suppliers, contractors, consultants and other representatives of any Person providing financing to it and its Affiliates (collectively, "GECC Representatives" and together with the Lender Representatives, the "Representatives") who need to know such information for the purpose set forth in this Section 9.08 (it being understood that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made are or have been informed of the confidential nature of such Information and instructed to keep such Information confidential in accordance with this Section 9.08), (b) upon the request or demand of any regulatory or self-regulatory authority having jurisdiction over such Lender or its Affiliates (in which case such Lender shall, except with respect to any audit or examination conducted by bank accountants or any governmental bank regulatory authority exercising examination or regulatory authority, (i) promptly notify the Borrower (in advance, to the extent reasonable and practical) of such disclosure to the extent permitted by law, (ii) so furnish only that portion of the information which the applicable Lender reasonably determines (which may be in reliance on the advice of legal counsel) it is legally required to disclose and (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any such information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment), (c) to the extent compelled by legal process in, or reasonably necessary to, the defense of, any legal, judicial, administrative proceeding or otherwise as required by applicable Law or regulations (in which case such Lender shall (i) promptly notify the Borrower (in advance, to the extent reasonable and practical) of such disclosure to the extent permitted by law, (ii) so furnish only that portion of the Information which the applicable Lender reasonably determines (which may be in reliance on the advice of legal counsel) it is legally required to disclose and (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any such information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment), (d) to any other party to this Agreement, (e) to any rating agency when required by it, (f) to the CUSIP Service Bureau or any similar agency in connection with the issuance and monitoring of CUSIP numbers with respect to the Loans, (g) in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or any suit, action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or the enforcement of rights hereunder, (h) subject to an agreement containing provisions substantially the same as those of this Section 9.08, to (A) any assignee of or Participant in, or any prospective assignee of or Participant in, any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement or (B) any actual or prospective counterparty (or its advisors) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to the Borrower and its obligations hereunder, (i) with the consent of the Borrower or (j) to the extent such Information (A) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section 9.08 by the Administrative Agent, any Lender, or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives or (B) becomes available to the Administrative Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Borrower. In addition, the Administrative Agent and each Lender may disclose the existence of this Agreement and the information about this Agreement to market data collectors, similar services providers to the lending industry, and service providers to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders in connection with the administration and management of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents. For the purposes of this Section 9.08, "Information" means all information received from the Borrower relating to the Borrower and its Subsidiaries or its or their business, other than any such information that is available to the Administrative Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis prior to disclosure by the Borrower; provided that, all Information received from the Borrower or any Subsidiary after the Effective Date shall be deemed confidential unless such information is clearly identified at the time of delivery as not confidential. Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section 9.08 shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such Person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such Person would accord to its own confidential information.

SECTION 9.09. Material Non-Public Information. (a) EACH LENDER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT INFORMATION AS DEFINED IN SECTION 9.08 FURNISHED TO IT PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT MAY INCLUDE MATERIAL NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION CONCERNING THE BORROWER AND ITS RELATED PARTIES OR THEIR RESPECTIVE SECURITIES, AND CONFIRMS THAT IT HAS DEVELOPED COMPLIANCE PROCEDURES REGARDING THE USE OF MATERIAL NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION AND THAT IT WILL HANDLE SUCH MATERIAL NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THOSE PROCEDURES AND APPLICABLE LAW, INCLUDING FEDERAL AND STATE SECURITIES LAWS.

(b) ALL INFORMATION, INCLUDING REQUESTS FOR WAIVERS AND AMENDMENTS, FURNISHED BY THE BORROWER OR THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT PURSUANT TO, OR IN THE COURSE OF ADMINISTERING, THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE SYNDICATE-LEVEL INFORMATION, WHICH MAY CONTAIN MATERIAL NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION ABOUT THE BORROWER AND ITS RELATED PARTIES OR ITS SECURITIES. ACCORDINGLY, EACH LENDER REPRESENTS TO THE BORROWER AND THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT THAT IT HAS IDENTIFIED IN ITS ADMINISTRATIVE QUESTIONNAIRE A CREDIT CONTACT WHO MAY RECEIVE INFORMATION THAT MAY CONTAIN MATERIAL NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH ITS COMPLIANCE PROCEDURES AND APPLICABLE LAW.

SECTION 9.10. Confidential Supervisory Information. No provision in this Agreement shall be construed as requiring the Borrower or Synchrony Bank to disclose Confidential Supervisory Information; provided that with respect to Confidential Supervisory Information that is otherwise required to be disclosed hereunder, the Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent and the Lenders in writing if such required disclosure is not being made as a result of this Section 9.10. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 9.10 shall not relieve the Borrower of its obligation to provide any required financial statements, certificates, notices and other information under this Agreement, but in providing such financial statements, certificates, notices and other information the Borrower shall not be obligated to disclose Confidential Supervisory Information otherwise contained therein.

SECTION 9.11. [Reserved].

SECTION 9.12. Survival. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by the Borrower herein and in the certificates or other instruments delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the other parties hereto and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the making of any Loans, regardless of any investigation made by any such other party or on its behalf and notwithstanding that the Administrative Agent or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default or incorrect representation or warranty at the time any credit is extended hereunder, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as the principal of or any accrued interest on any Loan or any fee or any other amount payable under this Agreement is outstanding and unpaid. The provisions of Sections 2.09, 2.10, 2.13 and 9.03 and Article VIII shall survive and remain in full force and effect regardless of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of the Loans or the termination of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

SECTION 9.13. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction.

SECTION 9.14. Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender and each of its Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other obligations at any time owing by such Lender or Affiliate to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower against any of and all the obligations of the Borrower now or hereafter existing under this Agreement held by such Lender, irrespective of whether or not such Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement and although such obligations may be unmaturing. The rights of each Lender under this Section 9.14 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) which such Lender may have.

SECTION 9.15. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLAIM, COUNTERCLAIM, ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING (WHETHER BASED UPON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR ANY OTHER ARRANGEMENT OR OTHER MATTER REFERRED TO HEREIN OR THEREIN.

SECTION 9.16. Patriot Act. Each Lender hereby notifies the Borrower that pursuant to the requirements of the Patriot Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Borrower and its Subsidiaries, which information includes the name and address of such Person and other information that will allow such Lender to identify such Person in accordance with the Patriot Act. The Borrower shall promptly provide such information with respect to the Borrower or its Subsidiaries upon request by any Lender.

SECTION 9.17. Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the interest rate applicable to any Loan, together with all fees, charges and other amounts which are treated as interest on such Loan under applicable law (collectively the "Charges"), shall exceed the maximum lawful rate (the "Maximum Rate") which may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by the Lender holding such Loan in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable in respect of such Loan hereunder, together with all Charges payable in respect thereof, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate and, to the extent lawful, the interest and Charges that would have been payable in respect of such Loan but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section shall be accumulated and the interest and Charges payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such accumulated amount, together with interest thereon at the Federal Funds Effective Rate to the date of repayment, shall have been received by such Lender.

SECTION 9.18. No Fiduciary Duty. The Administrative Agent, each Lender and their Affiliates (collectively, solely for purposes of this paragraph, the “Lenders”), may have economic interests that conflict with those of the Borrower, its stockholders and/or its affiliates. The Borrower agrees that nothing in this Agreement and any related documents or otherwise will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship or fiduciary or other implied duty between any Lender, on the one hand, and the Borrower, its stockholders or its affiliates, on the other. The Borrower acknowledges and agrees that (i) the Transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the exercise of rights and remedies hereunder and thereunder) are arm’s-length commercial transactions between the Lenders, on the one hand, and the Borrower, on the other, and (ii) in connection therewith and with the process leading thereto, (x) no Lender has assumed an advisory or fiduciary responsibility in favor of the Borrower, its stockholders or its affiliates with respect to the Transactions contemplated hereby (or the exercise of rights or remedies with respect thereto) or the process leading thereto (irrespective of whether any Lender has advised, is currently advising or will advise the Borrower, its stockholders or its Affiliates on other matters) or any other obligation to the Borrower except the obligations expressly set forth in this Agreement and any related documents and (y) each Lender is acting solely as principal and not as the agent or fiduciary of the Borrower, its management, stockholders, creditors or any other Person. The Borrower acknowledges and agrees that it has consulted its own legal and financial advisors to the extent it deemed appropriate and that it is responsible for making its own independent judgment with respect to such Transactions and the process leading thereto. The Borrower agrees that it will not claim that any Lender has rendered advisory services of any nature or respect, or owes a fiduciary or similar duty to the Borrower, in connection with such Transaction or the process leading thereto.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Plan shall be administered by the Committee, which shall have the power to interpret the Plan and to adopt such rules and guidelines for implementing the terms of the Plan as it may deem appropriate. The Committee shall have the ability to modify the Plan provisions, to the extent necessary, or delegate such authority, to accommodate any changes in law and regulations in jurisdictions in which Participants will receive Awards.

- (a) Subject to the terms of the Plan and applicable law, the Committee shall have full power and authority to:
  - (i) designate Participants;
  - (ii) determine the type or types of Awards to be granted to each Participant under the Plan;
  - (iii) determine the number of Shares to be covered by (or with respect to which payments, rights, or other matters are to be calculated in connection with) Awards;
  - (iv) determine the terms and conditions of any Award, including any restrictive covenants, clawback or recoupment provisions or requirements that a Participant execute a waiver and release;
  - (v) determine whether, to what extent, and under what circumstances Awards may be settled or exercised in cash, Shares, other securities, or other Awards, or canceled, forfeited, or suspended, and the method or methods by which Awards may be settled, exercised, canceled, forfeited, or suspended;

- (vi) determine whether, to what extent, and under what circumstances cash, Shares, other securities, other Awards, and other amounts payable with respect to an Award under the Plan shall be deferred either automatically or at the election of the holder thereof or of the Committee;
  - (vii) interpret and administer the Plan and any instrument or agreement relating to, or Award made under, the Plan;

To the extent permitted by Section 162(m) of the Code and Section 16 of the Exchange Act, actions of the Committee may be taken by:
- (i) the Chairman of the Committee;
  - (ii) a subcommittee, designated by the Committee;
  - (iii) the Committee but with one or more members abstaining or recusing himself or herself from acting on the matter, so long as two or more members remain to act on the matter.   - (iv) one or more officers or managers of the Company or any Affiliate, or a committee of such officers or managers whose authority is subject to such terms and limitations set forth by the Committee, and only with respect to employees who are not officers or Non-Employee Directors of the Company for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act. SECTION 4. SHARES AVAILABLE FOR AWARDS

- (a) SHARES AVAILABLE. Subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4(b):
- (i) The total number of Shares reserved and available for delivery pursuant to Awards granted under the Plan shall be [—]. If any Shares covered by an Award granted under the Plan, or to which such an Award relates, are forfeited, or if an Award otherwise terminates without the delivery of Shares or of other consideration, or if an Award is settled in cash, then the Shares covered by such Award, or to which such Award relates, or the number of Shares otherwise counted against the aggregate number of Shares available under the Plan with respect to such Award, to the extent of any such forfeiture, termination or cash settlement, shall again be available for granting Awards under the Plan. The full number of Shares available for delivery under the Plan may be delivered pursuant to Incentive Stock Options, except that in calculating the number of Shares that remain available for Awards of Incentive Stock Options, the rules set forth in this Section shall not apply to the extent not permitted by Section 422 of the Code.
- (ii) ACCOUNTING FOR AWARDS. For purposes of this Section 4,
- (A) If an Award (other than a Dividend Equivalent) is denominated in Shares, the number of Shares covered by such Award, or to which such Award relates, shall be counted on the date of grant of such Award against the aggregate number of Shares available for granting Awards under the Plan; provided, however that if an Award is settled or paid by the Company in whole or in part through the delivery of consideration other than Shares, or by delivery of fewer than the full number of Shares that was counted against the Shares available for delivery as provided above, there shall be added back to the number of Shares available for delivery pursuant to Awards the excess of the number of Shares that had been so counted over the number of Shares (if any) actually delivered upon payment or settlement of the Award.
- (B) If an Award is not denominated in Shares, the number of Shares available for delivery shall be reduced by the number of Shares actually delivered upon payment or settlement of the Award.
- (C) Dividend Equivalents denominated in Shares and Awards not denominated, but potentially payable, in Shares shall be counted against the aggregate number of Shares available for granting Awards under the Plan in such amount and at such time as the Dividend Equivalents and such Awards are settled in Shares; provided, however, that Awards that operate in tandem with (whether granted simultaneously with or at a different time from), or that are substituted for, other Awards may only be counted once against the aggregate number of Shares available, and the Committee shall adopt procedures, as it deems appropriate, in order to avoid double counting. Any Shares that are delivered by the Company, and any Awards that are granted by, or become obligations of, the Company through the assumption by the Company or an Affiliate of, or in substitution for, outstanding awards previously granted by an acquired company, shall not be counted against the Shares available for granting Awards under this Plan.

(D) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any Shares related to Awards which terminate by expiration, forfeiture, cancellation, or otherwise without the issuance of such Shares, are settled in cash in lieu of Shares, or are exchanged with the Committee's permission, prior to the issuance of Shares, for Awards not involving Shares, shall be available again for grant under this Plan. Shares subject to an Award under the Plan may not again be made available for issuance under the Plan if such Shares are: (x) Shares that were subject to an Option or a stock-settled Stock Appreciation Right and were not issued upon the net settlement or net exercise of such Option or Stock Appreciation Right, (y) Shares delivered to or withheld by the Company to pay the exercise price or the withholding taxes under Options or Stock Appreciation Rights, or (z) Shares repurchased on the open market with the proceeds of an Option exercise. Shares delivered to or withheld by the Company to pay the withholding taxes for Awards other than Options and Stock Appreciation Rights shall again be available for issuance under this Plan.

(iii) SOURCES OF SHARES DELIVERABLE UNDER AWARDS. Any Shares delivered pursuant to an Award may consist, in whole or in part, of authorized and unissued Shares or of treasury Shares.

(b) ADJUSTMENTS.

(i) In the event that the Committee shall determine that any dividend or other distribution (whether in the form of cash, Shares, or other securities), recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, reorganization, merger, consolidation, split-up, spin-off, combination, repurchase, or exchange of Shares or other securities of the Company, issuance of warrants or other rights to purchase Shares or other securities of the Company, or other similar corporate transaction or event constitutes an equity restructuring transaction, as that term is defined in the Accounting Standards Codification 718 (or any successor accounting standard) or otherwise affects the Shares, then the Committee shall adjust the following in a manner that is determined by the Committee to be appropriate in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended to be made available under the Plan:

(A) the number and type of Shares or other securities which thereafter may be made the subject of Awards;

- (B) the number and type of Shares or other securities subject to outstanding Awards;
  - (C) the number and type of Shares or other securities specified as the annual per-participant limitation under Section 6(g)(v) and (vi);
  - (D) the grant, purchase, or exercise price with respect to any Award, or, if deemed appropriate, make provision for a cash payment to the holder of an outstanding Award; and
  - (E) other value determinations applicable to outstanding awards.

Provided, however, in each case, that with respect to Awards of Incentive Stock Options no such adjustment shall be authorized to the extent that such authority would cause the Plan to violate Sections 422(b)(1) of the Code or any successor provision thereto and, with respect to Awards of Stock Appreciation Rights and Options, such adjustment shall be in accordance with Section 409A of the Code; and provided further, however, that the number of Shares subject to any Award denominated in Shares shall always be a whole number.

- (ii) ADJUSTMENTS OF AWARDS UPON CERTAIN ACQUISITIONS. In the event the Company or any Affiliate shall assume outstanding employee awards or the right or obligation to make future such awards in connection with the acquisition of another business or another corporation or business entity, the Committee may make such adjustments, not inconsistent with the terms of the Plan, in the terms of Awards as it shall deem appropriate in order to achieve reasonable comparability or other equitable relationship between the assumed awards and the Awards granted under the Plan as so adjusted.
- (iii) ADJUSTMENTS OF AWARDS UPON THE OCCURRENCE OF CERTAIN UNUSUAL OR NONRECURRING EVENTS. The Committee shall be authorized to make adjustments in the terms and conditions of, and the criteria included in, Awards in recognition of unusual or nonrecurring events affecting the Company, any Affiliate, or the financial statements of the Company or any Affiliate, or of changes in applicable laws, regulations, or accounting principles, whenever the Committee determines that such adjustments are appropriate in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits to be made available under the Plan.

SECTION 5. ELIGIBILITY

Any officer, employee or consultant of the Company or of any Affiliate and any Non-Employee Director shall be eligible to be designated a Participant.

SECTION 6. AWARDS

- (a) OPTIONS. The Committee is hereby authorized to grant Options to Participants with the following terms and conditions and with such additional terms and conditions, in either case not inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan, as the Committee shall determine:
- (i) EXERCISE PRICE. The purchase price per Share purchasable under an Option shall be determined by the Committee; provided, however, and except as provided in Section 4(b), that such purchase price shall not be less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date of grant of such Option.
  - (ii) OPTION TERM. The term of each Option shall not exceed ten (10) years from the date of grant.
  - (iii) TIME AND METHOD OF EXERCISE. The Committee shall establish in the applicable Award Agreement the time or times at which an Option may be exercised in whole or in part, and the method or methods by which, and the form or forms, including, without limitation, cash, Shares, or other Awards, or any combination thereof, having a Fair Market Value on the exercise date equal to the relevant exercise price, in which, payment of the exercise price with respect thereto may be made or deemed to have been made.
  - (iv) INCENTIVE STOCK OPTIONS. The terms of any Incentive Stock Option granted under the Plan shall be designed to comply in all respects with the provisions of Sections 422 of the Code, or any successor provision thereto, and any regulations promulgated thereunder. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 6(a) to the contrary, Options designated as Incentive Stock Options shall not be eligible for treatment under the Code as Incentive Stock Options (and will be deemed to be Non-Qualified Stock Options) to the extent that either (1) the aggregate Fair Market Value of Shares (determined as of the time of grant) with respect to which such Options are exercisable for the first time by the Participant during any calendar year (under all plans of the Company and any subsidiary) exceeds $100,000, taking Options into account in the order in which they were granted, or (2) such Options otherwise remain exercisable but are not exercised within three (3) months of termination of employment (or such other period of time provided in Section 422 of the Code).

- (b) STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS. The Committee is hereby authorized to grant Stock Appreciation Rights to Participants. Subject to the terms of the Plan and any applicable Award Agreement, a Stock Appreciation Right granted under the Plan shall confer on the holder thereof a right to receive, upon exercise thereof, the excess of (i) the Fair Market Value of one Share on the date of exercise over (ii) the grant price of the right as specified by the Committee.
- (i) GRANT PRICE. Shall be determined by the Committee, provided, however, and except as provided in Section 4(b), that such price shall not be less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of one Share on the date of grant of the Stock Appreciation Right, except that if a Stock Appreciation Right is at any time granted in tandem to an Option, the grant price of the Stock Appreciation Right shall not be less than the exercise price of such Option.
  - (ii) TERM. The term of each Stock Appreciation Right shall not exceed ten (10) years from the date of grant.
  - (iii) TIME AND METHOD OF EXERCISE. The Committee shall establish in the applicable Award Agreement the time or times at which a Stock Appreciation Right may be exercised in whole or in part.
- (c) RESTRICTED STOCK AND RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS.
- (i) ISSUANCE. The Committee is hereby authorized to grant Awards of Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units to Participants. Subject to the terms of the Plan or the applicable Award Agreement, a Restricted Stock Unit may be payable in Shares or cash.
  - (ii) RESTRICTIONS. Shares of Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units shall be subject to such restrictions as the Committee may establish in the applicable Award Agreement (including, without limitation, any limitation on the right to vote a Share of Restricted Stock or the right to receive any dividend or other right), which restrictions may lapse separately or in combination at such time or times, in such installments or otherwise, as the Committee may deem appropriate. Unrestricted Shares, evidenced in such manner as the Committee shall deem appropriate, shall be delivered to the holder of Restricted Stock promptly after such restrictions have lapsed.
  - (iii) REGISTRATION. Any Restricted Stock or Restricted Stock Units granted under the Plan may be evidenced in such manner as the Committee may deem appropriate, including, without limitation, book-entry registration or issuance of a stock certificate or certificates. In the event any stock certificate is issued in respect of Shares of Restricted Stock granted under the Plan, such certificate shall be registered in the name of the Participant and shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the terms, conditions, and restrictions applicable to such Restricted Stock.
  - (iv) FORFEITURE. Upon termination of employment during the applicable restriction period, except as determined otherwise by the Committee, all Shares of Restricted Stock and all Restricted Stock Units still, in either case, subject to restriction shall be forfeited and reacquired by the Company.

- (d) PERFORMANCE AWARDS. The Committee is hereby authorized to grant Performance Awards to Participants. Performance Awards include arrangements under which the grant, issuance, retention, vesting and/or transferability of any Award is subject to such Performance Criteria and such additional conditions or terms as the Committee may designate. Subject to the terms of the Plan and any applicable Award Agreement, a Performance Award granted under the Plan:
- (i) may be denominated or payable in cash, Shares (including, without limitation, Restricted Stock), other securities, or other Awards; and
  - (ii) shall confer on the holder thereof rights valued as determined by the Committee and payable to, or exercisable by, the holder of the Performance Award, in whole or in part, upon the achievement of such Performance Criteria during such Performance Periods as the Committee shall establish.
- (e) DIVIDEND EQUIVALENTS. The Committee is hereby authorized to grant to Participants Awards under which the holders thereof shall be entitled to receive payments equivalent to dividends or interest with respect to a number of Shares determined by the Committee, and the Committee may provide that such amounts (if any) shall be deemed to have been reinvested in additional Shares or otherwise reinvested. Subject to the terms of the Plan and any applicable Award Agreement, such Awards may have such terms and conditions as the Committee shall determine; provided, however, any Dividend Equivalents with respect to Awards subject to performance-based vesting conditions shall be subject to the same restrictions as the underlying Awards.
- (f) OTHER STOCK-BASED AWARDS. The Committee is hereby authorized to grant to Participants such other Awards that are denominated or payable in, valued in whole or in part by reference to, or otherwise based on or related to, Shares (including, without limitation, securities convertible into Shares), as are deemed by the Committee to be consistent with the purposes of the Plan, provided, however, that such grants must comply with applicable law. Subject to the terms of the Plan and any applicable Award Agreement, the Committee shall determine the terms and conditions of such Awards. Shares or other securities delivered pursuant to a purchase right granted under this Section 6(f) shall be purchased for such consideration, which may be paid by such method or methods and in such form or forms, including, without limitation, cash, Shares, other securities, or other Awards, or any combination thereof, as the Committee shall determine, the value of which consideration, as established by the Committee, and except as provided in Section 4(b), shall not be less than the Fair Market Value of such Shares or other securities as of the date such purchase right is granted.

(g) GENERAL.

- (i) NO CASH CONSIDERATION FOR AWARDS. Awards shall be granted for no cash consideration or for such minimal cash consideration as may be required by applicable law.
- (ii) AWARDS MAY BE GRANTED SEPARATELY OR TOGETHER. Awards may, in the discretion of the Committee, be granted either alone or in addition to, in tandem with, or in substitution for any other Award or any award granted under any other plan of the Company or any Affiliate. Awards granted in addition to or in tandem with other Awards, or in addition to or in tandem with awards granted under any other plan of the Company or any Affiliate, may be granted either at the same time as or at a different time from the grant of such other Awards or awards.
- (iii) FORMS OF PAYMENT UNDER AWARDS. Subject to the terms of the Plan and of any applicable Award Agreement, payments or transfers to be made by the Company or an Affiliate upon the grant, exercise, or payment of an Award may be made in such form or forms as the Committee shall determine, including, without limitation, cash, Shares, rights in or to Shares issuable under the Award or other Awards, other securities, or other Awards, or any combination thereof, and may be made in a single payment or transfer, in installments, or on a deferred basis, in each case in accordance with rules and procedures established by the Committee. Such rules and procedures may include, without limitation, provisions for the payment or crediting of reasonable interest on installment or deferred payments or the grant or crediting of Dividend Equivalents in respect of installment or deferred payments.
- (iv) LIMITS ON TRANSFER OF AWARDS. Except as provided by the Committee, no Award and no right under any such Award, shall be assignable, alienable, saleable, or transferable by a Participant otherwise than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution; provided, however, that, if so determined by the Committee, a Participant may, in the manner established by the Committee, designate a beneficiary or beneficiaries to exercise the rights of the Participant with respect to any Award upon the death of the Participant. Each Award, and each right under any Award, shall be exercisable, during the Participant's lifetime, only by the Participant or, if permissible under applicable law, by the Participant's guardian or legal representative. No Award and no right under any such Award, may be pledged, alienated, attached, or otherwise encumbered, and any purported pledge, alienation, attachment, or encumbrance thereof shall be void and unenforceable against the Company or any Affiliate.

- (v) PER-PERSON LIMITATION ON OPTIONS AND SARs. The number of Shares with respect to which Options and Stock Appreciation Rights may be granted under the Plan during any fiscal year to an individual Participant shall not exceed 3,000,000 Shares, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4(b).
  - (vi) PER-PERSON LIMITATION ON CERTAIN AWARDS. Other than Options and Stock Appreciation Rights, (A) the aggregate number of Shares with respect to which Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units, Performance Awards and Other Stock-Based Awards may be granted under the Plan during any fiscal year to an individual Participant shall not exceed 1,000,000 Shares, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4(b) and (B) with respect to Awards denominated in cash, the maximum amount that may be earned during any fiscal year by an individual Participant shall not exceed $20,000,000. The aggregate grant date fair value of the Awards that may be granted to any Non-Employee Director in any fiscal year shall not exceed $500,000.
  - (vii) CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS UPON SECURITIES SUBJECT TO AWARDS. The Committee may provide that the Shares issued upon exercise of an Option or Stock Appreciation Right or otherwise subject to or issued under an Award shall be subject to such further agreements, restrictions, conditions or limitations as the Committee in its discretion may specify prior to the exercise of such Option or Stock Appreciation Right or the grant, vesting or settlement of such Award, including without limitation, conditions on vesting or transferability and forfeiture or repurchase provisions or provisions on payment of taxes arising in connection with an Award. Without limiting the foregoing, such restrictions may address the timing and manner of any re-sales by the Participant or other subsequent transfers by the Participant of any Shares issued under an Award, including without limitation: (A) restrictions under an insider trading policy or pursuant to applicable law, (B) restrictions designed to delay and/or coordinate the timing and manner of sales by Participant and holders of other Company equity compensation arrangements, (C) restrictions as to the use of a specified brokerage firm for such re-sales or other transfers and (D) provisions requiring Shares to be sold on the open market or to the Company in order to satisfy tax withholding or other obligations.
  - (viii) SHARE CERTIFICATES. All Shares or other securities delivered under the Plan pursuant to any Award or the exercise thereof shall be subject to such stop transfer orders and other restrictions as the Committee may deem advisable under the Plan or the rules, regulations, and other requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission, any stock exchange upon which such Shares or other securities are then listed, and any applicable Federal, state, or local securities laws, and the Committee may cause a legend or legends to be put on any such certificates to make appropriate reference to such restrictions.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

Except to the extent prohibited by applicable law and unless otherwise expressly provided in an Award Agreement or in the Plan:

- (a) AMENDMENTS TO THE PLAN. The Board of Directors of the Company may amend, alter, suspend, discontinue, or terminate the Plan, in whole or in part; provided, however, that without the prior approval of the Company's shareowners, no material amendment shall be made if shareowner approval is required by law, regulation, or stock exchange, and; provided, further, that, notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan or any Award Agreement, no such amendment, alteration, suspension, discontinuation, or termination shall be made without the approval of the shareowners of the Company that would:
  - (i) increase the total number of Shares available for Awards under the Plan, except as provided in Section 4 hereof; or
  - (ii) except as provided in Section 4(b), permit Options, Stock Appreciation Rights, or other Stock-Based Awards encompassing rights to purchase Shares to be re-priced, replaced, or re-granted through cancellation, or by lowering the Option Price of a previously granted Option or the grant price of a previously granted Stock Appreciation Right, or the purchase price of a previously granted Other Stock-Based Award.
- (b) AMENDMENTS TO AWARDS. The Committee may waive any conditions or rights under, amend any terms of, or amend, alter, suspend, discontinue, or terminate, any Awards theretofore granted, prospectively or retroactively. No such amendment or alteration shall be made which would impair the rights of any Participant, without such Participant's consent, under any Award theretofore granted, provided that no such consent shall be required with respect to any amendment or alteration if the Committee determines in its sole discretion that such amendment or alteration either (i) is required or advisable in order for the Company, the Plan or the Award to satisfy or conform to any law or regulation or to meet the requirements of any accounting standard, or (ii) is not reasonably likely to significantly diminish the benefits provided under such Award.

SECTION 8. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- (a) NO RIGHTS TO AWARDS. No Participant or other Person shall have any claim to be granted any Award under the Plan, or, having been selected to receive an Award under this Plan, to be selected to receive a future Award, and further there is no obligation for uniformity of treatment of employees or consultants of the Company or any Affiliates, Non-Employee Directors, Participants, or holders or beneficiaries of Awards under the Plan. The terms and conditions of Awards need not be the same with respect to each recipient.

- (b) WITHHOLDING. The Company or any Affiliate shall be authorized to withhold from any Award granted or any payment due or transfer made under any Award or under the Plan the amount (in cash, Shares, other securities, or other Awards) of withholding taxes due in respect of an Award, its exercise, or any payment or transfer under such Award or under the Plan and to take such other action as may be necessary in the opinion of the Company or Affiliate to satisfy statutory withholding obligations for the payment of such taxes.
  - (c) NO LIMIT ON OTHER COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTS. Nothing contained in the Plan shall prevent the Company or any Affiliate from adopting or continuing in effect other or additional compensation arrangements, and such arrangements may be either generally applicable or applicable only in specific cases.
  - (d) NO RIGHT TO EMPLOYMENT. The grant of an Award shall not constitute an employment contract nor be construed as giving a Participant the right to be retained in the employ of the Company or any Affiliate. Further, the Company or an Affiliate may at any time dismiss a Participant from employment, free from any liability, or any claim under the Plan, unless otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or in any Award Agreement.
  - (e) GOVERNING LAW. The validity, construction, and effect of the Plan and any rules and regulations relating to the Plan shall be determined in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware and applicable Federal law without regard to conflict of law.
  - (f) SEVERABILITY. If any provision of the Plan or any Award is or becomes or is deemed to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, or as to any Person or Award, or would disqualify the Plan or any Award under any law deemed applicable by the Committee, such provision shall be construed or deemed amended to conform to applicable laws, or if it cannot be so construed or deemed amended without, in the determination of the Committee, materially altering the intent of the Plan or the Award, such provision shall be stricken as to such jurisdiction, Person, or Award, and the remainder of the Plan and any such Award shall remain in full force and effect.
  - (g) NO TRUST OR FUND CREATED. Neither the Plan nor any Award shall create or be construed to create a trust or separate fund of any kind or a fiduciary relationship between the Company or any Affiliate and a Participant or any other Person. To the extent that any Person acquires a right to receive payments from the Company or any Affiliate pursuant to an Award, such right shall be no greater than the right of any unsecured general creditor of the Company or any Affiliate.

- (h) NO FRACTIONAL SHARES. No fractional Shares shall be issued or delivered pursuant to the Plan or any Award, and the Committee shall determine whether cash, or other securities shall be paid or transferred in lieu of any fractional Shares, or whether such fractional Shares or any rights thereto shall be canceled, terminated, or otherwise eliminated.
- (i) HEADINGS. Headings are given to the Sections and subsections of the Plan solely as a convenience to facilitate reference. Such headings shall not be deemed in any way material or relevant to the construction or interpretation of the Plan or any provision thereof.
- (j) INDEMNIFICATION. Subject to requirements of Delaware State law, each individual who is or shall have been a member of the Board, or a Committee appointed by the Board, or an officer of the Company to whom authority was delegated in accordance with Section 3, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company against and from any loss, cost, liability, or expense that may be imposed upon or reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit, or proceeding to which he or she may be a party or in which he or she may be involved by reason of any action taken or failure to act under this Plan and against and from any and all amounts paid by him or her in settlement thereof, with the Company's approval, or paid by him or her in satisfaction of any judgment in any such action, suit, or proceeding against him or her, provided he or she shall give the Company an opportunity, at its own expense, to handle and defend the same before he or she undertakes to handle and defend it on his/her own behalf, unless such loss, cost, liability, or expense is a result of his/her own willful misconduct or except as expressly provided by statute. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which such individuals may be entitled under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, as a matter of law, or otherwise, or any power that the Company may have to indemnify them or hold them harmless.
- (k) COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 409A OF THE CODE. Except to the extent specifically provided otherwise by the Committee, Awards under the Plan are intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Code (and the Treasury Department guidance and regulations issued thereunder) so as to avoid the imposition of any additional taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code. If the Committee determines that an Award, Award Agreement, payment, distribution, deferral election, transaction or any other action or arrangement contemplated by the provisions of the Plan would, if undertaken, cause a Participant to become subject to any additional taxes or other penalties under Section 409A of the Code, then unless the Committee specifically provides otherwise, such Award, Award Agreement, payment, distribution, deferral election, transaction or other action or arrangement shall not be given effect to the extent it causes such result and the related provisions of the Plan and/or Award Agreement will be deemed modified, or, if necessary, suspended in order to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code to the extent determined appropriate by the Committee, in each case without the consent of or notice to the Participant.

- (l) NO REPRESENTATIONS OR COVENANTS WITH RESPECT TO TAX QUALIFICATION. Although the Company may endeavor to (i) qualify an Award for favorable U.S. or foreign tax treatment (e.g., incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Code) or (ii) avoid adverse tax treatment (e.g., under Section 409A of the Code), the Company makes no representation to that effect and expressly disavows any covenant to maintain favorable or avoid unfavorable tax treatment. The Company shall be unconstrained in its corporate activities without regard to the potential negative tax impact on holders of Awards under the Plan.
  - (m) AWARDS TO NON-U.S. EMPLOYEES. The Committee shall have the power and authority to determine which Affiliates shall be covered by this Plan and which employees outside the U.S. shall be eligible to participate in the Plan. The Committee may adopt, amend or rescind rules, procedures or sub-plans relating to the operation and administration of the Plan to accommodate the specific requirements of local laws, procedures, and practices. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Committee is specifically authorized to adopt rules, procedures and sub-plans with provisions that limit or modify rights on death, disability or retirement or on termination of employment; available methods of exercise or settlement of an award; payment of income, social insurance contributions and payroll taxes; the withholding procedures and handling of any stock certificates or other indicia of ownership which vary with local requirements. The Committee may also adopt rules, procedures or sub-plans applicable to particular Affiliates or locations.
  - (n) COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS. The granting of Awards and the issuance of Shares under the Plan shall be subject to all applicable laws, rules, and regulations, and to such approvals by any governmental agencies or stock exchanges on which the Company is listed as may be required. The Company shall have no obligation to issue or deliver evidence of title for Shares issued under the Plan prior to:
    - (i) obtaining any approvals from governmental agencies that the Company determines are necessary or advisable; and
    - (ii) completion of any registration or other qualification of the Shares under any applicable national or foreign law or ruling of any governmental body that the Company determines to be necessary or advisable or at a time when any such registration or qualification is not current, has been suspended or otherwise has ceased to be effective.

The inability or impracticability of the Company to obtain or maintain authority from any regulatory body having jurisdiction, which authority is deemed by the Company's counsel to be necessary to the lawful issuance and sale of any Shares hereunder shall relieve the Company of any liability in respect of the failure to issue or sell such Shares as to which such requisite authority shall not have been obtained.

- (o) AWARDS SUBJECT TO CLAWBACK. The Awards granted under this Plan and any cash payment or Shares delivered pursuant to an Award are subject to forfeiture, recovery by the Company or other action pursuant to the applicable Award Agreement or any clawback or recoupment policy which the Company may adopt from time to time, including without limitation any such policy which the Company may be required to adopt under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and implementing rules and regulations thereunder, or as otherwise required by law.

SECTION 9. EFFECTIVE DATE; SHAREHOLDER APPROVAL

The Plan shall be effective as of the date of its approval by the Company's sole shareholder prior to the date the Company becomes a publicly held corporation.

SECTION 10. TERM OF THE PLAN

No Award shall be granted under the Plan on or after the date that is ten years from the date of the adoption of the Plan or the date such Plan is approved by the Company's sole shareholder, whichever is earlier. However, unless otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or in an applicable Award Agreement, any Award theretofore granted may extend beyond such date, and the authority of the Committee to amend, alter, adjust, suspend, discontinue, or terminate any such Award, or to waive any conditions or rights under any such Award, and the authority of the Board of Directors of the Company to amend the Plan, shall extend beyond such date.

1. Award of RSUs and Non-Qualified Stock Options. Pursuant to the Synchrony Financial 2014 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the “Plan”), Synchrony Financial (“Synchrony”) has awarded (the “Award”) to the employee Restricted Stock Units (“RSUs”) and Non-Qualified Stock Options (“Options”), subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein (the “Terms and Conditions”) and in the Plan.

2. Definitions and Coordination with the Plan. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to them in Exhibit A hereto or, if not so assigned in Exhibit A, the meaning assigned in the Plan. In the event of any inconsistency between the Plan and the Terms and Conditions, the terms in the Plan shall control unless the Terms and Conditions specifically provides otherwise. References herein to employment with Synchrony shall include employment with any Affiliate of Synchrony.

3. Information on the Administrator Website. The following information applicable to the Award is set forth on your account on the website maintained by the administrator of the Plan (the “Administrator”) in connection with the Plan:

- (a) The number of RSUs;
- (b) The number of Shares subject to the Options;
- (c) The exercise price per Share applicable to the Options; and
- (d) The effective date of the Award (the “Award Date”).

4. Vesting.

(a) General. Subject to the Terms and Conditions, and except as otherwise set forth below in this Section 4, the RSUs and Options will vest, and the Period of Restriction applicable to the RSUs will end, upon the fourth (4th) anniversary of the Award Date (the “Vesting Date”) provided that the employee has remained continuously employed by Synchrony through such fourth (4th) anniversary. No Option may be exercised after the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Award Date (the “Expiration Date”).

(b) RSUs—Effect of Termination of Employment. If the employee's employment with Synchrony ends for any reason before the end of the Period of Restriction, the employee shall immediately forfeit all RSUs (and, as a result, shall forfeit all Shares and cash that may otherwise have been delivered or paid pursuant to such RSUs), subject to the following:

(i) Involuntary Termination after First Anniversary of Award Date. If the employee's employment is terminated by Synchrony without Cause on or after the first (1st) anniversary of the Award Date, the number of Shares subject to the RSUs shall be prorated based on the number of full months the employee was employed by Synchrony after the Award Date divided by the number of months between the Award Date and the Vesting Date. The portion of the Award not attributable to the period of his or her employment with Synchrony will be immediately forfeited, and, with respect to the portion attributable to his or her period of employment with Synchrony, the Period of Restriction shall end upon the Vesting Date.

(ii) Retirement on or after the Second Anniversary of the Award Date. If the employee's employment with Synchrony terminates (other than for Cause) after both (A) the second (2nd) anniversary of the Award Date and (B) the employee is eligible for Retirement, the number of Shares subject to the RSUs shall be prorated based on the number of full months the employee was employed by Synchrony after the Award Date divided by the number of months between the Award Date and the Vesting Date. The portion of the Award not attributable to the period of his or her employment with Synchrony will be immediately forfeited, and, with respect to the portion attributable to his or her period of employment with Synchrony, the Period of Restriction shall end upon the Vesting Date.

(iii) Disability or Death. If the employee's employment with Synchrony terminates due to Disability or death, the Period of Restriction for the RSUs shall end immediately. The amount payable (or Shares deliverable) for RSUs shall not be adjusted for any delay caused by time needed to validate the employee's status as Disabled or dead, or to authenticate a beneficiary.

(iv) Termination following Change in Control. If, in the event of a Change in Control, Synchrony (or the successor to Synchrony) assumes the RSUs or replaces the RSUs with an award of substantially equivalent value, as determined by the Committee, and during the thirty (30) month period after such Change in Control, the employee's employment is terminated by Synchrony without Cause or the employee terminates his or her employment for Good Reason, the Period of Restriction for the RSUs shall end immediately upon such termination of employment and the RSUs shall be fully vested, non-forfeitable and payable.

(c) Options—Effect of Termination of Employment. Following the employee's termination of employment with Synchrony, the Option shall vest and shall be exercisable only as follows:

(i) Termination for Cause. If the employee's employment is terminated for Cause, the Option shall immediately be forfeited and the employee shall have no right to exercise such Option, whether or not then vested.

(ii) Voluntary Resignation. If employee terminates his or her employment, he or she shall have the right to exercise the Option, to the extent vested as of the date of termination of employment, during the period ending on the earlier of (A) the three (3) month anniversary following such termination of employment or (B) the Expiration Date.

(iii) Involuntary Termination after First Anniversary of Award Date. If the employee's employment is terminated by Synchrony without Cause on or after the first (1st) anniversary of the Award Date, the number of Shares subject to the Option shall be prorated based on the number of full months the employee was employed by Synchrony after the Award Date divided by the number of months between the Award Date and the Vesting Date. The portion of the Award not attributable to his or her employment with Synchrony will be immediately forfeited and the portion attributable to his or her period of employment with Synchrony will vest and be exercisable upon the Vesting Date. Following the Vesting Date, the employee shall have the right to exercise the prorated Option until the earlier of (A) five (5) years from the date of termination of employment or (B) the Expiration Date.

(iv) Retirement on or after the Second Anniversary of the Award Date. If the employee's employment with Synchrony terminates (other than for Cause) after both (A) the second (2nd) anniversary of the Award Date and (B) the employee is eligible for Retirement, the number of Shares subject to the Option shall be prorated based on the number of full months the employee was employed by Synchrony after the Award Date divided by the number of months between the Award Date and the Vesting Date. The portion of the Award not attributable to his or her employment with Synchrony will be immediately forfeited and the portion attributable to his or her period of employment with Synchrony will vest and be exercisable upon the Vesting Date. Following the Vesting Date, the employee shall have the right to exercise the prorated Option until the earlier of (y) five (5) years from the date of termination of employment or (z) the Expiration Date.

(v) Disability or Death. If the employee's employment with Synchrony terminates (other than for Cause) due to Disability or death, the Option will vest immediately and the employee (or, in the case of death, the executor or administrator of the employee's estate or the person or persons to whom the employee shall have transferred such right by will or by the laws of descent and distribution) shall have the right to exercise the Option as to all unexercised Shares until the Expiration Date.

(vi) Termination following Change in Control. If, in the event of a Change in Control, Synchrony (or the successor to Synchrony) assumes the Option or replaces it with an award of substantially equivalent value, as determined by the Committee, and during the thirty (30) month period after such Change in Control, the employee's employment is terminated by Synchrony without Cause or the employee terminates his or her employment for Good Reason, the Option will vest immediately upon such termination of employment and the employee shall have the right to exercise the Option as to all unexercised Shares until the earlier of (A) five (5) years from the date of the termination of employment and (B) the Expiration Date.

(d) Change in Control. If, in the event of a Change in Control, Synchrony (or a successor to Synchrony) fails to:

- (i) Assume or replace the RSUs with an award of substantially equivalent value, as determined by the Committee, the Period of Restriction shall end immediately upon such Change in Control and the RSUs shall be fully vested, non-forfeitable and payable, and the Shares underlying the RSUs shall be treated in the same manner as other Shares in the Change in Control; or
- (ii) Assume or replace the Option with an award of substantially equivalent value, as determined by the Committee, the Option, to the extent not then exercised, shall be cancelled upon the consummation of the Change in Control and the employee shall be entitled to a cash payment equal to the product of (A) the excess, if any, of the Fair Market Value on the date of such cancellation less the exercise price of the Option, and (B) the number of unexercised Shares subject to the Option.

(e) Waiver and Release. The right of an employee or his or her estate to vest in any portion of an Award, to receive a payment with respect to an RSU, or to exercise an Option in any circumstance other than in connection with his or her continuous employment through the Vesting Date shall be subject to the employee or his or her estate timely executing within forty-five (45) days following the employee's termination of employment a waiver and release in a form provided by Synchrony, and not revoking such release.

5. Settlement of RSUs. Upon the end of the Period of Restriction, Synchrony will issue to the employee the number of Shares for which the applicable Period of Restriction has ended, less the number of Shares needed to satisfy required tax withholding. Except as otherwise provided in Section 4 or 14, or if the employee elects to defer all or a portion of the RSUs using the deferral election form provided by Synchrony, such Shares shall be delivered within thirty (30) days after the Period of Restriction ends. Shares may be issued in the form of a stock certificate or a notification to the employee that the Shares are held in a book-entry account on the employee's behalf. The employee shall have no rights as a shareholder of Synchrony unless and until a certificate for the Shares has been issued to the employee or the employee has been notified that the Shares are held in a book-entry account on the employee's behalf. Synchrony shall, within thirty (30) days after the Period of Restriction ends, make a cash payment to the employee for any fractional Shares to which the employee is entitled, based on the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date the Period of Restriction lapsed.

6. Exercise of Option.

(a) Subject to the Terms and Conditions set forth herein, the Option may be exercised by contacting the Administrator directly via the Administrator Website. During the life of the employee, an Option shall be exercisable only by the employee. If the Option is being exercised pursuant to Section 4(c)(v) by any person or persons other than the employee, appropriate proof of the right of such person or persons to exercise the Option, as determined by the Committee, must be provided. No Option may be exercised after the Expiration Date.

(b) The exercise price for the number of Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised shall be paid in full at the time of exercise (i) in cash, (ii) by withholding Shares ("net share settlement") or (iii) by any other method authorized by Synchrony at the time of exercise. Except as provided in Section 4(c), the Option may not be exercised unless the employee is employed by Synchrony at all times from the Award Date through the date exercised. Shares may be issued in the form of a stock certificate or a notification to the employee that the Shares are held in a book-entry account on the employee's behalf. The employee shall have no rights as a shareholder of Synchrony unless and until a certificate for the Shares has been issued to the employee or the employee has been notified that the Shares are held in a book-entry account on the employee's behalf.

(c) Automatic Exercise. To the extent that the Option is exercisable and has not yet been exercised, the Option shall be automatically exercised as of the Expiration Date if the following conditions are satisfied: (i) the employee's employment with Synchrony has not been terminated for Cause and (ii) the Fair Market Value of a Share as of the Expiration Date exceeds the exercise price thereof by at least $1.00. If the conditions in the immediately preceding sentence are satisfied, the employee shall be deemed to have delivered notice of exercise on the Expiration Date, and the exercise price shall be paid through net share settlement, except as otherwise determined by Synchrony at the time of exercise; provided, however, that if net share settlement would violate applicable law in such circumstances, then the Option shall expire unless the employee pays the applicable exercise price.

(d) Upon the receipt of all required payments from the employee, Synchrony shall, without additional expense to the employee (other than any transfer or issue taxes if Synchrony so elects), deliver to the employee by mail or otherwise at such place as the employee may request a certificate or certificates for such Shares or notify the employee that the Shares are held in a book-entry account on the employee's behalf; provided, however, that the date of issuance or delivery may be postponed by Synchrony for such period as may be required for it with reasonable diligence to comply with any applicable listing requirements of any national securities exchange and requirements under any law or regulation applicable to the issuance or transfer of such Shares.

Terms and Conditions

7. Alteration/Termination. The Committee may waive any conditions or rights under, amend any terms of, or amend, alter, suspend, discontinue or terminate, the Award, prospectively or retroactively. No such amendment or alteration shall be made which would impair the rights of the employee under the Award without the employee's consent; provided, however, that no such consent shall be required with respect to any amendment or alteration if the Committee determines in its sole discretion that such amendment or alteration either (a) is required or advisable in order for Synchrony, the Plan or the Award to satisfy or conform to any law or regulation or to meet the requirements of any accounting standard or (b) is not reasonably likely to significantly diminish the benefits provided under the Award.

8. Adjustments. The number and type of Shares underlying any RSUs or Options awarded to the employee hereunder shall be subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 4(b) of the Plan.

9. No Right to Employment. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions constitutes an employment contract or gives the employee the right to continue in the employment of Synchrony, or affect any right that Synchrony may have to terminate the employment of the employee.

10. Dispute Resolution. The parties will settle any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or related to the Plan, the Award or the Terms and Conditions in accordance with the terms of any then effective Synchrony alternative dispute resolution procedure (which may, from time to time, be referred to as "Solutions").

11. Non-Assignability. Neither this Award nor the RSUs or Options granted hereunder may be assigned or transferred by the employee, except to the extent expressly permitted by the Plan. Tax withholding with respect to any RSU that is transferred or assigned shall be determined by Synchrony in accordance with applicable law (which may require the employee to pay taxes with respect to a transferred RSU). Any Shares issued under an RSU or Option, once issued to the employee, shall be freely transferable.

12. Voting. The employee shall not have voting rights with respect to the Shares underlying RSUs or Options unless and until Shares are issued to the employee.

13. Dividend Equivalents. The Award entitles the employee to receive an amount equal to any cash dividend declared with respect to the number of Shares represented by RSUs, but only to the extent that the RSUs have not been issued as Shares, converted to a cash payment amount or terminated or forfeited before the record date for such dividend. Dividend equivalents shall be reinvested in additional RSUs (i.e., the cash dividends will be converted into the right to receive additional Shares, based on the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date the applicable dividend is paid to holders of Shares) and shall be subject to the same Terms and Conditions as the Award. The dividend equivalents shall be reduced by the amount of any required tax withholding.

14. Withholding Taxes. All payments and delivery of Shares in respect of the RSUs and Options shall be subject to required tax or other withholding or garnishment obligations, if any. Synchrony shall be authorized to withhold cash or Shares (as applicable) from any payment due or transfer the amount of withholding taxes due in respect of the Award or any payment or transfer under the Award or the Plan to satisfy statutory withholding obligations for the payment of such taxes. The employee shall pay to or reimburse Synchrony for any federal, state, local or foreign taxes required to be withheld and paid over by it, at such time and upon such terms and conditions as Synchrony may prescribe before Synchrony shall be required to deliver any Shares.

15. Section 409A. Amounts payable, and Shares deliverable, pursuant to RSUs are intended to be exempt from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible pursuant to a short-term deferral described in Treasury Regulation §1.409A-1(b)(4), and Options are intended to be exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation §1.409A-1(b)(5), and the Plan and the Terms and Conditions shall be interpreted and construed consistently with such intent. To the extent any amount payable, or Shares deliverable, pursuant to this Award constitutes nonqualified deferred compensation within the meaning of, and subject to, Section 409A, then, with respect to such portion of this Award, (a) the Plan and this Terms and Conditions are intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A, and shall be interpreted and construed consistently with such intent, (b) all references in the Plan and this Terms and Conditions to the Employee's termination of employment shall mean the Employee's Termination of Employment within the meaning of Section 409A and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, and (c) notwithstanding anything in the Plan or this Terms and Conditions to the contrary, any amount that is payable upon the employee's Termination of Employment that would be payable prior to the six-month anniversary of such Termination of Employment shall, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A, be delayed until the Six-Month Pay Date. In such event, any portion of the RSUs settled in cash shall be determined based on the closing price of a Share (or a share of stock of the successor to Synchrony) as reported on the principal national stock exchange on which the Shares (or the shares of stock of the successor to Synchrony) are then traded on the last business day of the last calendar month that ends before the Six-Month Pay Date; provided, however, that if it is not feasible to calculate the closing price as of the last business day of such month, the amount of cash shall be determined based on the last price available. In the event that the Award or the Terms and Conditions would subject the employee to taxes under Section 409A ("409A Penalties"), the Award and the Terms and Conditions shall not be given effect to the extent it causes such 409A Penalties and the related provisions of the Plan and/or the Terms and Conditions will be deemed modified, or, if necessary, suspended in order to comply with the requirements of Section 409A, in each case without the consent of or notice to the employee; provided that in no event shall Synchrony or any of its Affiliates be responsible for any 409A Penalties that arise in connection with any amounts payable under the Plan or this Terms and Conditions.

- (b) the cessation of individuals who, as of the Award Date, constitute the Board (the “Incumbent Board”) to constitute at least a majority of such Board; provided that any individual who becomes a director of Synchrony subsequent to the Award Date whose election, or nomination for election by Synchrony’s stockholders, was approved by the vote of at least a majority of the directors then comprising the Incumbent Board shall be deemed a member of the Incumbent Board; and provided further, that any individual who was initially elected as a director of Synchrony as a result of an actual or threatened solicitation by a Person other than the Board for the purpose of opposing a solicitation by any other Person with respect to the election or removal of directors, or any other actual or threatened solicitation of proxies or consents by or on behalf of any Person other than the Board shall not be deemed a member of the Incumbent Board; or
- (c) the consummation of a reorganization, merger or consolidation or sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of Synchrony (a “Corporate Transaction”); excluding, however, a Corporate Transaction pursuant to which (i) all or substantially all of the individuals or entities who are the beneficial owners, respectively, of the Outstanding Common Stock and the Outstanding Voting Securities immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction will beneficially own, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of, respectively, the outstanding shares of common stock, and the combined voting power of the outstanding securities entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, as the case may be, of the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction (including, without limitation, a corporation which as a result of such transaction owns, directly or indirectly, Synchrony or all or substantially all of Synchrony’s assets) in substantially the same proportions relative to each other as their ownership, immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction, of the Outstanding Common Stock and the Outstanding Voting Securities, as the case may be, (ii) no Person (other than: Synchrony; any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by Synchrony or any corporation controlled by Synchrony; the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction; and any Person which beneficially owned, immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction, directly or indirectly, 30% or more of the Outstanding Common Stock or the Outstanding Voting Securities, as the case may be) will beneficially own, directly or indirectly, 30% or more of, respectively, the outstanding shares of common stock of the corporation resulting from such Corporate

Transaction or the combined voting power of the outstanding securities of such corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, and (iii) individuals who were members of the Incumbent Board will constitute at least a majority of the members of the board of directors of the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (i) for so long as General Electric Company and its affiliates beneficially own a majority of the Outstanding Common Stock, no Change in Control shall be deemed to have occurred, (ii) any transaction pursuant to which common stock of Synchrony is transferred from one wholly-owned subsidiary of General Electric Company to another wholly-owned subsidiary of General Electric Company shall not be deemed to be a Change in Control and (iii) the transactions pursuant to which General Electric Company and its affiliates reduce their ownership of common stock of Synchrony shall not constitute a Change in Control; provided that in connection with any such transaction no other Person acquires beneficial ownership of common stock of Synchrony in an amount that would constitute a Change in Control pursuant to Section (a) of this Change in Control definition.

“Disability”

“Disability” shall mean an incapacity, disability or other condition that entitles the employee to long-term disability benefits under the long-term disability benefit plan or arrangement applicable to Synchrony’s employees, as determined by the administrator of such plan or arrangement. An individual shall not be considered disabled unless the employee furnishes proof of the existence thereof. Synchrony may require the existence or non-existence of a disability to be determined by a physician whose selection is mutually agreed upon by the employee (or his or her representatives) and Synchrony.

“Good Reason”

“Good Reason” shall mean, without the employee’s express written consent, the occurrence of any of the following events after a Change in Control:

- (a) a material adverse change in the nature or scope of the employee’s authority, powers, functions, duties or responsibilities;
- (b) a material reduction by Synchrony in the employee’s rate of annual base salary or bonus opportunity; or
- (c) a change in the employee’s primary employment location to a location that is more than 50 miles from the primary location of the employee’s employment.

Within thirty (30) days after the employee becomes aware of one or more actions or inactions described in this Good Reason definition, the employee shall deliver written notice to Synchrony of the action(s) or inaction(s) (the “Good Reason Notice”). Synchrony shall have thirty (30) days after the Good Reason Notice is delivered to cure the particular action(s) or inaction(s). If Synchrony so effects a cure, the Good Reason Notice will be deemed rescinded and of no further force and effect.

“Period of Restriction”

The “Period of Restriction” means, for any RSU, the period prior to the date on which such RSU vests and the employee becomes entitled to a Share in respect thereof. The Period of Restriction shall not be deemed to have ended solely because the employee becomes eligible for Retirement.

“Retirement”

“Termination of Employment” shall mean “separation from service” within the meaning of Section 409A.

“Years of Service”

FIRST AMENDED AND RESTATED TECHNOLOGY SOURCING AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”), effective as of December 10, 1998 (the “Effective Date”) and amended and restated as of April 1, 2003 (the “First Amended and Restated Effective Date” or “FAAR Effective Date”), is entered into by and between RETAILER CREDIT SERVICES, INC. (“RCSI”), a Utah corporation with offices at 4246 South Riverboat Road, Salt Lake City, Utah 84123, and FIRST DATA RESOURCES INC. (“First Data”), a Delaware corporation with offices at 10825 Farnam Drive, Omaha, Nebraska 68154.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENTS

A. General Electric Capital Corporation (“GE Capital”) and First Data originally entered into the Agreement on the Effective Date. GE Capital was then a New York corporation and had since been reincorporated in Delaware.

B Since the Effective Date GE Capital and First Data have twice amended and modified the Agreement through execution of:

(i) a First Amendment to the Technology Sourcing Agreement (the “First Amendment”), dated as of January 28, 2000, which provided for, among other things, the inclusion of certain bill processor services in the Services;

(ii) a Modification Agreement (the “Modification Agreement”), dated as of September 29, 2000, among Monogram Credit Services, LLC (“MCS”), RCSI (then known as Montgomery Ward Credit Corporation), GE Capital, and First Data (a copy of which is attached as Attachment 1) providing for, among other things, the provision of the Services to certain MCS card accounts.

C. RCSI is an Affiliate of GE Capital. Immediately prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement, GE Capital assigned to RCSI, and RCSI assumed, all of GE Capital’s rights and obligations under the Agreement.

D. The Parties have undertaken a renegotiation of the Agreement, including certain First Data obligations in connection with the Services and the overall pricing of the Services, and wish to amend and restate the Agreement in its entirety in order to:

(i) provide for RCSI to receive a more favorable and competitive pricing structure for the Services;

(ii) modify key First Data development and other obligations;

(iii) provide for RCSI to convert all Conversion Portfolios subject to Section 3.4;

(iv) incorporate into the body of the Agreement the amendments and modifications agreed to pursuant to the Modification Agreement, with such amendment and restatement of the Agreement being effective as of the FAAR Effective Date; and

(v) provide for releases as described in Section 22.

E. First Data and RCSI have also entered into a separate Production Services Agreement (the “PSA”), dated November 16, 1999, which is not intended to be amended or superseded hereby.

F. Simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this First Amended and Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement, GE Capital and PaySys International Inc., an Affiliate of First Data, have executed an Amended and Restated Additional Terms and Conditions Addendum Number 3 in the form of Attachment 2.

G. Simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this First Amended and Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement, GE Capital, GE Business Productivity Solutions, Inc. (“GEBPS”), which is an Affiliate of both GE Capital and RCSI, First Data, and RCSI have entered into a letter amendment agreement, in the form of Attachment 3, modifying the Conversion and Addendum Agreement, dated October 18, 2002, among GE Capital, GEBPS, First Data, and RCSI.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, agree to amend and restate the Agreement as follows:

1. BACKGROUND AND OBJECTIVES

1.1 Background.

This Agreement is being amended and restated with reference to the following:

(a) RCSI desires that certain transaction processing, software development and related activities be performed and managed by an experienced and capable vendor skilled in the performance of these functions.

(b) First Data wishes to perform the requested services for RCSI and has the skills, qualifications, and experience necessary to perform and manage such services in an efficient, cost-effective and controlled manner with a high degree of quality and responsiveness.

1.2 Objectives.

The following are specific goals and objectives for this Agreement:

- (a) enable RCSI to focus on core competencies and on those activities which provide a competitive advantage;
- (b) deliver to RCSI Six Sigma level quality, including through the provision of information technology skills, methods, practices and standards;
- (c) enable RCSI to combine and use common technologies, processes and procedures to perform the various functions related to the Services;
- (d) establish a flexible framework within which to quickly respond to evolving technologies, competitive conditions, and changing RCSI business needs;

- (e) identify means to improve services and reduce costs to RCSI and to enable RCSI to improve and expand its business operations;
- (f) provide the uninterrupted transitioning of responsibility for performing the services from RCSI and its contractors to First Data; and

(g) provide the uninterrupted transitioning of responsibility for performing the services back to RCSI or its designee(s) in connection with the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

1.3 Construction.

The provisions of this Article 1 are intended to be a general introduction to this Agreement and are not intended to expand the scope of the Parties' obligations under this Agreement or to alter the plain meaning of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. However, to the extent the terms and conditions of this Agreement do not address a particular circumstance or are otherwise unclear or ambiguous, such terms and conditions are to be interpreted and construed so far as to give effect to the provisions in this Article 1.

2. DEFINITIONS

Certain terms used in this Agreement are defined in Schedule E (Glossary) hereto. Other capitalized terms used in this Agreement are defined in the context in which they are used and shall have the meaning there indicated. References to this Agreement shall mean this Agreement and all Exhibits, Schedules, Attachments and Addenda hereto, as may be amended from time to time. Unless otherwise provided to the contrary, (a) any reference herein to a "Section" or "Article" shall be deemed to refer to a Section or Article of the Main Body of the Agreement, and (b) any reference herein to a "Schedule" or "Exhibit" shall be deemed to refer to a Schedule or Exhibit to this Agreement.

3. SERVICES

3.1 Provision of Services.

(a) In General. First Data shall provide the services, functions and responsibilities described in this Agreement as those services, functions and responsibilities may evolve during the Term and as they may be supplemented, enhanced, modified or replaced (collectively, the "Services"). First Data will perform, as part of the Services the detailed services, functions and responsibilities described in Schedule A.

(b) Implied Services. If any services, functions, or responsibilities not specifically described in this Agreement are necessarily required for the proper performance and provision of the Services, they shall be deemed to be implied by and included within the scope of the Services to the same extent and in the same manner as if specifically described in this Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, First Data shall be responsible for providing the facilities, personnel, and other resources as necessary to provide the Services.

(c) Services Performed by RCSI or Third Parties.

(i) Except as provided in Article 16, RCSI has the right during the Term to perform itself, or retain third parties to perform, any of the Services. RCSI retains the right to sell or divest Accounts, portfolios or lines of business which are receiving the Services and, subject to Section 3.1(e), such Accounts, portfolios or lines of business will no longer be subject to this Agreement. RCSI also retains the right to acquire Accounts, portfolios and lines of business and manage such Accounts, portfolios and lines of business separately from this Agreement and the Services.

(ii) If RCSI performs any of the Services itself, through an Affiliate, or retains a third party to do so, First Data shall cooperate with RCSI, such Affiliates, or any such third party as necessary to enable RCSI and such third party to perform its respective work, which cooperation shall include:

(A) providing access to RCSI Facilities being used to provide the Services;

(B) providing access to the First Data System (to the extent permitted under any underlying agreements with third parties); and

(C) providing such information regarding the operating environment (including the First Data System), system constraints and other parameters as a person with reasonable commercial skills and expertise would find reasonably necessary for RCSI or a third party to perform its work.

Third parties retained by RCSI shall comply with First Data's reasonable security and confidentiality requirements, and shall, to the extent performing work interfacing with the First Data System or equipment, comply with First Data's reasonable work standards, methodologies, and procedures.

(iii) First Data shall promptly notify RCSI if an act or omission of such a third party may cause a problem or delay in providing the Services and shall work with RCSI to prevent or circumvent such problem or delay. If the Services are reduced pursuant to this Section 3.1(c), the charges for the Services shall be equitably adjusted to reflect projected cost savings to First Data resulting from First Data's ceasing to provide the Services no longer required. The Parties recognize that due to the structure of the Charges in Schedule C in many instances no changes will be required to such Charges.

(d) Services to Be Provided to RCSI and RCSI Affiliates. First Data shall provide the Services to RCSI and RCSI Affiliates and on their behalf to those entities identified by RCSI. To the extent Services are characterized herein as being provided to RCSI, those references will be deemed to include those Services provided to the RCSI Affiliates and such other entities referenced in this Section 3.1(d) on RCSI's behalf. Services provided to RCSI Affiliates or the entities referenced in this Section 3.1(d) shall be deemed to be Services provided to RCSI. In recognition of the bank regulatory environment, those RCSI Affiliates which are regulated as banks will be deemed to have individually the right to receive the Services to be provided such RCSI Affiliates under this Agreement, and such banking Affiliates shall have the right independently to enforce their rights under this Agreement.

(e) Continued Provision of the Services to Former Affiliates. As designated by RCSI, Former Affiliates may continue to receive the Services for the period (up to *** months) designated by RCSI that is reasonably necessary for such Former Affiliate to arrange to convert and then to actually convert its processing in an orderly manner, whether directly with First Data or to another system. Subject to the overall aspects of the transaction pursuant to which the sale or divestiture occurred, RCSI will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to assist any Former Affiliates to convert their processing to the First Data System (or such system as they are converting to) as expeditiously as possible. During such period, First Data's relationship shall continue to be with RCSI and (unless otherwise agreed between First Data and the Former Affiliate) First Data shall have no obligation directly to the Former Affiliate.

(f) Geographic Scope Constraints. The scope of the Services to be provided under this Agreement is not constrained geographically. Pricing in this Agreement is for the Services as if they are provided in the United States or Canada. If RCSI requests First Data to provide Services outside of the United States and Canada, and First Data incurs or would incur costs associated with the provision of Services outside of the United States and Canada that are different (other than insubstantial differences) than the corresponding costs First Data would incur in the United States and Canada, then First Data shall provide pricing and performance proposals to RCSI addressing such provision of Services outside the United States and Canada. RCSI shall reimburse First Data for First Data's actual Out-of-Pocket Expenses (with no mark-up or profit) incurred in the preparation of any pricing or performance proposal requested by RCSI under this Section 3.1(f). Prior to preparing any such proposal, First Data shall provide RCSI an estimate of its actual Out-of-Pocket Expenses to be incurred in the preparation of such proposal and shall notify RCSI when actual Out-of-Pocket Expenses incurred by First Data have exceeded such estimate. If RCSI desires to expand the geographic scope of the Services under this Agreement outside of the United States, at such time the Parties will amend the Agreement to include any additional provisions that are required by the jurisdictions to which such Services are expanded, and such additional provisions shall be set forth in a manner that is consistent with the allocation of responsibility for compliance with laws as set forth in Section 15.7.

3.2 Integration of Processing Platforms

(a) Global Integrated Platform and the Platform Integration Plan. In addition to processing United States credit card accounts using the Services, RCSI and its Affiliates process certain loans in the United States and loans and credit cards in other countries using PaySys Software (taken together, the First Data System and the PaySys Software system constitute the "Original Platform(s)"), which is owned by an Affiliate of First Data. Having its global processing on the disparate Original Platforms is not optimal for RCSI and its Affiliates. RCSI and its Affiliates desire as a long term matter that First Data provide a common platform solution (the "Global Integrated Platform") for all of RCSI's and its Affiliates' processing needs world-wide. Within one hundred eighty (180) days following the Final Conversion Date (the “Platform Integration Plan Delivery Date”), First Data shall provide to RCSI for RCSI’s review and comment a detailed plan for consolidation of RCSI’s and its Affiliates’ worldwide account processing into a single strategic Global Integrated Platform (the “Platform Integration Plan”). The Platform Integration Plan shall:

(i) address the then current differences between the First Data System and the PaySys Software;

(ii) have the objective of not being less profitable for First Data and its Affiliates (taken as a whole) (including then-current investments and costs of development of, and migration and conversion to, the Global Integrated Platform);

(iii) for the services formerly provided on each Original Platform not be more expensive than the then-current all-in costs to RCSI or its Affiliates of operating on such Original Platform;

(iv) meet RCSI’s then-current business and technical requirements; and

(v) contain specific milestones, with corresponding dates, by which First Data shall complete key integration activities.

(b) Platform Integration Plan Finalization Date. First Data and RCSI shall cooperate in good faith to reach final agreement upon the Platform Integration Plan within one hundred eighty (180) days following the Platform Integration Plan Delivery Date (the “Platform Integration Plan Finalization Date”).

(c) Completion of the Approved Platform Integration Plan. First Data shall commence implementation of the Platform Integration Plan approved by RCSI (the “Approved Platform Integration Plan”) within twelve (12) months following the Platform Integration Plan Finalization Date.

(d) ***

(e) Disputes. Any dispute between the Parties under Section 3.2 shall be escalated to the President of GECF-A (or his or her designee) and the Chairman of FDC (or his designee) for attempted resolution. However, if they fail to agree, RCSI’s requirements shall prevail.

3.3 Future First Data System Architecture.

(a) First Data Acknowledgments. First Data acknowledges that:

(i) the successful implementation of the Future First Data System Architecture Plan and the resulting increased and improved functionality of the First Data System is a material inducement to the agreement of RCSI to undertake, and allow First Data to undertake, the Conversions; and

(ii) were First Data to abandon the Future First Data System Architecture Plan or otherwise fail to undertake and complete the Future First Data System Architecture Plan, the First Data System would not provide RCSI with the competitive benefits the Parties expect will be made available to RCSI, and First Data shall have deprived RCSI of the principal benefit the Parties intend GECF-A to enjoy by providing for the provision of Services in connection with the Designated Accounts in the Agreement.

(b) Review of First Data System Architectural Features. Promptly following the Final Conversion Date, the Parties shall jointly review and discuss the architectural features of the First Data System with the objective of determining whether any new architectural features (the “Future First Data System Architecture”) are important to allow RCSI to substantially increase its revenue by enabling new product development, attracting new customers and accounts, and growing existing customer relationships. The Parties will incorporate into such review and discussion the Future First Data System Architecture CTQs attached as Exhibit A-6. The Parties shall discuss the benefits of pursuing any such architectural features, in light of:

(i) the business criticality to RCSI of implementing such features (which business-criticality analysis shall include factors such as RCSI’s ability to substantially grow revenues and achieve back-room cost efficiencies) balanced against the cost to each Party of developing and implementing the architectural features (including ongoing and maintenance costs of both Parties);

(ii) the respective experiences of the Parties with the Services and the First Data System since the Effective Date;

(iii) the architectural modifications to the First Data System since the Effective Date;

(iv) the functionality implemented into the First Data System and the Services in connection with the Conversion and the Conversion Portfolios; and

(v) any synergies and interdependencies with the approved Platform Integration Plan.

As a result of these discussions, the Parties will devise a plan with milestones and related performance dates for implementing the foregoing (the “Future First Data System Architecture Plan”). Following the Parties reaching agreement on the Future First Data System Architecture Plan, First Data will obtain RCSI’s approval of amendments to the plan.

(c) Cost of Developments and Implementation. First Data shall *** the costs of developing and implementing into the First Data System the architectural features agreed to in the Future First Data System Architecture Plan. RCSI shall *** the costs of implementing the changes required to interface with such architectural features into its own system and operations.

(d) Disputes. If within one hundred eighty (180) days following the Final Conversion Date the Parties have not agreed on the Future First Data System Architecture Plan, the points of dispute between the Parties regarding such shall be escalated to the President of GECF-A (or his or her designee) and the Chairman of FDC (or his designee) for attempted resolution.

(e) Termination. If the representatives of the Parties provided in Section 3.3(d) do not reach agreement on the substance of the Future First Data System Architecture Plan by the date provided in such Section 3.3(d), then RCSI may at any time (subject to the next sentence) exercise its right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 21.4. However, at any time after the expiration of the period provided in Section 3.3(d), First Data may provide notice to RCSI that if RCSI desires to exercise its rights under this Section 3.3(e) it must do so within one hundred eighty (180) days following the date of such notice, and unless RCSI exercises such right within such period, its right to terminate pursuant to this Section 3.3(e) shall expire and no longer be exercisable. The termination right described in the first sentence of this Section 3.3(e) shall be RCSI's exclusive remedy (monetary and non-monetary) for the failure to reach agreement on the substance of the Future First Data System Architecture Plan by the date provided in Section 3.3(d).

(f) Failure to Achieve Plan. If the Parties reach agreement on the substance of the Future First Data System Architecture Plan and First Data materially fails to implement or fulfill its obligations under the Future First Data System Architecture Plan (including missing Key Milestones), due to causal factors not attributable to RCSI (or its third party providers), RCSI shall provide First Data with written notice of such failure, which notice shall describe such failure in reasonable detail. If within one hundred eighty (180) days following receipt of such notice First Data has not substantially cured such failure (which cure may include the provision by First Data of substantially equivalent functionality through a development work-around reasonably acceptable to RCSI or through a third party reasonably acceptable to RCSI), then RCSI may terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 21.1(a) without First Data being afforded the notice and cure period otherwise provided in such Section 21.1(a).

3.4 Conversion Portfolios.

(a) Conversion Obligations. Subject to First Data's completion of its obligations under this Section 3.4, RCSI unconditionally agrees that the Conversion Portfolios shall be Converted to the First Data System. The "Conversion Portfolios" are the account portfolios that as of the FAAR Effective Date are being processed on the GECF-A existing internal receivables system in the United States other than those Non Revolving Loan Products that are being or will be converted to any PaySys Software system. At RCSI's option, the Conversion Portfolios need not include any commercial account portfolios being processed on the RCSI GECOM system, the CommercialLine system, any portfolios not being processed in such existing internal receivables system as of the FAAR Effective Date, any liquidating or similar portfolios, or any portfolios of RCSI's Affiliates other than GECF-A.

(b) Final Conversion Date. The Conversion of all of the Conversion Portfolios ("Final Conversion") shall be completed by First Data by the Final Conversion Date. The "Final Conversion Date" shall be the date agreed upon by the Parties not later than October 31, 2003; provided, however, that if the Parties fail to agree on the Final Conversion Date by such date, the Final Conversion Date shall be June 30, 2005. The Final Conversion Date shall be extended to accommodate delays only to the extent due to RCSI requiring the Conversion to the First Data System of account portfolios other than the Conversion Portfolios to the extent such additional Conversions cause delays in First Data's performance of its obligations in connection with the Conversion of the Conversion Portfolios that First Data could not have prevented by reasonable precautions and cannot reasonably circumvent through the use of alternate sources, workaround plans or other means. RCSI will not unreasonably withhold or delay Conversion.

(c) No Further Extensions of Final Conversion Date. The Final Conversion Date shall not be otherwise extended due to any First Data failure to meet its obligations under this Agreement or in connection with the Conversion of any of the Conversion Portfolios, including the development and implementation of any functionality required in connection with such Conversions.

(d) No Further RCSI Obligations. RCSI shall have no obligation under this Agreement or otherwise (i) to refrain from selling, otherwise transferring, or liquidating any Conversion Portfolio or any portion thereof or (ii) to cause to be Converted to the First Data System any Conversion Portfolio that RCSI has sold or otherwise transferred to any third party. Additionally, RCSI shall have no obligation under this Agreement to ***. Once Converted, GE Capital shall not be required to maintain Conversion Portfolios on the First Data System for any particular period of time.

(e) Payments to RCSI for Conversion Costs. First Data shall pay RCSI *** as reimbursement to RCSI for conversion costs incurred and expected to be incurred by RCSI and its Affiliates pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Within sixty (60) days after the FAAR Effective Date, First Data agrees to pay RCSI such sum of *** by wire transfer of immediately available federal funds to such bank account as RCSI may direct.

4. TERM

4.1 Term

The term of this Agreement shall begin on the Effective Date and shall expire on June 30, 2016 (the "Initial Term") unless terminated earlier or extended in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

4.2 Extension

RCSI may extend the Initial Term for up to three (3) one year periods (each such period, a "Renewal Term") on the terms in effect at the time of such extension by RCSI providing First Data with at least twelve (12) months notice prior to the then-current expiration date of the Term. As used in this Agreement, the defined word "Term" shall include the Initial Term and any Renewal Terms thereof.

5. FIRST DATA PERSONNEL

5.1 Key First Data Positions.

(a) Key Positions. “Key First Data Positions” are listed in Schedule D. First Data shall cause each of the personnel filling the Key First Data Positions to devote his or her full time and effort to the provision of the Services.

(i) RCSI may from time to time change the positions designated as Key First Data Positions under this Agreement, provided that without First Data’s consent the number of Key First Data Positions shall not exceed the number specified in Schedule D.

(ii) In accordance with Section 5.1(b) below, First Data shall designate an individual to serve as the “First Data Contract Executive”. The First Data Contract Executive shall:

- (A) serve as the single point of accountability for First Data for the Services;
- (B) have day-to-day authority for undertaking to ensure customer satisfaction; and
- (C) have a corporate title of Senior Vice President or higher.

The First Data Contract Executive’s compensation shall include significant financial incentives based on RCSI’s satisfaction with the (X) performance of Services, (Y) First Data’s contribution to RCSI’s achievement of its objectives, as relevant, and (Z) retention of applicable First Data Personnel. Such basis for financial incentives shall be in conjunction and consistent with those objectives in equivalent RCSI and First Data management positions.

(b) Assignment of Individuals to Key First Data Positions. Before assigning an individual to a Key First Data Position, whether as an initial assignment or a subsequent assignment, First Data shall notify RCSI of the proposed assignment, shall introduce the individual to appropriate RCSI representatives (and, upon request, provide such representatives with the opportunity to meet with the individual) and shall provide RCSI with a resume and other information about the individual reasonably requested by RCSI. If RCSI in good faith objects to the proposed assignment, the Parties shall attempt to resolve RCSI’s concerns on a mutually agreeable basis, including through discussions of the pertinent issues by senior management of the Parties. If the Parties have not been able to resolve RCSI’s concerns within ten (10) days, First Data shall not assign the individual to that position and shall propose to RCSI the assignment of another individual of suitable ability and qualifications. Personnel filling Key First Data Positions may not be transferred or re-assigned until a suitable replacement has been approved by RCSI and the replacement has been successfully transitioned into the Key First Data Position. Further, the timing for any transfer or reassignment of persons filling Key First Data Positions will be closely coordinated with the requirements of ongoing projects and other elements of the Services, and no transfer or reassignment will occur at a time that would adversely impact the Services in a non-trivial manner.

(c) Approved Personnel. The personnel approved as of the FAAR Effective Date to fill the Key First Data Positions are listed in Schedule D. Subject to promotions, dismissals, resignations, and medical leave, such persons will remain in these positions for the period specified in Schedule D.

5.2 Qualifications, Retention and Replacement of First Data Personnel.

(a) Adequate Number of Qualified Personnel. First Data shall assign an adequate number of personnel to perform the Services. The personnel First Data assigns to perform the Services shall be properly educated, trained, and fully qualified for the Services they are to perform.

(b) Personnel Turnover. RCSI and First Data both agree that it is in their best interests to keep the turnover rate of the First Data Personnel performing the Services to a reasonably low level. Accordingly, if RCSI believes that First Data's turnover rate may be excessive and so notifies First Data, First Data shall provide data concerning its turnover rate, meet with RCSI to discuss the reasons for, and impact of, the turnover rate and otherwise use its best efforts to keep such turnover rate to a reasonably low level. If appropriate, First Data shall submit to RCSI its proposals for reducing the turnover rate, and the Parties will mutually agree on a program to bring the turnover rate down to an acceptable level. In any event, notwithstanding transfer or turnover of personnel, First Data remains obligated to perform the Services without degradation and in accordance with this Agreement.

(c) Replacement of First Data Personnel. If RCSI determines in good faith that the continued assignment to the RCSI account of one of the First Data Personnel is not in the best interests of RCSI, then RCSI will give First Data written notice to that effect. After receipt of such notice, First Data shall have a reasonable period of time (not greater than ten (10) days) in which to investigate the matters stated in such notice, discuss its findings with RCSI, and resolve any problems with such person. As requested by First Data, senior management of the Parties shall address and discuss the pertinent issues during the referenced time period. If, following this period, RCSI requests replacement of such person, First Data shall replace that person with another person of suitable ability and qualifications.

5.3 Compliance with *** Regulations and Policies.

(a) Requirements for Compliance. First Data and its agents and subcontractors shall when performing the Services comply with *** rules and regulations made known to First Data that are generally applicable to RCSI's or its Affiliates' employees, invitees and contractors, including those regarding:

- (i) RCSI Information;
- (ii) access to computer networks;
- (iii) security;

- (iv) when on RCSI's or its Affiliates' premises only, use of RCSI's equipment, facilities and personnel;
- (v) when on RCSI's or its Affiliates' premises only, conduct and safety; and
- (vi) RCSI's applicable "Integrity" policies governing service providers.

Additionally, First Data will brief all First Data Personnel on the scope of restrictions on First Data and such First Data Personnel concerning the safeguarding of RCSI Confidential Information, including making such individuals aware of applicable federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations against disclosure or use of Non-Public Personal Information and any other personally identifiable financial information that may be included in the RCSI Confidential Information.

(b) Additional Requirements Regarding First Data Personnel. As of the FAAR Effective Date, First Data agrees that First Data Personnel will be subject to the following screening activities in connection with their hiring:

- (i) a five (5) panel drug screen (except to the extent restricted by law);
- (ii) a federal and state criminal background check that (except to the extent restricted by law) includes discovery of any conviction of a financial related crime (as specified by RCSI) or a felony during the last ten (10) years if the person would be working regularly on RCSI premises or during the last seven (7) years if the person is providing Services to RCSI outside of RCSI premises;
- (iii) a determination as to whether the person has been identified by the Department of Treasury Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") as an individual that U.S. persons are prohibited from engaging in transactions with; and
- (iv) the individual's employment complies with relevant immigration law.

First Data shall not assign any person to perform the Services who (A) has failed the drug screen; (B) has in the last ten (10) years (or, if the person is providing Services to RCSI outside of RCSI premises, in the last seven (7) years) been convicted of a financial related crime (as specified by RCSI) or a felony; (C) has been identified by OFAC as an individual that U.S. persons are prohibited from engaging in transactions with; or (D) does not meet the requirements under immigration law to be employed. First Data shall not be required to, and First Data shall not, provide RCSI with the results of any of drug testing or screening, criminal or credit background checks or other employment verification processes that First Data performs or causes to be performed with respect to First Data Personnel. The Parties shall work together to develop and implement improved screening and background checking processes in response to changing legal requirements and technological advancements over the course of the Term.

6. RCSI FACILITIES

6.1 Provision of RCSI Facilities.

(a) Responsibilities in Connection with RCSI Facilities. RCSI will provide to First Data space, equipment, furnishings and fixtures within RCSI's or its Affiliates' control as is mutually agreed by the Parties (the "RCSI Facilities"). First Data acknowledges that RCSI Facilities are to be very limited in scope. With respect to the RCSI Facilities, RCSI will manage and maintain the building and property, electrical systems, water, sewer, lights, heating, telephone services, ventilation and air conditioning systems, physical security services and general custodial/landscape services. First Data will be responsible to provide any other facilities and support it needs to provide the Services. RCSI will retain the costs of applicable facilities leases and related leasehold improvements with respect to the RCSI Facilities.

(b) Relocation of RCSI Facilities. RCSI will inform First Data of any relocation of the RCSI Facilities which RCSI is contemplating or has made a final decision to make so that First Data will have a reasonable amount of time to prepare for and implement such change or relocation as it impacts First Data.

(c) RCSI Facilities Provided "As Is, Where Is". The RCSI Facilities are made available to First Data on an "as is, where is" basis.

6.2 First Data Obligations Regarding RCSI Facilities.

(a) Use of RCSI Facilities. First Data shall use the RCSI Facilities for the sole and exclusive purpose of providing the Services. Use of such RCSI Facilities by First Data does not constitute a usufruct or leasehold interest in favor of First Data.

(b) Specific First Data Obligations. First Data and First Data Personnel shall:

(i) use the RCSI Facilities in an efficient manner;

(ii) keep the RCSI Facilities in good order;

(iii) not commit or permit waste or damage to the RCSI Facilities;

(iv) not use the RCSI Facilities for any unlawful purpose or act or for any purpose not permitted by the applicable lease agreement(s); and

(v) comply with RCSI's standard policies and procedures as made available to First Data including with regard to and use of the RCSI Facilities and procedures for the physical security of the RCSI Facilities.

(c) Responsibility for Damage. First Data shall be responsible for any damage to the RCSI Facilities resulting from the abuse, misuse, neglect, or gross negligence of First Data, its employees and subcontractors or other failure to comply with its obligations respecting the RCSI Facilities.

(d) Access to RCSI Facilities. First Data shall permit RCSI and its agents and representatives to enter into those portions of the RCSI Facilities occupied by First Data staff at any time to (i) inspect the premises, (ii) show the premises, and (iii) perform facilities-related services.

(e) Improvements to RCSI Facilities. First Data shall not make any improvements or changes involving structural, mechanical, or electrical alterations to the RCSI Facilities without RCSI's prior written approval. Any improvements to the RCSI Facilities will become the property of RCSI.

(f) Return of RCSI Facilities. When the RCSI Facilities are no longer required for performance of the Services, at RCSI's option First Data shall return such facilities to RCSI in substantially the same condition as when First Data began use of such facilities, subject to reasonable wear and tear.

7. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, the Parties' respective rights in Intellectual Property shall be as set forth in this Article 7.

7.1 RCSI Intellectual Property.

(a) Grant of Right to First Data. Subject to Section 7.3(a), RCSI grants to First Data a fully paid-up, royalty-free (except as provided in Section 7.3(b)(iii)) non-exclusive right during the Term to use, for the sole purpose of providing the Services pursuant to this Agreement, (i) the RCSI Intellectual Property agreed by RCSI as necessary for First Data to provide the Services, (ii) RCSI New Materials and, (iii) subject to obtaining Required Consents, third party Intellectual Property licensed to RCSI agreed by RCSI as necessary for First Data to provide the Services (the Intellectual Property identified in clauses (i) and (iii) of this Section 7.1(a) being referred to collectively herein as the "RCSI TSA Intellectual Property"). First Data may not use RCSI TSA Intellectual Property for the benefit of any entities other than RCSI and its Affiliates, except as provided in Section 3.1(c), or for any other purpose than as permitted in this Section 7.1(a). Except as otherwise requested or approved by RCSI, First Data shall cease all use of RCSI TSA Intellectual Property upon the later of (A) expiration or termination of this Agreement and (B) expiration or termination of the Termination/Expiration Assistance.

(b) Ownership. Except as expressly provided herein, as between the Parties, RCSI and its Affiliates, as the case may be, retains all rights in Intellectual Property owned by RCSI or any such RCSI Affiliate as of the FAAR Effective Date or thereafter. As between the Parties, RCSI or its Affiliates will own all right, title, and interest in any Intellectual Property it develops or has developed by any third party independent of this Agreement. The Intellectual Property identified in this Section 7.1(b) is referred to collectively herein as "RCSI Intellectual Property".

(c) License to Use any Non-Shared Cost Interfaced New Materials. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement and upon request by First Data, RCSI shall grant to First Data, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the Parties, a right and license to use any Non-Shared Cost Interfaced New Materials.

7.2 First Data Intellectual Property: Interfaces.

(a) First Data Intellectual Property. As between the Parties, First Data and its Affiliates will be the sole and exclusive owner of all Intellectual Property owned by First Data and its Affiliates as of the FAAR Effective Date or which is developed or acquired by First Data or its Affiliates thereafter, except as otherwise provided in this Article 7. As between the Parties, First Data or its Affiliates will own all right, title, and interest in any Intellectual Property it develops or has developed by any third party independent of this Agreement. The Intellectual Property which this Section 7.2(a) provides as being owned by First Data or its Affiliates is referred to collectively herein as “First Data Intellectual Property”.

(b) Grant of Right to RCSI. As and to the extent necessary for RCSI, its Affiliates or a third party (pursuant to Section 3.1(c)) to access and utilize the First Data System and the Services, and to perform work as permitted under this Agreement, First Data grants to RCSI and its Affiliates and such third party a fully paid-up, non-exclusive right and license to have access to and use the First Data System during the Term. If RCSI requires access to the First Data System which is different than the kinds of access currently contemplated as of the FAAR Effective Date, such access shall be subject to First Data obtaining any necessary Required Consents.

(c) Interfaces. Interfaces to First Data Software and interfaces to the First Data System will be defined, supported, and made available by First Data to and for RCSI. Custom interfaces for RCSI will be changed only with RCSI’s prior approval. Subject to Section 17.3 of Schedule A, other interfaces (e.g., industry interfaces, standard client-wide system interfaces, etc.) may change without RCSI’s prior approval but First Data shall provide RCSI with sufficient advance notice of such changes for RCSI to prepare for such changes, and First Data shall provide to RCSI complete Documentation regarding such changes.

(d) “Integrated New Materials” are New Materials which are (i) written inside of existing modules in the First Data Software or *** (as defined in Exhibit A-5), or (ii) new modules in the First Data Software or *** which utilize pre-existing or common copybooks, subroutines, objects, libraries, data stores, procedures or JCL.

(e) “Interfaced New Materials” means any New Materials that are not Integrated New Materials, including Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials and Non-Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials.

(f) “Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials” means Interfaced New Materials developed by First Data for RCSI at the rate of half of the then-current Development Hour rate set forth in Section 11.3 of Schedule C.

(g) “Non-Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials” means Interfaced New Materials other than Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials.

7.3 Rights in Modified, Enhanced or Newly Developed Intellectual Property.

(a) RCSI Development Requests. RCSI may, from time to time, request that First Data develop software, documentation, methods, processes or procedures relating to the Services, and First Data shall perform such development in accordance with the provisions of Article 15 of Schedule A. RCSI's request and related materials shall be deemed RCSI Confidential Information (except to the extent that such requests and materials incorporate First Data Intellectual Property), and if First Data does not undertake or complete such development First Data shall not use such RCSI Confidential Information for any other purpose.

(b) Modified, Enhanced or Newly Developed Intellectual Property. The respective rights of the Parties in modified, enhanced or newly developed Intellectual Property created solely or jointly by First Data pursuant to this Agreement (collectively, "New Materials") are as follows:

(i) All New Materials which are (A) modifications to or enhancements of (1) RCSI Intellectual Property, or (2) Intellectual Property licensed to RCSI belonging to a third party, or (B) Non-Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials will be deemed proprietary to, and "works made for hire" for, RCSI (collectively, the "RCSI New Materials"), except to the extent that such New Materials incorporate then-existing First Data Intellectual Property and First Data has given RCSI notice thereof prior to such incorporation. For avoidance of doubt, RCSI New Materials shall not include any materials that are otherwise First Data Intellectual Property which may have been based upon, to the extent based upon, or incorporated with RCSI New Materials into a deliverable.

(ii) If any of the RCSI New Materials are not deemed a "work for hire" by operation of law, First Data hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers and conveys to RCSI without further consideration all Intellectual Property rights in such RCSI New Materials. First Data acknowledges that RCSI and the assigns of RCSI may obtain and hold in their own name any Intellectual Property rights in and to such work product. First Data agrees to execute any documents or take any other actions as may reasonably be necessary, or as RCSI may reasonably request, to perfect RCSI's ownership of any such RCSI New Materials.

(iii) RCSI New Materials shall be used solely for RCSI and may not be provided to, or used to provide services for, any third party by First Data or otherwise used by First Data for the benefit of any third party. If RCSI agrees that First Data may use specified RCSI New Materials to provide services for other customers of First Data, First Data shall pay RCSI a per-product (including all billing elements under such product) royalty for use of such RCSI New Material ("Royalty Material"). Such Royalty Material shall be billed incrementally by First Data, and First Data will create a separate individual billing element for such Royalty Material with an associated charge which is not unfairly influenced by cross-subsidization through other charges which the customer is required to pay in order to receive the billing element for which the royalty is payable. For the first *** years after the commencement of any use or enjoyment of Royalty Material by a third party, royalties for such use shall be equal to *** of the *** that First Data and First Data Affiliates receive from the use or enjoyment of such Royalty Material by entities other than RCSI and its Affiliates. Following such *** year period, the royalty for such use or enjoyment of Royalty Material shall be *** of *** until such third party use or enjoyment terminates. Payments of such royalties shall be accounted for, and paid, to RCSI on a quarterly basis. The royalties payable under this Section 7.3(b)(iii) shall be due for each calendar year in which such aggregate gross receipts for such product are at least ***. If any portion of the Royalty Term is not a full calendar year, then the *** amount provided in this Section 7.3(b)(iii) shall be appropriately pro-rated for such year.

(iv) All New Materials developed under this Agreement (other than RCSI New Materials) will be owned by First Data and will become a part of First Data Intellectual Property; provided that if such New Material is designated by RCSI in its sole discretion as ***. Each such New Material shall be treated as Royalty Material under Section 7.3(b)(iii). The obligations set forth in this Section 7.3(b) shall continue beyond expiration or termination of the Agreement.

(c) Non-Software Materials. RCSI shall own those copies of literary works and other works of authorship generated under this Agreement such as manuals, training materials, and other documentation containing First Data's technical or operational procedures, including the Procedures Manual and the Change Control Procedure, which it receives during the Term, regardless of the media on which they are contained. Additionally, First Data hereby grants to RCSI a fully paid-up, non-exclusive right during the Term to use, reproduce, adapt and create derivative works based upon, and to distribute for internal RCSI business purposes, such literary works and works of authorship.

(d) Clean Room Intellectual Property Development. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Section 7.3(d), but in all cases subject to the provisions of Article 14, First Data may independently develop Intellectual Property that is similar in business functionality to software owned by RCSI, including RCSI New Materials or under development for RCSI by First Data and designated by RCSI as providing RCSI with a competitive advantage as provided in Section 7.3(a)(ii) provided that:

(i) no First Data employees or contractors with knowledge of RCSI's software, processes or business practices are involved in any phase of the analysis, design, development, testing or implementation;

(ii) no software developed by First Data at RCSI expense or which incorporates RCSI Intellectual Property is used to aid or inspire the development during the Exclusivity Period; and

(iii) the independent development effort does not benefit in any way from the activities of RCSI.

7.4 Patent Rights

(a) Except as provided in Section 7.1(a), nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed, by implication or otherwise, to be a grant of right or license from RCSI or any RCSI Affiliate to First Data (or to any First Data Affiliate), to any contractor or service provider of First Data, or to any First Data Affiliate to any patent in which RCSI or any RCSI Affiliate has any right, title or interest.

(b) First Data covenants that after the expiration or termination of this Agreement it shall not (and shall cause its Affiliates not to) assert claims against, or sue, RCSI or any RCSI Affiliate for infringement of a "7.4(b) Patent" owned by First Data or a First Data Affiliate, if and to the extent (i) RCSI's or its Affiliate's alleged infringement of such patent relates to a process or function which was part of the Services being provided to RCSI by First Data at the time this Agreement terminated or expired (such Services, collectively, the "7.4(b) Services"), and (ii) less than one (1) year has passed since the date that First Data first gave RCSI notice in good faith that one or more identified 7.4(b) Patents relates to the 7.4(b) Services. For the avoidance of doubt, First Data or its Affiliates may not recover claims for damages for infringement of a 7.4(b) Patent accruing prior to the expiration of such one (1) year notice period. The term "7.4(b) Patent" shall mean those (i) patents issued to First Data or its Affiliates by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office as of the date of expiration or termination of this Agreement, and (ii) patents applied for as of the date of expiration or termination of this Agreement and issued within one (1) year after the date of expiration or termination of this Agreement. Notices from First Data identifying the 7.4(b) Patents may only be provided after any notice of termination or non-renewal of this Agreement which results in termination or expiration hereof. For purposes of this Section 7.4(b) only, Affiliates shall be limited to those entities where (x) Control is measured at fifty percent (50%) or greater and (y) such Control relating to the respective Party hereto existed as of the date of expiration or termination of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the covenant set forth in this Section 7.4(b) shall not apply to any infringement by RCSI or its Affiliates of a patent or any portion thereof to the extent such infringement does not relate to processes or functions which constitute 7.4(b) Services.

(c) This Section 7.4 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

7.5 Residual Knowledge.

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall restrict either Party from the use of any ideas, concepts, know-how, methodologies, processes, technologies, algorithms or techniques retained as the unaided mental impressions of such Party's personnel relating to the Services which the other Party, individually or jointly, develops or discloses under this Agreement, provided that in doing so such Party does not breach its obligations under Article 14 or infringe the Intellectual Property Rights of the other Party or third parties who have licensed or provided materials to the other Party. Except as specifically stated in this Agreement, neither this Agreement nor any disclosure made hereunder grants, by implication or otherwise, any license to either Party or either Party's Affiliates under any patents or copyrights or other Intellectual Property of the other Party or its Affiliates. Neither Party may take any action which will infringe the Intellectual Property Rights of the other Party or third parties who have licensed or provided materials to the other Party. This Section 7.5 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

7.6 Required Consents.

First Data, with the cooperation of RCSI, shall obtain any Required Consents for RCSI to have access to and make use of First Data Software as required to receive and make use of the Services, and First Data shall pay such fees as may be required to obtain such Required Consents. RCSI, with the cooperation of First Data, shall obtain any Required Consents for First Data to have access to and make use of RCSI Software to provide the Services, and First Data shall pay such fees as may be required to obtain such Consents.

7.7 Export.

The Parties acknowledge that certain software and technical data to be provided hereunder and certain transactions hereunder may be subject to export controls under the laws and regulations of the United States and other countries. Neither Party shall export or re-export any such items or any direct product thereof or undertake any transaction in violation of any such laws or regulations. To the extent within First Data's control, First Data shall be responsible for, and shall coordinate and oversee, compliance with such export laws in respect of such items exported or imported hereunder.

8. PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

8.1 General.

First Data shall perform the Services at least at the same level and with at least the same degree of accuracy, quality, completeness, timeliness, responsiveness and efficiency as the best of: (i) that which was provided by RCSI or RCSI's Affiliates prior to the FAAR Effective Date, (ii) that which has been provided by First Data during the period from the Effective Date through the FAAR Effective Date, and (iii) as is provided by ***. Quantitative performance standards for certain of the Services ("Service Levels") are set forth in Schedule B, and such Service Levels shall supercede any performance standard required by this Section 8.1(i), 8.1(ii) or 8.1(iii) set forth above. At all times First Data's level of performance of the Services shall meet or exceed the Service Levels.

8.2 Failure to Meet Service Levels; Exceeding Service Levels.

(a) Failure to Meet Service Levels. First Data recognizes that its failure to meet any of the Service Levels identified as "critical" in Schedule B (the "Critical Service Levels") may have a material adverse impact on the business and operations of RCSI and that the damage from First Data's failure to meet a Critical Service Level is not susceptible of precise determination. Accordingly, in the event that First Data fails to meet Critical Service Levels for reasons other than the wrongful actions of RCSI or circumstances that constitute a Force Majeure Event under this Agreement, then in addition to any non-monetary remedies available to RCSI under this Agreement, at law, or in equity, RCSI may, in lieu of pursuing other monetary remedies, elect to recover as its sole and exclusive monetary remedy for such failure to meet Critical Service Levels the Service Level Credits specified in Schedule B as liquidated damages; provided, however, that this provision shall not limit RCSI's right to recover monetary damages (other than Service Level Credits) in the case of its termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 21.1. The aggregate Service Level Credits due RCSI for First Data's failure to meet Critical Service Levels during a given month shall not exceed *** of the Processing Fees for that month.

(b) Exceeding Service Levels. If First Data's performances of the Services exceeds the performance required by the Critical Service Levels in the manner described in Schedule B, RCSI shall pay to First Data the Service Level Bonuses specified in Schedule B.

(c) Obligations of First Data in the Event of a Service Level Failure. If First Data fails to meet any Service Level or fails to perform a Key Service (as defined in Section 8.3) in the manner required by this Agreement, First Data shall promptly:

- (i) investigate, assemble and preserve pertinent information with respect to, and report to RCSI on the causes of the problem(s) causing the failure, including performing a Root Cause Analysis of the problem(s);
  - (ii) advise RCSI, as and to the extent requested by RCSI, of the status of remedial efforts being undertaken with respect to such problem(s);
  - (iii) minimize the impact of the failure and notify RCSI of the steps which First Data believes should be taken to correct the problem(s);
  - (iv) upon RCSI's approval, correct the problem(s) and begin meeting the Service Levels or performing the Key Service as required by this Agreement;
- and
- (v) take appropriate preventive measures so that the failure and related problem(s) do not recur.

(d) Recovery of Performance. First Data will give the recovery of its capabilities to perform the Services and the resumption of its actual performance of the Services the ***.

(e) Revising and Updating Service Levels. As of each anniversary of the Effective Date or as otherwise permitted in the Agreement, RCSI may:

- (i) change the designation of Service Levels as Critical Service Levels;
- (ii) reallocate the Service Level Credits and Service Level Bonuses among the Critical Service Levels; and
- (iii) for the purpose of allocating Service Level Credits or Service Level Bonuses, aggregate two (2) or more Service Levels into a single aggregate Service Level, which RCSI may designate as a Critical Service Level, provided that, with respect to each of the foregoing, the change does not, in the aggregate, significantly increase First Data's responsibility for Critical Service Levels.

8.3 Failure to Perform Key Services.

(a) Failure to Perform Key Services. First Data recognizes that its failure to perform in the manner required by this Agreement the following Services will have a material adverse impact on the business and operations of RCSI:

- (i) completion of the Known Software Conversion Modifications;
- (ii) completion of the Conversions of the Conversion Portfolios;
- (iii) fulfillment of First Data's obligations under Section 3.2(d); and
- (iv) completion of the Future First Data System Architecture Plan, (each a "Key Service").

Accordingly, if First Data fails to perform any Key Service as required by this Agreement for reasons other than (A) the wrongful actions of RCSI or (B) circumstances that constitute a Force Majeure Event under this Agreement (and First Data has complied with its obligations under Section 19.3 in connection with such Force Majeure Event), and (as between the Parties) such failure is the sole responsibility of First Data, then in addition to any non-monetary remedies available to RCSI under this Agreement, at law or in equity, RCSI may elect, in lieu of pursuing other monetary remedies, to recover as its sole and exclusive monetary remedy for such failure an amount equal to the sum of the direct costs incurred by RCSI as a result of such failure and, notwithstanding Section 19.2(a), certain Key Service credits ("Key Service Credits").

(b) Amounts Payable by First Data. The amounts payable by First Data under this Section 8.3 shall include the following "Key Service Failure Costs":

- (i)***
- (ii)***
- (iii)***
- (iv)*** and
- (v) the Key Services Credits set forth in Section 8.3(a).

Key Service Failure Costs in connection with: (A) completion of the Conversion of the Conversion Portfolios shall include the incremental cost of continued operation of the relevant RCSI systems past the scheduled dates of the relevant Conversions of the Conversion Portfolios; and (B) completion of the Future First Data System Architecture Plan shall include the incremental cost of continued operation of the relevant RCSI systems past the scheduled dates of the relevant Future First Data System Architecture Plan deliverables. Key Service Credits shall be paid by First Data as follows: *** per-failure (except that for Known Software Conversion Modifications the per failure amount shall be *** with a cumulative limit on payments for each individual Key Service category of *** (resulting in a cumulative limit on Key Service Credits under this Section 8.3(b) of ***. For the avoidance of doubt, any amounts paid by First Data under this Section 8.3(b) shall be cumulative from the Effective Date, not the FAAR Effective Date, and credited toward any amounts owed by First Data hereunder.

(c) Key Service Incentive Payments. In addition to the right of RCSI to collect Key Service Credits for failures that are the responsibility of First Data as provided in Sections 8.3(a) and 8.3(b), RCSI shall make one-time incentive payments associated with performance of the Key Services when performance exceeds the minimum performance requirements for the Key Services and where such superior performance results (as between the Parties) solely from the actions of First Data (“Key Service Incentive Payments”). Such Key Service Incentive Payments shall be paid as follows: *** per success (except that for Known Software Conversion Modifications the per-success amount shall be *** with a cumulative limitation on payment for each individual Key Service category of *** (resulting in a cumulative cap on Key Service Incentive Payments under this Section 8.3(c) of ***.

8.4 Periodic Reviews.

At least annually during the Term RCSI and First Data will review the Service Levels and will make adjustments to them as appropriate to reflect improved performance capabilities associated with advances in technology, processes and methods. The Parties expect and understand that the Service Levels will be improved over time. As new technologies and processes are introduced, additional Service Levels reflecting industry best practices for those technologies and processes will be established in accordance with the procedures described in Schedule B.

8.5 Measurement and Monitoring Tools.

First Data shall utilize the necessary measurement and monitoring tools and procedures required to measure and report First Data’s performance of the Services against the applicable Service Levels. Such measurement and monitoring shall permit reporting at a level of detail sufficient to verify compliance with the Service Levels, and shall be subject to audit by RCSI. First Data shall provide RCSI with information and access to such tools and procedures upon request, for purposes of verification.

9. PROJECT AND CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

9.1 First Data - RCSI Contacts.

In terms of both providing daily operational support and supporting long-term strategic needs, First Data’s account management structure during the Term, unless otherwise requested by RCSI, shall provide for direct contact with its Chief Information Officer and his or her designees and representatives. First Data shall adjust contact as requested by RCSI. However, First Data Personnel are not to take any action respecting any request that is inconsistent with this Agreement or with any directions of the RCSI Contract Executive or his or her designee. First Data will inform RCSI of its receipt of any such inconsistent request. Only RCSI or a designee of RCSI (as identified by RCSI to First Data in writing) will be authorized to make commitments on the part of RCSI with First Data that amend this Agreement or waive compliance.

(a) Formation of Steering Committee. Within thirty (30) days of the FAAR Effective Date the Parties shall form a steering committee ("Steering Committee") to support and coordinate the relationship between First Data and RCSI. This support will include high-level discussions regarding policies, procedures, guiding principles of the relationship, issues associated with First Data's execution of the Services, allocation of resources, support and understanding of RCSI's strategic direction, review of priorities, introduction and approval of new Service Levels, data collection techniques, and modifications to existing Service Levels and related metrics. The Steering Committee shall also serve in an advisory role. (ii) First Data will, subject to RCSI review and approval, establish a Dashboard Report format for each Service Level. A sample format and structure is attached to Schedule B as Exhibit B-3.1. The purpose of a Dashboard Report is to report on First Data's success in achieving the standards set forth in the relevant Service Level. Dashboard Reports shall be generated using the RCSI approved measurement and monitoring tools and procedures required to measure and report on First Data's performance of the relevant Services as well as supporting metrics. Dashboard Reports will be provided to RCSI no less frequently than monthly and may be required more often as set forth in the individual Service Level. Dashboard Reports will be provided at no additional charge to RCSI.

The Quarterly Plan will:

(A) separately describe each material activity to be undertaken by First Data in connection with the Services, including on-going and planned Conversions, Software Conversion Modification projects and other AD projects, deconversions, the introduction of new systems and software and the maintenance releases, enhancements, upgrades, patches, new versions and other releases implemented in connection with the First Data Software;

If there is a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the Procedures Manual, the provisions of this Agreement shall control unless the Parties expressly agree otherwise and that agreement is set forth in the relevant portion of the Procedures Manual.

If RCSI expresses concerns to First Data about a subcontract covered by this Section 9.6(b), First Data shall discuss such concerns with RCSI and work in good faith to resolve RCSI's concerns on a mutually acceptable basis.

(c) First Data Subcontracting Obligations. First Data shall remain responsible for obligations, services, and functions performed by subcontractors to the same extent as if such obligations, services and functions were performed by First Data employees and for purposes of this Agreement such work shall be deemed work performed by First Data. (a) Audit Reports. Within fifteen (15) days following RCSI's receipt of an audit or examination, to the extent possible, RCSI or its auditor shall provide First Data with a report of the audit findings that pertain to First Data. Thereafter RCSI may conduct (in the case of an internal audit), or request its external auditors or examiners or regulatory agencies to conduct, an exit conference with First Data to obtain factual concurrence with issues identified in the review. RCSI and First Data agree to develop operating procedures for the sharing of audit and regulatory findings and reports related to First Data's operating practices and procedures produced by auditors or regulators of either Party; provided, however, that the sharing of audit information (i) must relate to an audit relevant and specific to the Services provided to RCSI, and (ii) will be subject to First Data's confidentiality obligation to other customers; and further provided, however, that First Data shall extend every reasonable effort to gain permission to release their confidentiality obligation to support these audit efforts.

(c) Audit Problem Resolution. If an audit report indicates that a problem exists, then within ten (10) days following RCSI's receipt of the report, the Parties will meet to review that problem and to agree mutually upon the appropriate manner, if any, in which to address the problem.

(d) Audit Overcharges. If an audit shows that First Data has overcharged RCSI, First Data will be obligated, at RCSI's option, to credit to RCSI's account an amount equal to the amount of the overcharge plus interest at the Default Rate calculated from the date the overcharge was paid by RCSI to First Data, or to pay the amount to RCSI directly. If an audit shows that First Data overcharged RCSI on any invoice by more than two and one half percent (2.5%) (including Pass-Through Expenses) of the correct amount of the invoice, then First Data will also pay RCSI an amount equal to the cost of the audit.

10.3 Annual Audit

Annually, First Data will cause to be conducted a third party audit of its operations as they relate to the Services. The audit will be conducted by a national major auditing firm, in conformance with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statements of Auditing Standards No. 70 Type II ("SAS 70"), or any successor or substitute statement adopted by such, and its scope will include the processes and internal controls maintained by First Data to provide the Services. Promptly after completion of each audit, First Data will provide RCSI with a copy of the audit report. In addition, First Data will promptly correct any concerns or weaknesses expressed in the audit report and will provide a summary report promptly to RCSI of those responses and First Data's success in correcting those concerns or weaknesses.

10.4 Record Keeping and Record Retention

(a) Record Retention. First Data will maintain complete and accurate records of, and supporting documentation for, the amounts billable to and payments made by RCSI under this Agreement. First Data agrees to provide RCSI with documentation and other information with respect to each invoice as may be reasonably requested by RCSI to verify accuracy and compliance with the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Access to Records. Until no longer required to meet RCSI's records retention policy, as that policy may be adjusted from time to time but no later than the date three (3) years after the date of the invoice to RCSI of the related charges unless otherwise required by law, First Data will maintain and provide access upon request to the records, documents and other information required to meet RCSI's requirements and audit rights under this Agreement.

In addition to RCSI's responsibilities as expressly set forth elsewhere in this Agreement, RCSI shall be responsible for the following:

RCSI shall cooperate with First Data by, among other things, making available, as reasonably requested by First Data, management decisions, information, approvals and acceptances so that First Data may accomplish its obligations and responsibilities hereunder. The RCSI Contract Executive or his or her designee will be the principal point of contact for obtaining such decisions, information, approvals, and acceptances.

11.2 Savings Clause

***. First Data's nonperformance of its obligations under this Agreement shall be excused if and to the extent:

(a) such First Data nonperformance results from RCSI's failure to perform its responsibilities; and

(b) First Data provides RCSI with reasonable notice of such nonperformance and, if so requested by RCSI, uses Commercially Reasonable Efforts to perform notwithstanding RCSI's failure to perform (with RCSI reimbursing First Data for its additional Out-of-Pocket Expenses for such efforts).

12. CHARGES

12.1 General

All Charges for the Services are set forth in this Article 12, Section 11.2(b), Section 21.7(f) and in Schedule C. RCSI shall not be required to pay First Data any amounts for the Services in addition to those payable to First Data under this Article 12, the Sections referenced above, or Schedule C.

12.2 Pass-Through Expenses.

(a) Pass-Through Expenses are charges to be paid directly by RCSI or through First Data. All Pass-Through Expenses are listed in Schedule C. If the Parties agree that a particular Pass-Through Expense is to be paid by RCSI directly, First Data shall promptly provide RCSI with the original third-party invoice for such expense together with a statement that First Data has reviewed the invoiced charges and made a determination of which charges are proper and valid and should be paid by RCSI. Otherwise, First Data shall act as payment agent for RCSI and shall pay third-party charges comprising the Pass-Through Expense. Prior to making any such payment, however, First Data shall review the invoice charges to determine whether such charges are proper and valid and should be paid. Upon request and subject to First Data's confidentiality requirements with its suppliers, First Data shall provide RCSI with a reasonable opportunity to review the invoice to confirm First Data's determination. Following such review by First Data and RCSI, First Data shall pay the amounts due and shall invoice RCSI for such charges.

(b) First Data shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to ***. With respect to services or materials paid for on a Pass-Through Expenses basis, RCSI reserves the right to:

(i) obtain such services or materials ***;

(ii)*** for such services or materials;

(iii)*** or materials (e.g., equipment make and model) First Data shall obtain, provided that if First Data demonstrates to RCSI that such designation will have an adverse impact on First Data's ability to meet the Service Levels, such designation shall be ***;

(iv) require First Data to *** share the results thereof with RCSI; and

(v) review and approve the Pass-Through Expense for such services or materials ***.

12.3 Incidental Expenses.

First Data acknowledges that, except as may be otherwise provided in this Agreement, expenses that First Data expects to incur in performing the Services (including travel and lodging, document reproduction and administrative correspondence shipping, and long-distance telephone) are included in First Data's charges and rates set forth in this Agreement. Accordingly, such First Data expenses are not separately reimbursable by RCSI unless, on a case-by-case basis for unusual expenses, RCSI has agreed in advance and in writing to reimburse First Data for the expense. RCSI acknowledges that it will be responsible for its own incidental expense (including travel and lodging, document reproduction and administrative correspondence shipping, and long-distance telephone).

12.4 Personnel Utilization.

(b) Staffing of RCSI Account Management Team. The following list sets forth the RCSI Account Management Team functions portions of which have been assumed by RCSI in exchange for a reduced Monthly Active Account Services Fee. It has been assumed that RCSI will provide these resource levels for the functions identified below to augment the resources levels provided by the RCSI Account Management Team to support these functions for the Term. It has been mutually determined by RCSI and First Data that if First Data is requested to assume such responsibilities of the RCSI resources at any time during the Term, First Data will hire the necessary personnel (up to a maximum of *** FTE's) and will charge RCSI the actual direct Out-of-Pocket Expenses of employing such individuals.

12.5 Taxes

The Parties' respective responsibilities for taxes arising under or in connection with this Agreement shall be as follows:

(a) Personal Property Taxes. Each Party shall be responsible for any personal property taxes on property it owns or leases, for franchise and privilege taxes on its business, and for taxes based on its net income or gross receipts.

(b) Sales Taxes on First Data Goods and Services. First Data shall be responsible for any sales, use, excise, gross receipts, value-added, services, consumption, and other taxes and duties payable by First Data on any goods or services used or consumed by First Data in providing the Services where the tax is imposed on First Data's acquisition or use of such goods or services and the amount of tax is measured by First Data's costs in acquiring such goods or services.

(c) Sales Taxes on Services. RCSI shall be responsible for any sales, use, excise, gross receipts, value-added, services, consumption, or other tax existing as of the Effective Date that is assessed on the provision of the Services as a whole, or on any particular Services received by RCSI from First Data. RCSI will be responsible for any sales, use, excise, gross receipts, value-added, services, consumption, or other tax becoming applicable during the Term (or that is increased during the Term) that is assessed on the provision of the Services as a whole, or on any particular Service received by RCSI from First Data.

(d) Segregation of Tax Payments. If a sales, use, excise, gross receipts, value-added, services, consumption, or other tax is assessed on the provision of any of the Services, the Parties shall work together to segregate the payments under this Agreement into three (3) payment streams:

(i) those for taxable Services;

(ii) those in which First Data functions merely as a payment agent for RCSI in receiving goods, supplies, or services (including leasing and licensing arrangements); and

(iii) those for other nontaxable Services.

(e) Cooperation. The Parties agree to cooperate with each other to enable each to more accurately determine its own tax liability and to minimize such liability to the extent legally permissible. First Data's invoices shall separately state the amounts of any taxes First Data is collecting from RCSI, and First Data shall remit such taxes to the appropriate authorities. Each Party shall provide and make available to the other any resale certificates, information regarding out-of-state or out-of-country sales or use of equipment, materials or Services, other exemption certificates, power of attorney or other necessary authorizations or information reasonable requested by the other Party.

(f) Review Of and Responses To Taxes. First Data shall promptly notify RCSI of, and coordinate with RCSI the response to any claim for taxes asserted by applicable taxing authorities for which RCSI is responsible hereunder. RCSI shall, at its option and expense (including, if required by a taxing authority, payment of any such tax, interest or penalty prior to final resolution of the issue) have the right to request, which request shall not be denied, delayed, subject to any conditions, or withheld by First Data, to seek administrative relief, a ruling, judicial review (original or appellant level) or other appropriate review (hereinafter referred to as "Proceeding(s)") (in a manner deemed appropriate by RCSI), as to the applicability of any tax, interest or penalty, or to protest any assessment and participate with First Data in any legal challenge to such assessment, but RCSI shall be responsible hereunder for payment of any such amount ultimately determined to be due. Notwithstanding the above, such responsibility is subject to First Data providing RCSI notice within ten (10) business days of receiving any proposed assessment of any additional taxes, interest or penalty due by First Data, and First Data shall provide RCSI with the necessary authority or powers to enable RCSI the opportunity to participate in such Proceeding(s) or other appropriate review as to the applicability of any such taxes prior to any assessment of additional taxes; provided, however, that First Data's failure to provide timely notice shall not effect the indemnity hereunder to the extent such failure does not actually prejudice RCSI. First Data shall, when requested by RCSI and at RCSI's expense, cooperate with and/or allow RCSI to participate with First Data in any such Proceeding, protest or legal challenge related to matters for which RCSI is responsible. In any proceeding which involves issues affecting both RCSI and other First Data customers, First Data shall make reasonable efforts to sever the issues relating to RCSI from all other issues raised in the Proceeding, so that RCSI may control the portion of the Proceeding relating to RCSI, and First Data may control the portion of the Proceeding relating to those issues that do not relate to RCSI; provided, however, that if First Data is unable to sever the issues in a Proceeding, First Data shall control the Proceeding, but shall give RCSI the right to participate in any Proceeding(s). Notwithstanding the above, RCSI's participation in any Proceeding shall not prohibit or inhibit First Data from concluding or resolving matters related to First Data or First Data's other clients, provided, however, that First Data shall not pay any claimed liability or settle any Proceeding unless RCSI has consented in writing to such payment or settlement, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(g) Refunds and Rebates. RCSI shall be entitled to any tax refunds or rebates granted to the extent such refunds or rebates are of taxes that were paid by RCSI.

12.6 New Services And Enhancements.

(a) Definition of New Services. "New Services" shall refer to functionality, services or products (i) that are materially different from and in addition to the Services or those services explicitly priced in Schedule C, and (ii) that are reasonably and logically connected to the Services, including skip tracing. Any changes to functionality, services or products that relate to the Services are enhancements. It is the expectation of the Parties that ***. For avoidance of doubt, RCSI may elect to receive New Services under this Section 12.6 that could also be characterized as new services under the PSA or services or new services under any other agreement between the Parties. For the further avoidance of doubt, ***. RCSI will not terminate a service that RCSI is receiving under the PSA as of the FAAR Effective Date or any replacement of such service in order to request a replacement product for such service as a New Service under this Agreement.

(b) First Data-Initiated Enhancements. First Data may ***.

(c) RCSI-Initiated Enhancements. RCSI shall pay the applicable Development Hour rate as set forth in Schedule C for labor required to develop enhancements requested by RCSI ("RCSI-Initiated Enhancements") on the terms agreed upon by the Parties with respect to such engagement. ***.

(d) RCSI-Initiated New Services. RCSI shall pay the applicable Development Hour rate as set forth in Schedule C for labor required to develop New Services requested by RCSI ("RCSI-Initiated New Services") on the terms agreed upon by the Parties and may be subject to new charges proposed by First Data and agreed to by RCSI.

(e) New Service Charges. ***.

(f) New Services Subject to this Agreement. If RCSI elects to have First Data perform the additional functions, the charges under this Agreement shall be adjusted, if appropriate, to reflect such functions, in a manner consistent with the other provisions of this Section 12.6. If RCSI so elects, such services shall then be deemed “Services” and shall be subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

(g) Third Parties. ***.

(h) Replacement System. If a First Data Initiated Enhancement is proposed by First Data to be provided using a replacement system, First Data shall:

(i)***; or

12.8 Benchmarks for Charges.

(a) Benchmarking. At RCSI’s request, the quality and pricing of the Services shall be measured to determine ***, to their respective customers (such process, the “Benchmarking”). With respect to Benchmarking, the following shall apply:

(i) The Parties will establish a joint RCSI - First Data Benchmarking committee (the “Benchmarking Committee”) comprised of an equal number of RCSI and First Data Personnel.

(ii) Within thirty (30) days of formation, or by such other date as is agreed by the Parties, the Benchmarking Committee will select a consultant (the “Benchmarker”) who is an independent industry-recognized benchmarking service provider to perform the Benchmarking. If the Benchmarking Committee fails to select the Benchmarker by such required date, RCSI may select one of Gartner Group, Compass Management Consulting Ltd. and Meta Group (or their successors) or any other entity proposed by First Data as the Benchmarker, and such choice shall be deemed accepted by the Benchmarking Committee.

(iii) Each Party shall provide to the Benchmarker reasonable access to its knowledgeable personnel and pertinent documents and records required to perform the Benchmarking. To the extent any document or record is subject to confidentiality obligations under an agreement with a third party, the Party having a duty of non-disclosure will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to provide the required documents and records subject to appropriate redaction of the identity of such third party or if such redaction will not sufficiently comply with its obligations, each Party shall limit disclosure to such documents to which it has obtained third party consent for disclosure. The Services shall be Benchmarked in the aggregate, taking into account RCSI volumes (including mix of Services), then-current pricing, and then-current Service Levels, and the Benchmarker shall identify in writing to the Benchmarking Committee all variances which, in the aggregate, could be material, ***.

(iv) If any variances that in the aggregate are unfavorable to RCSI are identified by the Benchmarking Committee, First Data shall, upon agreement by the Benchmarking Committee, make the necessary adjustments to the pricing, Service Levels, and other components of this Agreement in order to ***.

(v) The first Benchmarking may not occur until after six (6) months following the Final Conversion Date, and further Benchmarking may occur no more frequently than every *** years thereafter.

(b) Costs. The charges of the Benchmarking Committee will be shared equally by the Parties.

13. INVOICING AND PAYMENT

13.1 Invoicing

(a) Invoicing in Arrears. First Data shall invoice RCSI for all amounts due under this Agreement on a monthly basis in arrears. First Data will provide RCSI with all necessary information on-line in order for RCSI to validate the charges, and a monthly paper invoice will follow. The invoice shall show details as to charges as reasonably specified by RCSI. First Data shall include the calculations utilized to establish the charges in sufficient detail to enable RCSI to confirm the accuracy of the charges included in the invoice.

(b) Credits. To the extent a credit may be due RCSI pursuant to this Agreement, First Data shall provide RCSI with an appropriate credit against amounts then due and owing; if no further payments are due to First Data, First Data shall pay such amounts to RCSI within thirty (30) days.

(c) Consolidated Invoices. First Data shall render a single consolidated invoice for each month's charges, showing such details as reasonably specified by RCSI, including as necessary to satisfy RCSI's internal accounting and chargeback requirements (such as allocating charges among RCSI Affiliates and business units, Service components, projects, locations, and departments). Such invoice shall separately state the amounts of any taxes First Data is collecting from RCSI. For each item or Service charged the invoice shall provide the clause in Schedule C authorizing First Data to charge for such item or Service.

(d) Omitted Amounts. If First Data discovers that an invoice failed to include any amounts that were properly billable to RCSI, First Data will identify those amounts in detail and will explain the reason for the omission at the time of the appropriate invoice. First Data waives, and RCSI shall not be responsible for, any amount that is invoiced later than *** after RCSI's receipt of the related invoice.

13.2 Payment Due

(a) Payment Due Date. Other than Pass-Through Expenses for postage and subject to the other provisions of this Article 13, invoices provided for under Section 13.1 and properly submitted to RCSI pursuant to this Agreement shall be due and payable by RCSI within *** days after receipt thereof. Any other amount due under this Agreement for which a time for payment is not otherwise specified also shall be due and payable within *** days after receipt of a proper invoice for such amount.

(b) Payment by e-Pcard. If First Data so elects, RCSI may pay all charges due (other than Pass-Through Expenses for postage) more than ninety (90) days after the FAAR Effective Date by e-Pcard, without gross-up or surcharge of any kind. First Data shall be responsible for all fees or charges (including all inter-exchange fees) associated with payment by e-Pcard. Payments by e-Pcard shall be made within three (3) business days following RCSI's receipt of the relevant invoice.

13.3 Accountability.

First Data shall maintain complete and accurate records of, and supporting documentation for, the amounts billable to and payments made by RCSI hereunder, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis. First Data agrees to provide RCSI with documentation and other information with respect to each invoice as may be reasonably requested by RCSI to verify accuracy and compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. RCSI and its authorized agents and representatives shall have access to such records for purposes of audit during normal business hours during the Term and during the period for which First Data is required to maintain such records.

13.4 Proration.

Periodic charges under this Agreement are to be computed on a calendar month basis, and shall be prorated for any partial month.

13.5 Refundable Items.

(a) Prepaid Amounts. Where RCSI has prepaid for a service or function for which First Data is assuming financial responsibility under this Agreement, First Data shall refund to RCSI, upon either Party identifying the prepayment, that portion of such prepaid expense which is attributable to periods on and after the Effective Date.

(b) Refunds and Credits. If First Data should receive a refund, credit or other rebate for goods or services previously paid for by RCSI, First Data shall promptly notify RCSI of such refund, credit or rebate and shall promptly pay the full amount of such refund, credit or rebate, as the case may be to RCSI. Unless previously paid to RCSI, First Data will reflect any refund, credit or rebate as a reduction of the amounts payable to First Data in the next invoice delivered to RCSI under this Agreement. If no further payments are due to First Data under this Agreement, First Data shall pay such amounts to RCSI within thirty (30) days of RCSI's request therefore.

13.6 Deduction.

With respect to an amount to be paid by RCSI hereunder, RCSI may deduct from that amount any amount that First Data is obligated to pay or credit to RCSI.

13.7 Disputed Charges.

Subject to Section 13.6, RCSI shall pay undisputed charges when such payments are due under this Article 13 and Schedule C. RCSI may withhold payment of particular charges that RCSI disputes in good faith. RCSI agrees to notify First Data within one hundred eighty (180) days and use best efforts to resolve in a timely manner any material disputed charges.

14. SAFEGUARDING OF DATA; CONFIDENTIALITY

14.1 RCSI Information.

(a) Ownership of RCSI Information. RCSI Information shall be and remain the property of RCSI. First Data shall not assert any lien or other right against or to RCSI Information. No RCSI Information, or any part thereof, shall be sold, assigned, leased, or otherwise disposed of to third parties by First Data or commercially exploited by or on behalf of First Data, its employees or agents.

(b) Return of RCSI Information. Upon any of (i) RCSI's request, (ii) the expiration of this Agreement, or (iii) the termination of this Agreement for any reason (including termination for cause) or, with respect to any particular data, on such earlier date that the same shall be no longer required by First Data in order to render the Services hereunder, such RCSI Information (including copies thereof in the possession or under the control of First Data, except as necessary to comply with regulatory requirements applicable to First Data) shall be promptly returned to RCSI by First Data in a form reasonably requested by RCSI or, if RCSI so elects, shall be destroyed by First Data.

(c) Use of RCSI Information. RCSI Information shall not be utilized by First Data for any purpose other than that of rendering the Services under this Agreement.

14.2 Safeguarding RCSI Data.

(a) Safeguards. First Data shall establish and maintain safeguards against the destruction, loss, or alteration of RCSI Data in its possession which are no less rigorous than the most stringent safeguards maintained by First Data for its other customers of services similar to the Services. RCSI may establish backup security for data and to keep backup data and data files in its possession if it chooses.

(b) First Data Obligations. Without limiting the generality of Section 14.2(a) above:

(i) First Data Personnel shall not attempt to access, or allow access to, any RCSI Data or RCSI Information which is not required for performance of the Services by such First Data Personnel. If such access is attained, First Data shall use best efforts to promptly report such incident to RCSI, describe in detail any accessed materials and return to RCSI any copied or removed materials.

(ii) First Data shall institute industry *** systems security, backup and disaster recovery measures that are at least as stringent as the DR Standards set forth in Exhibit A-7 to guard against the unauthorized access, alteration, destruction or loss of RCSI Data. Such measures shall include the installation of software which:

- (A) requires all users to enter a user identification number and password prior to gaining access to the information systems;
- (B) controls and tracks the addition and deletion of users;
- (C) controls user access to areas and features of the systems; and
- (D) requires passwords to be changed periodically and under specified circumstances.

(c) Inventory. First Data will be responsible for the security of all RCSI customized inventory, including plastics, in its possession or under its control.

14.3 First Data Information.

(a) Ownership of First Data Information. First Data Information shall be and remain the property of First Data. RCSI shall not assert any lien or other right against or to First Data Information. Subject to the rights of RCSI provided in Section 3.1(c), no First Data Information, or any part thereof, shall be sold, assigned, leased, or otherwise disposed of to third parties by RCSI or commercially exploited by or on behalf of RCSI, its employees or agents.

(b) Return of First Data Information. Upon (i) the expiration of this Agreement, (ii) the termination of this Agreement for any reason (including termination for cause) or, (iii) with respect to any particular data, on such earlier date that the same shall be no longer required by RCSI in order to receive and use the Services hereunder, but subject in all cases to the provisions of Sections 7.3(c) and 21.7, such First Data Information (including copies thereof in the possession or under the control of RCSI, except as necessary to comply with regulatory requirements applicable to RCSI) shall be promptly returned to First Data by RCSI in a form reasonably requested by First Data or, if First Data so elects, shall be destroyed.

(c) Use of First Data Information. First Data Information shall not be utilized by RCSI for any purpose other than that of receiving and using the Services under this Agreement.

14.4 Safeguarding First Data Data.

(a) Safeguards. RCSI shall establish and maintain safeguards against the destruction, loss, or alteration of First Data Data in its possession which are no less rigorous than those maintained by RCSI for its own information of a similar nature. First Data may establish backup security for data and to keep backup data and data files in its possession if it chooses.

(b) Obligations. Without limiting the generality of Section 14.4(a) above, RCSI employees shall not attempt to access, or allow access to, any First Data Data or First Data Information which is not required for receiving or using the Services. If such access is attained, RCSI shall use best efforts to promptly report such incident to First Data, describe in detail any accessed materials and return to First Data any copied or removed materials.

14.5 Confidentiality.

(a) Confidential Information. First Data and RCSI each acknowledge that they may be furnished with, receive, or otherwise have access to information of or concerning the other Party or its Affiliates which such Party or its Affiliates considers to be confidential, proprietary, a trade secret or otherwise restricted. As used in this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean all information, in any form, furnished or made available directly or indirectly by one Party to the other which is marked confidential, restricted, proprietary, or with a similar designation. The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be deemed Confidential Information.

(b) RCSI Confidential Information. In the case of RCSI, Confidential Information also shall include, whether or not designated "Confidential Information",

(i) all specifications, designs, documents, correspondence, software, documentation, data and other materials and work products produced by RCSI, its Affiliates, or its or their agents or representatives;

(ii) all information concerning the operations, affairs and businesses of RCSI or its Affiliates (including ideas, marketing plans, business strategies, data and other information that are trade secrets or are competitively sensitive), the financial affairs of RCSI or its Affiliates, and the relations of RCSI with its customers, employees and service providers (including RCSI lists, RCSI information, account information, transaction information, and consumer markets);

(iii) software provided to First Data by or through RCSI;

(iv) RCSI New Materials;

(v) information about, regarding or provided by, a RCSI customer (including RCSI Customer Information); and

(vi) other information or data concerning RCSI and its businesses or customers stored on magnetic media or otherwise or communicated orally, and obtained, received, transmitted, processed, stored, archived, or maintained by First Data under this Agreement (collectively, the "RCSI Confidential Information").

(c) First Data Confidential Information. In the case of First Data, Confidential Information also shall include, whether or not designated “Confidential Information”,

(i) all User Manuals, specifications, designs, documents, correspondence, software, software documentation, data and other materials and work products owned or produced by First Data or its Affiliates in the course of performing the Services, except for RCSI New Materials;

(ii) all information concerning the operations, affairs and businesses of First Data (including ideas, marketing plans, business strategies, data and other information that are trade secrets or are competitively sensitive), the financial affairs of First Data or its Affiliates, and the relations of First Data with its customers, employees and service providers (including First Data lists, First Data information, account information and consumer markets);

(iii) software provided to RCSI by or through First Data, and

(iv) other information or data concerning First Data and its businesses or other customers stored on magnetic media or otherwise or communicated orally, and obtained, received, transmitted, processed, stored, archived, or maintained by First Data under this Agreement (collectively, the “First Data Confidential Information”); provided, however, that First Data Confidential Information shall not include RCSI New Materials or any other RCSI Confidential Information.

(d) Obligations.

(i) Each Party’s Confidential Information shall remain the property of that Party except as expressly provided otherwise by the other provisions of this Agreement. RCSI and First Data shall each use at least the same degree of care, but in any event no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent disclosing to third parties the Confidential Information of the other as it employs to avoid unauthorized disclosure, publication or dissemination of its own information of a similar nature; provided that the Parties may disclose such information to an employee, officer, director, agents, representative, external or internal auditors and independent contractors of the Party or of an Affiliate of the Party requiring access to the same in the course of his or her employment or his, her or its engagement, provided that such individual or entity is bound either by contract or professional obligation to confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those binding on the Party hereunder. Furthermore, the Parties may disclose such information to entities performing services required hereunder where:

(A) use of such entity is authorized under this Agreement;

(B) such disclosure is necessary or otherwise naturally occurs in that entity’s scope of responsibility; and

(C) the entity agrees in writing to assume the obligations described in this Section 14.5.

(ii) As requested by a Party during the Term but, in the case of First Data Information except as required by RCSI in order to receive and use the Services and upon expiration or any termination of this Agreement and completion of the other Party's obligations under this Agreement, and as permitted by the next sentence, such other Party shall return or destroy, as the requesting Party may direct, all material in any medium that contains, refers to, or relates to the requesting Party's Confidential Information. Neither Party shall retain copies of the other Party's Confidential Information (except as may be necessary to comply with regulatory requirements applicable to the retaining Party).

(iii) Each Party shall take reasonable steps to ensure that its employees comply with these confidentiality provisions.

(iv) Neither Party shall alter or remove any identification, copyright or proprietary rights notice which indicates the ownership of any part of the other Party's Confidential Information.

(e) Exclusions. This Section 14.5 shall not apply to any particular information which First Data or RCSI can demonstrate:

(i) was, at the time of disclosure to it, in the public domain;

(ii) after disclosure to it, is published or otherwise becomes part of the public domain through no fault of the receiving Party;

(iii) was received from a third party who had a lawful right to disclose such information to it without any obligation to restrict its further use or disclosure;

or

(iv) was independently developed by the receiving Party without reference to Confidential Information of the furnishing Party or its Affiliates.

In addition, a Party shall not be considered to have breached its obligations by disclosing Confidential Information of the other Party as required to satisfy any legal requirement of a competent government body, and First Data shall not be considered to have breached its obligations by making, in the course of providing the Services, RCSI Confidential Information available to VISA, MasterCard, other Associations, or to supervisory or regulatory authorities of RCSI or First Data upon the written request of any of the foregoing, provided that, immediately upon receiving any such request and to the extent that it may legally do so, such Party advises the other Party promptly and prior to making such disclosure in order that the other Party may interpose an objection to such disclosure, take action to assure confidential handling of the Confidential Information, or take such other action as it deems appropriate to protect the Confidential Information.

(f) Loss of Confidential Information. In the event of any disclosure or loss of, or inability to account for, any Confidential Information of the furnishing Party, the receiving Party shall promptly, at its own expense:

(i) notify the furnishing Party in writing;

(ii) take such actions as may be necessary or reasonably requested by the furnishing Party to minimize the violation or the damage resulting therefrom;

and

(iii) cooperate in all reasonable respects with the furnishing Party to minimize the violation and any damage resulting therefrom.

(g) No Implied Rights. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, nothing this Section 14.5 shall be construed as obligating a Party to disclose its Confidential Information to the other Party, or as granting to or conferring on a Party, expressly or impliedly, any rights or license to the Confidential Information of the other Party.

(h) Release of Information. Despite the foregoing, RCSI agrees that RCSI Confidential Information may be made available to VISA, MasterCard, other Associations, or to supervisory or regulatory authorities of RCSI or of First Data upon the written request of any of the foregoing; provided, however, upon receipt of the request and prior to making the information available, First Data shall provide notice to RCSI of such request and shall provide RCSI a reasonable period of time in which RCSI may object to such disclosure, including obtaining suitable contractual protection of Confidential Information.

14.6 Provisions For Data Privacy Compliance.

(a) In addition to and not in limitation of First Data's other obligations of confidentiality and non-disclosure under this Agreement: (i) First Data will implement appropriate administrative, technical, and physical safeguards and other appropriate measures to protect the security, confidentiality and integrity of Non-Public Personal Information relating to customers of RCSI and its Affiliates and, to the extent relevant to the GLB Act, other RCSI Information received by First Data from RCSI and its Affiliates, all as may be appropriate to meet the objectives of the GLB Act, including its implementing regulations promulgated thereunder and the guidelines issued pursuant to § 501 of the GLB Act; and (ii) First Data shall not use any Non-Public Personal Information relating to RCSI's customers received from RCSI or its Affiliates or obtained as a result of Services performed for RCSI ("RCSI Customer Information") except as necessary in the ordinary course of business to perform Services hereunder or as authorized in writing by RCSI. First Data will ensure that any such third party to whom RCSI authorizes First Data to transfer or provide access to RCSI Customer Information (other than those who RCSI has instructed First Data to transfer or provide access, who shall be RCSI's responsibility):

(i) signs a written agreement to restrict its use of RCSI Customer Information to the use specified in the agreement between the First Data and the third party (which use must be in conjunction with First Data's performance of its obligations hereunder);

(ii) agrees to restrict disclosure of Non-Public Personal Information of RCSI and its Affiliates as provided in this Section; and

(iii) agrees to implement and maintain appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to protect the security, confidentiality and integrity of all RCSI Customer Information as provided herein.

(b) First Data will be responsible for the acts or omissions of any third party to whom it transfers or provides access to RCSI Customer Information hereunder, other than a third party whom RCSI or its Affiliates has instructed First Data to make such disclosure.

(a) Compliance and Adverse Impact. First Data is solely responsible for compliance with all laws, regulations, ordinances and codes (including identifying and procuring required permits, certificates, approvals and inspections), and including applicable Association rules and regulations applicable to First Data as a third party provider of processing services. If a charge of non-compliance with any such laws, regulations, ordinances, codes, by-laws, rules, or regulations or other legal requirements which may have an adverse impact on RCSI occurs, First Data promptly shall notify RCSI of such charges in writing. First Data shall maintain the First Data System so that the First Data System (including the Services provided thereunder) contains functionality enabling RCSI to comply with the Legal Requirements ***, to the extent the Legal Requirements pertain to RCSI and to any RCSI activities for which RCSI uses the Services. ***

(b) RCSI's Responsibilities. RCSI is responsible for monitoring and interpreting the federal, state and local laws, regulations, ordinances and codes pertaining to usury, equal credit opportunity, truth in lending, fair credit billing, fair credit reporting, fair debt collection practices, general consumer protection, the GLB Act, the Privacy Directive and any legislation enacted by relevant European Union Member States and European Economic Area members to implement the Privacy Directive, and VISA, MasterCard and other Association by-laws, rules and regulations applicable to RCSI in connection with RCSI's use of the Services (collectively, the "Legal Requirements"). RCSI is responsible for selecting the available parameter settings and programming features and options within the First Data System that apply to RCSI's use of the Services in compliance with the Legal Requirements and for determining that such selections are consistent with the Legal Requirements and with the terms and conditions of RCSI's contracts with its Cardholders. In making such determinations, RCSI may rely on the descriptions of such settings, features, and options provided by First Data. First Data shall review with and explain to RCSI such settings, features and options and shall provide clarification on the operation of such features as requested by RCSI. First Data shall perform the Services in a manner that complies with the directives of RCSI based on RCSI's interpretation of the Legal Requirements and its selection of First Data System parameter settings and programming features and options.

(c) Information and Records. Subject to Article 14, each Party shall cooperate in providing information and/or records to the other Party in connection with the examinations, requests or proceedings of its regulatory agencies.

(d) Compliance Practices. Whenever relevant information is available to First Data, and subject to Article 14, First Data shall share with RCSI information concerning the various compliance practices and interpretive positions taken by its customer base related to or in connection with the use of the Services and any functionality available on the First Data System, as well as the understandings which First Data Personnel may have with respect to such practices and positions.

(e) Agreement Execution. First Data represents and warrants that its execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement shall not constitute a violation of any judgment, order, or decree; a material default under any material contract by which it or any of its material assets are bound; or an event that would, with notice or lapse of time, or both, constitute such a default.

15.8 Absence of Litigation.

First Data represents and warrants that there is no claim, or any litigation, proceeding, arbitration, investigation or material controversy pending to which First Data or any of First Data's Affiliates, agents, or representatives is a party, relating to the provision of the services offered by First Data, including the Services, or which would have a material adverse effect on First Data's ability to enter into this Agreement and perform its obligations thereunder and, to the best of First Data's knowledge, no such claim, litigation, proceeding, arbitration, investigation, or material controversy has been threatened or is contemplated. First Data shall promptly notify RCSI in writing if it receives written notice of any claim, litigation, proceeding, arbitration, investigation or material controversy to which First Data or any of its Affiliates, representatives or agents is a party, that, if adversely determined, would have a material and adverse affect on RCSI or any of its Affiliates, on any of the Services or First Data's ability to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement.

15.9 Authorization.

Each Party represents and warrants to the other that:

(a) Entering into the Agreement. It has the requisite corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

15.10 Inducements.

First Data represents and warrants to RCSI that it has not knowingly violated any applicable laws or regulations or any RCSI policies of which First Data has been given notice regarding the offering of unlawful inducements in connection with this Agreement. If at any time during the Term, RCSI determines that the foregoing warranty is inaccurate, then, in addition to any other rights RCSI may have at law or in equity, RCSI may terminate this Agreement for cause without affording First Data an opportunity to cure.

15.11 Viruses.

First Data represents and warrants that it will ensure that no Viruses are coded or introduced into the First Data System or into the RCSI information environment through the First Data System or the Services. If (a) a Virus which has adversely effected, or could adversely effect, the Services or the RCSI Data in the possession or under the control of First Data, is found to have been introduced into the First Data System or (b) a Virus has been introduced into the RCSI information environment through the First Data System or the Services, First Data promptly will:

(i) notify RCSI of the introduction and the extent of any known damage to the RCSI Data;

(ii) if the Virus is in the First Data System, eradicate the Virus, repair any damage to the RCSI Data and eliminate any adverse effect on the Services resulting from the Virus or the eradication thereof; and

(iii) if the Virus has been introduced into the RCSI information environment through the First Data System or the Services, assist RCSI in eradicating the Virus and reducing the effects of the Virus and, if the Virus causes a loss of operational efficiency or loss of data, assist RCSI to mitigate and restore those losses.

15.12 Disabling Code.

First Data represents and warrants that, without the prior written consent of RCSI, First Data shall not knowingly insert into the First Data Software any code which would have the effect of disabling or otherwise shutting down all or any portion of the First Data Software or Services. First Data further represents and warrants that, with respect to any disabling code that may be part of the First Data Software, First Data shall not invoke such disabling code at any time, including upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, without RCSI's prior written consent.

15.13 Software Deliverables.

Unless expressly addressed elsewhere in this Agreement, with respect to each software deliverable from First Data, First Data represents and warrants that for the entire Term following acceptance of the deliverable by RCSI, the deliverable will conform to its Specifications, will be properly installed, operate properly and be error free. To the extent a deliverable does not comply with the foregoing, First Data will correct such problem(s) at no cost and at no loss of resources to RCSI.

15.14 First Data Personnel.

- (a) First Data represents and warrants that:
  - (i) First Data is not a party to a collective bargaining agreement applicable to the First Data employees;
  - (ii) none of the First Data employees are represented by any labor organization;
  - (iii) First Data is not aware of any campaign or effort by any labor organization or any person to organize the First Data Personnel; and
  - (iv) no First Data personnel are employed whose employment is not in full compliance with all applicable immigration laws.

Prior to engaging any subcontractor with respect to the Services, First Data will make reasonable inquiry of such subcontractor with respect to the foregoing topics and, if inquiry responses are affirmative, First Data will notify RCSI.

15.15 Disclaimer.

EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT, THERE ARE NO OTHER EXPRESS WARRANTIES AND THERE ARE NO IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THIS AGREEMENT IS A SERVICE AGREEMENT AND THE PROVISION OF THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE SHALL NOT APPLY TO IT.

16. MISCELLANEOUS COVENANTS

16.1 Special Terms

(b) This Section 16.1 shall not be used to interpret any other provision in this Agreement and the responsibilities of the Parties set forth in this Section 16.1 shall not affect the application or interpretation of any other provisions of this Agreement.

16.2 Effect of the Modification Agreement.

The terms and conditions of the Modification Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Attachment 1, are hereby incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement. To the extent that any term or condition of the Modification Agreement conflicts with or is inconsistent with any term or condition of this Agreement, the terms or conditions of this Agreement shall prevail.

16.3 Services Similar to the Patni Agreement Services

RCSI shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts (which shall not require any expense on RCSI's part) to assist First Data to obtain services from Patni Computer Systems, Ltd. ("Patni") that are similar in scope and price as those services available to RCSI through the July 1, 2002 Task Order among GE Capital, Patni, and Data Conversion, Inc. ("DCI") (the "Patni Agreement"), which was entered into pursuant to the Software Services Agreement between DCI and General Electric International, Inc. dated February 26, 2002 (the "Patni Agreement Services"). The inability of First Data to obtain from Patni any services similar in scope and pricing to the Patni Agreement Services will not be a breach of this Agreement by RCSI.

This policy shall name RCSI and its Affiliates as loss payees.

(g) Errors and Omissions Liability Insurance. Errors and Omissions Liability Insurance covering the liability for financial loss due to error, omission, negligence of employees and machine malfunction in an amount of at least $10,000,000.

Upon request by RCSI, First Data shall cause its insurers to issue certificates of insurance evidencing that the coverages and policy endorsements required under this Agreement are maintained in force and that not less than thirty (30) days written notice shall be given to RCSI prior to any modification, cancellation or non-renewal of the policies. The insurers selected by First Data shall have an A.M. Best rating of A- or better or, if such ratings are no longer available, with a comparable rating from a recognized insurance rating agency. First Data shall assure that its subcontractors, if any, maintain insurance coverages as specified in this Article 17 or that, to the extent that any a subcontractor does not maintain the coverages, each such subcontractors will be listed as an additional named insured on the related coverage of First Data, as applicable.

17.2 Risk of Loss.

Each Party shall be responsible for risk of loss of, and damage to, any equipment, software or other materials in its possession or under its control.

18. INDEMNITIES

18.1 Indemnity by First Data.

First Data agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless RCSI and its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, and assigns, from any and all Losses and threatened Losses arising from, in connection with, or based on allegations of, any of the following:

(a) First Data's breach of any of its duties or obligations under this Agreement; and

(b) Any claims of infringement of any patent, trade secret, copyright or other proprietary rights, alleged to have occurred because of systems or other resources provided by First Data to RCSI, or based upon performance of the Services by First Data, except to the extent the claim:

(i) is caused by RCSI's use of the First Data System outside the intended scope of Services; or

(ii) directly relates to technical or business specifications and/or designs required by RCSI in connection with RCSI-Initiated Enhancements, RCSI-Initiated New Services, customized Evolve Applications or Evolve statement of work (but excluding the development and/or execution of same by First Data Personnel required by such specifications and/or designs).

18.2 Indemnity by RCSI.

RCSI agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless First Data and its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, and assigns, from any and all Losses and threatened Losses arising from, in connection with, or based on allegations of, any of the following:

(a) RCSI's breach of any of its duties or obligations under this Agreement;

(b) Any claims of infringement of any patent, trade secret, copyright or other proprietary rights, alleged to have occurred because of:

(i) RCSI's use of the First Data System in a manner outside the intended scope of Services; or

(ii) technical or business specifications and/or designs provided by RCSI in connection with RCSI-Initiated Enhancements or RCSI-Initiated New Services, Customized ESP Applications or ESP Statement of Work (but excluding the development and/or execution of same by First Data Personnel required by such specifications and/or designs).

(c) Any claims that arise in connection with First Data's use of other RCSI TSA Intellectual Property as authorized in Section 7.1(a) for the benefit of RCSI and its Affiliates; provided, however, that such indemnity obligation will not apply to usage thereof following the date RCSI has instructed First Data to cease all use of the allegedly infringing RCSI TSA Intellectual Property, except to the extent the claim is caused by First Data's use of the systems, software or other resources, or detailed business and technical specifications in combination with other systems not expressly authorized by RCSI.

18.3 Additional Indemnities.

Each Party shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Party, and the other Party's Affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, and assigns, from any and all Losses and threatened Losses arising from, in connection with, or based on allegations of, any of the following:

- (a) the death or bodily injury of any agent, employee, customer, business invitee, or business visitor or other person caused by the tortious conduct of the indemnitor;
- (b) the damage, loss or destruction of any real or tangible personal property caused by the tortious conduct of the indemnitor;
- (c) any claim, demand, charge, action, cause of action, or other proceeding asserted against the indemnitee but resulting from an act or omission of the indemnitor in its capacity as an employer of a person;
- (d) any claim by any person arising out of his or her employment with the indemnitor, any application for such employment or the termination thereof; and
- (e) any claim by any person alleging that such person is jointly employed by the indemnitee as a result of performing any services as an employee or independent contractor of the indemnitor.

18.4 Infringement.

(a) Each Party shall disclose to the other Party the existence of a written notice received from a third party alleging a claim of infringement or misappropriation regarding (i) in the case of First Data, any item which in First Data's reasonable discretion is materially or substantially related to the Services, and (ii) in the case of RCSI, any item which in RCSI's reasonable discretion is materially or substantially related to the RCSI TSA Intellectual Property. Such written disclosure by either Party shall be made to the other Party within ten (10) business days after a Party's receipt of notice of such claim.

(b) If any item used by First Data to provide the Services becomes, or in First Data's reasonable opinion is likely to become, the subject of an infringement or misappropriation claim or proceeding, or if RCSI's use of such item or any related Service is enjoined, First Data shall, in addition to indemnifying RCSI as provided in this Article 18 and to the other rights RCSI may have under this Agreement, promptly at First Data's expense take the following actions:

- (i) secure the right to continue using the item or replace or modify the item to make it non-infringing, provided that any such replacement or modification will not degrade the performance or quality of the affected component of the Services; or

(ii) if (i) is not available to First Data, remove the item from the Services without diminishing any functionality and equitably adjust First Data's charges to adequately reflect such removal.

18.5 Indemnification Procedures.

With respect to third-party claims, the following procedures shall apply:

(a) Notice. Promptly after receipt by any entity entitled to indemnification under Sections 18.1 through 18.3 of notice of the commencement or threatened commencement of any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action or proceeding involving a claim in respect of which the indemnitee will seek indemnification pursuant to any such Section, the indemnitee shall notify the indemnitor of such claim in writing. No failure to so notify an indemnitor shall relieve it of its obligations under this Agreement except to the extent that it can demonstrate damages attributable to such failure. Within fifteen (15) days following receipt of written notice from the indemnitee relating to any claim, but no later than ten (10) days before the date on which any response to a complaint or summons is due, the indemnitor shall notify the indemnitee in writing if the indemnitor elects to assume control of the defense and settlement of that claim (a "Notice of Election").

(b) Procedure Following Notice of Election. If the indemnitor delivers a Notice of Election relating to any claim within the required notice period, the indemnitor shall be entitled to have sole control over the defense and settlement of such claim; provided that (i) the indemnitee shall be entitled to participate in the defense of such claim and to employ counsel at its own expense to assist in the handling of such claim, and (ii) the indemnitor shall obtain the prior written approval of the indemnitee before entering into any settlement of such claim or ceasing to defend against such claim. After the indemnitor has delivered a Notice of Election relating to any claim in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the indemnitor shall not be liable to the indemnitee for any legal expenses incurred by the indemnitee in connection with the defense of that claim. In addition, the indemnitor shall not be required to indemnify the indemnitee for any amount paid or payable by the indemnitee in the settlement of any claim for which the indemnitor has delivered a timely Notice of Election if such amount was agreed to without the written consent of the indemnitor.

(c) Procedure Where No Notice of Election Is Delivered. If the indemnitor does not deliver a Notice of Election relating to any claim within the required notice period, the indemnitee may defend the claim in such manner as it may deem appropriate, at the cost and expense of the indemnitor. The indemnitor shall promptly reimburse the indemnitee for all such costs and expenses.

18.6 Subrogation.

If an indemnitor shall be obligated to indemnify an indemnitee pursuant to Sections 18.1 through 18.3, the indemnitor shall, upon payment of such indemnity in full, be subrogated to all rights of the indemnitee with respect to the claims to which such indemnification relates.

19. LIABILITY

19.1 General Intent.

Subject to the specific provisions of this Article 19, it is the intent of the Parties that each Party shall be liable to the other Party for any actual damages incurred by the non-breaching Party as a result of the breaching Party's failure to perform its obligations in the manner required by this Agreement.

19.2 Liability Restrictions.

(a) Damages Exclusion. IN NO EVENT, WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR IN TORT (INCLUDING BREACH OF WARRANTY, NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT LIABILITY IN TORT), SHALL A PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT OR CONSEQUENTIAL, LOST PROFITS, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE OR SPECIAL DAMAGES EVEN IF SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES IN ADVANCE; provided, however, subject to limitations set forth in Section 19.2(b), ***.

(b) Limitation of Liability. Subject to Section 19.2(c), each Party's total liability to the other for events occurring within a calendar year, whether in contract or in tort (including breach of warranty, negligence and strict liability in tort) shall be limited to an amount equal to the greater of (i) the Charges incurred by RCSI (or, GE Capital, as the case may be) under this Agreement during the *** and (ii) ***; provided, however, to the extent any such liability results from (a) ***, or (b) ***, First Data's total liability under the preceding clause shall be the greater of (x) the processing fees incurred by RCSI (or, GE Capital, as the case may be) under this Agreement during *** and (y) ***.

(c) Exceptions to Limitations of Liability. The limitations set forth in Section 19.2(b) shall ***.

(d) Duty of Mitigation. Each Party shall have a duty to mitigate damages for which the other Party is responsible.

19.3 Force Majeure.

(a) Force Majeure Events. No Party shall be liable for any default or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement:

(i) if and to the extent such default or delay is caused, directly or indirectly, by: fire, flood, earthquake, elements of nature or acts of God or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of such Party (each such event, a "Force Majeure Event"); and

(ii) provided the non-performing Party is without fault in causing such default or delay, and such default or delay could not have been prevented by reasonable precautions and cannot reasonably be circumvented by the non-performing Party through the use of alternate sources, workaround plans or other means (including with respect to First Data by First Data meeting its obligations for performing disaster recovery services as described in this Agreement).

(b) Excuse from Performance. In such event the non-performing Party shall be excused from further performance or observance of the obligation(s) so affected for as long as such circumstances prevail and such Party continues to use its best efforts to recommence performance or observance whenever and to whatever extent possible without delay. Any Party so delayed in its performance shall immediately notify the Party to whom performance is due by telephone (to be confirmed in writing within two (2) days of the inception of such delay) and describe at a reasonable level of detail the circumstances causing such delay.

(c) Alternate Sources. If any event under Section 19.3(a) above substantially prevents, hinders, or delays performance of the Services necessary for the performance of RCSI functions reasonably identified by RCSI as critical for more than two (2) consecutive days, then at RCSI's option RCSI may procure such Services from an alternate source, and First Data shall be liable for payment for such Services from the alternate source for so long as the delay in performance shall continue. If any event described in Section 19.3(a) above substantially prevents, hinders, or delays performance of the Services necessary for the performance of RCSI functions reasonably identified by RCSI as critical for more than thirty (30) consecutive days, then at RCSI's option:

(i) RCSI may terminate any portion of this Agreement so affected and the charges payable hereunder shall be equitably adjusted to reflect those terminated Services; or

(ii) RCSI may terminate this Agreement without liability to RCSI or First Data as of a date specified by RCSI in a written notice of termination to First Data.

First Data shall not have the right to any additional payments from RCSI for costs or expenses incurred by First Data as a result of any Force Majeure Event.

20. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute between the Parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including with respect to the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement and with respect to the performance by First Data or RCSI, shall be resolved as provided in this Article 20.

20.1 Informal Dispute Resolution.

Prior to the initiation of formal dispute resolution procedures, the Parties shall first attempt to resolve their dispute informally, as follows:

(a) Informal Dispute Resolution Proceedings.

(i) Upon the written request of a Party, each Party shall appoint a designated representative who does not devote substantially all of his or her time to performance under this Agreement, whose task it will be to meet for the purpose of endeavoring to resolve such dispute.

(ii) The designated representatives shall meet as often as the Parties reasonably deem necessary in order to gather and furnish to the other all information with respect to the matter in issue which the Parties believe to be appropriate and germane in connection with its resolution. The representatives shall discuss the problem and attempt to resolve the dispute without the necessity of any formal proceeding.

(iii) During the course of discussion, all reasonable requests made by one Party to another for nonprivileged information, reasonably related to this Agreement, shall be honored in order that each of the Parties may be fully advised of the other's position.

(iv) The specific format for the discussions shall be left to the discretion of the designated representatives.

(b) Formal Dispute Resolution Proceedings. Formal proceedings for the resolution of a dispute may not be commenced until the earlier of:

(i) the designated representatives concluding in good faith that amicable resolution through continued negotiation of the matter does not appear likely; or

(ii) thirty (30) days after the initial written request to appoint a designated representative pursuant to Section 20.1(a) above (this period shall be deemed to run notwithstanding any claim that the process described in this Section 20.1 was not followed or completed).

This Section 20.1 shall not be construed to prevent a Party from instituting, and a Party is authorized to institute, formal proceedings earlier to avoid the expiration of any applicable limitations period, or to preserve a superior position with respect to other creditors, and as provided in Sections 20.3 and 21.8 (Equitable Remedies).

20.2 Arbitration.

If the Parties are unable to resolve any dispute as contemplated by Section 20.1 and if such dispute is not subject to Sections 20.3 or 21.8 (Equitable Remedies), then such dispute shall be submitted to mandatory and binding arbitration at the election of either Party (the "Disputing Party") pursuant to the following conditions:

(a) Selection of Arbitrator. The Disputing Party shall notify the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution ("CPR") and the other Party in writing describing in reasonable detail the nature of the dispute (the "Dispute Notice"), and shall request that the CPR furnish a list of five (5) possible arbitrators who shall have substantial experience in the areas of information technology, card processing and software development. Each Party shall have fifteen (15) days to reject two (2) of the proposed arbitrators. If only one individual has not been so rejected, he or she shall serve as arbitrator; if two or more individuals have not been so rejected, the CPR shall select the arbitrator from those individuals.

(b) Conduct of Arbitration. The arbitrator shall allow reasonable discovery to the extent consistent with the purpose of the arbitration. The arbitrator shall have no power or authority to amend or disregard any provision of this Section 20.2 or any other provision of this Agreement (in particular, the arbitrator shall not have the authority to exclude the right of a Party to terminate this Agreement when a Party would otherwise have such right). The arbitration hearing shall be commenced promptly and conducted expeditiously, with each of RCSI and First Data being allocated one-half of the time for the presentation of its case. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, an arbitration hearing shall be conducted on consecutive days.

(c) Replacement of Arbitrator. Should the arbitrator refuse or be unable to proceed with arbitration proceedings as called for by this Section 20.2, such arbitrator shall be replaced by an arbitrator selected from the other four (4) arbitrators originally proposed by the CPR and not rejected by the Parties, if any, or if there are no remaining proposed arbitrators who have not been rejected, by repeating the process of selection described in Section 20.2(a) above. If an arbitrator is replaced pursuant to this Section 20.2(c), then a rehearing shall take place in accordance with the provisions of this Section 20.2.

(d) Findings and Conclusions. The arbitrator rendering judgment upon disputes between Parties as provided in this Section 20.2 shall, after reaching judgment and award, prepare and distribute to the Parties a writing describing the findings of fact and conclusions of law relevant to such judgment and award and containing an opinion setting forth the reasons for the giving or denial of any award. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Parties, and judgment thereon may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) Place of Arbitration Hearings. Arbitration hearings hereunder shall be held in Stamford, Connecticut or such other locations to which the Parties agree.

(f) Time of the Essence. The arbitrator is instructed that time is of the essence in the arbitration proceeding, and that the arbitrator shall have the right and authority to issue monetary sanctions against either of the Parties if, upon a showing of good cause, that Party is unreasonably delaying the proceeding. The arbitrator shall render his or her judgment or award within fifteen (15) days following the conclusion of the hearing. Recognizing the express desire of the Parties for an expeditious means of dispute resolution, the arbitrator shall limit or allow the Parties to expand the scope of discovery as may be reasonable under the circumstances.

20.3 Litigation

(a) Immediate Injunctive Relief. The Parties agree that the only circumstance in which disputes between them shall not be subject to the provisions of Sections 20.1 and 20.2 is as provided in Section 20.1 and where a Party makes a good faith determination that a breach of the terms of this Agreement by the other Party is such that a temporary restraining order or other injunctive relief is the only adequate remedy. If a Party files a pleading with a court seeking immediate injunctive relief and this pleading is challenged by the other Party and the injunctive relief sought is not awarded in substantial part, the Party filing the pleading seeking immediate injunctive relief shall pay all of the costs and attorneys' fees of the Party successfully challenging the pleading.

(b) Jurisdiction. The Parties consent to venue in the State of New York and to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of competent State of New York court or the federal courts in the Southern District of New York for all litigation which may be brought, subject to the requirement for arbitration hereunder, with respect to the terms of, and the transactions and relationships contemplated by, this Agreement. The Parties further consent to the jurisdiction of any state court located within a district which encompasses assets of a Party against which a judgment has been rendered, either through arbitration or through litigation, for the enforcement of such judgment or award against the assets of such Party.

Each Party agrees to continue performing its obligations under this Agreement while any dispute is being resolved except to the extent the issue in dispute precludes performance; provided that a dispute over payment shall not be deemed to preclude performance.

20.5 Governing Law.

This Agreement and performance under it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of State of New York without regard any provisions of to its choice of law principles which would apply different law (the parties expressly intend to avail themselves of the benefits of Section 5-1401 of the New York General Obligations Law).

21. TERMINATION

21.1 Termination for Cause.

(a) Breach. If First Data:

(i) commits a material breach of this Agreement, which breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after notice of breach from RCSI to First Data; provided, however, that, unless (A) a different period of time to cure is specified in this Agreement or (B) an extension of time to cure which is contingent upon the exercise by First Data of diligent efforts to cure is not specifically provided, if First Data is making diligent efforts to cure any such breach from the start of the thirty-day (30) cure period, then such cure period shall be extended for an additional period (not to exceed thirty (30) days) of time necessary to effectuate such cure);

(ii) commits a material breach of this Agreement which is not capable of being cured within thirty (30) days; or

(iii) commits numerous breaches of its duties or obligations which collectively constitute a material breach of this Agreement and are not cured within a sixty (60) day period after notice of breach from RCSI to First Data,

then RCSI may, by giving written notice to First Data, terminate this Agreement, in whole or in part, as of a date specified in the notice of termination. If RCSI chooses to terminate this Agreement in part, the charges payable under this Agreement will be equitably adjusted to reflect those services that are terminated.

(b) Specific Material Breaches. Breaches which individually are material breaches under Section 21.1(a)(i) include the following:

(i) First Data otherwise fails to meet a Key Milestone due to causal factors not attributable to RCSI (or its third party providers);

(ii) If First Data fails to complete the Conversion of the Conversion Portfolios by the Final Conversion Date (as it may be extended from time to time) due to causal factors not attributable to RCSI (or its third party providers); and

(iii) Any breach of Article 7 of Exhibit A-7 (Disaster Recovery and Business Continuation Plans).

21.2 Termination by First Data for Cause.

If, and only if:

(a) RCSI fails to pay First Data when due undisputed charges under this Agreement totaling at least *** under this Agreement within sixty (60) days of the time specified for such payment and such default remains uncured thirty (30) days after written notice from First Data specifying the nature and extent of such default, First Data may by giving written notice to RCSI terminate this Agreement as of a date specified in the notice of termination not less than twelve (12) months following the date of such notice;

(b) RCSI materially breaches its obligations under *** and does not either (A) cure such breach promptly upon notice or (B) if such breach is not curable with commercially reasonable efforts, provide adequate assurances to First Data that RCSI has taken diligent steps to remedy the circumstances that led to such breach, First Data may by giving written notice to RCSI terminate this Agreement as of a date specified in the notice of termination not less than twelve (12) months following the date of such notice; or

(c) RCSI fails to pay any Daily Amount as provided in Schedule A to this Agreement and such failure is not cured within thirty (30) calendar days from notice, RCSI will be responsible for interest charges after five (5) days after RCSI receives written notice from First Data of such failure.

21.3 Termination for Convenience.

(a) RCSI may terminate this Agreement for convenience and without cause effective after June 30, 2011 by giving First Data at least six (6) months prior notice designating the termination date. In such event RCSI shall be liable to pay to First Data on the effective date of such termination any undisputed amount provided as the Termination for Convenience Fee in Section 18.1 of Schedule C (Termination for Convenience Fees). Such payment shall not be a condition to the effectiveness of RCSI's termination pursuant to this Section 21.3.

(b) If a purported termination for cause by RCSI under Section 21.1 having an effective date after June 30, 2011 is determined by a competent authority not to be properly a termination for cause, then such termination by RCSI shall be deemed to be a termination for convenience under Section 21.3(a).

21.4 Termination for Failure to ***.

RCSI may terminate this Agreement for failure to *** by giving First Data at least six (6) months prior written notice designating the termination date. In such event RCSI shall be liable to pay to First Data on the effective date of such termination any undisputed amount as provided in Section 18.2 of Schedule C (Termination Fees Under Section 21.4 of the Main Body of the Agreement). Such payment shall not be a condition to the effectiveness of RCSI's termination pursuant to this Section 21.4.

21.5 Termination Upon Change of Control.

If a change in Control of First Data occurs where such Control is acquired, directly or indirectly, in a single transaction or series of related transactions, or all or substantially all of the assets of First Data are acquired, by an entity which is a "major competitor" of RCSI, or First Data is merged with or into another entity to form a new entity, then RCSI may, in its sole discretion, terminate this Agreement by giving First Data at least ninety (90) days prior written notice and designating a date upon which such termination shall be effective. For the purposes of this Section 21.5, a RCSI "major competitor" shall mean one or more of the following entities or successors thereof or their Affiliates: ***.

21.6 Extension of Termination Effective Date.

RCSI may extend the effective date of termination one or more times as it elects, at its sole discretion, provided that the total of all such extensions shall not exceed one hundred eighty (180) days following the original effective date of termination. For any notice or notices of such extensions provided to First Data within thirty (30) days of the actual date of termination, RCSI shall reimburse First Data for additional out-of-pocket expenses caused by such notices.

21.7 Termination/Expiration Assistance.

Commencing twelve (12) months prior to expiration of this Agreement or on such earlier date as RCSI may request, or commencing upon any notice of termination or of non-renewal of this Agreement (including notice based upon default by RCSI), First Data shall provide the assistance that RCSI requests, either on its own behalf or on the behalf of any successor provider of services (collectively, "Successor") which may reasonably be required in connection with the transition of the Services and related Conversions ("Termination/Expiration Assistance"). If the Successor is an entity other than RCSI, RCSI shall obtain from the Successor written assurance that the Successor will maintain the confidentiality of First Data's Confidential Information disclosed or provided to the Successor in the course of receiving such Termination/Expiration Assistance. RCSI shall return all First Data Confidential Information provided to RCSI under this Section 21.7 within thirty (30) days after the transition of Services is completed. First Data's Termination/Expiration Assistance shall include and be governed by the following:

(a) General. First Data shall:

(i) Provide a plan for the transition of requested operations from First Data which plan is subject to approval by RCSI.

(ii) Provide RCSI access to and use of the information and of the personnel, third parties and other resources then being used by First Data to provide the Services to RCSI. First Data shall, upon request by RCSI, provide to the Successor master file and field descriptions and record layouts and other similar information necessary for RCSI to deconvert from the First Data System and convert to another platform, the Transferred Accounts without disruption to RCSI's operations.

(iii) First Data shall provide RCSI all required deconversion files within two weeks of request. Multiple requests may be required.

(iv) Provide RCSI with such information regarding the Services as is reasonably prudent or necessary in order for the Successor to assume responsibility for, and continue the performance of, the Services as to the Transferred Accounts in an orderly manner, so as to minimize, as much as possible, disruption in the operations of RCSI.

(b) Pre-Migration Services. First Data shall:

(i) Provide to RCSI copies of copy books used by First Data in performing the Services.

(ii) Provide to RCSI copies of other information regarding the Services that are required to implement the transition plan, including the following:

(A) copies of the security tables, if any, utilized in the provision of Services to RCSI which are necessary to effect the necessary conversion;

(B) documentation describing the functionality of customized system modifications created on behalf of RCSI, including documentation relating to or affecting the Transferred Accounts; and

(C) copies of the manuals required to enable the RCSI to support the environment relating to the Transferred Accounts.

(iii) Provide to RCSI (and, at RCSI's election, to the Successor) both the then-current and new versions of any First Data System documentation related to any RCSI initiated software changes implemented by First Data to the First Data System during such period in order to allow RCSI to review those changes.

(iv) Provide assistance to RCSI in notifying third party vendors of the procedures to be followed during the turnover phase.

(v) Assist RCSI in understanding naming conventions.

(vi) Provide test tapes to assist RCSI in its analysis of the space required for data.

(vii) Provide to RCSI access to First Data Personnel who were performing the Services in order that such personnel may answer the Successor's questions.

(viii) Provide to RCSI interim tapes of RCSI's data relating to or affecting the Transferred Accounts.

(ix) Provide to RCSI multiple tape copies of RCSI's data relating to the Transferred Accounts in First Data's possession.

(x) Cooperate with RCSI in the preparation for and conduct of migration testing to ensure the orderly transfer of Services.

(xi) Provide to RCSI current and pending project plans and status to enable RCSI to perform enhancement services with minimum disruption to RCSI's operation.

(c) Migration Services. First Data shall:

(i) Unload all requested data files and other RCSI Information subject to a release from RCSI at the Development Hour rate set forth in Schedule C.

(ii) Deliver to the Successor as requested by RCSI tapes of the requested data files (without content listing) and printouts of control file information relating to or affecting the Transferred Accounts.

(iii) Provide reasonable assistance to the Successor in loading the data files.

(d) Post Migration Services. First Data shall:

(i) Provide additional assistance at RCSI's request to assure continuity of operations relating to or affecting the Transferred Accounts. Upon request by RCSI, First Data shall maintain account information on-line for a period of time to be specified by RCSI.

(ii) As requested by RCSI, return to RCSI at RCSI's request, any remaining property of RCSI in First Data's possession, including any remaining reports, data, and other RCSI Information with respect to the Transferred Accounts. Alternatively, as required by RCSI, First Data shall destroy such property.

(iii) As requested by RCSI, certify to RCSI in writing that all of RCSI's data and files and all other RCSI Information with respect to the Transferred Accounts have been removed from the First Data System, premises and control and returned or destroyed; provided, however, RCSI specific coding in subroutines which only would be activated upon First Data's processing of the Transferred Accounts need not be either removed or destroyed.

(e) Third Party Services. To the extent necessary to complete the transition and to the extent permitted by First Data's contract with the third party, First Data shall make available or use its best efforts to make available to the extent not permitted by First Data's contract with the third party to Successor or its designee, pursuant to reasonable terms and conditions, any third party services then being utilized by First Data in the performance of the Services including services being provided through third party service or maintenance contracts on software. First Data will be entitled to retain the right to utilize any such third party services in connection with the performance of services for any other First Data customer. First Data will, upon request, deliver to RCSI the RCSI New Materials and any RCSI New Materials work in progress in First Data's possession or under First Data's control. Additionally, to the extent not included in the items to be delivered in connection with the foregoing sentence, First Data shall deliver, upon request, to RCSI the Conversion mapping specifications, the documentation relating to the Known Software Conversion Modifications including design functionals documenting technically the changes made or to be made in connection with the Known Software Conversion Modifications and Evolve/** functional designs for any work completed in connection with the customized Evolve Application.

(f) Survival; Continuity of Services. This Section 21.7 shall survive termination/expiration of this Agreement. For eighteen (18) months following the effective date of termination/expiration under other provisions of this Agreement, First Data shall provide, at RCSI's request, any or all of the Services being performed by First Data prior to such effective date, including any of the Services under this Section 21.7. To the extent First Data is to perform Services under this Section 21.7(f), the provisions of this Agreement shall be applicable as such provisions would have been applicable to such Services prior to such effective date, at the rates set forth in Schedule C except for Sections 3.2, 3.3 and 3.4 of the Main Body of the Agreement and Section 16 of Schedule C.

21.8 Equitable Remedies.

First Data acknowledges that, in the event it breaches (or attempts or threatens to breach) its obligation to provide Termination/Expiration Assistance as provided in Section 21.7 or breaches its obligation of confidentiality pursuant to Article 14, RCSI will be irreparably harmed. In such a circumstance, RCSI may proceed directly to court. If a court of competent jurisdiction should find that First Data has breached (or attempted or threatened to breach) its obligation to provide Termination/Expiration Assistance or its obligation of confidentiality, First Data waives its right to request or obtain any additional findings of irreparable injury or other conditions to injunctive relief, and First Data agrees that it shall not oppose the entry of an appropriate order compelling performance by First Data and restraining it from any further breaches (or attempted or threatened breaches). This Section 21.8 does not limit the rights of the Parties under Section 20.3(a).

22. WAIVER OF CLAIMS; PAYMENTS TO RCSI BY FIRST DATA

22.1 Waiver.

(a) Each Party on its own behalf (and, in the case of RCSI, its assignor) releases, discharges, and acquits the other Party and its Affiliates from any and all breaches, causes of action and claims, including damages and costs related thereto (whether known or unknown, matured or unmatured, asserted or unasserted) arising out of the Agreement prior to the FAAR Effective Date, other than:

- (i) liabilities for taxes;
- (ii) RCSI's obligation to pay invoices for Services rendered in the prior ninety (90) days;
- (iii) breaches of obligations of confidentiality not actually known to the injured Party's senior officers responsible for dealing with the other Party;
- (iv) breaches of obligations which give rise to third party liability, whether known or unknown, and which are subject to the indemnity under Section 18.1(a), Section 18.2(a) (and the similar clauses in the Agreement prior to this First Amended and Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement applicable to the Parties or their predecessor entities, including Sections 17.1(a) and 17.2(a)), Section 18.3(c), Section 18.3(d) or 18.3(e);

(v) infringement of a Party's rights in Intellectual Property and which are subject to the indemnify under Section 18.1(b) and 18.2(b) (and the similar clauses in the Agreement prior to this First Amended and Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement applicable to the Parties' predecessor entities, including Sections 17.1(b) and 17.2(b)), for which First Data has an obligation of indemnification to RCSI hereunder; and

(vi) claims for personal injury or property damage which are the subject of insurance coverage.

(b) The exclusive remedy for any breach, cause of action or claim related to any of the foregoing exceptions shall be monetary damages only and no such breaches, causes of action or claims shall serve as the basis for termination of this Agreement, except for breaches of confidentiality which were significant in scope and which are subject to Section 22.1(a)(iii).

22.2 Payments to RCSI.

Within sixty (60) days after the FAAR Effective Date, in consideration of resolution of known disputed items between the Parties, First Data agrees to pay RCSI the sum of *** by wire transfer of immediately available federal funds to such bank account as RCSI may direct.

23. GENERAL

23.1 Binding Nature and Assignment.

This Agreement shall be binding on the Parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. Neither Party may, or shall have the power to, assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other, except that RCSI may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the approval of First Data to:

- (a) any entity which acquires (i) all or substantially all of the assets of RCSI, or (ii) all or substantially all of the assets of one or more of the business units of GECF-A;
- (b) any RCSI Affiliate; or provided, however, that in all such circumstances any permitted successor or assign shall agree in writing to be bound by and assume all of RCSI's rights and obligations hereunder.

23.2 Entire Agreement; Amendment.

Agreement, other than the PSA. No change, waiver, or discharge hereof shall be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Party against which such change, waiver, or discharge is sought to be enforced.

Either Party may from time to time change its address or designee for notification purposes by giving the other prior written notice of the new address or designee and the date upon which it will become effective.

23.4 Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, all of which taken together shall constitute one single agreement between the Parties.

23.5 Headings.

The article and section headings and the table of contents used herein are for reference and convenience only and shall not enter into the interpretation hereof.

23.6 Relationship of the Parties.

(a) Independent Contractor. First Data is, and shall at all times be, an independent contractor under this Agreement and not an agent of RCSI. Nothing in this Agreement nor any actions taken by or arrangements entered into between the Parties in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement shall be construed as or deemed to create as to the Parties any partnership or joint venture. First Data shall not have any authority to bind or commit RCSI contractually or otherwise to any obligations whatsoever to third parties.

(b) First Data Human Resource Functions. First Data shall be solely responsible for performing all obligations in connection with the labor and employment relations with First Data employees. First Data shall assign its own human resources staff to perform functions including new hire processing and orientation, employee relations (conflict resolution), compensation (increases and reviews), records administration and reporting.

(c) Taxes; Employee Benefits. First Data shall be solely responsible for the payment of any and all employment taxes and/or assessments imposed on the account of the payment for the services of First Data employees, including any unemployment insurance tax, federal, state, local and foreign income taxes, federal social security payments (FICA) and disability insurance taxes, as well as any and all contributions or payments required pursuant to any employee pension, welfare, bonus or other benefit plan, however defined or described, applicable to any of the First Data employees. First Data shall bear sole responsibility for maintaining and administering workers' compensation, unemployment and any other insurance required for the First Data employees under law or any plan, as well as for compliance of all statutes and regulations applicable to the employer of the First Data employees. The Parties recognize and agree that the First Data employees providing the Services shall not be entitled to any benefits established and maintained by RCSI or the RCSI Affiliates for their employees, and First Data shall so advise the First Data employees. Any severance payments payable to First Data employees upon termination of their employment with First Data shall be the sole responsibility of First Data. First Data will make appropriate reporting of compensation paid to First Data employees as required by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") including filing of Forms 1099 with the IRS, if applicable.

(d) First Data Subcontractors. To the extent the First Data Personnel include employees of First Data subcontractors or individuals acting as subcontractors to First Data, First Data shall cause each such subcontractor to comply with Sections 23.6(a), 23.6(b), and 23.6(c) as though all references to “First Data” or “First Data Affiliates” were references to such subcontractor or such subcontractor’s Affiliates.

(e) Proof of Compliance. Upon RCSI’s request, First data shall provide written proof that First Data has complied with its obligations under this Section 23.6.

23.7 Solicitation of Employment

During the Term and for a period of twelve (12) months following termination of this Agreement, neither Party will solicit for employment any employee of the other Party who had or has any direct participation in the negotiation of this Agreement or the provision of Services hereunder.

23.8 Severability

If any provision of this Agreement conflicts with the law under which this Agreement is to be construed or if any such provision is held invalid by an arbitrator or a court with jurisdiction over the Parties, such provision shall be deemed to be restated to reflect as nearly as possible the original intentions of the Parties in accordance with applicable law. The remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

23.9 Consents and Approval

Except where expressly provided as being in the discretion of a Party, where agreement, approval, acceptance, consent, or similar action by either Party is required under this Agreement, such action shall not be unreasonably delayed or withheld. An approval or consent given by a Party under this Agreement shall not relieve the other Party from responsibility for complying with the requirements of this Agreement, nor shall it be construed as a waiver of any rights under this Agreement, except as and to the extent otherwise expressly provided in such approval or consent.

23.10 Waiver of Default; Cumulative Remedies

(a) Waiver. A delay or omission by either Party to exercise any right or power under this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver thereof. A waiver by either of the Parties of any of the covenants to be performed by the other or any breach thereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of any succeeding breach thereof or of any other covenant in this Agreement.

(b) Cumulative Remedies. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, all remedies provided for in this Agreement shall be cumulative and in addition to and not in lieu of any other remedies available to either Party at law, in equity or otherwise.

SERVICES

1. INTRODUCTION.

1.1 General.

(a) First Data shall provide the services, functions and responsibilities described in this Schedule A. RCSI operates in a business environment characterized by constant change that directly affects the delivery of information technology services. First Data shall provide the Services as they may evolve, change, be updated and enhanced during the Term due to changes in technology and in RCSI's business needs.

(b) The Services relating to CommercialLine will only include those Services involving the subjects and activities listed below:

- (i) settlement/funding;
- (ii) correspondence/letters;
- (iii) recovery/agency tracking;
- (iv) statement file creation; and
- (v) embossing file creation.

1.2 Definitions.

Certain terms used in this Schedule A are defined in Schedule E (Glossary) to the Agreement. Other capitalized terms used in this Schedule A are defined in the context in which they are used and shall have the meaning there indicated. References to the Agreement shall mean the text of the Main Body of the Agreement and any and all Exhibits, Schedules, Attachments or Addenda thereto, as it may be amended from time to time. Unless otherwise provided to the contrary, any reference herein to a "Section," "Article," or "Exhibit" shall be deemed to refer to a Section or Article of, or Exhibit to, this Schedule A.

2. PERFORMANCE OF THE INITIAL CONVERSIONS AND THE KNOWN SOFTWARE CONVERSION MODIFICATIONS

2.1 Initial Conversions.

(a) As of the FAAR Effective Date, the Parties have not identified or finalized all of the Known Software Conversion Modifications. Within sixty (60) days after the FAAR Effective Date, First Data shall update and send to RCSI for review and approval the latest agreed-upon version of the Discovery plan for RFS (the "RFS Discovery Plan") (such updated RFS Discovery Plan, the "GECF-A Discovery Plan"). The version of the GECF-A Discovery Plan provided by First Data to RCSI shall be sufficient to enable First Data to complete the detailed and comprehensive review and analysis by First Data of the features, functions and capabilities of the systems on which the Conversion Portfolios are, as of the date of such review and analysis, being processed. The review and analysis required under this Section 2.1(a) shall incorporate, update, and build on the results of the Discovery process for RFS (“RFS Discovery”) and shall be referred to herein as the “GECF-A Discovery”. The GECF-A Discovery Plan shall include the schedule for undertaking and completing the GECF-A Discovery. First Data shall incorporate into the GECF-A Discovery Plan the changes and additions requested by GECF-A and shall provide an updated draft incorporating such changes and additions within thirty (30) days following its receipt of such changes and additions. Upon final approval of the GECF-A Discovery Plan by GECF-A, First Data shall resume and complete the GECF-A Discovery in accordance with the schedule set forth in the approved GECF-A Discovery Plan, which will require completion of GECF-A Discovery within a period of sixty (60) days following GECF-A’s final approval.

(b) The GECF-A Discovery will be conducted in accordance with the GECF-A Discovery Plan and the “Discovery Guidelines” attached as Exhibit A-1. RCSI can request changes to the GECF-A Discovery Plan. In response to any such request, First Data shall identify the schedule impacts of the requested change. First Data shall proceed with the change, or not proceed, as so directed by RCSI. Changes to the GECF-A Discovery Plan desired by First Data will be subject to the approval of RCSI.

(c) As part of the GECF-A Discovery, First Data shall determine and identify to RCSI the Gaps between the GECF-A systems (as such systems may be modified, or identified as requiring modification, in connection with GECF-A and other initiatives, the specifics of which modifications shall be determined and described to First Data by RCSI) and the First Data System, propose Resolution Agreements and identify the KSCMs, all as further described below.

2.2 Resolution Agreements.

(a) First Data shall prepare for each Gap a resolution agreement (each a “Resolution Agreement”), which it shall present to GECF-A for consideration and approval. For any existing Resolution Agreement created under the Agreement prior to the FAAR Effective Date, the Parties shall review and validate the content of such Resolution Agreement, and any impact identified in such Resolution Agreement as to a billing element included in Exhibit C-1 of Schedule C shall not be applicable. Each Resolution Agreement shall:

- (i) identify a single Gap;
- (ii) propose alternate solutions for providing to GECF-A the missing functionality;
- (iii) provide the work effort for development and other work necessary to implement each proposed solution; and

(iv) identify the impact to the billing elements for each proposed solution, if any, under Schedule C.

First Data and RCSI will discuss the comprehensive testing requirements for each Resolution Agreement. First Data agrees that the proposed hours for each Resolution Agreement solution is inclusive of all activities required to support testing at the level requested by RCSI. If one of the proposed solutions is not a change to the First Data System, First Data shall explain why and its justifications for such omission; provided, however that if (A) RCSI is requesting a change in process and/or Services relating to a Designated Account, and (B) if RCSI explicitly requests, then one of the solutions proposed by First Data must include an integrated change in the First Data System.

(b) Following receipt of a Resolution Agreement, RCSI shall:

(i) identify and communicate to First Data which solution it wants First Data to implement;

(ii) propose modifications to one or more of the alternate solutions; or

(iii) propose one or more different alternate solutions. If RCSI chooses to propose one or more different alternate solutions, First Data shall have the option to explain any objections it may have to such solution(s). RCSI shall then designate the solution First Data is to adopt. RCSI shall also prioritize the performance of the Resolution Agreement according to RCSI's desire to implement such Resolution Agreement before or after the relevant Initial Conversion.

(c) As part of the GECF-A Discovery and the GECF-A Discovery Plan, the Parties will cooperate in good faith and re-examine the scope and timing of all of the solutions selected in the Resolution Agreements addressing the Gaps with the mutual goal of consolidating such Resolution Agreements and solutions to those that are "business critical" (i.e., those solutions pertaining to client-specific requirements or compliance issues or potentially having a non-trivial financial or operational impact) as designated by RCSI. Consistent with this objective, the Parties agree that:

(i) in cases where existing First Data functionality or processes are substantially equivalent to functionality or processes proposed by RCSI, First Data may request that RCSI defer to the First Data approach in the interests of minimizing development and completing the Conversions in a timely manner; and

(ii) if RCSI, after due consideration and discussion with First Data, disagrees with such First Data request, the Parties will escalate their disagreement to the Chief Information Officer of GECF-A (or his or her designee) and the Chairman of FDC (or his or her designee) for attempted resolution.

If an issue is escalated pursuant to this Section 2.2(c) and not resolved, then the approach originally requested by RCSI shall prevail.

(d) Once RCSI has identified the solution to be adopted, First Data shall revise the Resolution Agreement to reflect:

- (i) the chosen solution; and
- (ii) its schedule for development and work necessary to implement the chosen solution; and
- (iii) identify the impact to the billing elements, if any, under Schedule C.

2.3 Known Software Conversion Modifications.

(a) In accordance with the applicable Resolution Agreements, First Data shall undertake and complete the Known Software Conversion Modifications pursuant to the AD processes set forth in Section 15.2(a), Sections 15.2(b)(iv) through 15.2(b)(xi) and Section 15.2(c). The obligations set forth in those Resolution Agreements which are approved by RCSI are binding. The completion date set forth in the Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan for each Resolution Agreement (as set forth below in Section 2.4) shall also be binding on First Data. Nothing in this Section 2.2 shall be construed to relieve First Data of its obligation to complete the work noted in a Resolution Agreement, and First Data shall remain obligated to perform the work required, even if such performance causes, or has caused, First Data to expend a number of hours in excess of any estimated amount set out in any Resolution Agreement.

(b) Each KSCM shall be completed by the date specified in the Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan (as described below in Section 2.4). Upon RCSI's approval of the contents of the Resolution Agreement, RCSI will approve the Resolution Agreement and use its best efforts to return the Resolution Agreement to First Data within ten (10) business days after RCSI's receipt of such Resolution Agreement.

(c) As provided in Article 5 of Schedule C, there shall be no charge to RCSI under the Agreement for, or in connection with, performance of the Known Software Conversion Modifications, including preparation, maintenance and updating of the GECF-A Discovery Plan, the Initial Conversion/KSCM Plan (as defined below in Section 2.4), performance of the GECF-A Discovery, and preparation, finalization and implementation of the Resolution Agreements and the work authorized thereby.

2.4 Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan.

(a) First Data shall undertake and complete the Conversion of the Conversion Portfolios (each such Conversion, an "Initial Conversion" and all such Conversions, collectively, the "Initial Conversions") in accordance with the Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan.

(b) First Data shall complete the Initial Conversions by the Final Conversion Date. Except as otherwise agreed by the Parties, First Data shall perform the KSCMs:

(i) upon completion of the GECF-A Discovery and throughout the period of time from the FAAR Effective Date until and including the Final Conversion Date (such period, the “Initial Conversion Period”); and

(ii) in accordance with the Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan.

(c) Within forty-five (45) days after completion of the GECF-A Discovery, First Data shall, subject to review and approval by GECF-A, produce a plan for the Initial Conversions and performance of the KSCMs (the “Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan”). The Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan, which shall be part of the Agreement, shall include Key Milestones and the dates by which those Key Milestones must be achieved for the Initial Conversions and the performance of the KSCMs and shall specify the procedure by which the Parties will determine when each Initial Conversion is complete. The Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan shall include a schedule for completion of each Initial Conversion and KSCM proposed by First Data and approved by GECF-A. KSCMs required in connection with an Initial Conversion may be performed on a schedule consistent with the agreed performance of such Initial Conversion.

(d) In response to any request from GECF-A for changes to existing Resolution Agreements already agreed upon by GECF-A, additional enhancements or Software Conversion Modifications beyond the Known Software Conversion Modifications following approval of the Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan, First Data shall identify:

(i) the potential alternative approaches to effect the change; and

(ii) the incremental (or decremental) cost and schedule impacts of each of the alternative approaches.

First Data will proceed with the alternative chosen by RCSI, or not proceed if so determined by RCSI. Changes desired by First Data will be subject to the approval of RCSI and shall not increase any charges, fees or expenses to RCSI under the Agreement. To the extent a change directed by RCSI causes a delay, identified by First Data, in the implementation or performance of a Resolution Agreement, the schedule shall be adjusted to reflect such delay. First Data shall use its best efforts to ensure that any change has minimal adverse impact to the schedule.

(e) First Data shall include in each Monthly Performance Report a description of the status of the implementation of each Initial Conversion, and the performance of the KSCMs as against the Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan. First Data shall also include in each Monthly Performance Report notification to RCSI of any delays or potential delays in the implementation of each Initial Conversion and the performance of the KSCMs. If either Party becomes aware of an event which has delayed, or will likely cause a delay in, the performance of the Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan, such Party will notify the other Party. If RCSI approves of an amendment which causes a delay in the initial or ongoing implementation of the Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan, each of First Data and RCSI shall use its best efforts to recover the schedule set forth in the Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan without having to assume or carry out the responsibilities of the other Party.

3. FUTURE FIRST DATA SYSTEM ARCHITECTURE PLAN

3.3 Updates to the Future First Data System Architecture Plan.

First Data shall provide to GECF-A updates to the Future First Data System Architecture Plan no less frequently than once each calendar quarter. In its planning and execution of the Future First Data System Architecture Plan, First Data shall keep RCSI advised of possible required, and First Data proposed, changes to the Future First Data System Architecture Plan and shall consider in good faith all requests from RCSI for changes to and suggestions of modifications to the Future First Data System Architecture Plan and the individual projects undertaken in connection with the Future First Data System Architecture Plan. First Data shall include in each Monthly Performance Report a detailed report of First Data's performance in achieving the Future First Data System Architecture Plan Key Milestones and dates, as well as progress measurements and the information required for applicable tollgate checkpoints, if any. First Data shall also include in each Monthly Performance Report a detailed report of:

- (a) the progress made by First Data on the Future First Data System Architecture Plan in general;
- (b) each Future First Data System Architecture Plan sub-project in progress at the time of the Monthly Performance Report; and

(c) each Future First Data System Architecture Plan sub-project scheduled to be undertaken by First Data within the next twelve (12) months.

4. PRIORITY OF DESCRIPTIONS OF SERVICES

4.1 User Manuals.

Except as provided herein, User Manuals (including those attached at Exhibit A-2) in effect as of the FAAR Effective Date may explain and describe the manner in which First Data may fulfill part of its requirement to provide the Services, but such User Manuals shall not diminish the requirement that First Data provide the Services as required under the Agreement.

4.2 Performance of Services

The manner in which such Services are to be performed, as explained and described in such User Manuals, shall be modified, supplemented or superceded, as applicable, through:

- (a) the implementation of the Resolution Agreements and the performance of the work authorized thereby;
- (b) implementation of the results of the AD projects completed by First Data;
- (c) implementation of the Future First Data System Architecture Plan; and
- (d) implementation of the Approved Platform Integration Plan.

Unless otherwise agreed by RCSI, neither the manner in which the Services are to be performed nor the Services themselves shall be affected by any description of the Services contained in new User Manuals or in revised or updated User Manuals ("Subsequent User Manuals").

4.3 Refusal to Authorize Implementation of a Resolution Agreement

If RCSI refuses to authorize implementation of a Resolution Agreement which has been prepared in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.2, First Data shall no longer be responsible for providing the portion of the relevant Service which would have been provided had such Resolution Agreement been successfully implemented; provided, however, that if after the final Initial Conversion RCSI requests First Data to perform AD in order to provide such portion of such relevant Service, First Data shall then be required to provide such portion of such relevant Service and, pursuant to Section 4.1(b), the manner in which such Service is to be performed shall be modified, supplemented or superceded, as applicable, through the implementation of the results of such AD projects and shall prevail over the description of such Service contained in Subsequent User Manuals.

4.4 Gap-Related Services

If, after the final Initial Conversion, the Parties discover a Gap and:

- (a) the User Manuals in effect as of the FAAR Effective Date are silent as to such Gap-related Service, in whole or in part;
- (b) such Gap-related Service is set forth in this Schedule A; and
- (c) such Gap has not been addressed by a Resolution Agreement presented to RCSI for approval and implementation, then First Data must provide such Gap-related Service if and when requested by RCSI, and RCSI shall pay for the authorized Development Hours expended to complete such Gap at one half (1/2) of the Development Hour rate as set forth in Schedule C.

The GECF-A front-end system will capture individual Cardholder authorizations from its client locations and transmit them to the First Data System in a standard message format or GECF-A' standard message formats via a telecommunications facility. Such transmissions may originate from more than one RCSI facility (i.e., Raleigh, North Carolina and Alpharetta, Georgia). Upon receipt, the First Data System will process each request and return the response in standard formats required by GECF-A or other formats specified by RCSI to the GECF-A front-end authorization system.

If a Cardholder chooses a customized PIN number, First Data shall provide a secure procedure for processing and delivering that PIN number to RCSI or its designee.

(ii) First Data shall maintain PIN offsets based on the Designated Account number, the PIN and other factors. First Data shall correctly perform offset calculations, as defined by RCSI, in order to store the appropriate values for Cardholder use and to verify the validity of the PINs required by particular transactions (e.g., ATM transactions). First Data shall maintain the PINs under strict security (e.g., by providing an environment suitable for the use of encryption keys).

(e) Account Management Services.

(i) First Data shall enable RCSI to develop and maintain on the First Data System as many different types of Designated Account pricing terms as RCSI determines, and in doing so, provide requested assistance to RCSI. These pricing terms shall include interest charges, income options, penalty fees, and payment options. RCSI shall be able to change the values within the set of existing First Data System parameters that define the pricing terms on-line or without having to incur any fees. Such functionality shall, as of the Effective Date, be made available to RCSI through, in part, the First Data On-Line Product Control File Management System.

Such Fraud Management Services to be performed by First Data for RCSI shall include all of the fraud-related services offered by First Data to its customers, including, as of the FAAR Effective Date, the Services designated under the First Data System as Fraud Prevention, Fraud Detection and Fraud Control.

(ii) Fraud Prevention. Upon RCSI’s request, First Data shall provide RCSI with the fraud prevention services available through the First Data System, as well as the following fraud prevention Services (the “Fraud Prevention Services”) by utilizing First Data’s fraud management system (“Fraud Management System”). First Data’s Fraud Management System shall provide RCSI with the ability to status, change, monitor or delete RCSI’s Cardholder Designated Account detail on First Data’s security masterfile.

(A) Fraud Reporting. First Data shall provide RCSI with lost/stolen reporting services. Lost or stolen reports from RCSI’s Cardholders shall be recorded on the security master file by on-line entries which shall automatically change the external status on the security master file and block authorizations on the Designated Account. RCSI shall also have the ability to use the extended lost or stolen transaction to review potential fraud transactions at the time of the lost or stolen report. As the First Data operator verifies the legitimacy of each transaction, the items shall be coded to identify fraudulent transactions. The transaction shall automatically transfer Cardholder transactions to a new Designated Account and shall prevent the transfer of fraud activity, eliminating the need for manual adjustments.

(B) Warning Bulletins. According to RCSI Rules and any applicable legal requirements, First Data shall report appropriate information to Visa, MasterCard, and other Associations, receive information (including alerts) from Visa, MasterCard and other Association, and inform RCSI of any alerts in a timely manner in accordance with Service Levels. The services shall enable MasterCard, Visa and other Association accounts to be placed on the warning bulletin or exception file automatically through lost or stolen report entry. Listing a Designated Account on the warning bulletin shall provide RCSI with chargeback and authorization protection. RCSI may list a Designated Account on the exception file for authorization protection only. First Data shall also provide a warning bulletin alert queue that can be monitored on a daily basis by RCSI to place at-risk Designated Accounts on the warning bulletin.

(C) Account Transfer and Reissue. As part of its Fraud Prevention Services provided to RCSI, First Data will automatically transfer Designated Accounts when a lost or stolen report is entered. If the account transfer fails it will be displayed in real time on-line queues. Once the account transfer is complete, the account goes through reissue criteria. If such Designated Account fails reissue criteria the account will appear on the “account transfer pending reissue queue”.

(D) Hot Calls. First Data shall accurately respond to Merchant hot calls and RCSI’s Cardholder information verification requests. A “hot call” is an authorization request which is immediately transferred to First Data’s fraud management operations (“Fraud Management Operations”) when: the account is statused, a Merchant is suspicious, or a request exceeds the parameters defined by the card issuer. A number of parameters, controlled by product control file settings, shall be available to RCSI to enable RCSI to determine the calls that are transferred to First Data’s Fraud Management Operations (i.e., excessive transactions, large purchases, first use of plastics, positive ID calls).

(E) Authorization Services. First Data shall provide to RCSI, as requested, authorization override tables to override normal authorization procedures per RCSI Rules.

(F) “RAPID” Services. First Data’s “Returned Account Plastics Immediately Delivered” or successor (“RAPID”) department shall process returned plastics from the postal service for wrong address. The Designated Account is researched and the Cardholder is contacted. If the correct address is obtained the Cardholder master file shall be updated with new information, and the plastic shall be re-mailed. If the Cardholder cannot be reached, the plastic shall be destroyed in a secure manner. A priority memo shall be placed by First Data on the Account to prevent unnecessary lost or stolen reports.

(G) Emergency Services. In connection with First Data's Fraud Prevention Services to be provided to RCSI, First Data can serve as the twenty four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days per week authorizing agent for MasterCard, VISA and other Association emergency services. For emergency plastics or cash to be disbursed, product control file settings shall be capable of being set so as to designate the maximum credit limit to be issued and/or the maximum cash authorized per RCSI Cardholder Designated Account.

(H) Card Activation. First Data's card activation processes and procedures shall enable RCSI to flag specific Designated Accounts at the time of issue or reissue requiring the Cardholder to call a toll-free number to activate their card(s) before first use. Verification by the Cardholder shall release the block on the Account and prevent the need for referrals at the point-of-sale. Cardholders shall be able to activate their cards by calling a toll-free number (displayed on a label affixed to the plastic) and responding to specific questions or by automatic number identification.

(iii) Fraud Detection. First Data shall provide RCSI and RCSI's Transaction Card clients with credit card fraud management and fraud detection services (the "Fraud Detection Services"), which shall be as of the Effective Date in conjunction with HNC, Inc., and its Falcon™ software (the "HNC Software"), which services shall consist of those services set forth in this Section.

(A) First Data shall provide RCSI with Fraud Detection Services by utilizing the output of the "Falcon Neural Engine" computational model (designed to detect credit card fraud) which encompasses or contains the Falcon credit neural network-based system, as such software is licensed to First Data by HNC and is commonly known as the "Falcon Credit Card Fraud Detection Model" (hereinafter referred to as the "Credit Card Output Access") solely for the purpose of assisting RCSI in detecting possible fraudulent transaction account activity on the Cardholder accounts of RCSI and for no other purpose. Except as expressly provided in this Section, no right or license under any patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark or other intellectual property of First Data or other person is granted or is to be inferred from this Section. RCSI agrees that First Data's providing of Fraud Management/Fraud Detection Services does not confer upon RCSI any license in or to the Falcon Credit Card Computation Model.

(B) First Data and RCSI acknowledge First Data's representation that the HNC Software, from which the Credit Card Output Access is generated, is licensed to First Data pursuant to a license agreement (the "HNC License Agreement"). First Data shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to extend or renew the initial or any renewal terms, as the case may be, of the HNC License Agreement and if the HNC License Agreement expires or is terminated, First Data shall promptly notify RCSI of such termination or expiration. First Data shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to substitute for HNC one or more software vendors from whom First Data shall license, on commercially reasonable terms, one or more software packages that will generate output access that provides, in all material respects, the utility and performance provided by the Credit Card Output Access generated by the HNC Software.

(C) First Data shall assist RCSI in establishing fraud detection strategies ("Falcon Fraud Strategies") on-line to fulfill RCSI's fraud detection requirements. These Falcon Fraud Strategies will be available on-line for review.

(D) Together with HNC, upon RCSI's request, First Data will provide RCSI with the following call processing Services (the "Call Processing Services"):

(1) First Data will monitor authorizations queued as a result of the Falcon Fraud Strategies and/or fraud score.

(2) First Data will initiate outbound telephone calls to the Cardholders of RCSI who have had authorization activity on their Designated Account and appear in a Falcon queue group (the "Falcon Queue Group"). At RCSI's option, First Data shall either (i) use a predictive dialer (a mechanism by which outbound calls to the Cardholder accounts to be worked hereunder are automatically dialed by the system based upon the telephone number indicated by the Cardholder master files of RCSI resident at First Data) to place calls or (ii) manually review accounts for fraud activity (based upon RCSI-defined criteria) in order to call only selected accounts.

(3) First Data will make up to four (4) attempts to reach the Cardholder within a 48-hour period. All attempts will be made within the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. in the time zone of the Cardholder's address on file.

(4) First Data will attempt all home and business telephone numbers as provided by RCSI's Cardholder masterfile.

(5) If First Data is unable to contact the Cardholder, a message for the Cardholder to contact First Data at a to-be-provided toll-free number will be delivered to the Cardholder's home message machine and/or to responsible adults.

(6) When the First Data call results in contact with the Cardholder, and the Cardholder validates the authorization activity, First Data will record an on-line account memo (to the "RCSI Inquiry System") indicating the results of the call.

(7) When the First Data call results in contact with the Cardholder and the Cardholder is unable to validate the activity, First Data will initiate a lost/stolen report (the "Lost/Stolen Report") and place a block on the account. First Data will record an on-line account memo (to the RCSI Inquiry System) indicating the results of the call.

(8) If First Data encounters activity which appears uncharacteristic or unusual for a Cardholder Designated Account and First Data is unable to successfully contact the Cardholder, then First Data may place a block on the Cardholder Designated Account to prevent further authorization approvals until either the Cardholder or RCSI successfully verifies the activity. On a daily basis, First Data will make available to RCSI via a real-time online system the current list of Designated Accounts which have been blocked because of uncharacteristic or unusual account activity. The Designated Account will remain blocked until RCSI removes or instructs First Data via the real-time online system to remove such block.

(9) Upon the request of RCSI, First Data shall provide additional services, including the following: telephone number look-ups, inbound call processing after the 48-hour period, fraud control services, customized reporting, etc.

(10) Upon RCSI's request, at least annually, First Data shall require HNC to analyze month-end reports within the 12-month period being produced by the HNC Software that measure the effectiveness of RCSI's existing algorithms within the Falcon model, provided that RCSI has over 200,000 Designated Accounts that are Active Accounts. First Data shall then provide to RCSI HNC's written analysis of the reports interpreting the performance of the existing algorithms and strategies within the Falcon model and written recommendations for changes or updates to such algorithms or strategies to improve their performance, provided that RCSI promptly provides First Data with the two necessary month-end reports.

(11) At RCSI's request, First Data, through HNC, shall provide RCSI with up to five (5) hours per month, for the first six (6) months following the date of commencement of Fraud Management/Fraud Detection Services (the "Falcon Start Date"), and three (3) hours per month thereafter, of score-related assistance over the telephone at no additional charge, provided that RCSI has over 200,000 Designated Accounts that are Active Accounts as of the Falcon Start Date. If such service exceeds the hours permitted for that particular month, First Data may be entitled to charge RCSI for such services as set forth in Schedule C. First Data shall make appropriately qualified First Data Personnel available to RCSI consult with RCSI on fraud strategy management upon RCSI's request.

(12) Upon request by RCSI, First Data shall provide the following to RCSI: custom system installation, additional training, and fraud user interface licensing. First Data, through HNC, shall provide custom fraud models to RCSI upon request.

(13) HNC has established a fraud control consortium (the “Fraud Control Consortium” or “Consortium”) whereby users of Card Output Access contribute data for use by HNC to study fraud patterns, which enables HNC to improve fraud detection methods. If RCSI chooses to join such Consortium, First Data, upon request of RCSI, shall provide RCSI data to the Fraud Control Consortium as required within thirty (30) days after the Falcon Start Date and on a calendar quarterly basis thereafter. If RCSI does not wish to join the Fraud Control Consortium, First Data, through HNC, upon request of RCSI shall construct a custom fraud model for RCSI, as an additional service, at a cost agreed upon among First Data and RCSI. RCSI acknowledges that First Data will employ the HNC Software using the Fraud Control Consortium algorithms to produce Credit Card Output Access for RCSI only if RCSI contributes data to the Fraud Control Consortium.

(14) First Data shall cause HNC to provide, once every calendar quarter, a review of the consortium model which will identify changes in fraud trends and if such changes are of statistical significance, then First Data shall cause HNC to update the consortium model.

(E) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Agreement, RCSI may terminate the Credit Card Fraud Management/Fraud Detection Services hereunder upon thirty (30) days written notice to First Data.

(iv) Fraud Control. First Data shall make available to RCSI, as requested by RCSI, First Data’s fraud control services (the “Fraud Control Services”) which shall include the use of the First Data “On-Line Fraud Management System,” “Fraud Detail Management Screens” and the other fraud control services and functionalities available from the First Data System. Without limiting the forgoing, the Fraud Control Services shall also include the services described below.

(A) Fraud Detail Management Screens. First Data’s Fraud Detail Management Screens shall give RCSI the ability to process monetary items on-line which post to lost or stolen Designated Accounts. This service shall be provided for Designated Accounts stuated as either lost or stolen; provided, however, that RCSI may include all internal and external status codes. The chargeback rights included in this product are warning bulletin, expired card and late presentment. The First Data System shall allow RCSI to review pending retrievals and have the First Data System automatically chargeback unfulfilled retrieval requests. RCSI may specify the number of days allowed for receipt of retrieval documentation before the First Data System automatically charges an item back.

(D) Fraud Reporting. As part of the Fraud Control Services provided to RCSI, First Data shall provide the following fraud reporting Services ("Fraud Reporting Services") to RCSI. Security detail transactions shall be used to add, update or delete transaction records on First Data's security master file. These transactions shall generate a fraud advice record to the MasterCard, Visa and other Association fraud reporting systems. First Data shall enable RCSI to research lost or stolen Accounts and enter disposition codes sufficient to record fraud, counterfeit, and chargebacks. Fraud detail information, including all fraud account information automatically transmitted to RCSI's clearing house ("Clearing House"), shall be automatically transmitted to MasterCard, Visa and the other Associations by First Data in compliance with regulations for fraud and counterfeit reporting.

(ii) User Manuals and updates thereto will be distributed to RCSI via hard copy and CD-ROM. The hard copy updates will be sent directly following each implementation in shrink-wrapped, clear plastic complete with an update letter that explains what pages to take out and where to insert new pages. CD-ROM updates will be sent on new compact discs to RCSI. Each successive User Manual update shall be identified by a revision number so RCSI can easily determine when an enhancement is implemented and can verify that the User Manuals are up to date.

(iii) When errors are detected in the User Manuals, they will be corrected by First Data. When errors are detected by RCSI, RCSI will endeavor to submit a "User Documentation Change Request" or "UDCR" form describing the error. First Data shall prioritize resolution of the UDCR and the timeliness of the correction to the User Manuals. Category "A" UDCRs, involving liability or client risk, shall be completed in the next update to the User Manual. Category "B" UDCRs, involving procedural clarifications, shall be completed within the next two (2) updates to the User Manual. The method of transmission and the media employed will be proposed by First Data and be subject to approval by RCSI. The Parties shall take into consideration relevant factors such as traffic type, inbound and outbound message sizes, traffic loading distribution, and the equipment or devices which are or may be used.

5.7 Interfaces.

First Data shall define, support, and make available to RCSI various interfaces to the First Data System as specified by RCSI. As of the first Initial Conversion, First Data shall provide at least one hundred and twenty (120) days prior written notice to RCSI regarding any change to common or core interfaces (e.g., industry interfaces, standard client wide system interfaces) and shall provide complete documentation regarding any such changes at least ninety (90) days prior to implementation of such changes. First Data may not change those interfaces which are custom or specific to RCSI without prior written approval from RCSI.

First Data shall have available on call, and shall dispatch as required, support specialists twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week to provide troubleshooting and maintenance response as necessary to identify and resolve problems. The specialists will be skilled personnel with appropriate problem management capabilities and technical knowledge with respect to the First Data System, the Services and to RCSI activities typically occurring during the time period for which they are on duty. The specialists will be staffed as required by RCSI at various First Data and RCSI locations.

- (f) First Data shall engage and manage third party suppliers and vendors as necessary to localize and resolve problems that arise from or relate to the Services.

14. DISASTER AND BUSINESS RECOVERY

As further detailed in Exhibit A-7, First Data shall provide support as reasonably requested by RCSI to meet RCSI’s disaster recovery and business recovery requirements. In connection with that support, First Data shall participate, as required by RCSI, in RCSI disaster recovery tests, agree to use reasonable efforts to accommodate RCSI’s disaster recovery and business recovery requirements, and, to the extent there are requirements First Data cannot accommodate, make reasonable efforts to find alternative solutions. If it is determined that system modifications must be made or unique services provided, pricing for such services will be proposed to RCSI.

15. APPLICATION DEVELOPMENT AND APPLICATION MAINTENANCE

15.1 General.

(a) First Data shall provide the Application development services (“AD”) and Application maintenance services (“AM”) described in this Schedule A and elsewhere in the Agreement.

(b) First Data shall provide AD and AM in the priority and on the schedule specified by ***.

(c) First Data shall provide progress reports on individual AD project activities as part of the Monthly Performance Report and shall, as requested by RCSI, advise on developments in technology of potential interest to RCSI.

(d) First Data shall provide to RCSI each month a detailed, written plan (the “Development Hours Plan”) setting forth its proposed expenditure of Development Hours in the following month. RCSI’s approval will be necessary in order for First Data to implement the Development Hours Plan.

(e) First Data shall complete AD and AM work within time frames meeting RCSI’s business requirements, including the time frames required to meet RCSI’s customer’s business requirements, as such time frames are made known to First Data, as long as resources to satisfy such requests are available. Availability will be dependent on joint planning and forecasting for capacity with enough lead time to ramp-up and ramp-down.

(f) First Data shall use technologically current development/maintenance tools and languages as appropriate to improve programmer productivity, code stability and reusability.

15.2 Application Development Responsibilities.

(a) First Data shall be responsible for designing, developing, and implementing ongoing and new AD projects as and to the extent requested by RCSI. First Data shall consider any suggestion of RCSI as to the location of First Data personnel performing particular AD projects, but First Data shall make such AD location decisions. First Data shall perform the AD in accordance with industry-accepted, repeatable, systems development life cycle methodology. The methodology will include the processes comprehensively covering the AD activities next described. That methodology will also include the following:

(i) developing appropriate documentation, preserving the knowledge base for reuse, and developing and implementing appropriate user training; and

(ii) a change procedure under which RCSI may request enhancements, customizations, interfaces, or other changes to the AD project.

That procedure will include the performance of an analysis by First Data to determine the impact (including financial, allocation and use of resources, and scheduling) of the requested enhancement(s), customization(s), development of interface or other change(s) on the AD project and will require that no change will be made until reduced to a written change order describing the change order and associated costs with particularity and approved by RCSI.

(b) Except as otherwise approved by RCSI, AD projects performed by First Data shall include the activities next described and the Parties' respective responsibilities will be as next described. These provisions also apply, as appropriate, to the extent portions of AD projects are assigned to First Data.

(i) Initial Evaluation/Structure. Upon receipt from RCSI of a request for AD, First Data shall perform an initial feasibility assessment sufficient for RCSI to make a reasonable business decision on whether to continue with the requested AD project. Such assessment will include an analysis of the impact of the performance of the AD project on the performance of the Services as a whole, including existing AD projects. As requested by RCSI, First Data shall provide assistance in evaluating, and will make recommendations respecting, the use of available First Data and third party software for the AD project versus building the Application software. First Data shall then provide its findings in writing to RCSI.

(ii) Analysis and Identification of RCSI's Requirements. First Data shall be responsible for analyzing in-depth and identifying substantially all the business and user requirements of RCSI in connection with the AD project. These requirements will be stated at a level of detail sufficient to formulate acceptance criteria and will be set forth in a business/user requirements document drafted by First Data, submitted to RCSI for review and comment, and finalized by First Data as directed by RCSI. This phase of activity will be completed upon RCSI's approval and sign-off of the business/user requirements document.

(iii) Resolution Plan. First Data shall prepare a resolution plan ("Resolution Plan") which shall contain: (A) alternate solutions for providing to RCSI the requested functionality including at least one solution involving development of the missing functionality through additions to or modifications of the First Data System and at least one solution using the current First Data System functionality ***, and (B) an estimate (in hours) of development and other work necessary to implement each proposed solution and the cost to RCSI based upon Schedule C. If one of the proposed solutions is not an integrated change to the First Data System, First Data shall explain why and its justifications for such omission; provided, however that if RCSI is requesting a change in process and/or Services relating to an GECF-A Designated Account, the proposed solutions must include an integrated change in the First Data System. RCSI will determine whether to proceed or will identify the solution to be further pursued.

(iv) Project Plan. If RCSI authorizes First Data to proceed with the proposed AD project, First Data shall prepare a plan ("Project Plan") specifying the schedule, estimated Development Hours, and other requirements for the AD project, including acceptance test criteria, and its possible impacts on other Services. The Project Plan will be submitted to RCSI for review and comment, and will be subject to the approval of RCSI.

(v) High Level Design. First Data shall prepare functional specifications and a high level technical design. Based on this information, the Parties may adjust the scheduled and estimated charges for the work. As adjusted, the schedule is to govern the work and the *** charges shall be a Chargeable Hours Cap.

(vi) Detailed Technical Design. First Data shall develop a detailed technical design that demonstrates how the AD work will satisfy RCSI's business and user requirements. The design will include technological and functional design elements and will be subject to approval of RCSI.

(vii) Code Development. First Data shall develop or otherwise obtain the code necessary for the AD project, including developing necessary interfaces and bridges.

(viii) Data Conversion. First Data shall perform data conversion as necessary for the AD project.

(ix) Testing. First Data shall develop and carry out unit testing, string testing, regression testing, functional testing, integration testing, package modification testing, system testing, stress/volume testing, and other testing, as required by RCSI. Required testing will be described in the Project Plan or other document subject to review and approval by RCSI.

(x) Acceptance Procedure. First Data shall develop and subject to approval by RCSI, implement a formal acceptance procedure that allows RCSI to verify that the AD work meets the approved business/user design requirements. Such acceptance procedures will be described in the Project Plan or other document subject to review and approval by RCSI. First Data shall track and correct identified problems in the Application(s) developed pursuant to the AD project. Acceptance of an Application will be deemed to have occurred upon the acceptance of the AD work by RCSI in writing and consistent with the terms of the Project Plan. Acceptance testing will be performed on equipment substantially similar to the production equipment on which the Application will be operated when placed into production.

(xi) Implementation. First Data shall be responsible for the production, implementation and rollout of the newly developed Application. First Data shall comply with First Data's formal change management process, as approved by RCSI, for implementing newly developed Application software.

(c) Post Implementation Review/Application Correction. First Data shall conduct a post-implementation review of the performance of the Application developed under the AD project within forty-five (45) days of the implementation of the Application. First Data shall promptly remedy any failure of the Application to meet the requirements contained in the Applications Specifications.

(d) RCSI may terminate AD in connection with an AD project at any time.

(e) First Data shall propose modifications or alternatives to the process described in this Article 15, such as a process for managing enhancements and small AD projects using a simplified process and forms, if those changes or alternatives will be more cost-effective to RCSI, and First Data shall implement such changes or alternatives as requested or approved by RCSI.

(f) Within thirty (30) days after the FAAR Effective Date, First Data shall provide to RCSI a comprehensive, written description of First Data's then-current development tools, project management tools and practices then currently used by First Data in AD projects. Thereafter during the Term, First Data shall notify RCSI of material changes in such development tools, project management tools and practices by providing such information concerning those changes as is necessary for RCSI to understand how those changes may affect the Services.

15.3 First Data System/Non-Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials

(a) Maintenance and Support.

First Data shall, without the requirement of a request or notice from RCSI, maintain and support the First Data System, including the First Data Software and the Non-Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials, so that the First Data System and the Non-Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials operate properly and the Services are performed seamlessly among functions such that one function does not inappropriately interfere with another function. First Data shall be responsible for all maintenance for any software or service described in this Schedule A and anywhere else in the Agreement and shall not charge a separate maintenance fee at any time during the Term. Such maintenance shall include the following:

(i) Emergency Maintenance. First Data shall address and correct failures of the First Data Software and the Non-Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials to operate according to their respective Specifications and other errors without regard to the source of such errors or invalid data (even if the source is a RCSI end user), including performing such functions as are necessary to reinstate service (e.g., re-running jobs), and resolving issues caused by end user errors. First Data shall work closely with appropriate RCSI personnel so that problems are resolved promptly. Time frames and deadlines for responding to such errors will be as required by RCSI.

(ii) Preventive Maintenance. First Data shall be responsible for Application tuning, code restructuring, and other efforts undertaken to improve the efficiency and reliability of First Data Software and the Non-Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials under the Agreement. First Data shall follow First Data's change management process as approved by *** to assure that any upgraded First Data Software and the Non-Shared-Cost Interfaced New Materials is properly installed into the production environment without disrupting the business it supports. These efforts will include contingency and recovery preparation.

(b) Changes to the First Data System. The Services described in Articles 4 through 8 shall, unless otherwise specified, be subject to periodic revision by First Data; provided, however, that:

- (i) First Data shall provide reasonably prompt notice to RCSI through a customer bulletin or other means of any material changes to the First Data System;
- (ii) no new fees or charges shall be imposed for any such changes except as specifically provided for in this Agreement or any amendment hereto; and
- (iii) such changes shall not adversely affect or diminish the Services including any Service Levels or agreed-to Performance Standards provided by First Data.

(c) To the extent the Services are upgraded, enhanced or replaced:

- (i) each Party shall bear its own expenses in respect to the change from the existing system to the upgraded or enhanced system; and
- (ii) First Data shall continue to support fully the *** system for the benefit of RCSI.

(d) Approaches reasonably requested by RCSI concerning changes First Data proposes to make to the First Data System shall be included by First Data in the alternatives it considers.

15.4 Client Advisory Groups.

(a) As of the Effective Date, First Data provides a number of client advisory groups comprised of major First Data clients including the Product Information Exchange Group, the Risk Advisory Group, the Test Advisory Group and others. The Product Information Exchange Group and the Risk Advisory Group enable First Data member clients to provide direct input to First Data as it relates to the development and direction of First Data products and services. The Test Advisory Group consists of both First Data and First Data member client representatives and is used as a forum for First Data and its clients to discuss testing issues at regularly scheduled times each year with membership dependent upon the affirmative vote of seated members.

(b) On the Effective Date, RCSI shall become a full member of each of the Client Advisory Groups other than those to which members are elected by current members. For the latter Client Advisory Groups, First Data shall recommend to the groups that RCSI be admitted as a member at the earliest opportunity. RCSI shall remain a member of each Client Advisory Group during the Term, subject to RCSI's right, in its sole discretion, to withdraw from any such group at any time. Additionally, unless RCSI requests otherwise, or unless membership is dependent upon affirmative vote of existing members, RCSI shall become and remain during the Term, a full member of each new and each succeeding Client Advisory Group which is formed during the Term except as to such groups from which RCSI, in its sole discretion, withdraws, or as to which RCSI declines to become a member. For each new and succeeding client advisory group to which members are elected by current members, First Data shall recommend to the groups that RCSI be admitted as a member at the earliest opportunity.

(c) First Data shall keep members of the Client Advisory Groups informed of First Data’s plans for development and enhancement of the First Data System through meetings, follow-up meeting notes, and First Data’s operational bulletins. Meetings will be held with representatives of the members as often as the members determine, to regularly solicit the opinions of members of the Client Advisory Groups, including RCSI, concerning such development and enhancements, as well as the quality of First Data’s services.

16. TRAINING OF RCSI EMPLOYEES

16.1 Training Services.

(a) Training Services.

First Data shall define and implement a training and education program to develop and maintain the requisite skills and knowledge of RCSI personnel (“Training Services”). First Data shall perform a complete assessment of RCSI’s need for initial training and ongoing training through the Term for RCSI personnel in the use of the Services and the First Data System. Such Training Services consist of four phases: “Needs Assessment,” “Train the Trainer,” “Staff Level Training,” and “Follow-up Training”.

(b) Needs Assessment.

(i) The Needs Assessment phase shall be a thirty (30) day process which shall begin when requested by RCSI. The Needs Assessment phase shall consist of identifying all of the job functions for those who will be utilizing the First Data System. This process shall also assess the level of training detail required in the use of the First Data System by the RCSI employee performing each job function. First Data’s product training team shall create a training plan that will define the curriculum and delivery method for each job type and location type within RCSI and will include the First Data System knowledge an individual RCSI employee is required to know to successfully perform their job function (“Training Plan”).

(ii) During the Needs Assessment phase, First Data will visit with the RCSI training coordinator and other key RCSI employees and interview key individuals within each RCSI department. During such visits and interviews, First Data will present an overview of the First Data product training and services. First Data shall describe to RCSI the training First Data has performed for other First Data clients in connection with services similar to the Services and shall provide RCSI with copies of the standard materials First Data uses in such training. First Data shall also provide a tool for key RCSI employees to use in analyzing training needs for their individual departments. In addition, First Data will tour RCSI training facilities and work areas to better understand the RCSI business culture and atmosphere.

(iii) As part of the Needs Assessment phase, First Data will gather all information from the interview and fact finding process, answer any outstanding questions and issues and identify areas to be trained by First Data product training employees and those to be trained by RCSI trainers. The areas to be trained by First Data trainers shall be those courses that have a long learning curve, are very product specific, and can be trained to a manageable group (in terms of numbers).

(iv) At the completion of the Needs Assessment phase, First Data will provide the proposed Training Plan to the RCSI for review and approval. First Data will incorporate RCSI's comments and, upon RCSI's approval, First Data will execute the Training Plan.

(c) Train the Trainer

(i) The Train the Trainer phase will start as required by RCSI after the Training Plan has been approved. The Train the Trainer process will include presentations by First Data training staff, individual study time, on-line exercises, round table discussions, computer based training courses, teach backs, and tests. The First Data product training team will provide a day-to-day training plan to each trainer prior to the start of the class. This consists of training the designated individuals on the functionality of the First Data System so the RCSI trainers will be equipped to train other individuals within the RCSI organization. The instruction cycle of the train the trainer phase is approximately sixty (60) days.

(ii) During the Train the Trainer Phase, First Data will determine the number of First Data trainers needed for this process and identify the criteria for selecting RCSI employees for the train the trainer process; provided that RCSI shall select the RCSI trainers. First Data will identify the curriculum to be learned for each of the RCSI trainers selected, based upon the Needs Assessment. First Data will then identify the location and time frame of the Train the Trainer program and set up the facility and accommodations for the program.

(iii) First Data will then set up a meeting at RCSI for RCSI and First Data individuals involved in the Train the Trainer process to understand the objectives and obtain RCSI management approval and execute the Train the Trainer process. Upon completion of the Train the Trainer process, the RCSI trainers will return to their work location to begin the process of setting up their internal procedures to incorporate into the training material and schedule the employees into training.

(iv) As the RCSI trainers begin to complete the task of identifying their internal procedures, and incorporating those procedures into the First Data training material, there may be updates on the First Data System. This new information will be given to the RCSI trainers through bulletins received from First Data and instruction on these new options will be given by the First Data trainers. The First Data trainers will assist the RCSI trainers to make the decision as to whether or not the new First Data System information belongs in the training materials itself.

(d) Staff Level Training.

(i) Staff level training will be carried out by the RCSI trainers that have gone through the Train the Trainer process with First Data. First Data product trainers will act as technical and organizational resources to assure that staff level training is carried out according to the Training Plan.

(ii) RCSI shall be responsible for creating a staff level training schedule based on needs assessment information and employee schedules and creating training materials incorporating RCSI internal procedures as well as functional information on the First Data System; provided that the First Data product training group shall assist RCSI to create such materials. RCSI may submit training materials for technical review by First Data product training, print and distribute materials and First Data shall provide written comments within a two (2) weeks after being provided with such training materials. RCSI may also submit staff training schedules to First Data product training for review and First Data shall provide written comments within two (2) weeks after being provided with such training schedule.

(iii) The RCSI Trainers shall be suitably trained to competently perform the required Staff Level Training.

(e) Follow-up Training.

First Data shall provide product trainers for post conversion onsite support. This is scheduled on an “as needed” basis. Post conversion support includes real time assistance at various RCSI locations.

16.2 Training Locations.

Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, Initial Conversion Training Services and On-going Training Services (collectively, the “Training Services”) shall be provided at the location(s) specified by RCSI.

16.3 Documentation.

(a) Upon request, First Data shall provide hard copies and electronic copies of First Data training material for use by RCSI.

(b) RCSI employees receiving the Training Services will have the right to retain and use the materials provided them by First Data in connection with the training. Additionally, RCSI will have the right to videotape the training sessions for use in training other RCSI personnel.

17. INTERCHANGE SETTLEMENT

17.1 Interchange Settlement Account.

In order for First Data to provide its Services to RCSI pursuant to the Agreement, it is necessary for First Data to handle and settle “Interchange Settlement” for RCSI through the international interchange (“Interchange”) networks of Associations. It shall be the responsibility of RCSI to provide ICA and BIN numbers from the respective Associations for use by First Data in the settlement of transactions for RCSI. RCSI understands that First Data handles the Interchange Settlement with the Associations for its clients including RCSI on a net settlement basis (the “Settlement System”). To facilitate the Settlement System, First Data has established, will establish or will direct RCSI to establish and may in the future establish or direct RCSI to establish, one or more interchange settlement “Central Clearing Accounts” (collectively the “Settlement Account”) at one or more banks.

17.2 Transfer of Funds.

First Data shall calculate and inform RCSI on each business day of the amount of funds to be transferred (the “Daily Amount”) as the result of (a) current transaction processing, and (b) funding required for incoming transactions of RCSI. If the Daily Amount is negative, RCSI must transfer to the Settlement Account, by *** EST, an amount equal to the Daily Amount. If the Daily Amount is positive, First Data shall transfer to RCSI, or will cause MasterCard or Visa to transfer to RCSI, immediately available funds equal to the Daily Amount prior to the close of business of the Federal Reserve System in New York on such date.

17.3 Daily Amount.

The Daily Amount shall equal (a) the Net Settlement Amount for RCSI plus (b) the amount necessary to fund incoming Interchange transactions not yet processed, determined in accordance with the First Data Settlement Rules, minus (c) the amount previously advanced by RCSI with respect to prior incoming Interchange transactions for which processing is complete. “Net Settlement Amount” means a net dollar amount for each business day of First Data of all (a) transactions processed for RCSI and RCSI Transaction Card clients for such business day determined in accordance with the applicable rules of MasterCard, Visa and the First Data Settlement Rules, (b) interchange fees and expenses relating to RCSI and RCSI Transaction Card clients, and (c) account expenses including overdraft charges, activity charges, wire transfer fees and other charges relating to RCSI and RCSI Transaction Card clients.

17.4 Failure to Transfer.

In the event of the failure of RCSI on any business day when required by the terms of the Agreement or the First Data Settlement Rules, to transfer the Daily Amount to the Settlement Account then, subject to the provisions of Section 19.3 of the Main Body of the Agreement and if First Data’s notice of the Daily Amount due was received by RCSI on time, within one business day after written notice to RCSI,

First Data may refuse, without incurring any liability to RCSI, to act as RCSI's agent in discharging any Association Interchange obligations of RCSI and shall have the right to immediately notify the Association that it will no longer cause the Association Interchange obligations of RCSI to be discharged. In addition to the foregoing, First Data may take such actions with respect to RCSI's obligations under the Settlement System as First Data deems reasonable to protect First Data or its customers from any loss arising from RCSI's non-payment of the Daily Amount.

17.5 Settlement Late Payment Fee.

In addition to any other provisions in the Agreement, if First Data notifies RCSI of the Daily Amount on a timely basis and RCSI fails to transfer or make available the Daily Amount for any business day, RCSI shall pay to First Data a late payment fee (the "Settlement Late Payment Fee") which shall be equal to the amount RCSI would have been required to pay as a late payment fee under the Settlement Rules. "Settlement Rules" means the applicable bylaws, rules, regulations, documentation and manuals promulgated or adopted by MasterCard or Visa, as such rules, manuals and other items may be amended or supplemented from time to time. The amount shall be calculated in accordance with the Settlement Rules and shall continue to accrue until First Data shall have received the Daily Amount from RCSI. Settlement Late Payment Fees shall be paid to First Data based upon the Settlement Rules even though First Data may have elected to make settlement with MasterCard or Visa in a timely manner on behalf of RCSI. If First Data has received funds from Visa and/or MasterCard as a result of Interchange Settlement on behalf of RCSI and fails to make available the Daily Amount to RCSI, First Data shall pay to RCSI a late payment fee based on the Daily Amount calculated in the same manner as the Settlement Late Payment Fee.

17.6 No Independent Obligation.

The obligation of First Data to discharge any Visa or MasterCard Interchange obligations of RCSI or RCSI's Transaction Card clients shall be solely as an agent of RCSI in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Agreement and the applicable First Data Settlement Rules. First Data shall have no independent obligation with respect to the discharge of the Interchange obligations of RCSI.

17.7 Violation of Rules.

In the event that MasterCard or Visa shall notify First Data of any violation of the rules relating to RCSI or transactions processed for RCSI, First Data shall have the right, if required by MasterCard or Visa and after one (1) business day after First Data provides written notice to RCSI, without liability to RCSI, to terminate Interchange Settlement of transactions, as applicable, on behalf of RCSI under the Agreement until the time as First Data shall have been notified by MasterCard or Visa that the violation has been corrected.

17.8 Reliance on Other Parties.

RCSI acknowledges that performance of Interchange Settlement involves the settlement of certain of RCSI's transactions jointly and on a combined net basis with the settlement of transactions of other customers of First Data. Accordingly, the payment or receipt by First Data of settlement monies on behalf of RCSI may be dependent on equivalent payments or receipts being received or made by or for other customers of First Data and in respect of transactions involving Transaction Cards issues by such other customers. First Data and RCSI will cooperate and use reasonable resources to identify the reason for any settlement failure and shall attempt to work to its resolution.

17.9 Compliance with Instructions.

First Data shall follow reasonable commercial practices prior to executing or otherwise acting upon:

(a) instructions or information received through the Association payment systems; and

(b) instructions or information received in accordance with the rules or settlement manuals otherwise than through the payment systems or in accordance with the applicable First Data Settlement Rules notwithstanding that it may afterwards be discovered that the instructions or information were not genuine or were not initiated by RCSI.

Such execution or action shall constitute a full discharge of First Data's interchange obligations, and First Data shall not be liable for any liability, damage, expense, claim or loss (including loss of business, loss of profit or exemplary, punitive, special, indirect or consequential damages of any kind) whatsoever arising in whatever manner, directly or indirectly, from or as a result of the execution or action.

17.10 Restrictions on Setoff.

RCSI agrees to discharge its Interchange Settlement obligations to First Data under this Article 17 in full and on first written demand without regard to any defense, setoff or right of counterclaim (without prejudice to the ability of RCSI to pursue these independently) and notwithstanding any act or omission or alleged act or omission or any insufficiency or deficiency that there is or has been or that may be alleged in the performance by First Data of its obligations under the Agreement or otherwise. First Data agrees, however, that it shall not set off against any payment to be made by it to RCSI or on their behalf pursuant to this Article 17 any amount due and payable to RCSI to First Data (without prejudice to the ability of First Data to pursue these independently) other than amounts due and payable by RCSI or on their behalf to First Data pursuant to this Article 17.

17.11 Trailing Activity.

If RCSI terminates the Agreement or if RCSI ceases to obtain processing services from First Data under the Agreement in a manner which results in fees or charges relating to RCSI's Designated Accounts continuing to be included as a part of First Data's net settlement with an Associations, First Data may obtain daily payment from the Settlement Account established under Section 17.1 or RCSI will provide First Data immediately upon notice with access to an account of RCSI's funds, not requiring signature, which First Data may draw upon in order to receive payment for such fees and charges. First Data shall provide RCSI with prompt documentation for the fees and charges paid on behalf of RCSI. In addition, First Data shall maintain and support translation tables which identify and translate historic account numbers to facilitate the settlement of actual or attempted transactions.

EXHIBIT A-1

- Position each subsequent portfolio Wave to finalize and identify differences between RCSI client specific requirements and First Data System capabilities.
- Reach agreement on the method to resolve each selected difference between RCSI general and client specific requirements and First Data System capabilities with the goal of meeting RCSI’s business requirements as efficiently as possible for both Parties, including through use of existing First Data System functionality where possible.
- Define the resulting impacts on system capability requirements from RCSI front-end systems (including GE Workstation) and the business process re-engineering effort.
- Account for the influence of Future First Data System Architecture on the resulting development effort.
- Revise any pre-GECF-A Discovery estimate of total development effort required.
- Outline RCSI portfolio Conversion approach, including segmentation and timeframes.
- Agree on a change control process to be used throughout Conversion Waves during the Conversion process.
- Agree on the code release process outside of scheduled implementations (including MICN) in order to achieve the goals of Conversion.

DELIVERABLES:

- RCSI participants will understand First Data’s products and Services, as well as the GECF-A Discovery process.
- First Data participants will understand the RCSI business model, RCSI front and back end, GE Workstation and business process re-engineering initiatives.
- First Data will create updated Resolution Agreements describing individual differences between the First Data System and the desired capability as represented by RCSI.
Each

Resolution Agreement will propose options to overcome the described difference with the goal of meeting RCSI's business requirements as efficiently as possible for both Parties, including through use of existing First Data System functionality where possible, and, for each option requiring system development, include a schedule for completion of programming as described in Schedule A, Section 2.3.

- RCSI will determine the best course to follow.
- RCSI will approve all Resolution Agreements by selecting the desired option to close the described difference with the goal of meeting RCSI's business requirements as efficiently as possible for both Parties, including through the use of existing First Data System functionality where possible.
- First Data will initiate the system development process to address any selected options requiring programming.
- The Initial Conversions/KSCM Plan shall include a schedule of the completion of the Initial Conversion and Known Software Conversion Modifications proposed by First Data and approved by RCSI.

PERSONNEL ASSIGNMENTS:

First Data shall assign the following personnel to the GECF-A Discovery and Conversion process:-

- System Consultants
- Conversion Team
- Product Owners
- RCSI Project Team
- First Data System Architecture Team
- Administrator for tracking changes

RCSI shall assign the following personnel to the GECF-A Discovery and Conversion process:

- Technical personnel with proficiency on platform functionality
- Business personnel with proficiency as end-users and client liaisons with product requirements.
  - Client Integration Project Mgt
  - Operations
  - Client Service
  - Client Development
  - Product Development
  - Marketing/Risk
  - Pricing
- RCSI Process Owners

METHODOLOGY:

GECF-A Discovery for subsequent Waves of Conversion will run in parallel with the Conversion of Wave 1 in order to meet the timelines targeted.

- First Data will conduct planning meetings with RCSI participants prior to initiation of GECF-A Discovery to provide an overview of the First Data System as well as to explain the GECF-A Discovery methodology and process. At that time, RCSI will also have the opportunity to provide additional information about the RCSI business model, its clients, the GE Workstation as well as any business process re-engineering activities.
- The Parties will agree to mapping of high-level milestones and operational definitions.
- First Data will adapt a database of questions divided along functional topics and integrated across RCSI and its Affiliates' lines of business (Private label consumer, BRC, Oil) to guide each GECF-A Discovery session as approved by RCSI.
- First Data will discuss individual topic areas with RCSI in meetings between knowledgeable technical and business representatives from RCSI and First Data. At the beginning of each meeting, First Data will deliver an in-depth overview of First Data's capability in the particular topic area, if applicable, and the Parties' teams will then follow a Q&A format using the previously provided list of questions for that topic area. Immediately following the conclusion of each interview process, the RCSI and First Data participants will review the identified system differences and begin to identify possible solutions. The First Data team will follow up with further research and option definitions documenting those findings in the Resolution Agreement format.
- As First Data completes the Resolution Agreements for each topic, First Data will present the Resolution Agreements to RCSI for timely review and approval.
- First Data shall establish with the participation by RCSI the General Discovery (as defined below) schedule and initial Wave (as defined below) team structure to allow for concurrent GECF-A Discovery in order to complete the majority of GECF-A Discovery in the allotted timeframe and prior to subsequent Wave kickoffs.
- First Data will adjust the GECF-A Discovery and Wave Conversion schedule based on new RCSI business requirements or new RCSI business opportunities consistent with Section 3.4 (b) of the Main Body of the Agreement.

CONVERSION MAJOR ACTIVITIES:

Phase I & II – General GECF-A Discovery Phase and Wave Planning (Completed in Parallel)

During the "General Discovery" phase, the Parties shall undertake general planning and learning activities in preparation for GECF-A Discovery and Conversion. Upon completion of the General Discovery phase, First Data and RCSI will move to Phase II of the Conversion.

The planning phase details how the Conversion will occur in several phases ("Waves"). The key activity in the Planning phase is First Data's development of the project plan for RCSI's approval. This project plan is a schedule of tasks that shall be completed by First Data and RCSI in order to successfully Convert RCSI portfolios onto the First Data System. A project team will be identified and the champions will be assigned from RCSI and First Data to assume ownership for each task by Wave. Milestone events and RCSI responsibilities on the project plan will be identified and approved by RCSI prior to its implementation. The project plan will be reviewed by First Data and RCSI as described in Schedule A, Section 2.

System Development

As an outcome from the General Discovery phase and GECF-A Discovery, First Data will identify general system differences, which will require systems development on the First Data System. First Data will identify final specific differences for RCSI's approval within each Wave that may require systems development on the First Data System. With respect to differences that require systems development, First Data will:

- Write programming requests for all First Data System changes identified during GECF-A Discovery and outlined in the Resolution Agreements.
- Design First Data System enhancements and write detailed documents describing the specific First Data System changes.
- Quality inspects designs by the requester as well as members of the Systems and Programming organization.
- Provide detail designs to RCSI for review and approval.
- Code and construct the First Data System changes, including individual unit and system testing of the programs that are changed.
- Merge the new code with production code into an integration testing environment, which is executed by First Data development and testing staff to identify specific coding errors.
- Move all applicable programs into the Client Acceptance Test environment where the new functionality can be tested in a production-like system by RCSI and First Data.
- Install completed programs into production according to the standard release schedule.

Conversion Mapping

First Data will:

- Receive and analyze the RCSI system masterfiles.
- Prepare a mapping specifications document, which details how fields are mapped from the RCSI masterfiles to First Data masterfiles.
- Review mapping specifications with the RCSI.

- Code the Conversion programs from the mapping specifications. The Conversion programs create new First Data System masterfiles.
- Test the Conversion programs using a series of “Mock” Conversions. First Data will receive the production masterfiles from RCSI and run them through the Conversion programs to create output reports showing each masterfile field and value. First Data will verify the information against the mapping specifications.
- Execute the Conversion programs on conversion weekend and merge the new masterfiles into production.

RCSI Specific Output and Parameters

First Data or RCSI, in accordance with the Discovery Plan, will:

- Establish RCSI defined parameters on the Product Control File and fully document deviations from the RCSI standard template for each portfolio.
- Create Account Level Processing/Transaction Level Processing strategies.
- Build Portfolio Allocation and Cardholder Allocation tables to drive pricing strategies.
- Create statement forms and envelopes.
- Order plastics, card carrier forms, inserts and envelopes.
- Set reporting parameters and fully document deviations from the RCSI standard template for each portfolio.
- Build cardholder letters.
- Establish Behavior Score/Adaptive Control parameter tables.

Telecommunications and Interfaces

First Data or RCSI, in accordance with the Discovery Plan, will:

- Analyze current terminal and network configuration.
- Design telecommunication network for terminals, point of sale devices and interfaces.
- Order and install data lines and communication equipment.
- Complete programming to route data files to/from First Data System.
- Establish procedures for mailed tape media.

Phase III – Training

The Conversion training plan consists of four (4) phases that First Data or RCSI, in accordance with the Discovery Plan, will perform as part of each Conversion Wave: needs assessment, train the trainer, staff level training, and follow up as described in Schedule A, Section 16. In order for the training portion of the Conversion to be successful, the following must occur:

Keys for Success

- The Parties' commitment and support.
- Dedicated resources from First Data and RCSI
- Appropriate time for planning and execution
- Open communication between the Parties to facilitate a positive experience
- Time allocated for employee training and follow-up
- Instill the business Partnership between First Data and RCSI
- Timely escalation of issues

Phase IV—Testing

Testing consists of First Data's planning and coordination of all software development, Conversion programs, interfaces and product control file parameters.

First Data will perform software development testing, including having new software to pass through three (3) phases of internal testing before the software is turned over to RCSI for user acceptance testing. First Data Systems and Programming ("S&P") is responsible for testing in first three (3) phases. It is in the user acceptance testing phase that RCSI will have the opportunity to use the First Data System and become involved in the various testing scenarios. RCSI may at its discretion participate in the scripting and execution of any phase of testing. First Data will perform the three (3) testing phases, and facilitate client/user acceptance testing described below.

Unit Testing-This phase of testing is conducted by First Data's S&P staff. The testing is done at the most basic level. The unit test ensures that all modified or new logic paths in the affected applications modules work correctly and reflect the final design requirements. The test includes known inputs, test case scripts, and expected results.

System Test-This phase of testing is also conducted by the First Data S&P staff. The testing is now expanded to include all modules that have been modified for a given project (usually a sub-system). The modules are tested together to validate that code changes meet design requirements and that the various components of the altered system function together properly. The system test consists of both acceptance and regression testing. Modules that send, receive, and share data with the modified modules are used to test changes and to regression test the legacy functionality. First Data will share the results with RCSI.

Integration Test-The integration test conducted by the First Data S&P staff incorporates all software and database modifications from a specific software release into one (1) testing environment. Multiple daily cycles will be executed as well as weekly and monthly cycles. The testing ensures that projects execute as intended and do not introduce any unanticipated problems. Changes are tested across and between applications as well.

Client/User Acceptance Testing- (M Cycle) Upon the completion of the three (3) internal First Data test phases described above, the software release is installed in the user acceptance test cycle. The M cycle is a daily production cycle which is run by First Data's production control department. Performance and stress tests are performed by extrapolating results from this Client/User Acceptance Test.

RCSI Testing – RCSI will prepare timelines and test plans for all internal and external requirements, including any data or resource requirements from First Data. M cycle is available for RCSI to test a production cycle against RCSI converted data, input and output along with any system development relating to the Initial Conversions. In addition, specific requests for testing will be addressed as received from RCSI which may require Team 9P involvement. RCSI will need to identify a champion to coordinate testing required by RCSI.

RCSI will have on-line access to the M cycle and have the ability to send inputs to and receive outputs from the M cycle. RCSI will prepare and execute test scripts to ensure that custom program requests function as intended.

Conversion Testing-First Data will prepare specifications for each file which will be Converted. First Data will review the specifications with RCSI and schedule several First Data internal mocks and several RCSI mocks. During mock testing, First Data will review with RCSI old and new dumps of the files to ensure information has mapped properly. First Data will run balance reports and any additional verification reports requested by RCSI during the mocks. For the mock testing it will be important that RCSI representatives be onsite in Omaha. That way, they will have access to First Data experts and have the ability to review reruns and reports timely.

Product Control File- (PCS/ALP/TLP/TLR) First Data will build tables in production and M cycles. First data will train and assist RCSI in building its PCF tables. First Data and RCSI will verify each field before and after it is built. In addition, First Data will hold PCF/TLP/TLR reviews to ensure parameters are set correctly. After verification, First Data will build parameters in M cycle as well as production. RCSI will be able to test all inputs and output, screens, etc., using the parameters which will be in place at conversion. Using M cycle and the 9P environment, First Data and RCSI will verify that all parameters are mirrored correctly from M to production.

Phase V-Implementation

Conversion weekend is the culmination of all the previous phases. First Data will adequately prepare RCSI using the mock Conversions RCSI for file verification on conversion weekend. The process starts with RCSI delivering masterfiles to First Data. This can be accommodated via transmission or delivering of physical tapes. First Data will run these files through the Conversion programs and product audit reports for approval. Both RCSI and First Data will verify the results. First Data will balance the total number of accounts and current outstandings to the penny. First Data will review all exception reports. Once the Conversion results are signed off by RCSI, the First Data will merge the RCSI masterfile records into the masterfile records of the First Data System.

First Data will establish procedures for lost/stolen account processing during the Conversion weekend, for RCSI's approval. At the end of the implementation phase, RCSI should feel confident that masterfile integrity remained the same from the last day of processing on the RCSI system to the first day of processing on the First Data System.

RCSI will need to have staff on-site in Omaha the weekend of each Conversion Wave. It will also need to put together their own plan identifying the new processes, sequence of events, command center personnel, etc.

Phase VI—Post Implementation

Post implementation begins the first day RCSI Accounts are on the First Data System. A command center will be staffed by the First Data Conversion team to document and address all issues that may arise. This command center will be in place for at least thirty (30) days post Conversion depending on the resolution of all conversion related incidents, after which time the First Data business relation's team will address all issues. RCSI may also establish their own procedures for raising and resolving issues post implementation.

First Data will provide on-site support to assist RCSI in their daily operations. This support usually lasts up to one (1) week post Conversion for each Wave. Throughout this phase, certain members of the First Data Conversion team will be available twenty-four (24) hours per day in case of emergency. First Data will conduct a review of the Conversion process to ensure we have met or exceeded RCSI's expectations. It is First Data's goal to provide a conversion with no impact to RCSI and its customers.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Reference is made to the Adaptive Control and Behavior Scoring Addendum (the "Addendum"), dated as of December 10, 1998, among yourselves ("FICO"), First Data Resources Inc. ("First Data"), and General Electric Capital Corporation ("GE Capital"). The Addendum is an addendum to a Technology Sourcing Agreement (the "TSA"), of the same date, between First Data and GE Capital. Simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this letter agreement, (a) GE Capital is assigning the TSA and the Addendum to Retailer Credit Services, Inc. ("RCSI"), an affiliate of GE Capital, and (b) First Data and RCSI are executing a First Amended and Restated Technology Services Agreement (the "Restated TSA"). Notices to RCSI should be sent to it c/o the existing notice addressees.

Because the term of the Restated TSA extends until at least 2016, RCSI and First Data desire to extend the term of the Addendum to remain in effect until March 31, 2016, unless otherwise terminated in accordance with Section 5.1 of the Addendum. The Addendum would otherwise remain in full force and effect, without modification. Could you confirm your agreement to such extension, and acknowledge notice of assignment, by signing both copies of this letter where indicated and returning to me one fully-executed copy?

Very truly yours,

1.2 Grant of License and Use of ODS System.

(a) First Data grants to RCSI a limited, nonexclusive, and nontransferable right and license, exercisable during the Term of, and under the terms of, the Agreement, to use the ODS Software and the related Documentation as provided herein.

(b) All right, title and interest in the ODS Software, including all Intellectual Property rights, are and shall remain with First Data and the applicable First Data Licensors. First Data and the First Data Licensors reserve all rights not expressly granted to RCSI in this Agreement.

(c) RCSI shall not sublicense, assign or transfer all or any portion of its rights in the ODS Software to any third party, whether by operation of law or otherwise. Any attempt by RCSI to sublicense, assign or transfer its rights to the ODS Software or any other part thereof in violation of this Exhibit A-5 shall be void.

(d) Except as expressly authorized in the Agreement or this Exhibit A-5, RCSI shall not directly or indirectly copy the ODS Software, nor shall RCSI allow anyone else to do so. RCSI shall not alter, remove, modify or suppress any proprietary notices placed on or contained within the Documentation but shall retain and reproduce them in their exact form on all copies and partial copies thereof.

(e) RCSI shall not attempt to modify, distribute, display, sublicense, rent, reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble (or otherwise attempt to derive a source code for) the ODS Software or any part thereof.

(f) In addition to any other restrictions contained herein, RCSI shall not install or use the ODS System or any part thereof outside the United States, Canada or Mexico.

(h) RCSI may use the ODS Software solely to access, transmit, modify and process information concerning RCSI's Accounts, which information resides on First Data's managed databases and to use the Development Workstations for Application Development to the First Data computing network. RCSI shall not use the ODS Software for bulk data transfers or to populate a data warehouse. Except for Application Development pursuant to RCSI's Sybase development license or as set forth herein, RCSI shall not:

System: (i) use any third party application development tools or otherwise modify or enhance existing screens or forms that are delivered as part of the ODS System;

(ii) directly access the Sybase Software command verbs except as the command verbs are contained in the ODS System or applications developed on Development Workstations;

(iii) use the Sybase Software as a general database product; or

(iv) create new reports or modify existing reports with executables delivered as part of the ODS System unless RCSI does so with licensed Development Workstations that are licensed to use the "Full Use Report Writer" from Sybase or First Data by a separate license.

(i) This license does not include a license to use the Full Use Report Writer. Nothing herein shall preclude RCSI from using the ODS System to create or alter tables, columns or rows and adding fields to existing tables as necessary to implement, operate and administer the ODS System. Access to the First Data computing network using applications or other software developed by RCSI must be developed only on Development Workstations and must operate and access the ODS System and First Data computing network in compliance with the provisions of the Access Restrictions set forth below.

(j) RCSI shall, based on the reasonable direction of First Data, install and implement any replacement or upgrade of Workstation/Server Software within ninety (90) days after the date that the upgrade is required for the ODS System and made available to RCSI. At the conclusion of such ninety (90) day period, First Data's support Services for the previous version of the Workstation/Server Software will cease. RCSI shall modify the RCSI-supplied equipment as necessary for use of any upgrades. First Data will deliver reasonable notice of the changes in the Specifications that may affect operation of RCSI Developed Applications. RCSI acknowledges and agrees that upgrades and other modifications that First Data may make to the ODS System in the future may result in RCSI Developed Applications becoming incompatible and result in errors or failure of the RCSI Developed Applications to operate properly ("RCSI Developed Application Upgrade Error"). First Data will provide interface Specifications via development notifications for RCSI to make appropriate changes to RCSI Developed Applications. RCSI shall correct all RCSI Developed Application Upgrade Errors and revise all RCSI Developed Applications to operate properly with all future upgrades and modifications of the ODS System. First Data shall not be obligated to correct any RCSI Developed Application Upgrade Error or to modify the ODS System in any way.

1.3 Termination of Sybase License Agreement.

The Parties acknowledge that the Sybase Software is licensed to First Data pursuant to a license agreement between First Data and Sybase dated December 30, 1999, as amended. In the event such license agreement expires or is terminated, First Data shall obtain a substitute for the Sybase Software and such substitute will not degrade the performance or quality of the affected component of the Services.

1.4 Access Restrictions.

(a) RCSI will develop RCSI Developed Applications in substantial compliance with the material and reasonable recommendations of First Data. RCSI shall install and maintain programs that will produce a transaction trace error log and store a detailed log of problems encountered in transactions with the First Data computing network (“Problem Log”). RCSI shall allow First Data access to the Problem Log at any time. RCSI shall promptly notify First Data if RCSI becomes aware that any RCSI Developed Application is causing any Operating Problems (as defined below) in the ODS System or the First Data computing network. In the event that an Operating Problem comes to the attention of RCSI or First Data, both Parties agree to consult and cooperate promptly in good faith to prevent the RCSI Developed Application from causing any degradation in the performance of the ODS System or the First Data computing network and to repair and modify the RCSI Developed Application that is causing the Operating Problems so that it will not cause any further Operating Problems. If it is necessary to discontinue use of the RCSI Developed Application to prevent further Operating Problems, RCSI shall discontinue operation of that RCSI Developed Application and First Data may deny access of that RCSI Developed Application to the ODS System. First Data shall cooperate with RCSI to repair and modify the RCSI Developed Application that is causing the problems so that it will not cause any further Operating Problems and it will be allowed to commence operation as soon as possible.

(b) When used herein “Operating Problems” means any of the following:

- (i) The RCSI Developed Application malfunctions and causes problems in the First Data computing network that materially reduce the response time or the performance of the programs or transactions operating on the First Data computing network.
- (ii) The RCSI Developed Application is sending invalid transaction requests that do not comply with the proper transaction request format and such requests slow the response time or otherwise degrade the performance of the First Data computing network.
- (iii) The RCSI Developed Application is malfunctioning by sending transaction requests that result in a substantially higher volume than RCSI’s typical volume.
- (iv) The RCSI Developed Application causes problems in the First Data computing network that cause programs or other processes to terminate or otherwise cease operating properly.
- (v) The RCSI Developed Application causes problems in the First Data computing network that cause program operation or other response or performance time of other First Data clients to slow down materially.
- (vi) Without any prior notice from RCSI, the transaction requests from a RCSI Developed Application increases by fifty (50%) percent above the typical transaction request volume of RCSI.

(b) RCSI will access and use the Recovery 1 Software only in conjunction with its internal businesses and only by its personnel or subcontractors. RCSI shall not copy, decompile, reverse compile or reverse assemble the Recovery 1 Software nor transfer, sublicense, rent, lease or assign the same. The provisions set forth in this Section only grant to RCSI a right to use the Recovery 1 Software and in no way grant or convey any rights of ownership.

(c) If First Data's right to license the Recovery 1 Software to RCSI is terminated, First Data shall have the right to terminate the provision of Recovery 1 Services and RCSI's license to the Recovery 1 Software upon thirty (30) days' advance written notice. In such event, First Data shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to provide a substitute for the Recovery 1 Software. If First Data is unable to obtain and provide such a substitute, RCSI shall receive, if applicable, a reduction in the Processing Fees in the amount of the Recovery 1 Services it was receiving at the time of such termination.

(d) RCSI acknowledges that the Recovery 1 Software is subject to restrictions and controls imposed under the U.S. Export Administration Act. RCSI certifies that neither the Recovery 1 Software nor any direct product thereof is being or will be acquired, shipped, transferred or re-exported, directly or indirectly, into any country prohibited under such Act or any other applicable laws or regulations.

1.1 Context and Basic Obligations

This Exhibit A-7 describes First Data's obligations relating to disaster recovery arrangements, plans, processes and procedures ("Plans") relating to the Services (collectively, "Disaster Recovery Services"). First Data shall follow all of its Plans relating to the Services in existence as of the FAAR Effective Date (which are listed in Attachment 1 to this Exhibit A-7), and as updated from time to time, to enable recovery from any unplanned event or condition affecting First Data that renders RCSI unable to use the Services (a "Disaster"). In addition, First Data's obligations shall include supporting RCSI's Plans in existence as of the FAAR Effective Date, and as updated from time to time, relating to the Services (which are listed in Attachment 2 to this Exhibit A-7).

1.2 Maintenance of Disaster Recovery Plans

First Data shall maintain and update its Plans at least annually to reflect any changes to the Services, First Data System and any of its technical components. The Change Control Procedure under the Agreement shall include making updates to both Parties' Plans as necessary to keep the Plans current.

2. INVOCATION

After the FAAR Effective Date, the decision to declare a Disaster relating to the Services may be taken by any authorized member of First Data's Personnel, according to agreed procedures as set forth in the Plans or otherwise agreed upon by the Parties. The Parties shall develop a procedure that will permit designated officers of RCSI to request First Data to declare a Disaster ("Disaster Request") relating to the Services. RCSI's designated officers as of the FAAR Effective Date shall be: the (a) Chief Information Officer, (b) Chief Technology Officer and (c) Vice President of IT Service Operations, all of RCSI's Affiliate GECF-A. The list of designated officers may be amended, from time to time, by written agreement of the Parties. A Disaster Request may be submitted by RCSI when any incident or problem appears likely to result in one (1) or more important parts of the First Data System being unavailable (or only partly available) for a period which RCSI regards as unacceptable. This incident or problem may not necessarily be a sudden or catastrophic failure, but may result from a continuing inability to resolve a problem and restore a service or function of the First Data System. In the event that RCSI submits a Disaster Request, First Data shall review the Disaster Request immediately and inform RCSI of its decision or response within *** hours.

3. GENERAL OBLIGATIONS OF FIRST DATA

First Data shall undertake a range of ongoing planning and preparation activities ("Pre-Disaster Activities"). In the event of the Disaster Recovery Services being invoked, First Data shall also undertake activities during and after the Disaster ("During Disaster Activities" and "Post-Disaster Activities"). These activities are set forth below.

3.1 Pre-Disaster Activities

- (a) First Data's Disaster Recovery Services as set forth in this Exhibit A-7 and elsewhere in Schedule A shall be available twenty-four (24) hours per day, three hundred and sixty five (365) days per year, and can be invoked at any time in accordance with Section 2.
- (b) Conduct periodic risk assessments for all systems (including the First Data System) and Applications;
- (c) Assess the readiness of the network infrastructure and network strategy supporting the Services and its capability for disaster recovery and recommend options to close any identified weaknesses;
- (d) Provide or negotiate access to emergency equipment to the extent necessary (including computers, network connections, accommodation for hardware, and associated facilities) until the resumption of normal services or the availability of replacement equipment;
- (e) Test, through simulation testing, the First Data Plans at least annually;
- (f) Maintain and update the First Data Plans, including detailed procedures, in order to take account of business changes, changes to the Services, and lessons learned from testing of the Plans;
- (g) Work with RCSI to ensure proper coordination of the First Data Plans relating to the Services and RCSI's Plans, including proper coordination of the obligations set forth in Articles 2, 5 and 6 of this Exhibit A-7;
- (h) Store complete and recent copies of data and First Data Software in secure off-site locations; and
- (i) Proactively manage all relevant third party suppliers, including review and monitoring of suppliers' disaster recovery plans and testing.

3.2 During -Disaster Activities

- (a) Carry out emergency back-up and shutdown procedures (if situation permits);
- (b) Assess damage;
- (c) Invoke the Plans by declaring a Disaster;
- (d) Establish a control center;
- (e) Establish an operational environment at the emergency facility;

- (f) Recover and operate systems at the emergency facility (including startup, data restore and scheduling);
- (g) Provide network links from emergency facility to RCSI sites and end users;
- (h) Provide technical support for systems (including the First Data System) and all Applications; and
- (i) Handle communications to and interfaces with all other parties (including end users, IT staff, management and corporate crisis teams). This includes operating a dedicated disaster help desk throughout the Disaster and recovery period. This also includes meeting the requirements of any communication plan provided by RCSI, as provided in Section 8.1 below.

3.3 Post-Disaster Activities

- (a) Carry out migration from emergency environment back to long term operational facilities at refurbished or replacement locations;
- (b) Conduct post-disaster review and implement lessons learned; and
- (c) Communicate as outlined in Article 9 of Schedule B.

4. SPECIALIST THIRD PARTIES

Where a Plan refers to disaster recovery contracts with specialist third parties or specialist services to be provided by First Data then First Data shall, where appropriate:

- (a) assume responsibility for invoking the services described in those contracts, where appropriate, in the event of a Disaster; and
- (b) assume responsibility for coordinating the delivery of the services described in those contracts, and integrating that delivery with other disaster recovery components.

These obligations with respect to third party specialists apply whether or not the provisions of such third party contracts (such as processes, procedures and responsibilities) are specified in this Exhibit A-7 or elsewhere in the Agreement.

5. FIRST DATA OBLIGATIONS FOR CRITICAL SYSTEMS AND CRITICAL APPLICATIONS

5.1 Critical Systems and Critical Applications

- (a) Within one hundred-twenty (120) days after the FAAR Effective Date, First Data shall list the critical systems and critical applications relating to the Services and propose disaster recovery preparation standards and procedures ("DR Standards"), including as defined below in Section 5.2 and substantially in the format provided as Attachment 3 to this Exhibit A-7. First Data shall present its proposed DR Standards for review by and discussion with RCSI, which shall have the opportunity to propose modifications to the list and proposed DR Standards for a period of thirty (30) days following presentation to RCSI. If the Parties are unable to agree on such list or DR Standards, RCSI may escalate the issue to the Chief Information Officer of GECF-A (or his or her designee) and the Chairman of FDC (or his designee) for attempted resolution, and failing any such resolution within thirty (30) days following escalation, the dispute shall be subject to Section 20.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement. When the Parties agree to the list and proposed DR Standards, First Data shall prepare an implementation plan capable of meeting the agreed DR Standards (the "DR Implementation Plan"). First Data shall present its proposed DR Implementation Plan for review by and discussion with RCSI, which shall have the opportunity to propose modifications to the DR Implementation Plan for a period of thirty (30) days following presentation to RCSI. The Parties also will document any work that RCSI must perform in connection with the DR Implementation Plan. If the Parties are unable to agree on such DR Implementation Plan, RCSI may escalate the issue to the Chief Information Officer of GECF-A (or his or her designee) and the Chairman of FDC (or his designee) for attempted resolution, and failing any such resolution within thirty (30) days following escalation, the dispute shall be subject to Section 20.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement.

- (b) Following completion of the list of critical systems and applications and DR Standards as provided in Section 5.1(a), during the first calendar quarter of each year of the Term First Data shall update such list and DR Standards in a form substantially similar to Attachment 3. First Data shall present such updated information for review by and discussion with RCSI, which will have an opportunity to propose modifications to such list and DR Standards for a period of thirty (30) days following presentation to RCSI. The Parties also will document any work that RCSI must perform in connection with disaster recovery planning for the critical systems and critical applications. If the Parties agree to new or increased DR Standards and/or requirements, First Data shall prepare a plan and timeline (with completion dates), within sixty (60) days following such agreement, for meeting the new or increased DR Standards and/or requirements ("DR Modification Plan"). If the Parties are unable to agree on such DR Modification Plan, RCSI may escalate the issue to the Chief Information Officer of GECF-A (or his or her designee) and the Chairman of FDC (or his designee) for attempted resolution, and failing any such resolution within thirty (30) days following escalation, the dispute shall be subject to Section 20.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement.

5.2 Disaster Recovery Standards and Procedures for Backing Up Critical Systems and Critical Applications

The DR Standards and procedures to be agreed upon annually pursuant to Section 5.1 shall include the following requirements:

Recovery Time shall include the initiation of processing of all activity that took place during the period of service interruption, subject to getting required input files from third party providers (i.e., Associations), as defined by RCSI. In the event RCSI requests such input files from third party providers, all recovery activities shall be completed within *** hours following receipt of such input files.
- (d) Recovery Strategy. “Recovery Strategy” shall mean the methods and procedures being used by First Data to accomplish Recovery.
- (e) Impacts on RCSI. “Impacts on RCSI” shall mean the impacts, if any, of the Recovery Strategy on RCSI’s systems, applications and/or procedures in the event of a Disaster that require RCSI to make changes to its systems, applications and/or procedures to be prepared for a Disaster.
- (f) Simulation Testing. “Simulation Testing” shall mean simulation testing of a Disaster affecting a system or application, together with interconnected systems and applications, including the use of “hot-site” facilities and other emergency equipment and facilities designated by First Data to be used in the event of a Disaster.

- (g) Simulation Testing Frequency. “Simulation Testing Frequency” shall mean the frequency with which First Data conducts Simulation Testing of a critical system or application.
- (h) RCSI User Participation. “RCSI User Participation” shall mean any requirements for RCSI participation in Simulation Testing of a system or application, and the nature of such participation.
- (i) Back Up. “Back Up” shall mean a complete back up of a system or application performed by First Data pursuant to a regular schedule.
- (j) Back Up Frequency. “Back Up Frequency” shall mean the frequency with which a Back Up is performed.
- (k) Retained Back Ups. “Retained Back Ups” shall mean the number of successive Back Ups, which will be not less than three (3) Back Ups for any critical system or application, retained in Off-Site Storage at all times. “Off-Site Storage” shall mean storage in a facility, no less than thirty-five (35) miles from the facility in which the application or system is housed, which is used by First Data to store Retained Back Ups.
- (l) Back Up Format. “Back Up Format” shall mean the storage format used by First Data to perform a Back Up.
- (m) Off-Site Cycle Time. “Off-Site Cycle Time” shall mean the number of hours, which will be no greater than *** hours for any critical system or application, from the completion of a Back Up to removal of the Back Up from the location of the system or application to the Off-Site Storage.
- (n) Alternative Facilities. “Alternative Facilities” shall mean one (1) or more facilities (which may be owned or leased by First Data), no less than fifty (50) miles from the facility in which the application or system is housed, which houses the Redundant Capability for such application or system.
- (o) Redundant Capability. “Redundant Capability” shall mean hardware and software maintained by First Data at Alternative Facilities that is capable of supporting Recovery of each critical application and system within the Recovery Time.
- (p) Replacement Facilities. “Replacement Facilities” shall mean one or more facilities (which may be owned or leased by First Data), no less than (50) miles from the facility in which the application or system is housed, which is capable of replacing the Alternative Facilities on a permanent basis.

5.3 Redundant Capability

First Data shall establish and maintain Alternative Facilities with Redundant Capabilities for all critical systems and applications for immediate use in the event of a Disaster. First Data shall have guaranteed availability to the Alternative Facilities at all times. In addition, First Data shall establish and maintain Replacement Facilities for critical systems and applications and plans to complete transition from the use of Alternative Facilities to Replacement Facilities with Redundant Capability for all critical systems and applications in no more than *** weeks following the declaration of a Disaster.

5.4 Recovery Time

As agreed by the Parties, the specific Recovery Time for certain critical systems and applications shall be shorter than the *** hour Recovery Time for Services in total.

5.5 Disaster Recovery Testing

All critical systems and critical applications shall be fully tested, through Simulation Testing, at least twice during every three hundred and sixty five (365) day period until RCSI verifies satisfactory test results, at which time Simulation Testing will be conducted annually, unless it is otherwise agreed by the Parties that additional testing is required by regulation or mutual evaluation of functionality, infrastructure or that a New Service points toward a need to retest. First Data shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to schedule any major infrastructure changes in order to align with scheduled Simulation Testing, in accordance with the Change Control Procedures in Section 9.5 of the Main Body of the Agreement.

5.6 Other Systems and Applications

Each year in the first calendar quarter, First Data shall identify all systems and applications relating to the Services not considered “critical” as provided in Section 5.1. First Data shall present annually its Plans (including back up and recovery strategy) for such non-critical systems and applications in the event of a Disaster. RCSI shall have the opportunity to propose modifications to the list and Plans for such systems and applications. If the Parties are unable to agree on such modifications, RCSI may escalate the issue to the Chief Information Officer of GEFCF-A (or his or her designee) and the Chairman of FDC (or his designee) for attempted resolution, and failing resolution within thirty (30) days following escalation, the dispute shall be subject to Section 20.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement.

6. OTHER REQUIREMENTS

6.1 Participation in Testing

First Data and RCSI shall work closely together to ensure that both Parties' Plans will permit First Data to achieve the agreed DR Standards. As part of this coordination, First Data and RCSI shall perform annually a joint risk assessment to identify gaps and weaknesses in disaster recovery preparedness. In addition, each Party shall be invited to participate in the other Party's Simulation Testing relating to the Services. Notice of such testing shall be provided at least ninety (90) days in advance of the scheduled commencement of such testing.

6.2 Updated Disaster Recovery Plan Information

First Data and RCSI shall provide each other with updated Plans relating to the Services at least annually. In addition, each Party shall make the results of its Simulation Testing for systems and applications relating to the Services available for review by the other Party.

6.3 RCSI Communication Plan

RCSI shall be responsible for providing First Data with a communication plan that will permit First Data to provide RCSI with appropriate communication in the event of a Disaster.

6.4 Audit Rights

First Data and RCSI shall have the right to audit each other's performance of its obligations under this Exhibit A-7.

7. FIRST DATA COMPLIANCE WITH DISASTER RECOVERY SERVICE LEVELS AND PROCEDURES

7.1 DR Implementation Plan

First Data recognizes that its failure to complete and implement the DR Implementation Plan as described above in Section 5.1(a) may have a material adverse impact on the business and operations of RCSI and that the damage from First Data's failure to meet such DR Implementation Plan is not susceptible of precise determination. Accordingly, in the event that First Data fails to complete and implement in all material respects the DR Implementation Plan within eighteen (18) months following the FAAR Effective Date, for reasons other than the wrongful actions of RCSI or circumstances that constitute a Force Majeure Event under the Agreement, then in addition to any non-monetary remedies available to RCSI under this Agreement, at law, or in equity, RCSI may, in lieu of pursuing other monetary remedies, elect to recover as its sole and exclusive monetary remedy for such failure the credits specified in this Section 7.1 as liquidated damages; provided, however, that this provision shall not limit RCSI's right to recover any other monetary damages in the case of its termination of this Agreement under Section 21.1(b) of the Main Body of the Agreement.

The liquidated damages for purposes of this Section 7.1 shall equal:

*** of the total Charges paid to First Data under this Agreement (excluding Pass-through Expenses) for the prior three hundred and sixty five (365) days on a monthly basis until First Data completes and implements the DR Implementation Plan in all material respects.

7.2 DR Modification Plan

First Data recognizes that its failure to complete and implement any DR Modification Plan as set forth in Section 5.1(b) above may have a material adverse impact on the business and operations of RCSI and that the damage from First Data's failure to meet any such DR Modification Plan is not susceptible of precise determination. Accordingly, in the event that First Data fails to complete and implement in all material respects any DR Modification Plan within three (3) months following the agreed upon completion date for such DR Modification Plan, for reasons other than the wrongful actions of RCSI or circumstances that constitute a Force Majeure Event under the Agreement, then in addition to any non-monetary remedies available to RCSI under this Agreement, at law, or in equity, RCSI may, in lieu of pursuing other monetary remedies, elect to recover as its sole and exclusive monetary remedy for such failure the credits specified in this Section 7.2 as liquidated damages; provided, however, that this provision shall not limit RCSI's right to recover any other monetary damages in the case of its termination of this Agreement under Section 21.1(b) of the Main Body of the Agreement.

The liquidated damages for purposes of this Section 7.2 shall equal:

*** of the total Charges paid to First Data under this Agreement (excluding Pass-through Expenses) for the prior three hundred and sixty five (365) days on a monthly basis until First Data completes and implements such DR Modification Plan in all material respects.

7.3 Pre-Disaster Activities

First Data recognizes that its failure to comply at all times during the Term with the requirements set forth in Section 3.1 above may have a material adverse impact on the business and operations of RCSI and that the damage from First Data's comply with such requirements is not susceptible of precise determination. Accordingly, in the event that First Data at any time during the Term fails to comply with the requirements set forth in Section 3.1, RCSI shall provide written notice to First Data of such non-compliance. If within three (3) months after receipt of such notice, First Data fails to be in compliance with its obligations under Section 3.1 in all material respects, for reasons other than the wrongful actions of RCSI or circumstances that constitute a Force Majeure Event under the Agreement, then in addition to any non-monetary remedies available to RCSI under this Agreement, at law, or in equity, RCSI may, in lieu of pursuing other monetary remedies, elect to recover as its sole and exclusive monetary remedy for such failure the credits specified in this Section 7.3 as liquidated damages; provided, however, that this provision shall not limit RCSI's right to recover any other monetary damages in the case of its termination of this Agreement under Section 21.1(b) of the Main Body of the Agreement.

The liquidated damages for purposes of this Section 7.3 shall equal:

*** of the total Charges paid to First Data under this Agreement (excluding Pass-through Expenses) for the prior three hundred and sixty five (365) days on a monthly basis until First Data is in compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 3.1 above in all material respects.

Introduction

Minimizing the Consequences of a Disaster or Service Outage

An effective corporate and technical business continuity strategy can lessen the impact on a company's finances and operations should a disaster strike or service be disrupted.

This Executive Summary offers an overview of First Data Resources' internal business recovery strategy and methodology which is fully supported by the senior management and Board of Directors of First Data Corporation.

Each Business Continuity Plan identifies procedures needed to restore operations at First Data after an adverse event. The plans are designed to reestablish all critical business functions, including data centers and telecommunications networks.

Business Continuity Department Plans Ahead

At First Data, the Business Continuity Planning Department manages the company's business continuity efforts. Special precautions are taken to protect the Data Centers, which house First Data's main computer systems.

As an annual requirement, Data Center personnel test procedures to ensure the recoverability of a Data Center following a disaster. The results of the Chandler Data Center exercise are included in Appendix A of this summary.

First Data Recovery Strategy

Business Continuity Planning: A Timely Initiative

To provide quality business continuity services for clients, First Data Resources starts with a recovery strategy for each of its critical business units.

The goal: To return First Data operations to normal as soon as possible and provide interim services after a disaster or other serious service disruption has occurred.

The first step of the strategy is the creation and rehearsal of a well-documented and structured plan. By creating a plan — and then exercising it — individual business units can minimize the impact of a disruption.

First Data's Business Continuity Planning Department

The Business Continuity Planning Department ensures that current, viable continuity plans are in place. The Department helps individual units within First Data develop and maintain their plans, and works with them to:

- review and categorize potential risks
- identify critical functions
- develop and exercise effective recovery plans that are approved and supported by management
- inform senior management and the Board of Directors annually of First Data's ability to recover from a disaster

Accountable for the overall management of these plans, the Business Continuity Planning Department also:

- creates business impact analyses
- tracks updates
- conducts audits
- monitors exercises
- serves as a central repository for all business continuity documentation
- acts as liaison, for Business Continuity issues, between First Data Business units, senior management, and internal and external agencies

The Business Continuity Planning organization is a catalyst for ensuring the continuous delivery of products and services by First Data business units. The Business Continuity Planning process entails the identification of risk and single points of failure, plan development, implementation of procedures that mitigate these risks communication, and the monitoring of practices that assure customer satisfaction and ongoing industry leadership.

Each business unit must develop a business continuity plan based on known risks and recovery requirements. The standard First Data Business Continuity plan is outlined in Appendix B.

Assumptions Behind the Plan

Each plan is built around four basic assumptions:

- Worst-case Interruption – Affected First Data facilities would be totally unusable with no salvageable equipment, records, data, documentation, etc.
- Vital Business Records – Records that would be irreplaceable or essential in recreating the business operations are backed up and stored offsite. Records stored offsite would be sufficient to reestablish the critical business functions of First Data.
- File Backup – All data files required to recover computer operations are backed up on a regular basis and shipped to off-site storage.
- Localized Disruption – The disruption would impact specific FDR facilities.

Assisting the Business Continuity Planning Department is the Business Continuity Planning Committee, which consists of key members from critical operating units.

Committee members are responsible for:

- auditing critical plans
- participating in exercise evaluations
- providing guidance and serving as liaison between FDR business units and the BCP Department
- assisting with the annual BCP Coordinator Conference

A Thorough Review/Exercise Regimen

A minimum of twice a year, each business unit reviews and updates its business continuity plan. Annually, each plan is thoroughly exercised. The Business Continuity Planning Department monitors those exercises to ensure their consistency.

Plans are evaluated to ensure that not only is each plan current, but that vital records can be retrieved and recovery procedures are implemented under realistic conditions.

Established procedures provide the framework for each exercise and are documented on a standardized form. The Business Continuity Planning Department evaluates the exercise results and shares them with the Business Continuity Committee. Quarterly, First Data executive management is provided a report that details the status of all BCP plans and exercises.

Exercises Strive for Realism – Without the Risks

Whenever possible, full-scale exercises are conducted. If operations can be disrupted, the environment is made to simulate actual events. Naturally, every precaution is taken not to disrupt our customer’s business operations.

To make sure each plan is available to those who need it, copies are stored at multiple off-site locations, including the Business Continuity Planning Department.

Backup is Built-in

Because of its size, First Data has numerous facilities that are geographically separated and provide redundant capability. Often, critical business functions are performed at more than one site—providing a built-in backup.

In the event of a disaster, alternate facilities have been designated to provide space and/or equipment for each business unit.

Data Center Recovery Strategy: Building Safety in Before the Crisis

From the onset, First Data recognized the need to restore its Data Centers to normal operations as quickly as possible after a disruption. Data processing and telecommunications network recovery plans are maintained and exercised annually. Objectives include, but are not limited to, ensuring that the following would be operational after a disaster affecting the Data Center:

Platforms:	Mainframe, Tandem S76000, IBM RS/6000, Sun E15000, Dell 6400
Applications Systems:	Critical Applications
On-line Telecommunications:	Major components (carrier services, hardware, and software)

In fact, the Data Centers were built to withstand the most extreme risk factors; many safeguards were incorporated into the buildings' designs. (See Appendix C for a description of the Omaha Data Center, Appendix D for the Chandler Data Center, and Appendix E for the CommSite 2 Data Center.)

Other safeguards involve procedures and processes, such as:

- Critical systems backup files are transported to a secured records management vault near the recovery hot-site
- Critical application backup files are transported daily to a secured records management vault, by bonded employees, five miles or more from the main Data Centers
- Daily, weekly, and monthly tape backups are controlled by a Tape Management System
- A physical audit of the off-site storage vault is performed at least quarterly to ensure proper data rotation
- First Data has contracted with a recovery service organization for backup Data Center facilities. Data-processing and telecommunications equipment at these facilities enable critical computer operations to be restored
- Off-site files are used for exercising both the operating system and applications from a previously run cycle. The cycle is restored at our recovery facility, separated from the live production environment

Recovery Objectives

Following a disaster, our recovery objective is to restore operational infrastructures and client critical applications and begin running our first recovery cycle within 48 hours.

Getting Back On-line Fast

Once the official declaration has been issued, Emergency Management Teams will recreate the software and network environment for applications currently on the system. Their assignments will be to reestablish:

Critical Systems:

- operating system
- DASD configuration
- catalog structure
- third party software
- CICS regions
- data security
- telecommunications network
- data communications
- data center operations
- client databases

Critical Applications:

- application processing
- merchants
- chargeback/retrievals
- authorizations
- non mons
- cardholder processing
- collections
- security
- CIMS
- statements
- embossing

Turning Plans Into Actions

In the event of a disaster, it's the responsibility of the Business Unit Recovery Team to put their plan into action. Each plan includes vital information about team members and clearly defined recovery steps to follow.

The Recovery Team Leader must constantly update the corporate Incident Management Team: the focal point for helping affected units restore operations. Established at the corporate level in one of two existing Command Centers, the Incident Management Team coordinates the key elements of business resumption, including:

- assessment
- restoration
- internal/external communications
- human resources
- administrative support
- facility security
- telecom support
- risk management

Damage Assessment

The Assessment/Restoration team from the Incident Management Team, or the Data Center Damage Assessment Team in a Data Center disaster, assess the affected area. These teams determine if operations can be resumed or must be moved to the designated alternate site. They also help assure that restoration is achieved with minimal impact on business operations and within specified time frames. The Assessment/Restoration Team will report their findings to the Recovery Team, which, in turn, regularly reports the status of the recovery to the Incident Management Team. The Incident Management Team provides the following additional support to the recovery effort:

---

Getting the Word Out

Incident Management Team communications specialists coordinate all communications to employees, their families, customers, and the news media. They are positioned at both the disaster site and the Command Center.

Focusing on the Human Factor

Human Resources Team members are responsible for the well-being of employees. Together with the Communications Team leader, Human Resources Team members prepare recovery updates for employees.

Human Resources Team members, positioned at both the disaster site and within the Command Center, help answer employee questions, resolve safety and health concerns, coordinate staffing issues, distribute emergency funds, and provide other support services.

Helping the Incident Management Team Help Clients

Administrative Support Team members provide initial setup and ongoing support for the Incident Management Team. Risk Management coordinates legal and insurance issues. Business Continuity Planning works with Contracts and Strategic Sourcing to initiate vendor contacts. Security Team members are responsible for insuring that additional security is dispatched to the appropriate locations, as required. Telecom Team members coordinate the recovery of First Data's networks.

If a disaster at a First Data facility threatens to disrupt service to our clients, First Data's Client Service Representatives will inform the clients assigned to them. These contacts are coordinated through the Incident Management Team to assure the most current information is available.

The corporate Incident Management Team reviews and tests its emergency activation procedures semi-annually. That way, it can ensure that the business units would be supported and the company could recover.

Summary

First Data Business Continuity Planning minimizes the consequences of a disaster or service outage. This is accomplished through a well-documented, highly structured plan for:

- identifying potential risks
- minimizing worst-case interruption damage
- providing critical backup of key files and facilities
- duplication and off-site storage of vital business records

At First Data, successful business continuity planning consists of several factors:

- a Business Impact Analysis to study and analyze functions that will be considered in the recovery process
- business recovery plans that are routinely exercised and updated
- methodology behind the plan that is routinely evaluated

Appendix C
Omaha Data Center

Physical Characteristics

The Data Center was built to minimize the impact of a significant service disruption caused by a disaster or other event. The most extreme risk factors were taken into account and safeguards were created to withstand them.

The Data Center is comprised of three computer room areas in two separate facilities. The 7305 facility was built with reinforced concrete walls. The 7301 facility, located in an abutting structure, was designed as a “hardened site.” It can withstand winds up to 200 mph, earthquakes, and other disasters. The first floor of this second facility, which houses the central computer room, is primarily underground and is surrounded by 12 inches of reinforced concrete.

Other safeguards in place at the Data Center are listed below, by category.

Security of Physical Environment

- Staffed 24 hours-per-day, 7 days-per-week
- Perimeter fencing controls access to the building from walking traffic; limits the ability of vehicles to get close to the building
- Protected by on-site security guards 24 hours-per-day, 7 days-per-week
- Constant video monitoring of critical operations, entries, and exits by security guards
- Extensive card key and hand scan access requirements restrict access to the building, Data Center and powerhouse
- Bullet-proof observation glass from hallway to Data Center
- Commercial electrical power is supplied from 2 independent public utility feeds with isolated utility transformers
- Multiple Uninterruptible Power Supply (UPS) systems are in place to protect the Data Centers from power interruptions and ensure power quality. Static Switch Computer Power Centers (CPC), in each Data Center, automatically switch between two UPS power sources in the event of total UPS system failure
- Multiple stand-by generators are capable of starting and supporting Data Center loads within 20 seconds in the event of a power outage. All systems and components required to run the generators, including the generators themselves, are redundant. On-site fuel supplies enable the generators to operate for a minimum of 48 hours. Generators are housed in two separate rooms to maintain system isolation.

CommSite 2 Data Center

Physical Characteristics

The CommSite 2 Data Center facility is a 52,000 square foot building supporting 25,000 square feet of raised floor. The facility is designed and constructed with steel reinforced concrete walls and roof to be a “hardened site” that can withstand a 200 mph impact, earthquakes, and other disasters. The infrastructure design is such that no single electrical or mechanical device can cause an interruption to the operation of the equipment on the raised floor.

Security of Physical Environment

- Supported 7x24 by the Data Center engineering staff
- Perimeter fencing controls access to the building from walking traffic; limits the ability of vehicles to get close to the building
- Protected by on-site security guards 24 hours-per-day, 7 days-per-week
- Constant video monitoring of critical operations, entries, and exits by security guards
- Extensive card key access requirements restrict access to the building, Data Center and infrastructure equipment.
- Commercial electrical power is supplied from 2 independent public utility feeds with isolated utility transformers

RCSI DISASTER RECOVERY PLANS

GE Consumer Finance Americas
IT Business Continuity Statement

---

Introduction:

Ensuring the recovery of our client's critical business functions in the event of a processing disruption to our Alpharetta data center is of critical importance to the GE Consumer Finance US & Canadian Management Team. Partnering with IBM Global Services, First Data Resources, and SunGard Recovery Services, we have addressed every facet of our critical operating systems (mainframe, midrange, e-business, and telecom).

Strategy:

Our recovery methodology is to recover the business critical systems at the "Hot Site" facilities within 48 hours of the declared disaster. IBM recovers our mainframe at the IBM BCRS facility in Gaithersburg, Maryland. We are contracted with SunGard Recovery Services to recover our critical midrange servers in Philadelphia, PA and our Tandem recovery site is located at the IBM facility in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina. During the interim period, our "Hot Site" Tandem environment will continue to process point-of-sale transactions. This capability allows our clients to continue processing credit card transactions during a declared outage to our main systems.

Each year we conduct bi-annual 'Hot Site' tests to prove our disaster readiness. Successful testing is key to proving true business recovery and continuity.

Preparing for the Worst:

In an effort to prepare our business for a disaster, we spend numerous hours planning and executing tests. Part of the testing is to examine the safeguards for recovery. These safeguards include:

- Ensuring that all critical data required to restore the key applications is identified for off-site storage at Recall America located in Atlanta, Georgia and an inventory of vital records is maintained also at Recall America.
- Transporting daily critical systems and application backup files to a secured records management vault at Recall America by bonded employees, from the main Data Center in Alpharetta, Georgia. Off-site files are used for exercising both the operating system and applications from a previously run cycle. The cycle is restored at our hot-site facility, which is separate from the live production environment.
- Controlling daily, weekly, and monthly tape back-up iterations to Recall America.
- IBM physically audit's each month to ensure proper data rotation and GE Consumer Finance verifies the proper data rotation through online verification.
- Maintaining GE Consumer Finance US & Canada contracts with recovery service organizations, IBM and SunGard Recovery Services for hot-site facilities. Data processing and telecommunication equipment at these facilities enables critical computer operations to be restored.
- Ensuring operating procedures are updated and current.
- Maintaining current network configuration and strategy for recovery.
- Addressing changes in hardware or software requirements for business functions.
- Ensuring currency of all Business Recovery Documentation, which is maintained online and also stored offsite with our tapes at Recall America located in Atlanta.

Table of Contents

- Maintaining updated contact information for all parties including client contacts, application contacts, vendors, and technical specialist contacts for all parties (GE Consumer Finance US & Canada, IBM, and FDR). This information is maintained online and also stored offsite with our tapes at Recall America.
- Conduct testing at least twice a year.

Documentation:

As with any contingency plan, documentation is key. GE Consumer Finance US & Canada has thoroughly documented application recovery procedures. Audits of this documentation are conducted at least twice a year to ensure synchronization with the production environment. In addition, as part of the internal change control process, all application groups are required to address Business Recovery requirements with any production change. These groups must also modify their recovery documentation when such changes are made.

IBM Global Services (IGS) also maintains a “Disaster Recovery Plan” for the Alpharetta Data Center. This plan outlines the recovery of GE Consumer Finance US & Canada’s Operating Environment for the mainframe systems and telecommunications connectivity. This plan also outlines the IGS recovery strategy.

First Data Resources (FDR) similarly maintains a “Business Continuity” document. As with the IGS plan, this document outlines the FDR recovery strategy. This document includes FDR notification procedures and recovery guidelines.

“Hot Site” Tandem:

The GE Consumer Finance US & Canada Management team has successfully addressed the most pressing client concern, “what happens when one of our customers swipes a card at the register and GECF – US & Canada is experiencing an outage or disaster?” To address this concern, we purchased an additional Tandem machine. This Tandem is an exact clone of the Tandem currently in production at the Data Center.

The “Hot Site” Tandem is located in Raleigh, North Carolina. It has the capability to connect to each client currently processing on the production Tandem platform. This Tandem receives daily uploads from the production environment to maintain data integrity. It has the capability of processing point-of-sale transactions during the period our mainframe, midrange, and telecom environments are being re-stored.

This Tandem is available for processing 7X24X365. We have invested in this contingency because we understand how critical point-of-sale processing is to our business.

Testing:

GE Consumer Finance US & Canada is committed to testing its Business Recovery procedures at regular intervals of twice a year to guarantee recoverability for its clients. Our testing philosophy incorporates the mainframe, midrange, e-business, tandem, and network environments. Before each test, the Business Recovery Team conducts an audit of all documentation to ensure currency. After each test, the Business Recovery Team determines areas of improvement to streamline the recovery process.

Each year we conduct, at a minimum, two 'Hot Site' tests per year. As our business changes, our Business Recovery procedures are also updated to reflect the changes. We will strive to always improve our recovery measurements. We are constantly examining alternative ways to improve our recovery times to help minimize data loss for our clients.

An Actual Disaster:

The purpose of this section is to outline what would occur in the event of an actual disaster. The definition of a "disaster" is as follows:

- A service providing support to a critical business function fails.
- It is determined the service cannot be restored before the point it becomes vital to the business.

These things may occur due to natural disasters, bomb threats, power outages, or other situations, which render the primary environment inoperable.

In the event of a disaster in the normal processing environment, the first step would be to notify key parties that a disaster has occurred. This would include contacting all clients. This will happen within two hours after a disaster is declared.

The next step is to determine whether or not to activate the "Hot Sites." This decision will be made less than 6 hours from the event causing the "disaster" scenario. At this point, the Recovery Team will be mobilized and preparations will be made to restore production systems at the hot site locations.

Our goal is to have our critical production systems recovered within 48 hours of a formally declared disaster. Our recovery sequence focuses on restoring the business applications in the following priority: 1) Point of Sale, 2) Daily Online and Batch Applications, 3) Weekly, Monthly, Semi-yearly and Yearly Applications.

Summary:

GE Consumer Finance US & Canada, and our vendors, will continue to plan for the worst. Our goal is to minimize the consequences of a disaster or services outage. This is accomplished through a well-documented, highly structured, and tested plan for:

- Minimizing worst-case interruption damage
- Providing critical backup of key files
- Duplication and off-site storage of vital business records.

Successful Business Recovery planning consists of several factors:

- On-going analyses to study and analyze functions that are considered critical in the recovery process.
- Business recovery plans that are routinely audited, exercised, and updated.
- Methodology behind the plan that is routinely evaluated.

SCHEDULE B
SERVICE LEVELS

1. GENERAL.

- 1.1 Purpose of this Schedule B. Exhibit B-1 sets forth the Service Levels and associated Target Performance Levels that First Data is required to meet or exceed in performing the Services during the Term. Exhibit B-2 describes the methodology for calculating (a) Service Level Credits that will be provided to RCSI by First Data if First Data fails to meet or exceed the Credit Performance Level for any Critical Service Level, and (b) the Service Level Bonuses payable to First Data as provided therein. First Data shall perform the Services so as to achieve or exceed all of the Target Performance Levels and Credit Performance Levels for Service Levels set forth in this Schedule B and its attached Exhibits. With respect to any Target Performance Levels, Bonus Performance Levels and/or Credit Performance Levels that are not identified or completed in Exhibit B-1 as of the date of execution of the Agreement (the “Unidentified Service Levels”), the Parties agree that First Data will propose and RCSI will approve such Unidentified Service Levels within sixty (60) days following the FAAR Effective Date.
- 1.2 Improvement of Service Levels Over Time. The Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and associated calculation matrices in, and incorporated into the Agreement by, this Schedule B shall be used to measure First Data’s performance of certain of the Services. The Parties expect that First Data will improve the quality of service it provides to RCSI over the Term.
- 1.3 Six Sigma: Quality Improvement. First Data represents and warrants that it has instituted and provided under the Agreement world class quality and has targeted the achievement of Six Sigma quality, as a goal, in every product, process and operation of RCSI. Achieving this target will require that the average product, process and operation will generate or experience fewer than *** DPMOs. First Data shall maintain a program of continuous quality improvement consistent with the goal of supporting RCSI’s Six Sigma goals as disclosed to First Data by RCSI. First Data maintains responsibility under the Agreement for the quality training tuition and fees it incurs in connection with such program. In order to assist First Data in achieving this goal, RCSI shall continue to provide First Data specifications and detailed information on RCSI’s prescribed quality management processes.

2. DEFINITIONS

Certain terms used in this Schedule B and its attachments are defined in Schedule E (Glossary) to the Agreement. Other capitalized terms used in this Schedule B and its attachments are defined in the context in which they are used and shall have the meaning there indicated. Capitalized terms not defined in this Schedule B, its attachments or Schedule F shall have the meanings set forth in the text of the other portions of the Agreement. Unless otherwise provided, any reference herein to a "Section," "Article," "Schedule" or "Exhibit" shall be deemed to refer to a Section or Article of, or Schedule or Exhibit to, this Schedule B.

3. ESTABLISHMENT OF ADDITIONAL SERVICE LEVELS.

- 3.1 Additional Service Levels Applicable to the Services. If requested by RCSI, First Data shall propose to RCSI an individual additional Service Level or set of additional Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and associated calculation matrices to be used to provide additional measurements of the timeliness, quality, accuracy and responsiveness, as applicable, of the Services provided in connection with the Designated Accounts. For each additional or new Service Level, First Data shall complete a version of the Service Level Template attached as Exhibit B-4 and in each version note its proposals as to such Service Level for each of the categories of information listed. RCSI shall review any proposed additional Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and calculation matrices and may approve or reject them, in whole or in part. Those Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and calculation matrices which RCSI approves will become part of, and be applied pursuant to, the Agreement. If RCSI rejects any of such additional proposed Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and calculation matrices, it shall propose in writing to First Data the changes RCSI desires. The Parties shall then negotiate and use their respective best efforts to reach agreement within ninety (90) days on an individual Service Level or set of any additional Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and calculation matrices which are consistent with RCSI's drive for Six Sigma quality. Without limiting the foregoing, the Parties will develop Service Levels for the measures listed in Exhibit B-5 within ninety (90) days, or as mutually agreed to by the parties, following the FAAR Effective Date. Further, during the first year of the Term of the Agreement, the Parties will consider in good faith developing Service Levels for the measures in Exhibit B-6.
- 3.2 Service Levels Applicable to New Services. Promptly upon RCSI's election of a New Service as described in Section 12.6 of the Main Body of the Agreement, First Data will propose to RCSI the Service Level(s) measurements, performance goals and calculation matrices for such New Service and the affected Designated Accounts and shall accompany such proposal with a completed version of the Service Level Template attached as Exhibit B-4 and in such version note its proposals as to such Service Level for each of the categories listed. RCSI shall review the proposed Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and calculation matrices and may approve or reject them, in whole or in part. Those Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and calculation matrices as to which RCSI approves will become part of and be applied pursuant to the Agreement. If RCSI rejects any of such proposed Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and calculation matrices RCSI shall propose in writing to First Data the changes RCSI desires. The Parties shall then negotiate and use their respective best efforts to reach within ninety (90) days following First Data's initial delivery of the proposed Service Levels and Service Level Templates to RCSI agreement on Service Levels, measurements, performance goals and calculation matrices.

3.3 Measurement and Reporting.

- a. Except as otherwise specified in this Schedule B or agreed in writing by the Parties, First Data shall measure and report on its performance against the Service Levels on a calendar-month basis. Unless otherwise specified for a particular Service Level, the Services and First Data's performance against the Service Levels are to be monitored by First Data twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week during the Term.
- b. The cost of all activities required for monitoring, measuring, and reporting on First Data's performance against the Service Levels are included in the Charges set out in Schedule C; there shall be no additional charges to RCSI for such activities.
- c. Except as otherwise required herein First Data compliance with the Service Levels shall be reported in the Monthly Performance Report.
- d. In addition to the Monthly Performance Report, First Data shall provide to RCSI the weekly Service Deviation Reports, monthly Performance Level Summary Reports, and the Root Cause Analysis Reports (in the formats set forth at Exhibit B-3), as well as any other reports identified in Schedule B, elsewhere in the Agreement, and as further required by RCSI (collectively, the "Reports"). First Data shall provide a template for the Monthly Performance Report within ninety (90) days following the FAAR Effective Date for review and approval by RCSI. The Reports shall be provided by First Data on the frequency identified in this Exhibit B-3, elsewhere in the Agreement, and as otherwise agreed by the Parties, as applicable. Each such Report shall be provided in paper format or in the electronic format as requested by RCSI.

- e. For any agreed upon Service Levels that First Data has yet to implement, First Data shall provide a monthly status update detailing the progress in implementing such Service Levels.
- f. First Data shall measure, document and report on Service Levels consistent with and in accordance with this Schedule B and on an aggregate basis across all measured RCSI portfolios. Any failure by First Data to *** on a Service Level, in which the *** is under First Data's or its vendors', subcontractors' or suppliers' control, shall be deemed a Service Level Default for that particular Service Level. Upon RCSI's reasonable request, First Data will provide RCSI with reporting information on a portfolio-by-portfolio basis. Further, First Data will not unreasonably refuse to provide measurements and reporting in RCSI's requested format.

4. MEETINGS AND ACCOUNT REVIEWS.

In addition to the requirements set forth in Section 9.3(b) of the Main Body of the Agreement, the Parties shall meet on a monthly basis, or as requested by RCSI, to discuss First Data's success or failure in achieving the Service Levels, resource management, capacity planning, requested services, quality project deliverables, First Data's quality program progress and disaster recovery. At any such meeting, the Reports shall facilitate the discussion, and First Data shall have appropriate representation of staff or sufficient technical knowledge to discuss and explain specific technical points. At RCSI's request, First Data shall co-ordinate a review meeting with RCSI senior management to discuss, at a minimum, overall Service Level performance, RCSI satisfaction issues and quality improvement efforts.

5. SERVICE LEVEL CREDITS.

RCSI may elect to receive credits from First Data ("Service Level Credits") upon First Data's failure to achieve a Service Level (a "Service Level Default"). Service Level Credits shall be calculated in accordance with Exhibit B-2. If one or more such Service Level Defaults occur in a single month, the sum of the corresponding Service Level

Credits shall be credited to RCSI; provided, however, that the total amount of Service Level Credits credited to RCSI with respect to Service Level Defaults occurring in a single month shall not exceed *** of the Processing Fees for that month. All Service Level Credits will be referred to as dollar amounts.

6. SERVICE LEVEL BONUSES.

First Data may earn payments by RCSI ("Service Level Bonuses") if First Data's performance of a given Service Level exceeds the Bonus Performance Level for such Service Level(s) for six (6) consecutive months in accordance with Exhibit B-2. Service Level Bonuses, if any, shall be payable by RCSI to First Data once every six (6) months. The total amount of Service Level Bonuses paid to First Data with respect to a Service Level shall not exceed *** of the Processing Fees for the prior six (6) months.

7. NEW SERVICE LEVELS

In accordance with Section 3.1, new Service Levels and modifications to existing Service Levels may be proposed by either Party and mutually agreed to by the Parties during the Term in order to achieve a fair, accurate, and consistent measurement of First Data's performance of the Services. For example, such additions may occur in conjunction with changes to the environment and the introduction of new equipment or software or means of service delivery; provided, however, that where such equipment or software or means of service delivery is a replacement or upgrade of existing technology, there shall be a presumption (subject, if appropriate, to an initial limited period to adjust to replacement or upgrade technology) of equivalent or improved performance. Adoption of such new Service Levels is subject to approval by the Parties. Neither party will unreasonably withhold its consent to any proposed addition of a new or modification to an existing Service Level. It is not anticipated that changes in the performance monitoring systems will cause changes in Service Levels; rather, the need to collect and accurately reflect the performance data may require the development or change in performance monitoring systems.

8. SERVICE LEVEL PROJECT PLAN

First Data shall develop for RCSI's review and approval a project plan for implementation of any additional or improved Service Levels or Service Level changes. This plan shall include, as appropriate, a project schedule and any required updates to this Schedule B. The project plan and schedule will be developed by First Data and approved by RCSI.

9. ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

Upon RCSI's request following any Services related incident, as significant performance trends dictate, and upon each occasion that First Data fails to meet a Performance Standard (including any Service Level), due to a First Data or a First Data vendor, subcontractor or supplier cause, First Data shall perform Root Cause Analysis as follows:

- a. promptly investigate and report on the root causes of the problem to RCSI;
- b. correct the problem and begin meeting the Performance Standard (including any Service Level) as soon as practicable;
- c. advise RCSI, as and to the extent requested by RCSI, of the status of remedial efforts being undertaken with respect to such problem; and
- d. complete an appropriate Root Cause Analysis Report as required by RCSI.

In addition, RCSI will co-operate with First Data to the extent its co-operation is necessary to perform Root Cause Analysis. First Data shall strive to ensure that it maintains continued focus on problem identification, by-pass and recovery, and problem resolution.

Performance Standard - Y7 X1 Incident Resolution: FDR Originated Defects: Fix Going Forward

RCSI Work Priority	First Data SLA's (Open to Resolve)	Priority Description
3 or lower priority	0 -  (or otherwise negotiated) calendar days	Problems in this priority include minor operational issues that require an IR to fix.

SLA Counting Methodology:

1.2 Calendar days include Monday through Sunday.

An incident is considered "corrected" when a fix has been implemented or a RCSI-approved workaround is in place (and a permanent fix has been identified, with a fix date scheduled), or incident is reassigned in program request format, and RCSI has approved resolution

4. Opportunities are tabulated as the number of IR's closed throughout the month and IR's outstanding at month-end.

5. All IR's closed within the reporting month and those outstanding at month-end are first reviewed against measurement criteria to determine inclusion or exclusion in reporting (see exclusion list on Y7X1 measurement definition document).

Defect Calculation:

Defects are any IR's closed within the reporting month or outstanding at month-end that exceed the IR timeliness target. For example, if an IR should be closed in *** calendar days and is completed in *** calendar days, 1 defect is counted out of the appropriate number of opportunities.

If 3 incidents are closed within the reporting month and all 3 were scheduled to be fixed in *** days and all are completed in *** days, no defects are accumulated. Yield would equal 100%. If 1 of the 3 IR's exceeds the timeliness target 1 defect out of 3 opportunities would be reported. The yield is 2 of 3 or (2/3 or 66.7%) Assume 12 IR's with GE priority 3 (0 - *** calendar days) are closed within the reporting month and 7 IR's are outstanding at month-end. Assume 11 are completed on time and one on day ***, (***)days late, plus 1 of the 7 outstanding IR's has *** days elapsed).

Sample Calculation:

Defects = 2 out of 19 IR's exceeded timeliness target or 2/19 = 10.5%

Yield = (19 - 2) / 19 = 17/19 = 89.5%; sigma = 2.75

Performance Standard - Y7 X1.1 Incident Resolution: FDR Originated Defects: Remedial Action

GE Work Priority	First Data SLA's (Open to Resolve)	Priority Description
3 or lower priority	0 -  calendar days (or otherwise negotiated)	Problems in this priority include minor operational issues that require an IR to fix.

Remedial Action Definition:

Remedial action is defined as the action required (e.g., adjustments to cardholder accounts, refund checks, statement messages, cardholder letters, special mailings, etc.) to correct the RCSI accounts impacted by the issue.

SLA Counting Methodology:

1. An issue submitted to the FDR Client Services team prior to 11:00 a.m. CTZ will be considered as “day 1” for SLA counting purposes.
  - 1.1 An issue received after 11:00 a.m. CTZ will be considered as “day 0” for SLA counting purposes.
  - 1.2 Calendar days include Monday through Sunday.
2. An remedial IR is considered ‘closed’, when all remedial actions have been taken to restore impacted accounts to their correct state or the IR is reassigned to a project request format and RCSI has approved its closure.
3. Defects are tabulated as the number of priority 3 or lower priority remedial IR’s closed or outstanding at month-end that exceed the monthly timeliness target of *** (or otherwise negotiated) calendar days.
4. Opportunities are tabulated as the number of remedial IR’s closed or outstanding at month-end.

Data Collection/Counting Methodology:

All remedial action IR’s closed and outstanding at month-end are first reviewed against measurement criteria to determine inclusion or exclusion in reporting (see exclusion list within Y7X1.1 measurement definition document).

Defect Calculation:

Defects are any priority 3 or lower priority remedial IR’s closed or outstanding within the reporting month that exceed the incident timeliness target. For example, if a remedial IR should be completed in *** days and is completed in *** days, 1 defect is counted out of the appropriate number of opportunities.

Tabulation of the number of closed or outstanding remedial IR’s exceeding the timeliness target within the reporting month will be counted and reported. If 4 priority 3 incidents are closed within the reporting month and all 4 were scheduled to be fixed in *** calendar days and all are completed in *** calendar days, no defects are accumulated. Yield would equal 100%. If 1 of the 4 IR’s exceeds the timeliness target 1 defect out of 3 opportunities would be reported (1/3 or 66.7%).

Sample Calculation:

Assume 2 priority 3 incidents requiring remedial action are closed within the reporting month and 1 outstanding at month-end; one incident is completed in *** calendar days and one incident is completed in *** days; the open incident has been open *** days. Count ‘0’ defects for the first and third incident and 1 defect for the second incident.

Yield =  $(3-1) / 3 = 66.67\%$  yield; sigma = 1.93

Performance Standard - Y7 X2 Compliance IRs - Fix Going Forward (First Data Caused)

Compliance IR Definition

A Compliance IR is any IR established for any First Data System issue that is determined by *** or *** and/or Compliance Departments to be a disconnect within the terms and conditions of agreements, etc. First Data has the right to appeal the Compliance IR designation(s) to *** or ***.

Defect Definition:

Defects are the number of compliance IR's that exceed the required timeliness target.

Correction/Resolution Definition:

The 'Fix-Going-Forward' correction is considered complete when one of the following is accomplished:

1. A permanent fix has been implemented into production (or)
2. A RCSI approved work-around has been implemented and/or the IR has been reassigned in a program request format with a mutually agreed upon production release schedule.

RCSI Work Priority	First Data SLA's (Open to Reviewed)	Descriptions
1	0 -  calendar day	Instances seriously affecting RCSI's business such as system / application outages, and severe connectivity issues.
2	0 -  calendar days	Instances critical to RCSI's business which have significant impacts to the business including authorization problems, customer service availability, or other issues that significantly impact the Cardholders and/or Client's of RCSI or that significantly impact business partners of RCSI. A basic guideline for prioritizing items as RCSI Work Priority 2 will be whether or not the data or file can be rerun or recovered.
3	0 -  calendar days	Problems in this priority include operational issues that are efficiency related. A basic guideline for prioritizing items as RCSI Work Priority 3 will be whether or not a reasonable workaround to the problem can be initiated until the fix is completed. (Unless a higher severity ((or negotiated timeframe)) is deemed appropriate, IRs default to this category)
4	0 -  calendar days	This category includes minor problems, and correspondence posing a question requiring an First Data response to an Incident Report.

1.0 An incident submitted to the First Data Client Services team prior to 11:00 a.m. CTZ on a calendar day will consider that day 1 if IR process (agreed upon between RCSI and First Data) is followed.

1.1 An incident received after 11:00 a.m. CTZ on a calendar day will consider the same day as day 0 if IR process (agreed upon between GE and FDR) is followed.

3.0 Performance is tabulated once the IR is determined to be resolved and reported in that month's performance summary report.

Calendar days are defined as Monday through Sunday.

Sample calculation:

Assume 3 Compliance IR's closed within the reporting month (SLA of *** calendar days). One completed in *** calendar days; one in *** calendar days; and 1 in *** calendar days. Yield equals 1/3 or 66.7%.

Performance Standard - Y7X2.1 Compliance IR's - Remedial Action (FDR Caused)

Compliance IR Definition

A Compliance IR is any IR established for any First Data System issue that is determined by *** Legal and/or Compliance Departments to be a compliance concern and is directly applicable to *** business served by First Data, which may include a potential non-compliance of Regulation Z, a disconnect within the terms and conditions of agreements, etc. ***

Defect Definition

Defects for Compliance IR remediation, are the number of compliance IR's that exceed the required timeliness target (*** calendar days from the date a compliance IR is reported by RCSI unless otherwise approved by RCSI)

Correction/Resolution Definition:

Remedial action is defined as that action required (e.g.: adjustments to cardholder accounts, refund checks, statement messages, cardholder letters, special mailings, etc.) to correct the RCSI client accounts impacted by the Compliance IR.

Calendar days are defined as Monday through Sunday.

Sample Calculation:

Assume two First Data-caused Compliance IR's requiring remedial action; #1 has the default *** calendar day remedial target, #2 is mutually agreed to require *** calendar days to complete remedial action.

#1 is completed in *** calendar days and #2 is completed in *** calendar days. Count 1 defect for #1 and 0 defects for #2, for a total yield of 1/2 or 50%.

Performance Standard - Y9X1 Preliminary Root Cause Analysis Timeliness - Preliminary

Severity 1 & 2 Definitions:

Severity 1: Any First Data System / application outage (hard down) at one or more RCSI/GECS sites seriously affecting RCSI's business or ability to service their clients. There is no workaround in place to reduce impact.

Examples:

1. Complete First Data System / application system outages such as hardware/software issues creating an outage.
2. First Data application (i.e., Chronicle, AFP OnDemand) down
3. First Data connectivity issues creating a total outage (fiber cut, router, gateway, or Zlink issues creating a total outage)

Severity 2: Any First Data System/application performance degradation issue that inhibits RCSI/GECS-A users from performing their jobs in a normal manner.

Examples:

1. Critical applications are not performing as designed with no acceptable workaround.
2. Slow response time of an application severely impacting RCSI's/GECS-A's ability to work.
3. Critical files are not available as required for RCSI/GECS-A processing (i.e, collections).
4. High rate of authorization stand-ins

Note: Other issues that fall outside of these system definitions can be escalated as a priority 1 or 2 issue by RCSI if the impact to RCSI/GECS-A is significant.

Compliance Definition:

A Compliance issue is any IR that is determined by *** Legal and/or Compliance Departments to be a compliance defect and is directly applicable to *** business served by First Data which may include a potential non-compliance of Regulation Z, or a disconnect within the terms and conditions of agreements, etc. ***

Critical SLA Defect Definition:

Any penalty bearing SLA that exceeds the upper control limit (UCL) or penalty level (CPL) spec limit.

SLA Counting Methodology:

Note: RCSI and First Data must jointly determine that the situation meets the criteria for a formal RCA.

An issue reported to FDR prior to 11:00 a.m. CTZ will be considered as "day 1" for SLA counting purposes.

An issue reported to FDR after 11:00 a.m. CTZ will be considered as "day 0" for SLA counting purposes.

Calendar days are defined as Monday through Sunday.

Defect Definition:

Any preliminary RCA for a FDR caused severity 1 & 2, compliance or critical SLA defect issue that is not posted to the RCSI/GE QuickPlace site or otherwise received at RCSI/GECS-A. by the ***calendar day at 5:00 PM CTZ.

Sample Calculation:

Assume two issues meet the RCA criteria within the reporting month. One of the RCA documents is delivered to GE within *** calendar days.

One RCA document is delivered on calendar day ***. Yield would equal 1/2 or 50%.

Table of Contents

Performance Standard - Y9X2 Final Root Cause Analysis Timeliness and Quality - Final

Severity 1 & 2 Definitions:

Severity 1: Any FDR system / application outage (hard down) at one or more GECS sites seriously affecting GE's business or ability to service their clients. There is no workaround in place to reduce impact.

Examples:

1. Complete FDR system / application system outages such as hardware/software issues creating an outage.
2. FDR application (i.e., Chronicle, AFP OnDemand) down.
3. FDR connectivity issues creating a total outage (fiber cut, router, gateway, or Zlink issues creating a total outage).

Severity 2: Any FDR system/application performance degradation issue that inhibits GE users from performing their jobs in a normal manner.

Examples:

1. Critical applications are not performing as designed with no acceptable workaround.
2. Slow response time of an application severely impacting GE's ability to work.
3. Critical files are not available as required for GE processing (I.e, collections).
4. High rate of authorization stand-ins

Note: Other issues that fall outside of these system definitions can be escalated as a priority 1 or 2 issue by GE if the impact to GE is significant.

Compliance Definition:

A Compliance issue is any IR that is determined by *** or *** Legal and/or Compliance Departments to be a compliance defect and is directly applicable to *** or *** business served by First Data which may include a potential non-compliance of Regulation Z, a disconnect within the terms and conditions of agreements, etc. First Data has the right to appeal the Compliance IR designation(s) to *** or *** Legal and Compliance Directors.

Critical SLA Defect Definition:

Any penalty bearing SLA that exceeds the upper control level (UCL) or penalty level (CPL) spec limit.

RCA CTQ's:

1. Clear, concise and written in non-technical language.
2. Issue description section clearly explains the issue and RCSI impacts.
3. Resolution/Recovery section clearly outlines steps taken by First Data for the immediate fix and plans for recovery (If applicable).
4. Root Cause Analysis section adequately answers all of the "WHY" questions.
5. If RCA could not be determined, an adequate explanation of what was/is being researched is provided.

Preventative Action CTQ's:

1. Clear, concise and written in non-technical language.
2. Preventative actions address solutions to all the "why" questions.
3. Preventative actions eliminate the possibility that this issue will occur again.
4. Preventative actions include dates when actions will be installed/implemented.
5. If RCA could not be determined, an "action plan" has been clearly identified to determine RCA upon another occurrence.

Data Collection/Counting Methodology:

Each final RCA document submitted to RCSI within the reporting month is counted as a single opportunity. Note: If evaluation of RCA is not received at First Data within 7 calendar days, the RCA is considered to pass the quality criteria.

An issue reported to First Data by RCSI where a completed final RCA document has not been provided to RCSI within the reporting month is not considered a valid opportunity.

Defect Definition:

Any final RCA for a severity 1 or 2, compliance or critical SLA defect that does not meet the *** calendar day timeliness specification or receives a quality rating of "Did Not Meet Expectations" on any of the RCSI defined quality CTQ's is considered a defect.

Note: Any receipt of a quality evaluation of “3” (Did Not Meet Expectations) contained within the RCA document constitutes an overall “miss” or defect for that RCA document.

Sample Calculation:

Two RCA documents are completed and submitted to GE within the reporting month. Both documents meet the *** calendar day timeliness specifications. However, one document contains a “3”, Did Not Meet Expectations quality evaluation rating. Yield would = 1/2 or 50%.

Service Level Credit/Service Level Bonus Calculation

EXHIBIT B-2

Service Level Credit/Service Level Bonus Calculation

1. Critical Service Levels

The Service Levels identified in Table 1 below are Critical Service Levels. On ninety (90) days written notice to *** once a calendar quarter, *** the Critical Service Levels listed in Table 1.

2. Service Level Commitments

In accordance with Section 8.2(e) of the Main Body of the Agreement, the Parties shall re-evaluate the Service Levels (including Critical Service Levels) at least on an annual basis. Any modifications to the Service Levels set forth in this Schedule B must be agreed upon in writing by the Parties and shall include consideration of First Data's processing capability and RCSI's processing requirements.

3. Service Level Credits

When the Actual Yield for a Critical Service Level is less than the associated Credit Performance Level, RCSI may elect to receive a Service Level Credit equal to *** of that month's Processing Fees multiplied by the Service Level Credit Weight assigned to that measure in accordance with Section 8.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement. The maximum Service Level Credits for all measures combined in a month shall not exceed *** of the Processing Fees for that month. The formula for calculating the Service Level Credit for each Critical Service Level that is not met is:

Calculation of a Service Level Credit $ = (***) X (monthly Processing Fees) X (assigned Service Level Credit Weight)

Example of a Service Level Credit for a Critical Service Level: Y2X1, Customer Service Availability: *** x $1M x 20% = ***.

4. Service Level Bonuses

When the Actual Yield for a given Critical Service Level exceeds the Bonus Performance Level for six (6) consecutive months, a Service Level Bonus is paid that is equal to *** of that six (6) month period's Processing Fees multiplied by the Service Level Bonus Weight assigned to that Critical Service Level. Upon payment of the Service Level Bonus, the Target Performance Level, Credit Performance Level and Bonus Performance Level will be adjusted to reflect the performance levels for the six (6) month period that earned the reward. The maximum Service Level Bonus for all measures combined is subject to a *** cap of that period's Processing Fees. The formula for calculating the Service Level Bonus, for each Critical Service Level that exceeds the Bonus Performance Level for six (6) consecutive months, is:

Service Level Bonus for a Critical Service Level $ = (***) X (the 6 month period's Processing Fees) X (assigned Service Level Bonus Weight)

Example: Y6X5, Statement Content Accuracy: ***x $1M x 6 months x 20% = ***

5. Weights

The sum of the weights for the Critical Service Levels equals *** and will *** (e.g., after the first year of the Term, the sum of the weights (“Weighting Cap”) for the Critical Service Levels will equal ***, followed by *** after the second year of the Term, etc.). On ninety (90) days written notice to First Data, RCSI, in its sole discretion once a calendar year, may change or alter the allocation of the Service Level Credit Weights or Service Level Bonus Weights assigned to any Critical Service Levels listed in Table 1 (as Table 1 may be amended over time), so long as the sum of the revised Service Level Credit Weights continues to equal to the then-current Weighting Cap and the sum of the revised Service Level Bonus Weights continues to equal one hundred percent (100%) in the aggregate.

7/3/00	4860102, 4860126, 4578609, EA# 1401496	1053831	Y3X1	From 18:00 through 22:40, RCSI may have experienced slow responses when processing collections transactions, and received error messages while attempting to utilize the memo transaction. First Data identified a monthly billing process that caused high usage on the Unix system. RCSI has determined that the actual outage impact was 25 minutes.	The billing process was cancelled.	All oracle databases at First Data were originally limited to 2 tables. First Data was in the process of systematically (by cycle) splitting these tables from 2 to 40. The F cycle and N cycle had not yet been completed when this outage occurred. On July 8, 2000 the N cycle tables were split.	The addition of 38 tables within the Oracle database will eliminate any delays that the UNIX box may have received while waiting for Oracle database replies.
7/17/00	4881760, EA# 1401497	1053831	Y3X1	From 20:40 through 21:00 CTZ, RCSI received the error message, "Function Temporarily Down", while logged into First Data collections.	The batch workloads were shifted to another mainframe (THRC) to eliminate the error message and the slow responses.	The current version of IBM software (SYNCSORT) did not have enough storage space allocated, (software flaw), which forced the system to paginate which takes additional overhead to perform. This caused slow response time and the inability to access some transactions.	A new version of SYNCSORT (v3.7) will be installed after 'compress' maintenance occurs. An implementation schedule will be provided. Two other actions have taken place that should reduce the probability of client impact in the future. The first is the addition of the third processor in the Chandler facility, and second, the rescheduling of batch workload.
7/8/00	N/A	N/A	Y5X4	Data Warehouse file NCHW3001 was available for transmission at 6:10 CTZ.

by the attached amendments.]

Exhibit C – 8

Item Number Descriptions

The purpose of this Exhibit C-8 is to define the counting to be used for billing items and mechanisms for certain Service items set forth in Exhibit C-1, the Ancillary Services items set forth in Exhibit C-2, and the Merchant Service items set forth in Exhibit C-6. Some of the items are included within the Active Account Rate and others have specified unit charges. This Exhibit does not create any independent obligation for RCSI to pay any amounts or charges and does not limit the scope of the Services.

IN	Service/Item	Description
7279	Account Level Actions-Accounts Reviewed	Each Designated Account reviewed in connection with Account Level Actions (“ALA”). ALA allows RCSI the ability to have several non-monetary transactions automatically initiated at the individual Account level based upon decision tables built by RCSI.
7281	Account Level Actions - Non-Monetary Batch Transactions	Each set of non-monetary transactions generated for a Designated Account in connection with an Account Level Action account review.
7260	Account Level Processing (“ALP”)	Each Account using First Data’s Account Level Processing product that remains on RCSI’s masterfile on the last processing day of the calendar month as defined on the CD-121 Ledger Activity Report or equivalent report. ALP Services-Cardholder Pricing allows RCSI the ability to set, change and monitor pricing parameters (including annual percentage rate, penalty fees, minimum payment calculations and annual charges) on an

TBD	Acquiring Debit Services	Account automatically at the level of the individual Account based upon decision tables built by RCSI. The fees and charges associated with the use of any network switch provided by EDS or any one or all of the entities comprising the network in connection with a RCSI request.
7398	ACS Payment Defender	Each Designated Account on the First Data System for which a Payment Defender score is posted. ACS Payment Defender provides the decision tree flexibility of the Adaptive Control System with specific payment risk actions. The action driver is the highly predictive remittance score that precisely predict the likelihood a payment will be returned. Actions include the ability to “float” the payment, at the Cardholder level, by a specified percentage of the payment and length of time. The payment is actually posted to the account but RCSI will also have the flexibility to release the account’s “open-to-buy” on a graduated basis to control new credit authorizations. Other actions include automated letter generation or account queuing to further investigate high risk payments. RCSI can set the system parameters to limit the number of Active Accounts subjects to Payment Defender.

WHEREAS, FDR currently provides to the JV certain data processing and related services (the "JV Processing Services") and certain print and mail, embossing and other production-related services (the "JV Production Services") for the Private Label Cards (as defined in the Private Label Agreement) and the Flex Visa portfolio designated by the JV (the Private Label Cards and the Flex Visa portfolio shall be collectively referred to herein as, the "JV Cards"; and for the purposes hereof and the TSA, the JV Cards shall be considered "Banc One Accounts", as such term is defined in the TSA) pursuant to the Private Label Agreement (collectively, the JV Processing Services and the JV Production Services constitute the "Services" under the Private Label Agreement and shall be referred to herein as the "JV Services");

WHEREAS, GECC and FDR have entered into a Technology Sourcing Agreement effective as of December 10, 1998, pursuant to which FDR provides certain data processing and related services to GECC and its Affiliates (the "TSA");

WHEREAS, Montgomery Ward Credit Corporation ("MWCC"), an Affiliate of GECC, and FDR have entered into a Production Services Agreement effective as of November 16, 1999, pursuant to which FDR provides certain print and mail, embossing and other production-related services to MWCC and its Affiliates (the "PSA");

WHEREAS, the JV desires that as of October 1, 2000 in lieu of obtaining the JV Services pursuant to the Private Label Agreement, (i) the JV Processing Services for the JV Cards shall instead be performed under and pursuant to the terms and conditions of the TSA; and (ii) the JV Production Services for the JV Cards shall instead be performed under and pursuant to the terms and conditions of the PSA; and

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 3.1(g)(i)(B) of the TSA, the Services (as defined in the TSA) performed under the TSA with respect to the JV Cards shall be measured by the performance measurements applicable to the JV Processing Services under the Private Label Agreement, as set forth in Exhibit "D" thereto (except those measurements that would apply to services which are JV Production Services), until such time as the Service Levels for the RFS Designated Accounts (as defined in the TSA) are finalized and incorporated into the TSA. On the first day of the month immediately following the date upon which such Service Levels are finalized, such Service Levels shall automatically apply thereto.

(c) GECC, the JV and FDR agree that as of October 1, 2000, Section 3.1(d)(i) of the TSA shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

(i) GE Capital and Monogram Credit Services, LLC (the "JV") have the right during the Term to perform, or retain third parties to perform, any of the Services; provided, however, First Data will be the exclusive provider of those Services for which the Annual Core Services Fee and Monthly Data Center Fees are paid (the "Exclusive Services") (A) for those accounts identified by GE Capital as CFS Designated Accounts at the time of completion of the CFS Initial Conversion and (B) until June 30, 2003, for the Banc One Accounts, as defined in Section 3.1(g) below, as such Banc One Accounts may be increased in the ordinary course of business through the growth of accounts of merchant retailers and cardholders forming a part of the Banc One Accounts as of the October 1, 2000. In the event that (in violation of clause (i)(B) above) either (i) the JV, GE Capital or any of their Affiliates perform, or retain third parties to perform, any of the Exclusive Services for the Banc One Accounts or (ii) in any one Processing Year, the JV or GE Capital sells or otherwise transfers one or more Active Banc One Accounts (as defined below) such that either (A) the total number of all of such divested Active Banc One Accounts (the "Divested Accounts") for the previous Processing Year is greater than ten percent (10%) of the Aggregate

Active Banc One Accounts (as defined below) in such previous Processing Year, or (B) the Aggregate Active Banc One Accounts at the end of any Processing Year (the "End of Year Total") is less than One Million Six Hundred Fifty Thousand Four Hundred Eight-Five (1,650,485) and the sum of all Divested Accounts divested since October 1, 2000 plus the End of Year Total is greater than One Million Six Hundred Fifty Thousand Four Hundred Eight-Five (1,650,485) (the "Trigger Event"), the JV shall be liable to First Data for a one time payment in the amount of the Compensatory Payment (as defined below). The foregoing shall not apply (i) in the event the JV sells or otherwise transfers Banc One Accounts to GE Capital or a GE Capital Affiliate and such Banc One Accounts continue to receive the Exclusive Services hereunder, (ii) to dispositions of Banc One Accounts that result from the expiration, termination, or a discontinuance of a Banc One Account that occurs in the ordinary course of business, including, but not limited to, accounts that are charged off pursuant to the policies and procedures of the JV or GE Capital, as applicable that have not been purged ("Charged Off Accounts"), and in connection with the contractual rights or obligations of GE Capital or the JV pursuant to their agreements with clients as a result of a termination of such accounts (excluding any termination by the JV or GE Capital, as applicable, resulting from a contractual right to terminate that is not subject to the occurrence of a condition), (iii) a sale or transfer in connection with the contractual rights or obligations of GE Capital or the JV pursuant to their agreements with clients as a result of a termination of such accounts (excluding any termination by the JV or GE Capital, as applicable, resulting from a contractual right to terminate that is not subject to the occurrence of a condition), or (iv) a sale or transfer of Charged Off Accounts. In the event the JV is required to pay the Compensatory Payment hereunder, the restrictions of the first sentence of this Section 3.1 (d)(i) shall no longer apply to the Banc One Accounts and GE Capital or the JV may perform the Exclusive Services, or retain third parties to perform the Exclusive Services for any Banc One Accounts and may sell or otherwise divest itself of Banc One Accounts. GE Capital and the JV retain the right to sell Accounts, portfolios or lines of business which are receiving the Services, including the Exclusive Services (although, if GE Capital or the JV does so with respect to Banc One Accounts, such sale may constitute a Trigger Event, as provided above, unless otherwise excepted therefrom) and such Accounts, portfolios or lines of business will no longer be subject to the Agreement and shall not constitute a Trigger Event hereunder under any circumstances. GE Capital and the JV also retain the right to acquire Accounts, portfolios or lines of business and manage such Accounts, portfolios or lines of business separately from this Agreement and the Services. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each Processing Year, the JV or GE Capital, as applicable, shall deliver a notice in writing to First Data indicating the number of Divested Accounts for such Processing Year. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice, First Data shall calculate whether a Compensatory Payment is due by the JV and shall deliver a notice in writing to the JV setting forth the amount of the Compensatory Payment and the calculation performed by First Data related thereto. For purposes of this Section, "Active Banc One Account" means (i) any Banc One Account that had, during the period of determination as to whether such Banc One Account is an Active Banc One Account, a balance or for which a debit, credit, or payment has taken place during such period, and (ii) Charged Off Accounts, "Aggregate Active Banc One Account" for any Processing Year means the sum of the twelve (12) Banc One Monthly Active Accounts ("Banc One MAA") divided by 12 where "Banc One MAA" equals the number of Active Banc One Accounts on the last day of the previous month as set forth on the CD121 from the last day of the previous month or its equivalent which accurately reflects the number of Active Banc One Accounts plus the number of Active Banc One Accounts on the last day of the current month as set forth on the CD121 from the last day of the current month or its equivalent which accurately reflects the number of Active Banc One Accounts divided by two.

(d) GECC, the JV and FDR agree that as of October 1, 2000, the following shall be inserted as a new Section 3.1(d)(iv) following Section 3.1(d)(iii) in the TSA:

"For purposes of this Section 3.1(d), "Compensatory Payment" shall mean $780,000 until September 30, 2002, and on October 1, 2002, the Compensatory Payment shall mean $715,000 (a reduction of $65,000). On the first day of each calendar month thereafter, the Compensatory Payment shall be further reduced by $65,000 per month until June, 2003. Thereafter the JV shall not be responsible for the payment of any Compensatory Payment. The Compensatory Payment shall be due and payable by the JV within 30 days after the last day of the month in which the Trigger Event occurs and under no circumstances shall the JV be required to pay the Compensatory Payment more than once."

3. Transfer of Production Services to PSA.
  - (a) Pursuant to Section 3.4 of the PSA, MWCC and the JV hereby request that, and FDR hereby agrees to, provide to the JV, as of October 1, 2000, all the JV Production Services for the JV Cards as Production Services (as such term is defined in the PSA) performed under the PSA, it being understood that the JV shall be liable for payments thereunder to FDR; provided, however, that Plasticard Enterprise Presentation (PEP), Billing IN 7717 shall be charged at the rates set forth in the Private Label Agreement, unless and until the parties otherwise mutually agree in writing.

4. Suspension of the Private Label Agreement.
  - (a) FDR and the JV agree, effective as of October 1, 2000; to suspend and render inoperative for all purposes the Private Label Agreement and all rights and obligations of the parties arising thereunder (except as may be expressly provided otherwise in this Modification Agreement or in the Private Label Agreement) including, but not limited to, FDR's obligation to provide the Services (as defined in the Private Label Agreement), under the Private Label Agreement; provided, however, that any existing liabilities, confidentiality and other obligations or indemnities of the parties thereto arising under the Private Label Agreement prior to the date of such suspension shall survive (including, but not limited to, Article 5 and Article 9 thereof). Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, as soon as practicable after the date hereof, FDR shall calculate and pay any and all amounts owing to the JV arising in connection with the Private Label Agreement, including (i) $666,000 owed by FDR to the JV in connection with erroneous billing related to a postal scan line coding error by FDR on the JV's cardholder payment remittance envelopes, (ii) an additional amount (calculated in a manner satisfactory to the JV in good faith) owed by FDR to the JV in connection with erroneous billing related to an FDR coding error which increased the monthly non-monetary transactions, and (iii) the amount owed to the JV by FDR pursuant to the Volume Rebate (pro-rated to September 30, 2000) provided in Section 4.6 of the Private Label Agreement, as calculated in good faith by FDR and satisfactory to the JV. Notwithstanding the suspension of the Private Label Agreement provided herein and unless otherwise agreed by the parties thereto, in the event that the election to reinstate the Private Label Agreement under Section 4(c) of this Agreement occurs, the Private Label Agreement shall expire by its own terms on the date stipulated therein.

(b) FDR agrees that the suspension of the Private Label Agreement as provided herein is not an event which triggers a right of FDR to Liquidated Damages under Section 4.4 of the Private Label Agreement and, as of the date hereof for purposes of this Agreement, FDR agrees to waive any of its rights to Liquidated Damages under Section 4.4 of the Private Label Agreement.

(c) In the event that prior to June 30, 2003 the JV ceases to be an Affiliate of GECC (as defined in the TSA), but remains or otherwise becomes an Affiliate of Banc One (as defined in the Private Label Agreement), the JV may (upon no less than sixty (60) days notice to FDR) elect to reinstate the Private Label Agreement and designate which of the JV Services will thereafter again be performed thereunder.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Reference is made to (i) the Production Services Agreement (the "PSA"), dated as of November 16, 1999, between ourselves ("First Data") and yourselves (then known as Montgomery Ward Credit Corporation, "RCSI"), and (ii) the Conversion and Addendum Agreement (the "CAA") dated as of October 18, 2002, between GE Business Productivity Solutions, Inc. ("GEBPS") and First Data. Simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this letter agreement, the parties (or Affiliates of the parties) are executing various other agreements, including a First Amended and Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement (all of which, taken together, the "Transaction Documents").

(1) In connection with the Transaction Documents, RCSI agrees that for the first forty million (40 million) reissue plastics (credit card stock) required by RCSI after the date hereof (and which, if awarded to First Data would constitute Transaction Card production Services under the PSA), RCSI shall provide First Data the opportunity to competitively bid to provide RCSI such reissue plastics and if (x) First Data meets RCSI's requirements thereof (including specifications, quality, and delivery terms) and (y) First Data's price is at least as low as that of any other bidder, RCSI shall award the bid to First Data. The parties acknowledge that eight million (8 million) of such plastics have already been competitively bid between the date above and the actual execution date hereof, and thus there is thirty two million (32 million) remaining. If First Data fails to perform in accordance with such obligations, RCSI shall have the same rights and remedies for such failure as is provided in the PSA.

(2) In consideration of the commitment by RCSI in (1), above, First Data agrees that GEBPS' shall have the option (to be exercised no later than August 31, 2003) to either (a) terminate the CAA without any liability for payment (including any then outstanding payment obligations thereunder) or (b) continue the CAA in effect. If GEBPS elects option (b) in the preceding sentence First Data's right to recover any capitalized amounts accrued under the CAA as of May 28, 2003 shall be waived, including conversion expenses and the Signing Bonus, which as of the date hereof equals approximately four hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($475 thousand).

GUARANTY

GUARANTY (the "Guaranty"), dated as of June 5, 2003, of GENERAL ELECTRIC CAPITAL CORPORATION ("GE Capital"), a Delaware corporation, in favor of FIRST DATA RESOURCES INC. ("First Data"), a Delaware corporation.

WHEREAS, GE Capital and First Data are parties to a Technology Sourcing Agreement (the "TSA"), dated December 10, 1998;

WHEREAS, in connection with amending and restating the TSA, GE Capital desires that its rights and obligations under the TSA be assigned to, and assumed by, Retailer Credit Services, Inc. ("RCSI"), a Utah corporation which is an affiliate of GE Capital;

WHEREAS, in connection therewith First Data has requested GE Capital, as the parent of RCSI, to provide a guaranty to First Data on the terms and conditions hereinafter provided; and

WHEREAS, GE Capital is willing to enter into this Guaranty to induce First Data to enter into an amended and restated TSA with RCSI substituted for GE Capital as a party thereto;

NOW, THEREFORE, GE Capital hereby agrees:

Section 1. Guaranty by GE Capital. (a) From and after the date hereof, GE Capital hereby irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees the due and punctual performance by RCSI of all of its obligations under the TSA, in each case after any applicable grace periods or notice requirements, according to the terms of the TSA. GE Capital agrees that its obligations hereunder shall be unconditional, irrespective of any change therein or amendment to the TSA, the absence of any action to enforce the same, the recovery of any judgment against RCSI or any action to enforce the same, or any other circumstances which may otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor; provided, however, that GE Capital's obligations under this Guaranty shall be subject to all defenses available to RCSI, other than bankruptcy or insolvency of RCSI or the validity or enforceability of its obligations. GE Capital covenants that this Guaranty will not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the TSA and in this Guaranty.

(b) GE Capital shall be subrogated to all rights of First Data in respect of any amounts paid by GE Capital pursuant to the provisions of this Guaranty.

(c) This Guaranty shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time any payment of charges under the TSA or any other amount owed to First Data hereunder or thereunder is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by First Data upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of GE Capital, RCSI or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

SECTION 2. Miscellaneous.

Section 2.1. Notices. All notices to GE Capital under this Guaranty and copies of all notices to RCSI under the TSA shall, until GE Capital furnishes written notice to the contrary, be in writing and mailed, faxed or delivered to GE Capital at 260 Long Ridge Road, Stamford, Connecticut 06927-9400, and directed to the attention of the Senior Vice President-Corporate Treasury and Global Funding Operation of GE Capital (facsimile no. (203) 357-4975).

Section 2.2. Governing Law. This Guaranty shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of New York. The parties desire to avail themselves of the benefit of Section 5-1401 of the New York General Obligations Law.

Section 2.3. Interpretation. The headings of the sections and other subdivisions of this Guaranty are inserted for convenience only and shall not be deemed to constitute a part hereof.

Section 2.4. Attorney's Cost. GE Capital agrees to pay all reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements and all other reasonable and actual costs and expenses which may be incurred by First Data in the enforcement of this Guaranty.

Section 2.5. No Set-off. By acceptance of this Guaranty, First Data shall be deemed to have waived any right to set-off, combine, consolidate or otherwise appropriate and apply (i) any assets of GE Capital at any time held by First Data or (ii) any indebtedness or other liabilities at any time owing by First Data to GE Capital, as the case may be, against, or on account of, any obligations or liabilities owed by GE Capital to First Data under this Guaranty.

Section 2.6. Assignment by GE Capital. If GE Capital transfers the business operations currently known as GE Capital Consumer Finance – Americas to a separate legal entity, First Data shall not unreasonably withhold its agreement to an assignment and assumption of this Guaranty by such entity provided that it is sufficiently capitalized to adequately assure First Data of performance of the TSA. Other than as provided in this Section 2.6, this Guaranty shall not be assignable by GE Capital without the written consent of First Data.

Section 2.7. Permitted Successors and Assigns of RCSI. For the avoidance of doubt, the Guaranty by GE Capital shall also apply to any obligations of any successor or assigns of RCSI permitted under the TSA.

AMENDMENT TO FIRST AMENDED AND RESTATED TECHNOLOGY SOURCING AGREEMENT

This Amendment (this "Amendment") to the First Amended and Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement dated as of December 10, 1998 (first amended and restated as of April 1, 2003), as amended (the "Service Agreement") is made and entered into this 3rd day of September, 2003 by and between Retailer Credit Services, Inc., a Utah corporation with offices at 4246 South Riverboat Road, Salt Lake City, Utah 84123 ("RCSI") and First Data Resources Inc., a Delaware corporation with offices at 10825 Farnam Drive, Omaha, Nebraska 68154 ("First Data"). For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the parties, RCSI and First Data agree as follows:

1. Effective Date. The terms of this Amendment are effective as of January 26, 2004 (the "Effective Date").
2. General Terms. Exhibit "A-5" of the Service Agreement, Third Party Terms, is hereby amended by the addition of the following:

"2WAY-CONNECT SERVICES. First Data, in conjunction with *** Inc. or another third party (the 'Alerting Party'), shall provide RCSI with two-way real time alert, message and verification services. First Data will send Cardholder data to the Alerting Party, and the Alerting Party will contact individual Cardholders. Cardholders will have several options in responding to the Alerting Party's contact including, but not limited to, automated response or speaking with a customer service representative ('2Way-Connect Services'). First Data shall provide the 2Way-Connect Services pursuant to the following terms and conditions:

A. Implementation. First Data will provide an implementation profile form to be completed by RCSI and subsequently approved by First Data prior to the commencement of the 2Way-Connect Services ('Implementation Profile'). The Implementation Profile will outline the various options and parameters available within the 2Way-Connect Services including, but not limited to: frequency of Cardholder data transmission, scripting, selection of communication channels to determine RCSI's strategy for contacting Cardholders (the 'Contact Strategy'), selection of criteria for contacting Cardholders (including hours of contact) and other RCSI specific criteria (the 'Contact Criteria'). First Data agrees to provide the 2Way-Connect Services in accordance with the Contact Criteria, and First Data shall not utilize e-mail or text messaging in its performance of the 2Way-Connect Services hereunder without the prior written authorization of RCSI.

B. Description of Services. First Data shall deliver to the Alerting Party, at RCSI's request, Cardholder data of RCSI (XML over HTTP) (i) maintained on the First Data System and/or (ii) contained in a file sent by RCSI to First Data. Such data shall consist of, at a minimum: the Cardholder's contact information and applicable Account information as determined by RCSI. The Alerting Party will then attempt to contact the selected Cardholders via an automated outbound message. When a Cardholder is successfully contacted, the Cardholder will be presented with certain automated responses pre-selected by RCSI and customized to the nature of the alert. In addition, Cardholders may be presented with the alternative option of contacting a live customer service representative. Such representative may be a First Data employee, RCSI employee or employee of a third party working on behalf of RCSI. RCSI may view the results of Alerting Party's alerts in real time via a web page hosted by the Alerting Party.

C. Compliance with Law. RCSI shall be solely responsible for compliance with all laws, statutes, rules, regulations, regulatory guidance and judicial and administrative decisions, executive orders and similar mandates of any federal, state, or local governmental authority having jurisdiction over, or application to, the Contact Criteria including, without limitation, collections and other applicable laws. First Data shall be solely responsible for compliance with all laws, statutes, rules, regulations, regulatory guidance and judicial and administrative decisions, executive orders and similar mandates of any federal, state, or local governmental authority having jurisdiction over, or application to, the alerting, messaging and response functionality and application(s) utilized in connection with First Data's provision of the 2Way-Connect Services, as distinct from the Contact Criteria including, without limitation, any applicable telecommunication laws and/or licensing or registration requirements.

D. Termination. Notwithstanding anything in this Amendment to the contrary, if First Data's agreement with *** or any other Alerting Party expires or terminates or if First Data's right to offer the 2Way-Connect Services is threatened or terminated because the 2Way-Connect Services infringe upon the copyright, patent, or other proprietary rights of any party or for any other reason, First Data shall have the right to terminate the provision of the 2Way-Connect Services upon thirty (30) days notice to RCSI, or such shorter period of notice as coincides with the termination of First Data's right to license and offer, and First Data shall have no further liability to RCSI with respect to the terminated services."

3. Test Period.

(a) The term (hereinafter referred to as the "Test Period") of the 2Way-Connect Services, which shall consist of the set-up by First Data and use by RCSI of a single collections-related application of the 2Way-Connect Services (hereinafter referred to as the "2Way-Connect Services - Collections Application") and used in connection with not more than three thousand (3,000) of RCSI's Accounts each month, shall be for a period of three (3) calendar months, commencing on the Effective Date. If, prior to the expiration of the Test Period, either (i) RCSI can reasonably demonstrate that the ultimate cost per collection using the 2Way-Connect Services which would have resulted from First Data's proposed price schedule for the 2Way-Connect Services - Collection Application (as previously provided to RCSI by First Data in writing) would have been greater than the cost of RCSI performing substantially similar services itself, or having another third party perform such services on RCSI's behalf, utilizing RCSI's current business process, or (ii) the 2Way-Connect Services, employing the "Contact Strategy" against the Account volume previously committed by RCSI, does not attempt to contact Cardholders the number of times RCSI has designated, unless otherwise directed, at least ninety five percent (95%) of the time, then RCSI shall not, upon the conclusion of the Test Period be obligated to pay FDR the one-time set-up fee for the 2Way-Connect Services - Collections Application which will, notwithstanding any other terms set forth in this Agreement, otherwise be payable by RCSI in connection with the 2Way-Connect Services - Collections Application. Such one-time set-up fee, if payable, shall be the lesser of (i) the *** (as defined in *** of the Service Agreement) associated with the set-up of the 2Way-Connect services - Collections Application, or (ii) $25,000.00.

(b) First Data hereby agrees that during the Test Period, there shall be no charge to RCSI for the 2Way-Connect Services - Collections Application, except as provided for in paragraph (a) above. The foregoing is based upon a maximum of 3,000 RCSI Accounts submitted during each calendar month of the Test Period, and an Application Strategy which does not exceed the limitations set forth in Attachment I hereto.

4. Production Terms. Upon the expiration of the Test Period, the parties will review and discuss the results obtained by RCSI as a result of its use of the 2Way-Connect Services, and if RCSI elects to continue to use such services in a production environment (or any other application of the services) following the expiration of the Test Period, the parties will negotiate in good faith the terms of such usage. Any such terms mutually agreed upon by the parties will be included in a written agreement or amendment hereto executed by the parties.

5. Security Risk Assessment Efforts. In conjunction with the provision by First Data of 2Way-Connect Services on behalf of RCSI, RCSI and First Data have identified certain server security risk issues which RCSI desires to have First Data resolve, including data encryption enablement, system user authentication parameters and host intrusion detection ("Risk Issues"). First Data agrees that it shall use its reasonable efforts to resolve such Risk Issues in accordance with a plan mutually agreeable to the parties.

6. Discounts/Rebates. RCSI and First Data hereby agree that if any fees are or become payable by RCSI to First Data for the 2Way-Connect Services - Collections Application set forth in this Amendment, such fees shall not be included in the qualification for, or the calculation of, any monetary discounts or rebates set forth in the Service Agreement.

7. Continuation of Service Agreement. As hereby amended and supplemented, the Service Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

FDR will provide RCSI with training in accordance with the terms of the TSA and RCSI shall act reasonably with respect to complex WRAPS requests prior to execution of the WRAPS run. RCSI and FOR agree to *** the cost of creating a special (one time creation) report (known as CW573 Report) that will allow RCSI to obtain data that will reduce the need to run WRAPS. The design is done and the estimated work effort is 278.2 hours with a 9/6/06 implementation date. To the extent that RCSI's utilization of WRAPS during the period of January 1, 2006 through July 31, 2006 is greater than utilization during the remainder of 2006, FDR may exclude such excess utilization from the 2006 baselining process provided in Section 6.2( d) of Schedule C provided that FDR demonstrates the method for making such exclusion to RCSI's reasonable satisfaction; and

(c) Creation and processing of statement and embossing output record files whether for FDR's or a third party's further processing is ***.

4. FAAR TSA Amendment.

(a) Section 12.6 of the FAAR TSA is amended by inserting a new subsection (i) to read as follows:

“(i) *** Billing of New Services. At the time RCSI requests the FDR Contract Executive (or begins receiving, either as a result of an independent action of RCSI to initiate use of a service offering or as a result of a request by RCSI to another individual at FDR) a Service that FDR believes is a New Service FDR shall notify the RCSI Contract Executive within *** days of the request (or *** days if the parenthetical above applies) that FOR believes that it is a New Service. If FDR does not notify the RCSI Contract Executive that FOR considers such request a New Service within the requisite period then ***. Upon notification, FDR shall request written agreement on the charges and other terms and conditions related to the New Services. FDR shall propose such charges and any other terms and conditions related to the New Services along with its notice or where the nature of the item is such that it cannot be accomplished contemporaneously, as soon as is practically feasible thereafter. If FDR and RCSI are unable to agree on whether such item is a New Service or what charges and other terms and conditions should be applicable thereto, if so instructed by RCSI, ***. Once the parties have agreed on the charges and other terms and conditions any charges shall be retroactive to the date the New Service began (or, with respect to use of service offerings initiated independently by RCSI and with regard to which RCSI has not notified FDR, the earlier of ninety (90) days after initiation and the date FDR notified RCSI that it considered the same a New Service). Until the matter is resolved FDR shall notionally report to RCSI the amount of such suspended charges on a monthly basis. In accordance with processes to be mutually agreed upon, RCSI shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to identify and notify FDR on or before RCSI independently begins to use a service offering that RCSI reasonably believes FDR may consider a New Service (it being understood that RCSI shall not be liable if such processes do not identify changes to RCSI's usage in order for RCSI to provide notification). Any New Service shall not itself be subject to base lining in accordance with Section 6.2( d) of Schedule C (unless at the time the parties agree to a base lining mechanism) but changes resulting from utilization caused by the New Service to resources measured by the baselining mechanisms shall be subject thereto unless otherwise agreed at the time. This Section 12.6(i) shall control over any contrary provisions of this Agreement, including Section 13.1(d). Section 13.1(d) shall continue in effect with respect to items which do not relate to New Services.”

(b) FDR has previously notified RCSI that the following services that FDR is currently providing constitute New Services:

- (i) Balance Consolidation Services Amendment;
- (ii) Two Way Connect (as is contemplated to be possibly utilized by RCSI for fraud); and
- (iii) *** provided to date.

FDR and RCSI are currently in the process of discussing these possible New Services or negotiating amendments for these New Services. If FDR is currently providing one of these services and RCSI is currently *** such service, RCSI will continue to pay FDR for such services while the amendments are negotiated.

5. *** Dispute. As of the date of this letter agreement the parties have not resolved their disagreements regarding FDR’s proposed offsets pursuant to Section 11.7(g) of the PSA (which was inserted by Amendment Number Two, dated as of April 1, 2003) and Section 7 of Schedule C of the FAAR TSA (collectively, the “*** Dispute”) and nothing in this letter agreement shall be construed as waiving either party’s rights with respect thereto.

6. Release of Claims for New Services and New Production Services.

Except for those services that FDR has previously notified RCSI that FDR believes constitute New Services or New Production Services as described in Section 3 and Section 4 of this letter agreement, FDR agrees that no other portion of the Services being provided under the PSA or the F AAR TSA on or before August 1, 2006 constitute New Services or New Production Services. Except for those services that FDR has previously notified RCSI that FDR believes constitute New Services or New Production Services as described in Section 3 and Section 4 of this letter agreement, FDR waives and releases any claims related to New Services and New Production Services in use on or before Aug. 1, 2006 against RCSI or any of its Affiliates for charges arising out of the F AAR TSA or the PSA. The foregoing is not intended to be a general release of claims, only a release of the specific claims released by the preceding sentence.

If the foregoing is in accordance with your understanding please sign both copies of this letter where indicated and return one fully executed copy to me.

We look forward to continuing the mutually rewarding relationship we have enjoyed.

[Text Omitted]

AMENDMENT AGREEMENT

This amendment (the "Amendment") dated as of December 1, 2006, amends the First Amended and Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement between Retailer Credit Services, Inc. ("RCSI") and First Data Resources, LLC (formerly First Data Resources, Inc.) ("First Data") dated December 10, 1998 (First Amended and Restated as of April 1, 2003), as amended (the "Agreement").

WHEREAS General Electric. Capital Corporation, an Affiliate of RCSI, is in the process of applying to the Minister of Finance (Canada) for permission to create a trust company under the Trust and Loan Companies Act (Canada) which, once incorporated, will be subject to Guideline B-10 ("B-10") of the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions ("OSFI"),

WHEREAS RCSI wishes to amend the Agreement to meet the requirements of B-10 in order for RCSI and the trust company to receive the Services thereunder following the trust company's incorporation.

AND WHEREAS First Data wishes to amend the Agreement to meet the requirements of Guideline B-10 in order to provide the services thereunder to RCSI and the trust company following the trust company's incorporation.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Parties hereby agree to amend the Agreement as set forth below.

All capitalized terms not defined in this Amendment shall have the meanings ascribed to them under the Agreement.

1. The Parties agree that the terms of this Amendment shall only apply to the extent that Services are provided to an Affiliate of RCSI that is regulated by B-10 (a "Regulated Affiliate") and in such case, references to RCSI in the Agreement shall be interpreted to include the Regulated Affiliate.
2. The Services provided to the Regulated Affiliate are provided by First Data from the locations set forth in Exhibit A to this Amendment.
3. The following is hereby added as Section 6.2(g) of the Agreement:

"(g) Access to RCSI Property. At any time during the Term of this Agreement, at RCSI's request, First Data shall provide RCSI with access to any RCSI equipment, furnishings and fixtures, including routers, within First Data's control, and when such property is no longer required for the performance of the Services, at RCSI's request, First Data shall return such property to RCSI,"

4. The following is hereby added as Section 8.6 of the Agreement:

“8.6 Notice of Potential Material Adverse Effect

First Data shall promptly give RCSI notice of an event affecting First Data or any permitted subcontractor which First Data reasonably believes may have a material adverse effect on First Data’s ability to comply with any of its obligations under this Agreement.”

5. The following is hereby added as Section 9.3(a)(iv) of the Agreement:

“(iv) For the purposes of this Section 9.3(a)(iv), “Material Subcontractor” means a subcontractor *** in accordance with this Agreement, and that: (A) is not a public company filing publicly available financial statements; (B) is performing a material part of the Services; (C) is performing such Services in respect of a Regulated Affiliate; and (D) is performing Services which, should the Material Subcontractor become unable to perform, First Data would not be able to transfer to another Material Subcontractor *** in accordance with this Agreement, or provide itself, on a reasonably prompt basis and otherwise without a material adverse effect on the continuing operations of the Regulated Affiliate. First Data shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause any Material Subcontractor, within 120 days of the last day of each financial year end of that Material Subcontractor that occurs during the term of this Agreement, to provide RCSI with (or with access to) audited consolidated financial statements consisting of a balance sheet, a statement of income and a statement of cash flows, prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP (the “Financial Statements”). RCSI’s use of the Financial Statements shall be strictly limited to the fulfillment by it of its obligations pertaining to the annual monitoring of the Material Subcontractor’s financial strength as required by OSFI or any similar requirements by any other governmental or regulatory authority.”

6. In the first sentence of Section 10.1(a) of the Agreement, following the word `regulators`, the words “(including OSFI)” are hereby added.

7. The following is hereby added to the end of Section 10.1(b) of the Agreement:

“First Data shall permit such auditors, inspectors, regulators (including OSFI) and representatives to access and make copies of any internal audit reports (and associated working papers and recommendations) prepared by or for First Data in respect of the Services being performed for RCSI, and to access findings in the external audit of First Data (and associated working papers and recommendations) that address the Services being performed for RCSI, all subject to confidentiality documentation being signed that is satisfactory in form and content to First Data, its external auditors, and the receiving party.”

“RCSI may provide OSFI with access to records under this Agreement, including those records referred to in Sections 243 and 244 of the Trust and Loan Companies Act (Canada), from facilities of RCSI or RCSI Affiliates in Canada.”

9. Section 14.7 of the Agreement is hereby re-numbered as Section 14.8 and the following is hereby added as Section 14.7 of the Agreement:

“14.7 Canadian Privacy Law

Where Services are being provided by First Data to which Canada’s Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act or other Canadian federal or provincial legislation deemed to be substantially similar (“Canadian Privacy Law”) applies, then this Section 14.7 shall apply in addition to and not in limitation of, First Data’s other obligations of confidentiality and non-disclosure under this Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the other provisions of this Agreement and this Section 14.7, the requirements of this Section 14.7 will prevail. Where Section 14.6 of this Agreement is referred to in this Section 14.7, obligations with respect to the GLB Act shall be interpreted as obligations in respect of Canadian Privacy Law.

- (a) First Data shall collect, use, store, disclose, dispose of and otherwise handle RCSI Customer information in accordance with all RCSI regulations and policies described in Section 5.3(a) of this Agreement and other mutually agreed upon information security practices, including those described in Sections 14.2, 14.5 and 14.6 of this Agreement.
- (b) In addition to the obligations set forth in Section 14.7(a) of this Agreement, if RCSI is dependent on the performance by First Data of an obligation in order for RCSI to comply with any Canadian Privacy Law, then, at RCSI’s reasonable request, First Data shall perform such obligation in a manner that shall enable RCSI to comply with such Canadian Privacy Law.
- (c) Without limiting Section 14.7(a) or Section 14.7(b) of this Agreement, except as required by applicable law, First Data shall not disclose, provide access to, or otherwise make available to any person RCSI Customer Information under the care or control of, or accessible by, First Data, without RCSI’s prior consent, except as permitted by Section 14.6(a) of this Agreement. If First Data is required to disclose RCSI Customer Information in connection with any judicial proceeding or government investigation, then First Data shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, advise RCSI promptly and prior to making such disclosure in order that RCSI may interpose an objection to such disclosure, take action to assure confidential handling of the RCSI Customer Information, or take such other action as it deems appropriate to protect the RCSI Confidential Information, First Data shall also comply with the provisions of Section 14.5(h) of this Agreement, where applicable. Thereafter, First Data may disclose RCSI Customer Information but only to the extent required by applicable law and subject to any applicable protective order.
- (d) First Data shall collect, use, store, disclose, dispose of and otherwise handle RCSI Customer Information solely for the purpose of performing the Services, in accordance with the first clause (ii) of Section 14.6(a) of this Agreement.
- (e) First Data shall refer to RCSI all requests for access to RCSI Customer Information and shall respond to any such request only by making reference to such referral. If RCSI is required by any Canadian Privacy Law to provide RCSI Customer Information that is in First Data’s possession or control to an individual, at RCSI's request, and provided that RCSI has provided First Data with reasonable prior notice, First Data shall provide (or provide a mechanism for RCSI to provide) such RCSI Customer Information and shall meet any reasonable deadlines imposed by RCSI for such provision required to enable RCSI to comply with any deadlines applicable under such Canadian Privacy Law to the provision of such RCSI Customer Information. In addition, at RCSI's request, First Data shall accept and process updates (including corrections or deletions) to RCSI Customer Information in the ordinary course of providing the Services as detailed in this Agreement, including Schedule A (Services) hereto, within ten days from the date upon which the request therefor is made by RCSI.

- (f) First Data shall store and protect RCSI Customer Information from loss, theft, unauthorized access, copying, modification, use or disclosure during utilization, transmission and storage using technology, physical protection measures, processes and standards of practice that are consistent with industry accepted best practices used or observed by comparable suppliers of similar services for the financial services industry in North America, including those measures, processes or standards set forth in Section 14.2(b)(ii) of this Agreement. In the event any loss, theft or unauthorized access, copying, modification, use or disclosure occurs, First Data shall promptly notify RCSI of the nature and details of such loss, theft or unauthorized access, copying, modification, use or disclosure, and shall promptly take action and co-operate as set forth in Section 14.5(f) of this Agreement.
- (g) First Data shall reasonably cooperate and comply with any requests or instructions issued by any privacy or data protection authority, including the Canadian Privacy Commissioner and any other governmental or regulatory authority applicable to RCSI or RCSI Customer Information.
- (h) Upon completion of First Data's required use of RCSI Customer Information, or upon RCSI's written request, as further described in Section 14.1(b) and Section 14.5(d)(ii) of this Agreement, First Data shall return or destroy all RCSI Customer Information in accordance with RCSI's instructions. If RCSI requests the destruction of any RCSI Customer Information, then First Data shall complete the destruction as requested and provide RCSI with written confirmation of the actions taken within a reasonable period of time from receipt of RCSI's written instructions.
- (i) First Data and RCSI shall mutually agree on a designated employee of First Data who shall be responsible for administering and ensuring compliance with all aspects of this Agreement, including compliance by First Data and its subcontractors with Canadian Privacy Law and this Section 14.7."

10. The following is hereby added as Section 21.9 of the Agreement:

“21.9 if OSFI takes control or possession of the Regulated Affiliate, First Data shall continue to provide the Services under and in accordance with this Agreement so long as RCSI shall continue to meet its obligations to pay under and in accordance with this Agreement.”

11. The following is hereby added to Exhibit A-7 to the end of Section 1.2 thereof: “First Data shall promptly notify RCSI upon making any significant changes to the Plans.”

12. The following is hereby added to Exhibit A-7 as Section 6.5 thereof:

“6.5 Access Rights. At RCSI’s request, First Data, at a reasonable time and in accordance with Exhibit A-7, shall promptly provide to RCSI access to all records in First Data’s possession or control (or in the possession or control of its subcontractors) relating to this Agreement, including all RCSI Data, RCSI Information and RCSI Customer Information and all other data or records of RCSI or First Data reasonably necessary to allow RCSI to: (i) sustain business operations; or (ii) meet its statutory obligations. In addition, at the request of RCSI or OSFI, First Data shall immediately provide all information required by OSFI in accordance with OSFI’s legislative mandate, in the event that First Data is unable to continue to provide any Service in the manner required pursuant to this Agreement.”

13. The definition of Non-Public Personal Information set forth in Section 2.205 of Schedule E “Glossary” is hereby amended to add after “GLB Act, 15 U.S.C. §6809(4)” the words or information deemed to be personal information pursuant to Canadian Privacy Law”.

15. All other terms and conditions of the Agreement not specifically amended hereby shall remain in full force and effect.

16. This Amendment and performance under it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of State of New York without regard to any provisions of its choice of law principles which would apply different law (the parties expressly intend to avail themselves of the benefits of Section 5-1401 of the New York General Obligations Law).

17. This Amendment may be executed in several counterparts, all of which taken together shall constitute one single agreement between the Parties.

Certain terms used in this Schedule C are defined in Schedule E (Glossary) to the Agreement. Other capitalized terms used in this Schedule C are defined in the context in which they are used and shall have the meaning there indicated. Capitalized terms not defined in this Schedule C or Schedule E shall have the meanings set forth in the text of the other portions of the Agreement. Unless otherwise provided, any reference herein to a "Section," "Article," "Schedule" or "Exhibit" shall be deemed to refer to a Section or Article of, or Schedule or Exhibit to, this Schedule C.

If at the time of Transfer of greater than *** Active Accounts there are less than *** years remaining in the Initial Term but the Tent' is extended such that the Term continues for more than *** years beyond the date of such Transfer, then First Data shall *** all amounts charged for the Standard Transfer Services for such Transfer.

(b) If Standard Transfer Services are chargeable pursuant to Section 3.4(a), the charge will be *** for a Full Transfer, *** for a Selective Transfer, and *** for a Mass Re-Issue.

(c) RCSI shall pay the incremental charge for all Development Hours required for non-Standard Transfer Services.

3.5 Start-Ups

There shall be *** charge for Standard Start-Up Services; provided that RCSI shall pay the incremental charge for all Development Hours required for non-Standard Start-Up Services.

4. MERCHANT CONVERSIONS AND MERCHANT TRANSFERS.

4.1 Conversions

(a) There shall be *** charge for Standard Conversion Services for Merchant Accounts if more than *** Merchant Accounts on file are Converted and there are at least *** years remaining in the Initial Term at the time of such Conversion. If at the time the Standard Conversion Services for Merchant Accounts are performed in connection with a number of Merchant Accounts that is greater than *** there are less than *** years remaining in the Initial Term but the Term is extended such that the Term continues for more than *** years beyond the date of such Conversion, then First Data shall *** all amounts charged for the Standard Conversion Services for such Merchant Accounts.

(b) If Standard Conversion Services for Merchant Accounts are chargeable pursuant to Section 4.1(a), the charge shall be (i) *** for up to *** Merchant Accounts on file, (ii) *** for up to *** Merchant Accounts on file, and (iii) *** for more than *** Merchant Accounts on file.

5. KNOWN SOFTWARE CONVERSION MODIFICATIONS

There shall be *** charge to RCSI in connection with the implementation and completion of the Known Software Conversion Modifications.

6. MONTHLY ACTIVE ACCOUNT SERVICES FEE.

6.1 Introduction

Except as otherwise provided in this Schedule C, the Monthly Active Account Services Fee is the *** payable to First Data for the Services, including:

(a) all Services other than Excluded Services. “Excluded Services” means those which are designated as (i) Ancillary Services and which have a separate charge under Exhibit C-2, (ii) Services chargeable as Pass-Through Expenses under Exhibits C-3 and C-4, (iii) Merchant Services under Exhibit C-6, or (iv) work performed on KSCMs by the ***or ***;

(b) all Services being used by RCSI as of the FAAR Effective Date (including any of those Services used only on a periodic basis) other than Excluded Services;

(c) all Services required to process the Accounts in the Conversion Portfolios according to the RCSI Rules (other than Excluded Services), as such Rules are modified in the Resolution Agreements;

(d) all deliverables agreed to as part of the Platform Integration Plan and Future First Data System Architecture Plan as set forth in Section 3.2 and Section 3.3, respectively, of the Main Body of the Agreement; and

(e) those Services and Service billing elements and item number elements listed in Exhibit C-1.

6.2 Monthly Account Services Fee

(a) The Active Accounts for a particular month (“Monthly Active Accounts” or “MAA”) equals the number of Active Accounts on the First Data System on the last day of such month as accurately set forth on the CD121 from the last day of such month (or its equivalent which accurately reflects the number of Active Accounts on the First Data System on the last day of such month).

(b) For each month in a Processing Year RCSI shall pay First Data the Monthly Active Account Services Fees. The “Monthly Active Account Services Fees” for each month shall be calculated as follows: (the sum for all categories of Active Accounts set forth below of the MAA for a category for such month) multiplied by (the applicable Active Account Rate(s) divided by (twelve (12)).

(c) The “Active Account Rate(s)” to be used in this calculation shall be:

(i) for Active Accounts in the Existing Portfolios (other than CommercialLine Accounts), *** until the earlier of the Final Conversion Date and January 1, 2006 (unless, and then only to the extent, any delay beyond January 1, 2006 was not the fault of First Data, including any delays resulting from RCSI’s rearrangement of the order of portfolio Conversions or other reordering of the Conversion scheduling) and thereafter ***;

(ii) for Active Accounts that are CommercialLine Accounts, First Data shall propose a charge to RCSI at least thirty (30) days before the end of the GECF-A Discovery process for RCSI’s approval. Such charge shall be the sum of *** per record transmitted and the *** of settlement of the CommercialLine Account, but in no event will the charge exceed *** per Active Account per month; and

(iii) for all other Active Accounts, as well as all Active Accounts resulting from any Flips (including Flips originating from Existing Portfolios), *** .

These charges are subject to adjustment as provided in Section 6.3. For purposes hereof, “Existing Portfolios” shall mean those individual aggregations of Designated Accounts on the First Data System, or otherwise receiving Services, as of the FAAR Effective Date with each Portfolio being distinguished by having a separate Sys/Prin/Agent structure. Subject to Section 12.8 (Benchmarking) of the Main Body of the Agreement, Section 6.2(g) and Articles 7A and 7B of this Schedule C, THE ACTIVE ACCOUNT RATES ARE FIRM AND FIXED THROUGHOUT THE TERM AND SHALL NOT BE SUBJECT TO ANY COLA OR OTHER INFLATION ADJUSTMENT.

(d) Prior to the FAAR Effective Date RCSI was charged based upon its usage of various separately priced elements of the Services that are now covered by the Active Account Rate. A list of such separately priced pricing elements (other than the Fencepost Elements provided for in Section 6.3) (the “Baselined Elements”) is attached as Exhibit C-13. During 2006, First Data shall measure and on a monthly basis report to RCSI on the actual usage of the Baselined Elements to determine the average usage of such elements (the “Baseline Usage”). If RCSI disputes First Data’s reporting or determination of the Baseline Usage, RCSI may escalate the issue to the Chief Information Officer of GECF-A (or his or her designee) and the Chairman of FDC (or his or her designee) for attempted resolution, failing which the dispute shall be subject to Section 20.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement.

(e) Between June 1st of each year (beginning 2006) and May 31st of each following year, First Data and RCSI shall commence in good faith one or more mutually agreed upon projects designed to achieve, and resourced by each party in a way reasonably expected to achieve, efficiencies in the manner in which RCSI uses First Data’s Services so as to reduce the cost to First Data of providing the Services to RCSI which are caused by unnecessary inefficiencies in RCSI’s utilization of the Services (regardless of whether such projects actually achieve such savings for First Data). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement, the provisions of Sections 6.2(f) and 6.2(g) shall not apply in 2007 and in any calendar year in which the Parties have commenced such projects by May 31st of the immediately preceding year and RCSI has continued to diligently pursue such projects. The CIO of RCSI and the President of First Data shall review the status and progress of all such projects at their quarterly review meetings. Before either Party declares that such projects are not being commenced or diligently pursued it shall bring such issue to the attention of the other Party through such meetings and allow such Party sufficient time and opportunity to cure. The Parties may mutually agree to terminate any such project.

(f) After 2006, First Data will track and report to RCSI on RCSI's actual usage of the Baseline Elements. If (i) at anytime after 2006 the condition provided in Section 6.2(e) is not satisfied, (ii) RCSI's actual usage of the Baseline Elements differs materially from the Baseline Usage, (iii) in the aggregate (i.e., considering both increases and decreases in the Baseline Elements and after taking into account and normalizing for increased or decreased volumes of Active Accounts and seasonal variations) as a result of RCSI's decision to change its usage (excluding increased usage resulting from changes to the First Data System or compliance requirements), and (iv) such utilization causes First Data to incur *** of providing Services which are disproportionately higher (or which provides First Data the opportunity to disproportionately reduce its *** of providing the Services) (in either case after taking into account, and normalizing for, increased or decreased volumes of Active Accounts and seasonal variations), then either Party may notify the other Party of its desire to exercise its rights under this Section; any such notice required to be given before June 30th of the year prior to the year in which the increase would take effect in accordance with Section 6.2(h). First Data shall provide RCSI with details regarding the impact on First Data and the amount First Data proposes to thereafter increase the charges hereunder to compensate First Data for such increased ***, or the amount First Data proposes to decrease the charges to ***

(g) If a Party has given a notice under Section 6.2(f) the Parties shall attempt in good faith to reach agreement over whether any increase or decrease proposed by First Data under Section 6.2(f) is appropriate and, if so, what amount of increase or decrease is justified. If the Parties do not agree within ninety (90) days of such notice, either Party may submit the matter to dispute resolution in accordance with Section 20.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement, which shall be binding on the Parties. As part of such dispute resolution procedure, each Party shall propose to the arbitrator the amount of the increase or decrease that is appropriate as ***for the portion of the Services at issue. The arbitrator shall be instructed that he or she may choose only the charges proposed by a Party that he or she determines is the closest to the appropriate (in light of the terms and conditions of the Agreement, including Section 6.2(f)) expenses incurred by First Data in connection with performing such Services. The mechanism provided in Section 6.2(f) may result in an increase, decrease, or no change at all in the Charges to RCSI under this Schedule C. Reductions in RCSI's charges under this Section 6.2(g) resulting from RCSI's reductions in the volume of usage of Baseline Elements of the Services by RCSI shall not count toward *** reductions.

(h) In order that RCSI may properly plan its budgeted expenditures (the process for each calendar year of which begins in June of the prior year), any adjustments to the Charges resulting from this clause shall be implemented on a prospective basis beginning on the January 1st following the month of June in which either Party notifies the other Party of its desire to invoke the foregoing, accompanied by its good faith estimate of the amount of the adjustment to the Charges. In such event the Parties shall in good faith attempt to agree on the actual amount of the adjustment by October of such year. Where there is an increase or decrease, in the first year of each such adjustment the adjustment shall be *** of the amount which would otherwise be necessary to reflect the increased or decreased utilization, following which it shall revert to *** of the amount.

(i) This Section 6.2 is subject to the provisions of Section 12.6(i) of the Main Body of the Agreement and Section 2.b of the Third Amendment (regarding WRAPS).

6.3 Credits/Charges for Variation from Fencepost Elements Baselines.

(a) During 2006, First Data shall measure and on a monthly basis report to RCSI on the actual usage of the (i) CIS Online Statements (IN7311), (ii) Falcon Strategy Only Processing (IN7968), and (iii) Interface Services Tape To Tape (IN7412) (such three elements, the “Fencepost Elements”) to determine the average usage of such Fencepost Elements (the “Fencepost Elements Baseline”). If RCSI disputes First Data’s reporting or determination of the Fencepost Elements Baseline, RCSI may escalate the issue to the Chief Information Officer of GECF-A (or his or her designee) and the Chairman of FDC (or his or her designee) for attempted resolution, failing which the dispute shall be subject to Section 20.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement.

(b) If for any month, RCSI’s actual usage of the Fencepost Elements are more than the applicable Fencepost Elements Baseline, RCSI shall pay First Data the amount set forth below for each item in excess of the baseline:

(i) CIS-Online Statements (IN7311) – RCSI’s usage of this element in excess of (the MAA multiplied by the Statement Baseline) multiplied by ***. The “Statement Baseline” means (1) beginning on the FAAR Effective Date, ***, and (2) following completion of the baseline process set forth in Section 6.3(a), the number determined for this element during such process.

(ii) Falcon Strategy Only Processing (IN7968) – RCSI’s usage of this element in excess of (the MAA multiplied by the FSOP Baseline) multiplied by ***. The “FSOP Baseline” means (1) beginning on the FAAR Effective Date, ***, and (2) following completion of the baseline process set forth in Section 6.3(a), the number determined for this element during such process.

(iii) Interface Services Tape to Tape (IN7412) – RCSI’s usage of this element in excess of (the MAA multiplied by the IST2T Baseline) multiplied by ***. The “IST2T Baseline” means (1) beginning on the FAAR Effective Date, ***, and (2) following completion of the baseline process set forth in Section 6.3(a), the number determined for this element during such process.

(c) If for any month, RCSI’s actual usage of the Fencepost Elements are less than the applicable Fencepost Elements Baseline, First Data shall credit RCSI for the amount set forth below for each item below the baseline:

(ii) Falcon Strategy Only Processing (IN7968) – RCSI’s usage of this element below (the MAA multiplied by the FSOP Baseline) multiplied by ***. If RCSI elects to use Falcon Fraud Detection System (IN7938) for Designated Accounts, there will be no charge for Falcon Strategy Only Processing (IN7968) for such Designated Accounts and the credit provided under the preceding sentence shall apply.

(iii) Interface Services Tape to Tape (IN7412) –RCSI’s usage of this element below (the MAA multiplied by the IST2T Baseline) multiplied by ***.

7B. VOLUME DISCOUNTS.

7B.1 Calculation of Volume Discounts

For each month beginning January 1, 2006, if the MAA is greater than *** First Data shall provide RCSI with a volume discount (the “Volume Discount”) equal to the sum of the following amounts:

(a) The sum of the charges for Ancillary Services and AD Services for the month multiplied by *** for each additional *** MAA over *** MAA.

(b) The sum of the charges for Services included in the Active Account Rate and Merchant Services for the month multiplied by *** for each additional *** MAA over *** MAA.

(c) The foregoing amounts shall be prorated as appropriate. By way of example, if in any month the MAA is *** the Volume Discount for Services included in the Active Account Rate and Merchant Services in such month shall be ***

(d) The monthly Volume Discount shall be credited on the invoice one (1) month in arrears.

(e) When a portfolio is converted during a month, the MAA for the month of conversion will be pro-rated for the number of days the converted accounts were actually on the FDR system during the month. This may be more or less than the MAA on the CD-121 report at month-end.

7B.2 Coordination With Other Provisions.

(a) The Volume Discount shall not be subject to any ***.

(b) The Volume Discount shall be calculated by reference to the amount of the Charges before application of the ***. By way of example, if the Charges before application of any adjustment from Sections 7A and 7B is ***, and the applicable *** are ***, any Volume Discount will be applied against ***, not against ***.

(c) The Volume Discount shall apply to all Charges described above in this Section 7.B.2, including such Charges that are determined based upon First Data's costs.

8. ANCILLARY SERVICE FEES.

8.1 Ancillary Services Defined.

For purposes of this Schedule C, all Services are "Ancillary Services" other than those described in Section 6.1, AD Services, Merchant Services and Services covered by Pass-Through Expenses under Exhibits C-3 and C-4. Ancillary Services are "Services" under the Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, Ancillary Services include New Services, Ancillary Services existing as of the FAAR Effective Date, and charges associated therewith, are identified in Exhibit C-2.

8.2 Charges for Ancillary Services.

(a) If RCSI requests an Ancillary Service that is not listed in Exhibit C-2, the Charges for such Ancillary Service shall be the Service Delivery Charges associated with such Ancillary Service.

(b) If RCSI requests an Ancillary Service that is listed in Exhibit C-2, the Charges for such Ancillary Services shall be the ***:

(i) the ***associated with such Ancillary service; and

(ii) the ***with such Ancillary Service ***.

(c) First Data will invoice RCSI for Ancillary Services in the month following the month in which such Ancillary Services are performed by First Data.

8.3 Service Delivery Charges. "Service Delivery Charges" means ***:

(a) the *** to RCSI, and to those RCSI Affiliates and third party entities identified by RCSI, the referenced Services, as determined pursuant to *** at the time of RCSI's request for the referenced Services; and

(b) the amount First Data *** after the FAAR Effective Date.

9. MERCHANT SERVICES

(a) Merchant Services utilized in the course of providing Services to RCSI's issuing business are included in the Active Account Rate. For the avoidance of doubt, the acquirer processing services being performed for the oil and gas portfolios are part of the Services provided to RCSI's issuing business and such services may be required for other industry portfolios in the future.

(b) If RCSI requests a Merchant Service that is listed in Exhibit C-6 (Merchant Services) other than Services provided by First Data to RCSI pursuant to Section 9(a), the charges for such Merchant Service shall be the charges associated with such Merchant Services in Exhibit C-6.

(c) First Data will invoice RCSI for Merchant Services provided by First Data to RCSI pursuant to Section 9(b) in the month following the month in which such Merchant Services are performed by First Data.

10. ASSOCIATION DUES, FEES, AND ASSESSMENTS.

RCSI shall be responsible and invoiced directly for Association dues, fees and assessments. In the event RCSI incurs a due, fee, or assessment due to an error or omission in the Services provided by First Data under this Agreement, First Data shall reimburse RCSI therefor.

11. FEES FOR DEVELOPMENT SERVICES.

11.1 Fees for Development Services

(a) Except as provided in Article 5, all AD Services performed by First Data shall be charged at the rates set forth in Section 11.3(c).

(b) RCSI shall not be charged for Development Hours otherwise identified as the responsibility of First Data under the Agreement.

11.2 Fees to be Charged on a Development Hours Basis.

All AD Services chargeable to RCSI under the Agreement will be charged on a Development Hours basis. A "Development Hour" means one sixty (60) minute period of AD Services performed by suitably qualified First Data Personnel which conforms to the following restrictions and requirements:

(a) Only hours properly incurred by First Data in the performance of project planning, high level design, detailed technical design, code development, data conversion, testing and acceptance and implementation activities as described in Section 15.2(b)(iv-xi) of Schedule A by the individuals who write/create deliverables and their immediate supervisors will qualify as Development Hours and shall be separately chargeable to RCSI.

(b) The following time incurred by First Data will not qualify as Development Hours and are Services which are not separately chargeable; time expended for:

(i) management, administration, training, vacation, sick leave, travel and the like;

(ii) activities performed by managers of managers;

(iii) any of the activities identified in Section 3.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement, including the development and implementation of the Platform Integration Plan or the Approved Platform Integration Plan (provided that the foregoing language shall not limit the repricing of Services in connection with Section 3.2 of the Main Body of the Agreement);

- (iv) any of the activities identified in Section 3.3 of the Main Body of the Agreement, including the development and implementation of the Future First Data System Architecture Plan;
  - (v) any of the activities identified in Article 7A, including the development and implementation of any *** referred to therein;
  - (vi) any of the activities associated with Conversion, including any of:
    - 1) the GECF-A Discovery,
    - 2) the Known Software Conversion Modifications,
    - 3) creation of the Resolution Agreements, and

  - (vii) First Data Initiated Enhancements or First Data Initiated New Services;
  - (viii) any modifications or enhancements performed or required to be performed by First Data to comply with the Agreement, including Article 8 of the Main Body of the Agreement and Section 15.7 of the Main Body of the Agreement, but excluding RCSI-Initiated development projects under Sections 8 or 15 of Schedule A;
  - (ix) activities associated with the standard First Data testing environments other than testing of deliverables resulting from RCSI-Initiated development projects under Sections 8 or 15 of Schedule A; withheld. First Data shall make *** Development Hours available to RCSI per month for each member of the team of First Data Personnel *** to performing Development Services in connection with the First Data RCSI account and the Services according to the functional and skill level set forth in Exhibit C-5. Work performed on KSCMs by the *** shall not be counted against the number of available hours provided to RCSI on a monthly basis.

(c) AD Services for which RCSI may be charged under the Agreement at the following rates:

(i) AD Services performed at any time on or after the FAAR Effective Date but before January 1, 2004 shall be charged at the rate of *** per Development Hour; and

(ii) AD Services performed at any time on or after January 1, 2004 shall be charged at the rate of *** per Development Hour.

These charges shall apply to all AD Services regardless of whether the Services are performed by a member of the *** or other First Data Personnel and regardless of the level of skill of the individual performing the AD Services. These charges shall not relieve First Data of its responsibility under the Agreement to use, at all times, adequate numbers of qualified individuals with suitable training, education, experience, and skill to perform the AD Services. THESE CHARGES ARE NOT SUBJECT TO COLA OR ANY OTHER INFLATIONARY ADJUSTMENT.

(d) The foregoing notwithstanding, and subject to any other agreement of the Parties concerning the pricing of a particular AD Services project, RCSI will not be required to pay more for any AD Services project than ***:

(i) the Development Hours estimated by First Data for performance of the AD Services project as agreed by RCSI (subject to adjustment for any changes to scope agreed by the Parties); and

(ii) the aggregate Development Hours actually incurred in performing such AD Services project.

(e) Activities associated with re-runs and recoveries shall be performed by First Data at no cost to RCSI. In those cases where the need for re-runs and/or recoveries is due solely to RCSI's failure to perform and the level of resources required would deplete First Data's ability to maintain the agreed upon Service Levels then First Data shall submit to RCSI a written request to approve the performance of necessary AD Services to be charged to RCSI.

(f) AD Services for which RCSI may be charged under the Agreement shall be invoiced to RCSI in the month following the month in which such AD Services are satisfactorily performed by First Data Personnel.

11.4 Development Hours Credit.

As of the FAAR Effective Date, First Data shall provide RCSI *** Development Hours at no cost to RCSI. Beginning January 1, 2004, First Data shall provide RCSI an additional ***

Development Hours at no cost to RCSI. The Development Hours provided under this Section 11.4 must be used by RCSI prior to December 31, 2009. Until all Development Hours under this Section 11.4 are exhausted (or expire), credits for the Development Hours (based on actual spend) under this Section 11.4 will be shown on First Data's monthly invoice, following the total invoice amount, as a line-item entitled "TSA Service Credit".

12. COLA

THE ONLY PORTION OF THE CHARGES THAT ARE SUBJECT TO COLA ADJUSTMENTS ARE THOSE SPECIFICALLY DESCRIBED AS SUCH HEREIN. ALL OTHER CHARGES ARE NOT SUBJECT TO ADJUSTMENT FOR COLA OR OTHER INFLATIONARY FACTORS.

12.1 Price Increases Associated with CPI Increases.

First Data may increase the charges listed in Exhibit C-2 for the Ancillary Services there listed (the "Ancillary Services Fees") as follows:

(a) With respect to the line items designated with an asterisk (*), for each Processing Year after Processing Year 1, First Data may increase the related Ancillary Services Fees which were in effect for the immediately preceding Processing Year after reduction for the *** by an amount not to exceed the CPI Change Percentage. The "CPI Change Percentage" for purposes of this Section 12.1(a) shall be equal to fifty percent (50%) of the amount, if any, by which the consumer price index ("CPI") has increased by more than ***. The CPI shall be measured as provided in Section 12.1(c). For example: if at the conclusion of Processing Year 1, it is determined (by applying the formula stated above) the CPI Change Percentage equals four percent (4%), First Data may increase the applicable Ancillary Services Fees for Processing Year 2 by *** (4% minus *** x 50% = ***).

(b) With respect to the line items designated with two asterisks (**), for each Processing Year after Processing Year 1, First Data may increase the related Ancillary Services Fees which were in effect for the immediately preceding Processing Year after reduction for the *** by an amount not to exceed the CPI Change Percentage. The "CPI Change Percentage" for purposes of this Section 12.1(b) shall be the amount, if any, by which the CPI has increased more than ***. First Data shall not be allowed to increase any of the designated Ancillary Services Fees for any Processing Year in which the percentage change in the CPI during the applicable period is equal to or less than *** and such increase to be paid by RCSI will be one hundred percent (100%) of the CPI increase above ***.

CPI-U, but will convert the Base Year Index to the new base period by using an appropriate conversion formula. The CPI Change Percentage shall be calculated, and notification of the amount of any applicable increase in the Ancillary Services Fees to take effect on the first day of the immediately following Processing Year shall be given to RCSI, at least ninety (90) days in advance of the end date of the then current Processing Year, by comparing the CPI using a twelve (12) month period ending ninety (90) days prior to end of the applicable Processing Year and expressing the increase in said CPI through the twelve (12) month period as a percentage.

12.2 Price Decreases Associated with CPI Decreases. First Data shall decrease Ancillary Services Fees as follows:

(a) With respect to the line items designated with an asterisk (*), for each Processing Year after Processing Year 1, First Data shall decrease the related Ancillary Services Fees which were in effect for the immediately preceding Processing Year after reduction for the *** by an amount not to exceed the CPI Change Percentage. The “CPI Change Percentage” for purposes of this Section 12.2(a) shall be equal to fifty percent (50%) of the amount, if any, by which the CPI has decreased by more than ***. The CPI shall be measured as provided in Section 12.1(c). For example: if at the conclusion of Processing Year 1, it is determined (by applying the formula stated above) the CPI Change Percentage equals negative four percent (-4%), First Data may decrease the applicable Ancillary Services Fees for Processing Year 2 by *** (-4% plus *** x 50% = ***).

(b) With respect to the line items designated with two asterisks (**), for each Processing Year after Processing Year 1, First Data shall decrease the related Ancillary Services Fees which were in effect for the immediately preceding Processing Year after reduction for the *** by an amount not to exceed the CPI Change Percentage. The “CPI Change Percentage” for purposes of this Section 12.2(b) shall be the amount, if any, by which the CPI has decreased more than ***. In no event shall First Data be obligated to decrease any of the designated Ancillary Services Fees for any Processing Year in which the percentage decrease in the CPI during the applicable period is between zero (0) and *** and such decrease to be provided by First Data will be 100% of the CPI decrease above ***.

13. SEPARATE CYCLES FEES.

13.1 Cycle Maintenance Fees.

(a) If RCSI requests a RCSI Cycle, First Data will invoice RCSI at an amount equal to *** per month beginning in the month following the Conversion of RCSI Active Accounts into such RCSI Cycle: provided that if a RCSI Cycle is required due to First Data System constraints, there will be no additional charge for such RCSI Cycle.

If (i) First Data proposes to include an acquired portfolio in an existing RCSI cycle, (ii) such inclusion would be reasonable in the First Data System, and (iii) RCSI requests to have the acquired portfolio put on a different and additional cycle, the additional cycle charges under this Section 13.1 will apply to such additional cycle.

(c) The RCSI Cycle maintenance fees will support RCSI at no additional charge.

13.2 Cycle Build Fees

RCSI may enroll its Super Users in such sessions at the times of its choice and First Data shall provide such training at such times.

15. PASS-THROUGH EXPENSES.

RCSI shall reimburse First Data on a Pass-Through Expense basis for those expenses set forth in Exhibits C-3 and C-4, crediting RCSI for any applicable rebates, refunds, and discounts. The charges incurred by the use of these services will be invoiced the month following receipt of the service to RCSI. Exhibits C-3 and C-4 set forth the exclusive list of all Pass-Through Expenses and no new Pass-Through Expenses may be added without RCSI's written approval; provided that if a New Service is requested by RCSI, then First Data may propose new Pass-Through Expenses related to such New Service. Such charges shall be invoiced within sixty (60) days after the end of the relevant MPF Year. RCSI shall pay such invoice in accordance with the provisions of Article 13 of the Main Body of the Agreement. The term "Processing Fees" shall mean, for a given time period, the Monthly Active Account Services Fees. The Term "Comparison Processing Fees" shall mean, for a given time period, the sum of the Processing Fees and the Divested Account Fees determined pursuant to Section 17.1(b) for that period.

(b) For any portfolio of RCSI Accounts that during the Term are sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred to a third party and that ***, the Comparison Processing Fees shall include, the lower of (i) all charges, fees and expenses received by First Data and First Data Affiliates with respect thereto, or (ii) the charges, fees and expenses that would otherwise have been payable by RCSI in respect of such Accounts under this Agreement if the Accounts had not been sold, assigned or otherwise transferred (collectively, the "Divested Account Fees"). The foregoing credit shall apply for a portfolio during the period beginning on the date of transfer of the portfolio and continuing until the earlier of (i) the third anniversary of the date of transfer of the portfolio from RCSI, and (ii) the date when such portfolio ceased to receive Services on the First Data System or ceased to be otherwise processed by First Data or a First Data Affiliate.

(iii) Over $3,000,000 Telecom Pass-Through Expenses in that Processing Year: the Parties will mutually agree on an appropriate administrative fee (but not to exceed ***).

First Data shall charge RCSI the appropriate administrative fee on a monthly basis; provided that First Data shall calculate RCSI's cumulative monthly Telecom Pass-Through Expenses over a twelve (12) month period in order to determine the appropriate incremental administrative fee as set forth above, beginning with the first full twelve months after the Effective Date and each subsequent twelve (12) month period thereafter.

(b) Statement stock, envelopes, card carriers and special requests such as marketing materials and advertisements. For billing purposes, statement stock, envelopes and inserts will be invoiced as IN4301 and IN4423, and plastic forms purchased through First Data, including card carriers, will be invoiced as IN7627 or IN7602. The Parties will adjust the Base Zip Sort Discount annually. Within ten (10) days after the end of the month, First Data shall (a) calculate the Actual Zip Sort Discount times the number of first class mailings mailed by First Data for RCSI during such month and (b) include a credit or debit on RCSI's monthly invoice for the amount RCSI or First Data is entitled to receive under this Section C-4(b). Exhibit C - 9 Capitalization Rules

	Policy Number: 011 Effective Date: 07/01/95 Policy Owner: Corporate Controller

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure proper and consistent accounting treatment by FDC and all affiliated Business Units for costs incurred related to a new client, contract, contract extension or conversion to an existing FDC system or service.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Senior Financial Individual within each FDC Business Unit (typically the Segment CFO, or his/her designee) is responsible for implementing this policy. This policy is intended to help ensure consistency across all FDC Business Units as to the nature of contract costs and the circumstances under which such costs may be capitalized. As with any policy, not all possible circumstances or situations can be addressed; thus, Business Unit financial and accounting management is responsible for exercising its professional judgment in the application of this policy. The FDC Policies and Standards Group is responsible for policy interpretation.

3. GENERAL POLICY

Costs incurred due to signing a customer contract (new or renewal) and the resulting conversion, if any, to an existing FDC system that meet the specific requirements, as outlined in this policy, qualify for capitalization. In all other circumstances related costs, including costs incurred prior to the signing of a customer contract, must be expensed as incurred.

4. DEFINITIONS

4.1 Sign-up bonuses

Any consideration given to a customer in exchange for signing a contract. Such consideration can include, but is not limited to, cash, equity, and future service credits. Payments that relate to prior services rendered or outstanding disputes do not qualify as sign-up bonuses and should be expensed as incurred.

4.2 Conversion costs

Conversion costs can arise through the direct acquisition of a new multi-year customer contract. Conversion costs are defined as the direct expenses associated with converting a new customer base to an existing FDC system. Conversion costs may include certain development expenses associated with adding new features to an existing FDC system if the features are required by the contract.

5. CAPITALIZATION CRITERIA

5.1 Sign-up bonuses and conversion costs must meet all of the following criteria in order to qualify for capitalization.

(a) The bonus or conversion amount is at least $100,000.

(b) This threshold is based on individual contracts. Any grouping of contracts to achieve the threshold (for common ownership, etc.) must be approved by the FDC Policies and Standards Group, on a case-by-case basis.

(c) Phased client conversions are considered one conversion for applying the dollar threshold.

(d) The contract term is fixed and exceeds one (1) year.

(e) The proposed contract is approved in accordance with FDC Policy No. 021, Global Expenditure Approval Capital and Other Financial Commitment Appropriations Request Guidelines ("CAR")

(f) The contract is projected to be sufficiently profitable such that the capitalized amounts (including sign-up bonuses, conversion costs, and any other costs capitalized in conjunction with the contract) are fully recoverable.

(g) In testing the net realizable value (“NRV”) of the capitalized amounts, contract provisions such as guaranteed minimum revenues, exclusivity provisions, pro-rata refunds of sign-up bonuses, etc., should be considered. Reasonable assumptions concerning growth in contract revenues should be included in the NRV test. However, only revenues related to the existing contract should be considered in the projections (i.e., it is inappropriate to consider future revenues from additional services or cross-selling of products) over the contract term (i.e., do not assume any contract renewals).

(h) The contract provisions (i.e. liquidated damages or a combination of items considered in item D. above) are such that there is no balance sheet exposure if the contract is terminated under the provisions of the contract.

(i) The costs are additional, identifiable and direct. Certain indirect costs may be included as contract costs if they are additional and identifiable with one or more conversions and can be allocated to a given contract conversion using a systematic and rational methodology. Local management is responsible for maintaining documentation that such indirect costs are clearly related to conversion activities.

5.2 Any exceptions to these criteria require approval by the FDC Policies and Standards Group.

6. CONVERSION COSTS TO CAPITALIZE

6.1 Conversion costs should be recorded as incurred during the conversion period. Upon completion of the conversion, all costs should be fully accrued and capitalization should cease. Some examples of costs that may be capitalized if they meet the criteria in section 5. above are:

(a) S & P Programmers: Wages, fringe benefits, bonus, travel and entertainment, supplies, postage and other direct costs of programmers for time spent planning and implementing the conversion and training the client on the system - a standard rate for programming may be developed based on an average cost. Costs included in the systems and programming hourly rate computation (in addition to the costs as discussed above) are:

- (i) Facilities allocation and direct rent and utilities
- (ii) Telecommunications
- (iii) Depreciation
- (iv) Contract programming
- (v) Repairs and maintenance

Table of Contents

The hourly rate should not include costs for administrative personnel, recruiting, relocation, finance, human resources, or any other costs related to corporate administrative support and functions.

The systems and programming hourly rate should be reviewed annually; however, if any assumptions change between such reviews, the rate should be modified if there is a material impact to the current rate in use. Retroactive adjustments affecting quarters prior to the quarter in which the new rate is adopted are not permitted.

(b) Employees: 100% of wages and fringe benefits of employees (other than S&P Programmers) that spend more than 75% of their time over a 3 month period on the conversion. The 75% time requirement may be met if one person is dedicated to several small conversions for at least a 3-month period. If the Business Unit has the ability to track employee time (other than S&P Programmers), it may be appropriate to capitalize the time of an employee that spends less than 3 months on the conversion. However, the Business Unit must obtain approval from the FDC Policies and Standards Group prior to the capitalization of any such costs.

(c) Outside Consultants: Fees and out of pocket expenses for consultants hired to assist with the conversion.

(d) System Costs: System costs incurred converting the new customer base, including test periods, before going “live” with the conversion, including system usage charges and DASD storage. (A standard rate may be developed based on an average cost.)

(e) Travel and Entertainment: Travel and entertainment of all employees, regardless of level, related to the conversion process.

(f) Time and materials for initial training of the client/merchant may be capitalized, but only if the employees performing the training are subject to the same time tracking and accounting system as other employees involved in the conversion process.

6.2 The following costs may not be included in the total capitalized conversion costs.

(a) General and administrative costs (except for the hourly rate for S86P that may include certain cost allocations). The intent of this criteria is to prevent capitalization of recurring internal overhead costs, even if such costs represent departments or functions which are temporarily involved directly in a conversion activity. Such costs would include senior management (defined as Vice President or above), corporate, or administrative salaries, costs to relocate existing FDC employees for conversion purposes.

(b) Selling or marketing costs.

(c) Costs that relate to feasibility studies, consulting services or legal fees incurred to evaluate the transaction.

(d) Interest (intercompany or otherwise).

RESTATED TECHNOLOGY SOURCING AGREEMENT

This Amendment (this "Amendment") to the First Amended and Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement dated as of December 10, 1998 (first amended and restated as of April 1, 2003), as amended (the "Service Agreement") is made and entered into this 24th day of August, 2007 by and between Retailer Credit Services, Inc., a Utah corporation with aces at 4246 South Riverboat Road, Salt Lake City, Utah 84123 ("RCSI") and First Data Resources, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with offices at 6855 Pacific Street, Omaha, Nebraska 68106 ("First Data"). For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the parties, RCSI and First Data agree as follows;

Recitals

RCSI and First Data previously entered into (a) an Amendment dated December 3, 2003 to the Service Agreement (the "Amendment of December 3, 2003") and (b) an Amendment dated May 18, 2005 to the Service Agreement (the "Amendment of May 18, 2005") and collectively with the Amendment of December 3, 2003, the "Previous 2Way-Connect Amendments") wherein the parties agreed upon certain terms for the provision by First Data of 2Way-Connect Services Collections Application to RCSI.

The parties now desire to set forth the terms for the provision by First Data of certain 2Way-Connect Services which are in addition to those set forth in the Previous 2Way-Connect Amendments, as follows:

1. Effective Date. The terms of this Amendment are effective as of April 1, 2007.

IN	Item	Per Item Charge
		The above pricing grid is a monthly volume-sensitive pricing grid, and not a tiered pricing grid. By way of example, if, for a month, the total volume of FDVS Platform Minutes Generated by RCSI is equal to 1,000,000, then the 2Way-Connect Services — Per Minute Fees payable by RCSI for the month shall be $ (1,000,000 \times )$ and not $ + (432,000 \times ) + (520,001 \times ***)$ .

The pricing above is for Zone 1 (within North America)

3. Descriptions. The following descriptions are hereby added to Exhibit “C-8” of the Service Agreement (the Item Number Descriptions):

IN	Service/item	Description
3343	2Way-Connect Services — Set-Up Fee (All Applications Using the FDVS Platform)	The charge per 2Way-Connect application (such as, but not limited to, the Fraud Application, the Collections Application or the Marketing Application, each being an “ Application ”) utilized by RCSI and serviced from the FDVS Platform. AMENDMENT NUMBER SIX, effective as of January 1, 2007 (the "Amendment Six Effective Date") to First Amended And Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into by and between RETAILER CREDIT SERVICES, INC. ("RCSI"), a Utah corporation with offices at 4246 South Riverboat Road, Salt Lake City, Utah 84123, and FIRST DATA RESOURCES, LLC ("First Data"), a Delaware corporation with offices at 6855 Pacific Street, Omaha, Nebraska 68106.

The Parties agree to amend the Agreement by revising Section 3.2(d) in its entirety, changing the designation of Section 3.2(e) to be Section 3.20), revising the newly designated Section 3.2(j), and inserting new Sections 3.2(e), (1), (g), (h), and (i), all to read as follows:

“(d) Global Application Development Projects.

*** RCSI may not propose as a Global AD Project a project that has passed the requirements stage before July 1, 2006 and is actually implemented by June 30, 2008.

(e) Process with respect to Global Application Development Projects.

(i) Any Global AD Project proposed by RCSI or its Affiliates pursuant to Section 3.2(d) for development for either the First Data System or the PaySys Software will be reviewed by the Parties to determine if

(b) the proposed functionality does not already exist in either the First Data System or the PaySys Software and is not in the process of being developed by First Data or its Affiliates for either the First Data System or the PaySys Software (For the avoidance of doubt, "in the process of being developed" means that there is funding for the proposed functionality and there is a target completion date for the development of such functionality within eighteen (18) months of the date that such functionality was proposed); and

(c) the proposed functionality relates to credit card functionality and/or revolving credit accounts.

If a proposed Global AD Project satisfies the requirements of each of (a) through (c) above the Parties will prepare requirements documents (including next level of technical detail and sizing of the required work effort) as they would for other projects of similar development scope. Upon completion of such requirements documents the Parties will reconfirm that the proposed Global AD Project satisfies the requirements of each of (a) through (c) above, at which point it shall be an approved Global AD Project.

(ii) If there is a dispute about whether a proposed Global AD Project satisfies the requirements of Section 3.2(e)(i) or RCSI disputes a rejection, either Party may escalate the issue through the bi-weekly executive meeting between the Parties and then through dispute resolution under Section 3.2(j).

Before *** First Data shall inform RCSI that in First Data’s opinion such cost will be greater than *** of the cost which is estimated to be *** in developing the Global AD Project functionality itself ***, provide RCSI the relevant cost estimate, and First Data shall obtain RCSI’s approval prior to implementing. If RCSI withholds its approval or fails to develop the required functionality itself First Data shall be excused from the obligation to develop the Global AD Project ***, in which case RCSI shall promptly notify First Data.

(g) Intellectual Property Rights.

In the event of such cancellation, First Data shall: (1) return any Confidential Information delivered by RCSI or its Affiliates as part of such Global AD Project, (ii) destroy all work product in progress from such Global AD Project, and (iii) not utilize any such Confidential Information for development material derived therefrom) for any other development project (provided that First Data shall not be restricted (other than with regard to RCSI's and its Affiliates' patent rights) with regard to the unaided mental impressions retained by the First Data employees who worked on the canceled project).

FIRST AMENDED AND RESTATED
TECHNOLOGY SOURCING AGREEMENT

AMENDMENT NUMBER EIGHT (this "Amendment"), made on April 19, 2010 and effective as of April 19, 2010 (the "Amendment Eight Effective Date"), by and between RETAILER CREDIT SERVICES, INC. ("RCSI") and FIRST DATA RESOURCES, LLC ("First Data").

PRELIMINARY STATEMENTS

A. RCSI (then known as Montgomery Ward Credit Corporation) and First Data (through its predecessor First Data Resources Inc.) entered into a Technology Sourcing Agreement (the "TSA"), dated December 10, 1998.

B. As of April 1, 2003, the Parties amended and restated the TSA in a First Amended and Restated Technology Sourcing Agreement (the "FAAR TSA").

C. Since April 1, 2003, the Parties have entered into various amendments to the FAAR TSA.

D. The Parties wish to further amend the FAAR TSA in order to set forth the terms pursuant to which First Data will provide and RCSI will receive and pay for certain electronic funds settlement and payment processing services solely in connection with the private label card programs of RCSI's client, *** ("****") for *** branded cards.

E. Capitalized terms used without definition in this Amendment have the meanings assigned to them in the FAAR TSA.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Services

(a) Pursuant to an agreement (the "**** ECA Agreement") between First Data's Affiliate, TeleCheck Services, Inc. ("TeleCheck") and RCSI's client, *** ("****"), TeleCheck currently performs certain TeleCheck Electronic Check Acceptance® Services (the "ECA® Services") for *** (including *** locations). The ECA® Services include (among other services) check authorization, processing and electronic funds transfer settlement services using the ACH Network.

(b) Also pursuant to the *** ECA Agreement, TeleCheck has additionally agreed to perform processing and electronic funds settlement services for *** specifically with regard to any paper checks written by RCSI's *** retail credit card account cardholders at *** locations which are used as payment toward the *** retail credit card account balances of such cardholders (hereinafter referred to as the "RCSI*** Account Check Payments").

(c) First Data will provide ACH Network settlement funding for ECA Transactions approved for settlement by TeleCheck that are generated in connection with the RCSI*** Account Check

Payments. The Parties agree that such funding will be made to *** on behalf of RCSI. Provided that settlement instructions are received by First Data from *** by 11:00 p.m. Central Time on any day, settlement typically occurs within two (2) Banking Days following receipt of the instructions. RCSI will look solely to *** for obtaining the funds settled to *** from the ECA Transactions.

(d) First Data or TeleCheck, as applicable, will perform for RCSI the following services (the “TeleCheck Record Matching Services”) in connection with the processing of the RCSI*** Account Check Payments:

- (i) First Data will identify and store identified authorizations from the CD-031 daily authorizations log during batch cycle. These transactions will be stored in a revolving file for 120 days for matching purposes; then archived for an additional 280 days until automatically deleted;
- (ii) TeleCheck will provide a daily CSV funding report typically by 9:00 am Central Time with RCSI*** Account Check Payments and Returns processed during the applicable batch cycle [definitive time requirements to be included in service level agreement discussed below]. TeleCheck does not store the 16 digit credit account number. TeleCheck will also provide a daily summary email typically by 9:30 am Central Time of the count and amount of Returns from the CSV funding report that TeleCheck is debiting RCSI’s account (definitive time requirements to be included in service level agreement discussed below);
- (iii) First Data will attempt to match transactions from the TeleCheck file to the authorizations stored at First Data. Transactions will be matched on a unique trace ID generated by TeleCheck that is received in the authorization process;
- (iv) First Data will generate a daily report showing (A) check payment and Return transactions that matched and (B) check payment and Return transactions that did not match (agreed time requirements to be included in service level agreement discussed below); and
- (v) First Data will generate a daily file to be sent to RCSI with matching and non-matching Returns (agreed time requirements to be included in service level agreement discussed below). RCSI will submit adjustments for the transactions based on this file.

First Data and RCSI agree to review and develop, through the process established in the TSA and in a reasonable period not to exceed the time frames outlined in Schedule B to the TSA, applicable service level agreements in support of the services to be provided by First Data under this Amendment.

(e) All obligations of First Data under this Amendment will be performed either by First Data or by TeleCheck on First Data’s behalf.

(f) With respect to the RCSI*** Account Check Payments, RCSI will have the following responsibilities:

(i) RCSI will be responsible for payment to First Data (who will receive such payments on behalf of TeleCheck) of the service fees associated with any approved ECA Transactions at the per approved ECA Transaction rates set forth in Paragraph 2 of this Amendment, which fees would otherwise be payable by *** to TeleCheck in connection with the ECA® Services provided by TeleCheck to *** under the *** ECA Agreement. Such fees will be invoiced to RCSI by First Data and paid by RCSI to First Data in accordance with the terms of Article 13 of the FAAR TSA.

(ii) RCSI will be fully responsible and liable to First Data for all Returns and First Data is authorized to initiate EFT debits to RCSI's Account for the Returns. RCSI agrees to maintain at all times sufficient funds in the RCSI Account to satisfy payment for the Returns. The EFT debit will occur each Banking Day and include Returns which were successfully processed by TeleCheck on or before the previous Banking Day.

(iii) Payments processed by First Data will be reflected on funding files made available to RCSI by First Data. RCSI agrees to notify First Data promptly of any discrepancy between RCSI's records and the information provided by First Data in such files, or of any funding failures or errors by TeleCheck to ***. If RCSI fails to notify First Data within 60 days from the date of the applicable ECA Transaction of any such discrepancy, funding failure or errors, RCSI will be precluded from asserting any losses, claims or liabilities against First Data that arise from such discrepancies, funding failures or errors. For avoidance of doubt, the parties acknowledge that the purpose of this (f)(iii) is solely for RCSI to reconcile amounts funded hereunder with the funding information provided by TeleCheck, and is not intended to cover consumer disputes that are not included in discrepancies or errors of funding to be reconciled hereunder.

(iv) RCSI and First Data each agree to comply with and be bound by all NACHA Rules that are applicable to its respective use or provision of the services set forth in this Amendment.

If First Data is notified or otherwise becomes aware that RCSI SMS Content or the End User Content violates the requirements of this Subsection (c), First Data shall immediately notify RCSI of such notification or awareness, and First Data may (but shall not be required to) investigate the allegation and determine whether to remove or to request that RCSI remove any offending RCSI SMS Content or End User Content from the SMS Messaging Services. In the event that advance notice to RCSI of such request for removal is reasonably practical, and if RCSI refuses such request, First Data may (but shall not be required to), upon written notice to RCSI, block the offending RCSI SMS Content or End User Content and/or either suspend or terminate the SMS Messaging Services. First Data shall not be liable for any damages incurred by RCSI because of any such removal, suspension or termination.

(C) One or more of the Network Operators or other service provider upon which the provision of the SMS Messaging Services hereunder is dependent suspends its provision of those services to First Data; provided, that First Data will use commercially reasonable efforts to secure comparable services from an alternative Network Operator or other service provider (at similar terms to those existing at the time of such suspension) in order to allow First Data to continue to provide RCSI with the SMS Messaging Services.

(v) First Data shall have the right to terminate the SMS Messaging Services upon ninety (90) days written notice (or such shorter period as may be imposed on First Data by a Governmental Body or service provider) in the event that any of the following makes the provision of the SMS Messaging Services illegal, contrary to a law, regulation, or the Mobile Marketing Association Code of Conduct, or prohibitively difficult or expensive for First Data: (1) any modification to the existing Network Operator contracts of First Data or First Data's provider of the SMS Messaging Services or to the Mobile Marketing Association Code of Conduct, or (2) any Change in Law. However, nothing shall prohibit First Data from suspending the SMS Messaging Services pursuant to the terms set forth in Subsection (c)(iv) above.

(vi) RCSI shall have the right to terminate the SMS Messaging Services for its convenience at any time upon written notice to First Data.

(vii) First Data shall have the right to unilaterally amend or modify any service description or pricing terms set forth in the FAAR TSA related to the SMS Messaging Services that are in whole or in part due to a Change in Law or other Change which is material in nature and impacts First Data's ability to provide the SMS Messaging Services as previously agreed, and such Change shall be deemed to bind RCSI; provided, that (1) First Data provides written or e-mail notification of any such Change to RCSI at least thirty (30) days prior to it taking effect and (2) RCSI shall have the right to terminate its use of the SMS Messaging Services in the event of a Change provided that notice of such termination is provided to First Data no later than thirty (30) days from the date of First Data's notice of the Change to RCSI.

(viii) RCSI understands and agrees that SMS messages and content shall be transmitted over various third party networks and systems (including but not limited to those of First Data's third party SMS message aggregator and the Network Operators). ### II. Cardholder Enrollment

First Data will provide a hosted enrollment site for Cardholder “self” enrollment which contains a set of default pages (welcome, registration, contact us, terms and conditions, help, etc.) that will display RCSI’s designated brand. The following enrollment site customization is available as part of First Data’s core offering:

  - Contact Us: RCSI to provide URL for contact information (phone, email, etc.)
  - Terms and Conditions: RCSI to provide URL for terms of service

Further, RCSI, at its option, can enable “Auto Enrollment” for Cardholder registration during the checkout process at participating Merchants. This function can be enabled at BIN or sub-BIN (card range) level. As part of First Data’s core offering, RCSI can select from either of two default auto enrollment configurations and can enable their selection for a designated set of BIN(s) or card range(s). Enabling auto enrollment will be done once per month per schedule. RCSI may activate or deactivate auto enrollment up to 3 times as part of First Data’s core service.

Under both “self” enrollment and “auto” enrollment RCSI can optionally collect an email address from the Cardholder. This address is available to RCSI for follow-up Cardholder communication via service’s reporting capability.

III. Cardholder Authentication

Core service supports password-based authentication on Visa and MasterCard transactions at participating Merchants. The service will interface with Merchant to communicate the appropriate authentication results. RCSI is able to configure Cardholder password policies (e.g. length, alpha / numeric content, etc.) as well as decision to lock or not lock a Cardholder on failed authentication. The service provides for password-reset mechanism at time of purchase, and also sends a copy of the authentication record to Visa Authentication History Server. Other methods of Cardholder authentication are available for an additional fee, including EMV chip card support.

Thereafter, this Adaptive Control Addendum shall automatically renew for four (4) successive terms of one (1) year each unless and until either party (considering First Data and FICO as one party) shall give the other party sixty (60) days advance written notice of termination at the conclusion of the then-current term. Notwithstanding anything in this Adaptive Control Addendum to the contrary, this Adaptive Control Addendum shall terminate immediately upon the expiration or termination of either (a) the Agreement or (b) First Data/FICO Agreement.

5.2 Use of Scorecards after Termination. In the event that either FICO or First Data seeks to terminate the First Data/FICO Agreement, the terminating party shall notify GE Capital in writing at the same time notification is sent to the non-terminating party. In the event of the expiration or termination of the First Data/FICO Agreement (which results in the termination of this Adaptive Control Addendum), FICO agrees to permit First Data and GE Capital to use Scorecards created by FICO in one of the following ways:

(a) First Data and GE Capital may, at their option, contract with FICO for the development of replacement Pooled Scorecards upon the most favorable rates and terms then being offered by FICO to users of similar Pooled Scorecards; provided, however, that FICO is then offering a similar product and that there are not data, software or hardware barriers which would prohibit the offering of such product. FICO shall allow First Data and GE Capital to continue using the Pooled Scorecards they were using prior to the termination of this Adaptive Control Addendum, free of charge, until such time as the replacement Pooled Scorecards are delivered, installed, and available for use on the Accounts. First Data and GE Capital shall be precluded from using such Pooled Scorecards on other than Accounts owned or controlled by GE Capital.

(b) First Data and GE Capital may, at their option, elect to continue to use, through the expiration date of the Agreement or for a period of one year from the termination of this Adaptive Control Addendum, whichever is longer, the same Scorecards that First Data and GE Capital were using on the Accounts prior to the termination of this Adaptive Control Addendum.

(c) With respect to the Pooled Scorecards to be furnished by FICO pursuant to Section 5.2(a), FICO agrees to support, maintain, warrant, and service such Pooled Scorecards in a manner and under such terms as are no less favorable than those then being offered by FICO to prospective customers of similar products. With respect to the Scorecards used pursuant to Section 5.2(c), FICO shall not be responsible for rendering any further services under this Adaptive Control Addendum and FICO makes no warranties, express or implied, as to the effectiveness or legal compliance of such Scorecards for any period after the termination of this Adaptive Control Addendum. The obligations of FICO and First Data set forth in this Section 5.2 herein shall survive termination or expiration of this Adaptive Control Addendum.

SECTION 6. FEES.

6.1 Fees for Services. The fees for the Accounts processed by the Product software during the term of this Adaptive Control Addendum shall be as set forth in the Schedule 1 attached hereto, and shall be paid to First Data in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Agreement.

6.2 Price Adjustments due to CPI.

a. For each year during the initial term or any renewal term after the first year of this Adaptive Control Addendum, and in the event that CPI, as defined herein, is positive First Data may increase the fees set forth in Schedule 1 of this Adaptive Control Addendum which were in effect for the immediately preceding year (the "Old Year") by an amount not to exceed the CPI Change Percentage. The "CPI Change Percentage" shall be equal to the difference, if positive, between the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index ("CPI") during a period described below and ***. In no event shall First Data be allowed to increase any of the fees for any year in which the percentage change in the CPI during the applicable period is equal to or less than *** and such increase to be paid by GE Capital will only be *** of the CPI increase above ***. For purposes of this section, the CPI shall be the Consumer Price Index as finally published in the Summary Data from the Consumer Price Index News Release compiled by the United States Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics, Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U) having a base of 100 in 1982-84. In the event that the Bureau of Labor Statistics stops publishing the CPI-U or substantially changes its content and format, the Parties hereto will substitute another comparable index published at least annually by a mutually agreeable source. If the Bureau of Labor Statistics merely redefines the base period for the CPI-U from 1982-84 to another period, the Parties will continue to use the CPI-U, but will convert the Base Year Index to the new base period by using an appropriate conversion formula. The CPI Change Percentage shall be calculated, and notification of the amount of any applicable increase in the fees to take effect on the first day of the immediately following year shall be given to GE Capital, at least ninety (90) days in advance of the end date of the current year, by comparing the CPI using a twelve (12) month period ending three (3) months prior to notification to GE Capital and expressing the increase in said CPI through the twelve (12) month period as a percentage.

b. For each year during the initial term or any renewal term after the first year of this Adaptive Control Addendum, and in the event that CPI, as defined herein, is negative First Data shall decrease the fees set forth in Schedule 1 of this Adaptive Control Addendum which were in effect for the immediately preceding year (the "Old Year") by an amount not to exceed the CPI Change Percentage. The "CPI Change Percentage" shall be equal to the decrease in the percentage change of the Consumer Price Index ("CPI") during the period described in Section 6.3(a) above in excess of negative ***. In no event shall First Data be obligated to decrease any of the designated Processing Fees for any Processing Year in which the percentage change in the CPI during the applicable period is between zero (0) and negative *** and such decrease will only be *** of the CPI decrease above negative ***.

SECTION 7. Capital shall be returned to GE Capital by First Data and FICO depending upon which party, First Data or FICO, has retained such data, materials or property. Ownership of Custom Scorecards shall be set forth in the applicable GE Capital/FICO Agreement.

SECTION 8. CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT OF INFORMATION.

8.1 GE Capital agrees that FICO may receive and analyze, and GE Capital authorizes First Data to furnish to FICO, any data pertaining to GE Capital's Accounts which is in the possession or control of First Data. First Data and FICO shall maintain in confidence and shall not disclose to any third party, except as otherwise provided herein, all data and materials furnished by GE Capital for processing hereunder, and First Data and FICO agree that such information will be used by First Data and FICO only to perform services in accordance with this Adaptive Control Addendum and for internal research and development with the intent of improving the Product or other services to be offered pursuant to this Adaptive Control Addendum. First Data's and FICO's obligations under this Section 8.1 are limited to diligent compliance with the same methods and procedures that First Data and FICO use to protect their own confidential information from disclosure.

8.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8.1, First Data and FICO may disclose GE Capital Confidential Information as defined in Section 14.5(a-b) and 14.5(d-e) of the Agreement if compelled to do so pursuant to legal process. If First Data or FICO is requested or required (by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar legal process) to disclose any GE Capital Confidential Information, First Data or FICO, as the case may be, will promptly notify GE Capital of such request or requirement so that GE Capital may at its expense seek an appropriate protective order or interpose an objection to such disclosure, take action to ensure confidential handling of GE Capital Confidential Information or take such other action as it deems appropriate to protect the GE Capital Confidential Information; however, First Data and FICO shall have no obligation to obtain such protective order or otherwise contest such legal process.

SECTION 9. AUDITS AND GOVERNMENTAL EXAMINATION. First Data and FICO each agree to permit auditors retained by GE Capital to audit the procedures for handling and processing of data hereunder upon reasonable notice and compliance with First Data's and FICO's security procedures. The Parties also acknowledge that certain federal and state agencies may require access to facilities of First Data to audit the performance of the services by First Data for GE Capital under this Adaptive Control Addendum, and First Data will cooperate with respect to all governmental audits.

SECTION 10. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES.

10.1 Representations and Warranties by FICO.

(a) FICO hereby represents and warrants to GE Capital that each Pooled Scorecard authorized for use on the Accounts shall be statistically sound and empirically derived. FICO hereby represents and warrants that, subject to GE Capital's compliance with 12 CFR 2.02(p)(2), the Pooled Scorecards in the Product satisfy the requirements of "empirically derived, demonstrably and statistically sound credit scoring system" as defined in the regulations promulgated under the authority of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, 15 U.S.C. 1691 et. seq. FICO shall give GE Capital support in the form of expert testimony or assistance in the event of any suit or regulatory proceeding alleging that the Product is unlawfully discriminatory. Upon ten (10) days advance written notice to GE Capital in the manner provided for in this Adaptive Control Addendum, FICO may withdraw its warranty (i) for any Pooled Scorecard which, in FICO's opinion, has failed to pass a test of validation (in which case FICO promptly agrees to make any adjustments to or rebuild such Pooled Scorecards as required in this Adaptive Control Addendum in order to reinstate such warranty), (ii) for any Scorecard which has been altered in any material respect by GE Capital without the express approval of FICO, (iii) for any Scorecard which has been altered in any material respect by First Data without the express approval of FICO, or (iv) for any Scorecard for which FICO cannot reasonably defend the legal validity due to material alterations to the Product software by First Data without the express written approval of FICO. In the event of the withdrawal of the warranty by FICO pursuant to this Section 10.1(a), FICO's warranty obligations shall remain in effect with respect to use of the Product prior to the effective date of warranty withdrawal. In the event of the withdrawal of the warranty by FICO pursuant to this Section 10.1(a)(ii), neither FICO nor First Data shall be liable for any use of the Product after alteration of the Scorecard by GE Capital. In the event of the withdrawal of the warranty by FICO of this Section 10.1(a)(iii-iv), FICO's warranty obligations shall remain in effect with respect to use of the Product prior to the alteration of the Scorecard or software by First Data. First Data shall give sixty (60) days advance written notice to GE Capital of any material alteration by First Data to any Scorecard used by GE Capital or the Product software; and, in such event, First Data shall warrant to GE Capital that such Scorecards are statistically sound and empirically derived and indemnify and hold GE Capital harmless from any liability, loss or damage GE Capital may suffer as a result of claims, demands, costs or judgments against GE Capital due to breach of such warranty.

(b) If GE Capital and FICO enter into a separate agreement for the development of Custom Scorecards, all representations and warranties with respect to such Custom Scorecards shall be set forth in the GE Capital/FICO Agreement.

10.2 Proprietorship. First Data and FICO warrant that, with the exception of Custom Scorecards, they are the sole owners of the Product and that use of the Product on the Accounts pursuant to this Adaptive Control Addendum will not infringe upon the rights of any other person or entity.

SECTION 11. FICO Proprietary Rights.

12.1 Liability of First Data. First Data will use due diligence in processing the materials received from GE Capital and the performance of First Data of all its services provided in this Adaptive Control Addendum shall be consistent with the Agreement and Schedule B thereto. First Data shall be liable to GE Capital or any GE Capital-related financial institution (including but not limited to financial institutions participating in GE Capital's credit account program or operation) for any claims, damages, losses or expenses arising out of First Data's performance of the services to be performed by First Data pursuant to this Adaptive Control Addendum or breach of the warranty set forth in Section 10.2 herein except that if such claims, damages, losses or expenses are due to causes that are beyond the control of First Data.

12.2 Liability of FICO. The performance by FICO of all its services provided in this Adaptive Control Addendum shall be consistent with industry standards. FICO shall indemnify and hold harmless GE Capital and its employees from and against any and all liability, loss or damage GE Capital may suffer as a result of claims, demands, costs or judgments against GE Capital arising out of FICO's negligent performance of any of the services to be performed by FICO pursuant to this Adaptive Control Addendum or breach of its warranty set forth in Section 10.2 herein; provided, that FICO's obligation to indemnify GE Capital shall be limited to the actual losses by GE Capital resulting from FICO's negligent performance or breach of its warranty set forth in Section 10.2 and shall exclude any indirect, special, consequential, or punitive damages. The liability of FICO for any claims, losses or damages arising from the negligent performance of its duties under this Adaptive Control Addendum shall be limited as provided in Section 12 of this Adaptive Control Addendum. FICO shall not be liable to GE Capital or any GE Capital-related financial institution (including but not limited to financial institutions participating in GE Capital's credit account program or operation) for any claims, damages, losses or expenses arising out of the performance of the services to be performed by FICO pursuant to this Adaptive Control Addendum if such claims, damages, losses or expenses are due to causes that are beyond the control of FICO.

12.3 Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding any contrary provision contained in this Adaptive Control Addendum, in no event shall the total aggregate liability of First Data and FICO for any claims, losses or damages arising from their breach of their respective duties under this Adaptive Control Addendum or from breach of their warranties in this Adaptive Control Addendum exceed an amount which represents the annual amount of fees paid by GE Capital under the Agreement during the preceding 12-month period which are allocable solely to use of the Product and use of the services set forth in this Adaptive Control Addendum. In the event that a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the claims, losses or damages incurred by GE Capital are as a result of the negligent performance of both First Data and FICO or that First Data and FICO, but for this sentence, are jointly liable for any claims, losses or damages incurred by GE Capital, First Data and FICO shall not be jointly and severally liable and GE Capital may collect only one-half of the total amount of such claims, losses or damages from each of First Data and FICO. The indemnity and hold harmless obligations of FICO and First Data set forth herein shall survive termination or expiration of this Adaptive Control Addendum.

SECTION 13. FAILURE OF PERFORMANCE. First Data and FICO shall not be liable for any failure to perform its obligations under this Adaptive Control Addendum if prevented from doing so by a cause or causes beyond their control. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

As used in this Agreement, "Party" means either RCSI or First Data, as appropriate, and "Parties" means RCSI and First Data. The Parties agree that the following terms and conditions shall apply to the services to be provided by First Data under this Agreement in consideration of certain payments to be made by RCSI.

1. BACKGROUND AND OBJECTIVES

1.1 Background.

This Agreement is being made and entered into with reference to the following:

(a) On November 16, 1999 RCSI (then known as Montgomery Ward Credit Corporation) and First Data's predecessor in interest, First Data Resources Inc., entered into a Production Services Agreement (hereinafter defined as the "Original Agreement"). The Original Agreement has been amended by the Parties numerous times. As more fully provided in Section 19.18, this First Amended and Restated Production Services Agreement replaces and supersedes the Original Agreement, as amended, in its entirety.

(b) RCSI and First Data are also parties to a Technology Sourcing Agreement, dated as of December 10, 1998, as amended (the "TSA") pursuant to which First Data provides to RCSI and its Affiliates various Transaction Card data processing and related services, which services relate to, but do not include, the services described in this Agreement.

(c) RCSI desires that certain production and related services, including printing and mailing of Statements and Letters and Transaction Card embossing be performed and managed by an experienced and capable vendor skilled in the performance of these functions.

(d) First Data wishes to perform the requested services for RCSI and has the skills, qualifications and experience necessary to perform and manage such services in an efficient, cost-effective and controlled manner with a high degree of quality and responsiveness.

1.2 Objectives.

The following are specific goals and objectives for this Agreement:

(a) enable RCSI and RCSI Affiliates to focus on their core competencies and on those activities which provide a competitive advantage;

- (b) deliver to RCSI and RCSI Affiliates Six Sigma level quality, including through the provision of relevant production skills, methods, practices and standards;
- (c) establish a flexible framework within which to quickly respond to evolving processes, technologies, competitive conditions, and changing RCSI and RCSI Affiliate business needs;
- (d) identify means to improve services and reduce costs to RCSI and RCSI Affiliates and enable RCSI and RCSI Affiliates to improve and expand their respective related business operations; and
- (e) provide the uninterrupted transitioning of responsibility for performing the services back to RCSI or its Successor in connection with the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

1.3 Construction.

The provisions of this Section 1 are intended to be a general introduction to this Agreement and are not intended to expand the scope of the Parties' obligations under this Agreement or to alter the plain meaning of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. However, to the extent the terms and conditions of this Agreement do not address a particular circumstance or are otherwise unclear or ambiguous, such terms and conditions are to be interpreted and construed so far as to give effect to the provisions in this Section 1.

3. PROVISION OF PRODUCTION SERVICES

3.1 Scope.

The Production Services consist of First Data's obligations expressly provided for in this Agreement, including those described in Schedule A, as they may evolve and be supplemented, modified, changed pursuant to the Change Control Procedure, or replaced during the Term. First Data shall provide the following services, functions and responsibilities, as they may evolve during the Term and as they may be supplemented, enhanced, modified or replaced (the "Production Services"):

- (a) the services, functions and responsibilities described in this Agreement, including its Schedules and Exhibits;
- (b) except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, providing the facilities, personnel and other resources as necessary to provide the Production Services; and
- (c) any New Production Services and/or Changes RCSI contracts with First Data to perform pursuant to a Change Order or amendment in accordance with Section 19.2.

3.2 Implied Services.

If any services, functions or responsibilities not specifically described in this Agreement are necessarily required for the proper performance and provision of the Production Services (and are not required to be provided by First Data under the TSA), they shall be deemed to be implied by and included within the scope of the Production Services to the same extent and in the same manner as if specifically described in this Agreement.

3.3 Other Entities.

First Data shall provide the Production Services (a) to RCSI and, as may be requested by RCSI, the RCSI Customers, (b) to those entities to whom services similar to the Production Services were being provided immediately prior to the Original Effective Date, (c) as requested by RCSI, to other RCSI components and Affiliates and clients and customers thereof, and (d) to those other entities as may be identified by RCSI from time to time (each, a “Service Recipient”). To the extent that Production Services are characterized herein as provided to RCSI, those references will be deemed to include those Production Services provided to the Service Recipients. For purposes of this Agreement, Production Services provided to Service Recipients other than RCSI shall be deemed to be Production Services provided to RCSI.

3.4 Production Services Performed by RCSI or Third Parties.

(a) First Data is a non-exclusive provider of Production Services. Except as provided otherwise in Section 5 of Exhibit C (Minimum Volume Commitment) RCSI may perform itself, discontinue, or retain third parties to perform any of the Production Services. Without limitation of the foregoing, RCSI may sell Accounts, portfolios or lines of business which are receiving the Production Services, and if so elected by RCSI any such sold Accounts, portfolios or lines of business will no longer be subject to this Agreement. RCSI also may acquire Accounts, portfolios or lines of business and to provide, or have third parties provide, Production Services in connection with such Accounts, portfolios or lines of business separately from this Agreement and the Production Services provided hereunder. Except as provided otherwise in Section 5 of Exhibit C (Minimum Volume Commitment), RCSI makes no commitment for any minimum amount of Production Services to be purchased under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, First Data’s approval is not required for any reduction of Production Services that RCSI is entitled to make pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, and any requirement that such changes be documented through the Change Control Procedure shall not be deemed to require First Data’s approval.

(b) If a component of the Basic Production Services or any other bundled Production Service is reduced pursuant to this Section 3.4, the charges for the Basic Production Services shall be equitably adjusted in good faith to reflect *** to First Data resulting from First Data’s ceasing to provide the component of the Basic Production Services or any other bundled Production Service no longer required. The Parties acknowledge that, due to the nature of the pricing in Schedule C hereto, in many instances no changes will be required to the charges described in Schedule C and in other instances (including unbundled Production Services) charges will be eliminated if a component is reduced pursuant hereto.

3.5 Cooperation with Third Parties

(a) If RCSI performs or discontinues any of the Production Services itself or retains a third party to do so, First Data shall cooperate with RCSI and any such third party, as reasonably necessary to enable each of RCSI and such third party to perform its respective work, which cooperation shall include: (i) to the extent that First Data exercises any control over any RCSI facilities or any facility of an RCSI Affiliate being used to provide the Production Services, providing reasonable access to such facilities; (ii) providing reasonable access to the First Data System (to the extent permitted under any underlying agreements with third parties) and to the other relevant First Data-operated production facilities; and (iii) providing such information regarding the operating environment, system constraints and other parameters as a person with reasonable commercial skills and expertise would find reasonably necessary for RCSI or a third party to perform its work. Third parties retained by RCSI shall comply with First Data's reasonable security and confidentiality requirements, and shall, to the extent performing work interfacing with the First Data System or First Data Equipment, comply with First Data's reasonable work standards, methodologies and procedures.

(b) First Data shall promptly notify RCSI if an act or omission of such a third party may cause a problem or delay in providing the Production Services and shall work with RCSI to prevent or circumvent such problem or delay.

3.6 Evolution of the Production Services

RCSI operates in a business environment characterized by constant change. Accordingly, First Data will use commercially reasonable efforts throughout the Term to evolve and improve the quality, efficiency and effectiveness of the Production Services (including technology) consistent with similar services provided by leading well managed credit card industry operations performing services similar to the Production Services. Changes in the Production Services pursuant to this Section 3.6 will not be considered New Production Services unless they otherwise qualify as such in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.7, but will be subject to the Change Control Procedure, as applicable.

3.7 New Production Services

(a) "New Production Services" means functions RCSI requests First Data to perform under this Agreement that are (i) materially different from, and in addition to, the Production Services then being provided under this Agreement and (ii) not Services or New Services (as defined in the TSA) under the TSA. Subject to Section 3.7(b), RCSI will notify First Data if RCSI desires to acquire additional services which would constitute New Production Services. Within *** Business Days following the date of such notification, First Data will provide RCSI with a quote for one-time development and ongoing service fees (or revised Schedule C charges) for such functions which take into account (A) the existing volume of business between First Data and RCSI, and (B) the elimination or modification of Production Services and related tasks which would be replaced or changed by the proposed New Production Services. Such proposed charges shall *** (a) *** such New Production Services as provided in *** and (b) *** for such New Production Services ***. Upon receipt of such quote, RCSI may elect to have First Data implement and perform such services, at which point such services will be deemed Production Services and shall be subject to the provisions of this Agreement. If RCSI elects to have First Data implement and perform such New Production Services and at any time thereafter *** for such New Production Service First Data shall, ***.

(b) At the time RCSI requests the First Data Contract Administrator (or begins receiving, either as a result of an independent action of RCSI to initiate use of an available service offering or as a result of a request by RCSI to another individual at First Data) a Production Service that First Data believes is a New Production Service First Data shall notify the RCSI Relationship Executive within *** days of the request (or *** days if the parenthetical above applies) that First Data believes that it is a New Production Service. If First Data does not notify the RCSI Relationship Executive that First Data considers such a New Production Service within the requisite period then ***. For any proposed or contemplated service that is within the general scope of the Production Services, if First Data and RCSI are unable to agree on whether such item is a New Production Service or what charges and other terms and conditions should be applicable thereto, ***, subject to the resolution of any such dispute in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Once the Parties have agreed on the charges and other terms and conditions any charges shall be ***. Until the matter is resolved ***. In accordance with processes to be mutually agreed upon, RCSI shall use commercially reasonable efforts to identify and notify First Data on or before RCSI independently begins to use an available service offering that RCSI reasonably believes First Data may consider a New Production Service (it being understood that RCSI shall not be responsible if such processes do not identify changes to RCSI's usage in order for RCSI to provide notification).

(c) Unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties, all application development services, application maintenance services, and implementation services therefor undertaken or provided in connection with providing or implementing a New Production Service or RCSI-Initiated System Enhancement shall be governed by the terms of the TSA, including the applicable pricing terms, representations and warranties, and terms of Schedule A thereto; provided, however, that any disputes between the Parties concerning such services and any breach of the terms of this Agreement or the applicable terms of the TSA in connection with such services, including any related liability and limitations thereon, and indemnification obligations of the Parties in connection therewith, shall be governed by the terms of this Agreement.

(d) During the Term, if First Data initiates a program with one or more customer(s) to review, modify, test or enhance any New Production Services which First Data intends to offer generally to its customers, then First Data shall allow RCSI the opportunity to participate in such program (the "Pilot Program"). If RCSI desires to use the New Production Service, RCSI shall be charged for such New Production Service in accordance with Section 3.7(a). During the Term, if First Data offers generally to its customers any New Production Service without the establishment of a Pilot Program, then no later than the time that First Data first notifies its other customers of such New Production Service First Data shall notify RCSI.

(e) Except as provided above, First Data will not perform any additional functions that would constitute New Production Services without first informing RCSI and receiving RCSI's written authorization to proceed. If First Data performs the additional functions without RCSI's prior written authorization, such functions will be ***.

3.8 System Enhancements.

(a) First Data shall not *** of the Production Services to RCSI as a result of First Data's unilateral implementation of any System Enhancements.

(b) First Data may charge RCSI or revise Exhibit C pricing only pursuant to a written agreement with RCSI (and not on a unilateral basis) for any System Enhancements requested by RCSI ("RCSI-Initiated System Enhancements") ***.

4. TERM

4.1 Initial Term.

The term of this Agreement (the “Term”) shall begin on the Effective Date and shall extend for five (5) Production Years (the “Initial Term”) unless terminated earlier or extended in accordance with this Agreement. “Production Year 1” of the Term shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue through the last day of the twelfth (12th) consecutive month thereafter. A “Production Year” means each of Production Year 1 and each twelve (12) month period thereafter (beginning on the first anniversary of the first day of Production Year 1).

4.2 Extension.

Upon at least (6) months’ written notice prior the expiration of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term, RCSI may extend the Term for additional renewal terms of up to two (2) years on the terms in force at the time of such extension (a “Renewal Term”). RCSI has the option for three (3) such Renewal Terms, for a maximum extension beyond the Initial Term of six (6) years.

5. FIRST DATA PERSONNEL

5.1 Key First Data Positions.

(a) “Key First Data Positions” are listed in Schedule D hereto. First Data shall cause each of the personnel filling the Key First Data Positions (other than the First Data Contract Administrator) to devote his or her full time and effort to the provision of the Production Services (or jointly with the Services under the TSA)(unless indicated in Schedule D that the position is not full time on RCSI’s account).

(i) RCSI may from time to time change the positions designated as Key First Data Positions under this Agreement, provided that without First Data’s consent, the number of Key First Data Positions shall not exceed the number specified in Schedule D as of the Effective Date.

(ii) In accordance with Section 5.1(b) below, First Data shall designate an individual to serve as “First Data Contract Administrator”. The First Data Contract Administrator shall (A) serve as the single point of accountability for First Data for the Production Services, (B) have day-to-day authority for undertaking to ensure customer satisfaction, and (C) have a corporate title of Vice President or higher. The First Data Contract Administrator’s compensation shall include significant financial incentives based on RCSI’s satisfaction with (1) the performance of Production Services, (2) First Data’s contribution to RCSI’s achievement of its objectives, as relevant, and (3) retention of applicable First Data Personnel. Such basis for financial incentives shall be in conjunction and consistent with those objectives in equivalent RCSI/RCSI Affiliate and First Data management positions.

(b) Before assigning an individual to a Key First Data Position, whether as an initial assignment or a subsequent assignment, First Data shall notify RCSI of the proposed assignment, shall introduce the individual to appropriate RCSI representatives (and, upon request, provide such representatives with the opportunity to meet with the individual) and shall provide RCSI with a resume and other information about the individual reasonably requested by RCSI. If RCSI in good faith objects to the proposed assignment, the Parties shall attempt to resolve RCSI's concerns on a mutually agreeable basis, including through discussions of the pertinent issues by senior management of the Parties. If the Parties have not been able to resolve RCSI's concerns within ten (10) days of the date RCSI communicated to First Data its objections to the proposed assignment, First Data shall not assign the individual to that position and shall propose to RCSI the assignment of another individual of suitable ability and qualifications. Personnel filling Key First Data Positions may not be transferred or re-assigned until a suitable replacement has been approved by RCSI and the replacement has been successfully transitioned into the Key First Data Position. Further, the timing for any transfer or reassignment of persons filling Key First Data Positions will be closely coordinated with the requirements of ongoing projects and other elements of the Production Services, and no transfer or reassignment will occur at a time that would adversely impact the Production Services in a non-trivial manner.

(c) The personnel approved as of the Effective Date to fill the Key First Data Positions are listed in Schedule D. Subject to promotions, dismissals, resignations and medical leave, such persons will remain in these positions for the period specified in Schedule D.

5.2 Qualifications, Retention and Replacement of First Data Personnel.

(a) First Data shall assign an adequate number of personnel to perform the Production Services. The personnel First Data assigns to perform the Production Services shall be properly educated, trained and fully qualified for the Production Services they are to perform.

(b) First Data shall, at no additional expense to RCSI, and prior to placing any First Data Personnel on the RCSI account, complete background checks for all such personnel ("Background Checks"), which Background Checks may be (or have been) performed at the initiation of the individual's employment with First Data (or its predecessors). Background Checks shall include verification of work history, verification of the lawful right to work in the United States drug testing (for employees whose employment began after January 1, 2005), and such other background checks as First Data performs with regard to similar employees generally. Background Checks shall also identify felony convictions which bear a reasonable relationship to the position and verify the social security number of such personnel, if applicable to such personnel. The personnel will be asked for educational background data and, with respect to United States resident personnel, at least the last seven (7) years of residence. Subject to applicable Law, First Data Personnel may be tested for drugs and/or alcohol whenever First Data or RCSI has reasonable suspicion that the personnel is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol in the workplace or has violated the substance abuse policy. Results of Background Checks and drug testing will remain First Data's confidential information and will not be provided to RCSI, but any negative or questionable background check or drug test of personnel will require First Data to remove or not assign such personnel to providing the Production Services. First Data shall hire all First Data Personnel and other personnel involved in the RCSI account strictly in accordance with all Laws applicable to the hiring and employment of individuals including all equal employment opportunity Laws. First Data agrees not to use any child labor or prison inmates nor shall it contract with any prison system to perform any Production Services under this Agreement.

(c) RCSI and First Data both agree that it is in their best interests to keep the turnover rate of the First Data Personnel performing the Production Services to a reasonably low level. Accordingly, if RCSI believes that First Data's turnover rate may be excessive and so notifies First Data, First Data shall provide data concerning its turnover rate, meet with RCSI to discuss the reasons for, and impact of, the turnover rate and otherwise use its best efforts to keep such turnover rate to a reasonably low level. If appropriate, First Data shall submit to RCSI its proposals for reducing the turnover rate, and the Parties will mutually agree on a program to bring the turnover rate down to an acceptable level. In any event, notwithstanding transfer or turnover of personnel, First Data remains obligated to perform the Production Services without degradation and in accordance with this Agreement.

(d) If RCSI determines in good faith that the continued assignment to the RCSI account of any particular First Data Personnel is not in the best interests of RCSI, then RCSI will give First Data written notice to that effect. After receipt of such notice, First Data shall have a reasonable period of time (not greater than ten (10) days) in which to investigate the matters stated in such notice, discuss its findings with RCSI and resolve any problems with such person. As requested by First Data, senior management of the Parties shall address and discuss the pertinent issues during the referenced time period. If, following this period, RCSI requests replacement of such person, First Data shall promptly replace that person with another person of suitable ability and qualifications.

6. PERFORMANCE

6.1 Manner of Performance.

First Data shall perform the Production Services at least at the same level and with at least the same degree of accuracy, quality, completeness, timeliness, responsiveness and efficiency of the greater of (a) as provided by RCSI and the RCSI Affiliates prior to the Original Effective Date, and (b) as is consistent with the *** standards which First Data is required to meet for the other customers for whom it provides services substantially similar to the Production Services using similar equipment. Quantitative performance standards and Service Levels for certain of the Production Services are set forth in Schedule B. At all times, First Data's level of performance of the Production Services shall be at least equal to the Service Levels and otherwise not less than commercially reasonable standards satisfied by leading well managed credit card industry operations performing services similar to the Production Services.

6.2 Place of Performance

First Data may perform the Production Services at, and deliver the Production Services from, any First Data-operated facility in the United States. Production Services or New Production Services provided from or to locations outside the continental United States or (with respect to Canadian Production Services) Canada may require new service definitions and/or charges to be created by mutual agreement of the Parties in their sole discretion (and corresponding amendment to this Agreement). Schedule E provides a list of the primary First Data facilities from which First Data provides the Production Services as of the Execution Date.

6.3 Time of Performance

(a) First Data will perform and complete the Production Services diligently, in a timely manner, and in accordance with any applicable time schedules provided in this Agreement (including in any Change Orders).

(b) First Data will notify RCSI within a commercially reasonable time following First Data becoming aware of any circumstances that may materially impact the timely and successful completion (or delivery) of any Production Service. Without prejudice to any remedies available to RCSI, First Data will use commercially reasonable efforts to avoid or minimize any delays in performance. In such event, First Data will inform RCSI of the steps First Data is taking or will take to do so and the projected actual completion (or delivery) time. If a time period for notice or cure is provided in Schedule A or the Procedures Manual such time period shall control.

6.4 Performance Improvement

First Data will perform in a proactive manner, actively identifying ways to improve RCSI's customer experience, efficiency, and cost profile.

6.5 Compliance with Laws

(a) First Data is solely responsible for compliance with laws, regulations, ordinances and codes (including identifying and procuring required permits, certificates, approvals and inspections) applicable to First Data as a third party provider of production-related services. If a charge of non-compliance which may have an adverse impact on RCSI occurs, First Data promptly shall notify RCSI of such charge in writing. First Data shall maintain the First Data System so that the First Data System contains functionality enabling RCSI to comply with the Legal Requirements to the extent the Legal Requirements pertain to RCSI and any RCSI activities for which RCSI uses the Production Services.

(b) RCSI is solely responsible for monitoring and interpreting the federal, state and local laws, regulations, ordinances and codes pertaining to equal credit opportunity, truth in lending, fair credit billing, fair credit reporting, fair debt collection practices and general consumer protection (the "Legal Requirements"). RCSI is responsible for selecting the available parameter settings and programming features and options within the First Data System that apply to RCSI's use of the Production Services in compliance with the Legal Requirements and for determining that such selections are consistent with the Legal Requirements. In making such determinations, RCSI may rely on the descriptions of such settings, features and options provided by First Data. First Data shall review with and explain to RCSI such settings, features and options and shall provide clarification on the operation of such features as requested by RCSI.

(c) Subject to Section 12, each Party shall cooperate in providing information and/or records to the other Party in connection with the examinations, requests or proceedings of its regulatory agencies.

(d) Whenever relevant information is available to First Data, and subject to Section 12, First Data shall share with RCSI information concerning the various compliance practices and interpretive positions taken by its customer base, as well as the understandings which First Data personnel may have with respect to such practices and positions.

(e) Compliance with First Data's obligations set forth above, as they exist as of the Effective Date, is entirely First Data's responsibility and no additional charges may be imposed with respect thereto. The additional cost of compliance with changes may be charged to RCSI except where:

- (i) Such changes are a result of laws directly applicable to First Data because of the business it is in as opposed to because it serves RCSI in particular;
- (ii) Such changes are necessary for RCSI to have the capability described in the last sentence of Section 6.5(a); or
- (iii) First Data makes such additional capabilities available to its other customers without additional charge.

6.6 Compliance with RCSI's Security Requirements.

First Data represents, warrants and covenants that it is, and at all times during the term of this Agreement will continue to be, in full compliance with the then current PCI Data Security Standards issued by the PCI Security Standards Council and in verification thereof, on an annual basis (and at such other times as RCSI may reasonably request), will furnish RCSI with ongoing certifications, questionnaires or other documentation confirming such compliance. If at any time during the Term hereof, First Data fails to be in full compliance with the then current PCI Data Security Standards RCSI shall have the right to terminate this Agreement subject to the cure period provided in Section 18.1(a). RCSI may require First Data to comply from time to time with RCSI's own data security standards but if such standards are more stringent than (a) then current PCI Data Security Standards, (b) First Data's standards in effect as of the Execution Date and (c) First Data's standards at the time, then First Data may charge RCSI for the incremental cost of complying with such standards provided that before implementing such higher standard First Data notifies RCSI that it will be chargeable to RCSI and offers RCSI the opportunity to withdraw its request.

6.7 Compliance with RCSI Statement of Principles on Human Rights

First Data agrees, with respect to any of the Production Services that are provided outside of the United States or Canada, to comply with and adhere to GE's Statement of Principles on Human Rights (the "RCSI Requirements for Human Rights") provided in Schedule H (Human Rights) hereto. Updates and changes to the RCSI Requirements for Human Rights may be made by RCSI from time to time, and First Data will adhere to the RCSI Requirements for Human Rights as so updated or changed. First Data covenants that, as applicable, it shall be in full compliance with the then current RCSI Requirements for Human Rights (except to the extent they are inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement), and upon request, First Data will confirm such compliance in writing. If at any time during the Term First Data is providing Production Services outside of the United States and Canada and First Data fails to be in full compliance with the then current RCSI Requirements for Human Rights, if the breach is sufficiently egregious RCSI may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to First Data (without opportunity to cure), without penalty or further obligation of any kind.

6.8 Compliance with RCSI Integrity Policies

First Data acknowledges and agrees that it, its agents and subcontractors shall, when performing the Production Services, comply with RCSI's applicable integrity policies governing service providers as generally applicable to the Production Services and personnel of First Data, its Affiliates and subcontractors (including, employees, agents, representatives, internal or external consultants or contractors) performing the Production Services or otherwise receiving or accessing RCSI Confidential Information or systems of RCSI, its Affiliates or their respective contractors. If there is any conflict between the provisions of any such integrity policy and the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement will control and resolve the conflict with respect to the subject matter thereof. First Data will provide a copy of RCSI's integrity policies to all personnel in the Key First Data Positions, have them sign the acknowledgement provided on its back cover, and retain the original signed acknowledgments on file until three (3) years after the expiration or termination of this Agreement. RCSI shall have the right to audit that such acknowledgements are on file with First Data upon notice to First Data. A copy of RCSI's and its Affiliates' current integrity policies as of the Execution Date is attached as Schedule I.

6.9 Canadian Requirements

To the extent the Production Services involve RCSI's Canadian customers, the provisions of Exhibit X-6 shall apply.

7. PROJECT AND CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

7.1 First Data - RCSI Contacts.

In terms of providing daily operational support during the Term, unless otherwise requested by RCSI, the First Data Contract Manager shall directly contact the RCSI Relationship Executive and his or her designees and representatives. Only RCSI or a designee of RCSI (as identified by RCSI to First Data in writing) will be authorized to make commitments on the part of RCSI with First Data that amend this Agreement or waive compliance.

7.2 Steering Committee.

(a) The Parties shall form a steering committee ("Steering Committee") to provide high-end support and coordination in the relationship between First Data and RCSI. This support may include high-level discussions regarding policies, procedures, guiding principles of the relationship, issues associated with First Data's execution of the Production Services, allocation of resources, support and understanding of RCSI's strategic direction and review of RCSI priorities. The Steering Committee shall also serve in an advisory role. The Steering Committee and the actions it takes shall in no way diminish the rights and authority provided to RCSI in this Agreement. The RCSI Relationship Executive shall retain the right to review and reverse the decisions of the Steering Committee.

(b) The Steering Committee shall be comprised of at least four (4) individuals: two (2) appointed by RCSI and two (2) appointed by First Data. The Parties may, upon their mutual consent, add additional persons to the Steering Committee.

7.3 Reports and Meetings.

(a) Reports. At a minimum, First Data shall issue the same combination of performance, utilization and status reports regarding the Production Services at the same frequency as prior to the Effective Date.

(i) First Data will provide:

(A) the reports included in Schedule G at the frequency indicated therein;

(B) up to *** hours of report development to provide reports in addition to those listed in Schedule G during the Initial Term with an *** per year of each Renewal Term (such hours to be increased by *** hours for each new portfolio brought into scope, up to an aggregate addition of *** hours). Upon completion of contractual allotted hours the Parties will mutually agree upon on any changes of type and frequency of reports going forward; and

(C) one (1) full time employee ("FTE") to perform ad hoc reporting functions in addition to the functions listed in this Section 7.3(a) above.

(ii) The type and frequency of such reports may be changed going forward as the Parties may mutually agree. Additionally, First Data shall issue the performance, financial, utilization and status reports identified in this Agreement, as well as reports reasonably requested by RCSI. Such reports shall be pursuant to the reporting structure jointly developed by the Parties and shall be issued at the frequency reasonably requested by RCSI. First Data shall provide RCSI with suggested formats for such reports, for RCSI's review and approval. The performance, financial, utilization and status reports shall include the following:

(A) First Data shall provide to RCSI a daily performance report which describes First Data's performance of the Production Services, including all relevant Service Level and performance measurements, on the previous day. First Data shall also provide to RCSI on Monday of each week a performance report which describes First Data's performance of the Production Services, including all relevant Service Level and performance measurements, during the week which ended on the Sunday immediately prior to such Monday.

(B) First Data shall provide to RCSI a monthly performance report, which shall be delivered to RCSI by the tenth (10th) Working Day after the end of each month, describing First Data's performance of the Production Services in the preceding month (the "Monthly Performance Report"). Such report shall (i) separately address First Data's performance in each area of the Production Services including, as requested by RCSI, by RCSI Customer, lines of business, marketing segment and portfolio; (ii) for each area of the Production Services, assess the degree to which First Data has attained or failed to attain the pertinent objectives in that area, including measurements with respect to the Service Levels; (iii) describe the status of each key project, problem resolution effort, and any other initiative; (iv) explain deviations from the Service Levels and include for each deviation a plan for corrective action; (v) set forth a record of the equipment, software, personnel changes and other changes to the Production Services environment including the First Data System during the reporting period that affect, or could affect, the Production Services and describe the planned changes during the upcoming month that may affect the Production Services; and (vi) include the documentation and other information which RCSI may request to verify compliance with this Agreement. Regarding Internal and External Defects, the Monthly Performance Report shall also contain appropriate details on all (1) Defects and Defectives identified during First Data internal sampling and (2) all External Defects and Defectives that were reported during the previous month. For each External Defect or Defective reported, First Data will fully investigate each incident and will provide the actual number of Defectives that resulted from the incident. Where First Data is not able to provide such specific data to RCSI's reasonable satisfaction, it shall be presumed that the entire batch, run or job involved was defective, and each Transaction Card, Statement and/or Letter counts as a Defective.

(C) First Data shall provide a quarterly and an annual planned activities report, which shall be delivered to RCSI within five (5) Business Days after the end of each RCSI fiscal quarter and fiscal year, respectively, describing the activities to be undertaken by First Data in connection with the Production Services during the then-current fiscal quarter and the three (3) subsequent fiscal quarters (the "Quarterly Plan"), or the then-current fiscal year and the subsequent fiscal year, respectively (the "Annual Plan"). The Quarterly Plan and Annual Plan shall (i) separately describe each material activity to be undertaken by First Data in connection with the Production Services, including on-going and planned projects, the introduction of new systems and software and the maintenance releases, enhancements, upgrades, patches, new versions and other releases implemented in connection with the First Data Software which could affect the Production Services or First Data's delivery thereof; (ii) explain for each such activity the time budgeted for its completion; and (iii) be accompanied by related documentation which may be reasonably requested in advance by RCSI.

(b) Meetings. At the RCSI Relationship Executive's discretion, the Parties shall hold those meetings which are identified in this Agreement, including Schedule B, and those which are requested by RCSI or First Data. At the request of the RCSI Relationship Executive, First Data shall prepare and circulate an agenda sufficiently in advance of each such meeting to give participants an opportunity to prepare for the meeting and shall incorporate into such agenda items that RCSI desires to discuss. At the request of the RCSI Relationship Executive, First Data shall prepare and circulate minutes promptly after a meeting. The meetings may include the following:

(i) a quarterly management meeting of the Steering Committee to review the Monthly Performance Reports for the quarter, review First Data's overall performance under this Agreement, review the performance of the First Data System, review progress on the resolution of issues, provide a strategic outlook for RCSI in connection with the Production Services, and discuss such other matters as appropriate.

(ii) an annual senior management meeting by senior officers of the Parties to review relevant contract and performance issues, including (a) overall Service Levels performance, (b) quality improvement, (c) RCSI Customer satisfaction and (d) disaster recovery.

(iii) as requested by RCSI, meetings between RCSI key customers and First Data.

7.4 Procedures Manual.

(a) A procedures manual (the "Procedures Manual") is to be established for the Production Services. First Data shall prepare and deliver a draft of the Procedures Manual to RCSI by the Effective Date. RCSI shall return the draft Procedures Manual to First Data within ninety (90) days of receipt following which the Parties shall collaborate and mutually agree upon which RCSI suggested changes should be incorporated into the initial Procedures Manual.

(b) The Procedures Manual shall describe how First Data will perform and deliver the Production Services under this Agreement, the equipment and software being used, and the documentation (e.g., operations manuals, user guides, specifications) which provide further details of such activities. The Procedures Manual shall describe the activities First Data proposes to undertake in order to provide the Production Services, including those direction, supervision, monitoring, staffing, reporting, planning and oversight activities normally undertaken at facilities that provide services of the type First Data shall provide under this Agreement. The Procedures Manual shall also document certain roles and responsibilities of RCSI and shall include descriptions of quality assurance procedures, First Data's problem management and escalation procedures, and the other standards and procedures of First Data pertinent to RCSI's interaction with First Data in obtaining the Production Services. The Procedures Manual shall also contain the process map for Statement production. The Procedures Manual shall be suitable for use by RCSI to understand the Production Services.

(c) First Data shall periodically update the Procedures Manual to reflect material changes in the operations or procedures described therein. Significant updates of the Procedures Manual shall be provided to RCSI for review and comment. If there is a conflict between the Procedures Manual and this Agreement this Agreement shall control.

7.5 Change Control Procedure.

(a) First Data shall comply with the following general requirements:

(i) Prior to using any new software or new equipment to provide the Production Services, First Data shall have verified that the item has been properly installed, is operating in accordance with its specifications, interfaces with RCSI properly, and is performing its intended functions in a reliable manner.

(ii) First Data shall not take an action or make a decision which may have a material effect on RCSI or the RCSI Affiliates or which adversely affects the function or performance of, or decreases the resource efficiency of, the Production Services, including implementing Changes in technology or equipment and software configuration, without first ***; provided however, that Changes in the production cycle shall be governed by Section 7.5(a)(iv) below. First Data may make temporary Changes required by an emergency if after making reasonable efforts it has been unable to contact an appropriate RCSI manager to ***. First Data shall document and promptly report such emergency Changes to the RCSI Relationship Executive. First Data shall, as requested by RCSI, provide support for Changes to the RCSI and RCSI Affiliate systems and procedures, if any, necessitated by Changes in the First Data Software or First Data System.

(iii) First Data shall, as requested by RCSI, support RCSI's testing of Changes to the First Data System and RCSI's testing of its information and processing systems and those of the RCSI Affiliates in connection with Changes which may affect such systems.

(iv) With respect to the addition of material new RCSI Volumes requested by RCSI for (A) existing RCSI Customers resulting from the acquisition of material new business volumes from third parties by such customers (rather than volume growth related to their existing business operations) or (B) persons who become RCSI Customers after the Effective Date into then-existing production cycles (the "Cycle Schedules"; and such Cycle Schedules as modified, adjusted or reloaded to accommodate such new RCSI Volumes shall be referred to as "New Cycle Schedules"), RCSI and First Data shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mutually agree on such New Cycle Schedules, including adding shifts, extending shift hours, the movement of the new RCSI Volumes to other First Data-operated production facilities so long as neither RCSI nor any RCSI Affiliate is prevented, either contractually (under agreements with RCSI Customers or otherwise) or under legal requirements, rules or regulations from approving the performance of the Production Services at, or having the Production Services performed at, other First Data-operated facilities.

(b) The Parties shall adhere to the following requirements regarding the Change Control Procedure:

(i) "Change" means any addition to, modification or removal of any aspect of the Production Services which is reasonably expected by First Data to have a more than insubstantial impact to RCSI or requires changes in one or more interfaces.

(ii) "Change Control Procedure" means the written procedure prepared by First Data under the Original Agreement and approved by RCSI (and updated from time to time) for considering, analyzing, approving and carrying out Changes designed to ensure that only desirable Changes are made and that Changes made by or on behalf of First Data are carried out in a controlled manner with minimal disruption to the Production Services and Service Recipients' business operations.

(c) Exhibit A-4 to this Agreement describes the types of Changes that typically occur between the Parties as well as the types of documentation that typically accompany each Change type.

7.6 Use of Subcontractors.

“Subcontracting” means the delegation by First Data of any function(s) constituting a part of the Production Services, and “Subcontractor” means any third party (other than any First Data Majority Owned Affiliates who remain Majority Owned Affiliates) to whom First Data has subcontracted any function(s) constituting a part of the Production Services (including any Affiliate of a Subcontractor or other entity to whom a Subcontractor further subcontracts or otherwise sub-delegates any of its subcontracted duties or obligations). First Data may subcontract the performance of Production Services only in accordance with the following:

(a) First Data may, in the ordinary course of business, utilize third party services or products that are not dedicated to performance of Production Services for RCSI and that are not material to any particular function constituting a part of the Production Services. First Data may also engage individual independent contractors (either directly or through “staffing” companies) to supplement its employee workforce. Such arrangements shall not be deemed Subcontracting for the purposes of this Section. First Data will nevertheless be responsible for such parties.

(b) First Data may not use Subcontractors (including Affiliates of First Data) to perform any material portion of the Production Services without ***. First Data will be responsible to RCSI for all subcontractor services as if they were performed directly by First Data. RCSI may require First Data to replace any previously approved Subcontractor whose performance, in the reasonable judgment of RCSI, has been unacceptable.

(c) First Data shall have formal written contracts with all Subcontractors (including First Data’s Affiliates) and shall ensure that all confidentiality, regulatory, and similar obligations of First Data are contractually undertaken by each Subcontractor. First Data shall include in its subcontracts as flow-down provisions, provisions substantially similar to Section 5 (First Data Personnel), Section 8 (Audit), Section 12 (Safeguarding of Data; Confidentiality), Section 13.1 (Work Standards), Section 19.7 (Relationship of the Parties) of this Agreement, and any other provisions as necessary for First Data to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement. Even if there is no breach of the underlying obligation, a failure to obtain such obligation shall be a material breach of this Agreement, subject to the cure periods provided herein.

(d) All subcontracts shall be between First Data and the Subcontractor and will provide that the Subcontractor will look solely to First Data and not to RCSI, will waive all rights to make any claim against RCSI. As between RCSI and First Data, First Data shall remain responsible for obligations, services and functions performed by Subcontractors to the same extent as if such obligations, services and functions were performed by First Data employees, and for purposes of this Agreement such work shall be deemed work performed by First Data. First Data shall be RCSI’s sole point of contact regarding the Production Services, including with respect to payment. First Data shall not disclose RCSI Confidential Information to a Subcontractor unless and until such Subcontractor has agreed in writing to protect the confidentiality of such Confidential Information in a manner substantially equivalent to that required of First Data under this Agreement.

(e) First Data’s Subcontractors that have been *** as of the Effective Date are listed in Schedule F of this Agreement.

7.7 Quality Assurance and Improvement Programs.

(a) First Data, as part of its total quality management process, shall provide continuous quality assurance and quality improvement through: (i) the identification and application of proven techniques and tools from other installations within its operations (i.e., "Best Practices") that would benefit RCSI or the RCSI Affiliates either operationally or financially; and (ii) the implementation of concrete programs, practices and measures. Such procedures shall include checkpoint reviews, testing, acceptance and other procedures for RCSI and the RCSI Affiliates to assure the quality of First Data's performance, and shall be included in the Procedures Manual.

(b) First Data will implement the following Six Sigma requirements:

(i) As of the Effective Date, as required by RCSI First Data shall have delivered Level 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 process flows for all of its processes which affect the Basic Production Services for Statements and Letters, and Level 1, 2 and 3 process flows for all of its processes which affect the Basic Production Services for Embossing.

(ii) As of the Effective Date, First Data shall have implemented SIPOC, FEMA and PCS for each of the foregoing processes.

(iii) First Data shall show continuous improvement in all of its operations relating to or affecting the Production Services and will provide RCSI information sufficient to demonstrate such improvement.

(iv) The Production Services shall contribute toward the financial requirement set forth in Section 9.7(b)(v) of the TSA, which requirement shall be considered to be cumulative between this Agreement and the TSA. If the TSA is terminated or its term expires and this Agreement is still in effect, the amount due under Section 9.7(b)(v) of the TSA shall be deemed to be a separate and continuing obligation of First Data under this Agreement.

(v) As of the Effective Date, all First Data Personnel providing management services on First Data's RCSI account shall have successfully completed RCSI's Six Sigma Green Belt instruction at First Data's expense and a number of First Data management personnel (as mutually agreed to by the Parties) shall complete RCSI's Six Sigma Black Belt instruction.

(vi) A First Data employee has been identified and has been certified as a Master Black Belt.

7.8 Productivity and Management Tools.

First Data shall utilize project management tools, including productivity aids and project management systems, as reasonably necessary to perform the Production Services. First Data shall use project management tools in all major projects and employ a regular reporting mechanism to identify project tasks, present current status reports, and identify potential bottlenecks and problems.

7.9 Restrictive Covenant.

- (a) First Data agrees that during the Term, it will not ***
- (b) Nothing in this Section 7.9 shall be construed to prohibit First Data or any First Data Affiliate, and they shall not be restricted from, ***

8. AUDITS*8.1 Audit Rights.

(a) First Data shall maintain a complete audit trail of financial and non-financial transactions resulting from this Agreement. First Data shall provide to RCSI, its Affiliates, auditors (including internal audit staff and external auditors), inspectors, regulators and other representatives (which representatives may include RCSI Customers) as RCSI may from time to time designate in writing, access at reasonable times to any facility or part of a facility from which either First Data or any of its Subcontractors is providing the Production Services and to data and records relating to the Production Services for the purpose of performing audits and inspections of either First Data or any of its Subcontractors to:

(i) verify the accuracy of charges and invoices, and the inventory of RCSI supplies and other RCSI assets, if any;

(ii) verify the integrity of RCSI Data and examine the systems that receive, process store, support and transmit that data and First Data's compliance with the data privacy, data protection, and confidentiality provisions of this Agreement; and

(iii) examine First Data's performance of the Production Services including, to the extent applicable to the Production Services performed by First Data and to the charges therefor, performing audits: (A) of practices and procedures, (B) of systems, (C) of general controls and security practices and procedures, (D) of disaster recovery and back-up procedures, (E) of the efficiency of First Data in performing the Production Services (but only to the extent affecting charges for, or timing of, Production Services hereunder), (F) as necessary to enable RCSI to meet applicable regulatory requirements, and (G) to verify First Data's compliance with any other provisions of this Agreement.

(b) First Data shall provide to such auditors, inspectors, regulators, and representatives such assistance as they require, including, subject to First Data's reasonable requirements designed to maintain the security of First Data Data, installing and operating audit software. First Data shall cooperate fully with RCSI or its designees in connection with audit functions and with regard to examinations by regulatory authorities. RCSI's auditors and other representatives shall comply with First Data's reasonable security requirements. With respect to RCSI-initiated general audits that are conducted on-site at First Data, RCSI shall give First Data reasonable prior notice of RCSI's intent to audit and the notice shall include a description of the scope of the audit. If there are more than two (2) such RCSI-initiated general audits during any calendar year First Data may charge RCSI for its incremental cost thereof, and the period during which such audits will each be conducted on-site at First Data will not exceed ten (10) days. In the case of an RCSI audit respecting particular identified problems, RCSI will provide such notice, if any, as is appropriate under the circumstances.

8.2 Audit Follow-up.

(a) Within fifteen (15) days following RCSI's receipt of a report on the results of an audit or examination, to the extent possible, RCSI or its auditor shall provide First Data with a report of the audit or examination report's findings that pertain to First Data. Following an audit or examination, RCSI may conduct (in the case of an internal audit), or request its external auditors or examiners or regulatory agencies to conduct, an exit conference with First Data to obtain factual concurrence with issues identified in the review. First Data promptly shall notify RCSI if any review or audit conducted by First Data, its Affiliates, or their contractors, agents or representatives (including internal and external auditors or a regulatory agency), reveals that a material failure to perform in accordance with this Agreement has occurred or may occur and shall provide RCSI with a copy of the applicable portions of the audit and shall advise RCSI of the status of remedial efforts being undertaken with respect to such failure or potential failure to perform.

(b) First Data and RCSI shall meet to review each audit report promptly after the issuance thereof and to mutually agree upon the appropriate manner, if any, in which to respond to the changes suggested by the audit report. RCSI and First Data shall develop operating procedures for the sharing of audit and regulatory findings and reports related to First Data's operating practices and procedures produced by auditors or regulators of either Party; provided, however, that the sharing of audit information (i) must relate to an audit relevant and specific to the Production Services provided to RCSI, and (ii) will be subject to First Data's confidentiality obligation to its other customers; and further provided, however, that First Data shall extend every reasonable effort to gain release of its confidentiality obligation to support these audit efforts.

(c) If an audit report indicates that a problem exists, then within ten (10) days following RCSI's receipt of the report, the Parties will meet to review that problem and to agree mutually upon the appropriate manner, if any, in which to address the problem; provided, however, that the foregoing notwithstanding, if any audit or examination identifies a failure by First Data or any First Data Subcontractor to comply with any relevant law, rule, ordinance, code or other obligation in performing the Production Services or to comply with this Agreement, which noncompliance creates the risk that RCSI or any RCSI Affiliate is violating or will be deemed to violate any requirement of law or any contractual obligation, First Data shall, (i) immediately upon the earlier of discovering or being notified of such failure cease and cure such failure, (ii) not more than ten (10) days following the earlier of discovering or being notified of such failure develop a plan for ensuring that such failure does not reoccur, which plan is acceptable to RCSI, and (iii) implement such plan not more than thirty (30) days after the earlier of discovering or being notified of such failure.

(d) If an audit shows that First Data has overcharged RCSI, First Data will be obligated, at RCSI's option, to credit to RCSI's account an amount equal to the amount of the overcharge plus interest at the Default Rate calculated from the date the overcharge was paid by RCSI to First Data, or to pay the amount to RCSI directly. If an audit shows that First Data overcharged RCSI on any invoice by more than *** Dollars *** of the correct amount of the invoice, then First Data will also pay RCSI for the cost of the audit.

8.3 Annual Audit.

First Data will conduct its own audits pertaining to the Production Services consistent with the audit practices of well-managed companies that perform services similar to the Production Services. Each year of the Term, upon RCSI's written request First Data will provide no more often than annually: (i) a Statement of Auditing Standards No. 70, Type II review ("SAS 70")(or the relevant successor statement adopted by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants) of the facilities from where the Production Services are performed, (ii) written evidence of the Payment Card Industry (PCI) Data Security Standard (DSS) certification, and (iii) the BITS FISAP SIG as a means of demonstrating compliance with the financial institution-service provider industry standard questionnaire. Additionally, or as part of the SAS 70 Type II audit, if necessary for RCSI's compliance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 First Data shall provide the necessary certification to verify that the Production Services are performed in compliance with the provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. First Data will provide RCSI with a summary of the results of all First Data audits relating to the Production Services. If a First Data audit indicates an adverse impact to RCSI Data, or to RCSI or other Service Recipients, or any violation of this Agreement, First Data will immediately notify RCSI, providing pertinent details so that RCSI can take steps to avoid or minimize the adverse impacts. First Data will also correct the errors or problems as soon as reasonably possible.

8.4 Record Keeping and Record Retention.

(a) First Data will maintain complete and accurate records of, and supporting documentation for, the amounts billable to and payments made by RCSI under this Agreement. First Data agrees to provide RCSI with documentation and other information with respect to each invoice as may be reasonably requested by RCSI to verify accuracy and compliance with the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) In support of RCSI's Audit rights, First Data will keep and maintain records pertaining to First Data's compliance with the Service Levels, including root cause analyses, and such other operational records pertaining to performance of the Production Services, in each instance as First Data keeps in the ordinary course of its business.

(c) Until (i) no longer required to meet RCSI's records retention policy (as that policy may be adjusted from time to time); or (ii) all pending matters relating to this Agreement (including disputes) are closed; but (iii) no later than the date three (3) years after the date of expiration or termination of this Agreement unless otherwise required by law, First Data will maintain and provide access upon request to the records, documents and other information required to meet RCSI's requirements and audit rights under this Agreement.

8.5 Scope of Audits.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the various audit rights described in this Agreement shall be limited to items and events occurring up to three (3) years prior to the date of the subject audit, provided, however, that audits requested by or in response to legal proceedings or requests, or to inquiries or directives by governmental or regulatory agencies shall not be subject to such three (3) year limitation period.

8.6 Confidentiality of Audits

All Audit results and disclosed records will be treated as First Data Confidential Information (except to the extent they contain RCSI Confidential Information or fall within an exception in Section 12.5(e)) and shall not be used for any purpose except to verify First Data's compliance with its obligations under this Agreement and except that such results and records may be disclosed to regulators in accordance with Section 12.5(e).

8.7 Financial Reports

At RCSI's request, First Data will provide to RCSI copies of all publicly-available audited and unaudited financial statements of First Data and its Affiliates.

9. RCSI RESPONSIBILITIES*9.1 Responsibilities.

In addition to RCSI's responsibilities as expressly set forth elsewhere in this Agreement, RCSI shall be responsible for the following:

(a) RCSI shall designate one individual from time to time, to whom all First Data communications concerning this Agreement may be addressed (the "RCSI Relationship Executive"). As of the Effective Date the RCSI Relationship Executive is Julie Stansbury.

(b) RCSI shall cooperate with First Data by, among other things, making available, as reasonably requested by First Data, management decisions, information, approvals and acceptances so that First Data may accomplish its obligations and responsibilities hereunder. The RCSI Relationship Executive or his or her designee will be the principal point of contact for obtaining such decisions, information, approvals and acceptances.

9.2 Savings Clause.

*** First Data's nonperformance of its obligations under this Agreement shall be excused if and to the extent (a) such First Data nonperformance results from RCSI's failure to perform its responsibilities set forth in this Agreement or if RCSI fails to perform its obligations (as such obligations are set forth in the Procedures Manual) to transfer or provide to the First Data System data at such frequency as reasonably required to perform First Data's obligations under this Agreement, and (b) First Data provides RCSI with reasonable notice of such non-performance and uses commercially reasonable efforts to perform notwithstanding RCSI's failure to perform (with RCSI reimbursing First Data for its additional out-of-pocket expenses for such efforts).

10.1 General.

All charges for the Production Services are set forth in this Section 10 and in Schedule C hereto. RCSI shall not be required to pay First Data any amounts for the Production Services in addition to those payable to First Data under this Section 10 or Schedule C hereto. For the avoidance of any doubt or confusion, the charges set forth in the TSA for the Services (as defined in the TSA), including any charges relating to print and mail or embossing services or functions, do not apply to the Production Services hereunder.

10.2 Pass-Through Expenses.

(a) Pass-Through Expenses are charges to be paid directly by RCSI or by RCSI through First Data. All Pass-Through Expenses are listed in Exhibit C-3 hereto. If the Parties agree that a particular Pass-Through Expense is to be paid by RCSI directly, First Data shall promptly provide RCSI with the original third-party invoice for such expense together with a statement that First Data has reviewed the invoiced charges and made a determination of which charges are proper and valid and should be paid by RCSI. Otherwise, First Data shall act as payment agent for RCSI and shall pay third-party charges comprising the Pass-Through Expense. Prior to making any such payment, however, First Data shall review the invoiced charges to determine whether such charges are proper and valid and should be paid. Upon request and subject to First Data's confidentiality requirements with its suppliers, First Data shall provide RCSI with a reasonable opportunity to review the invoice to confirm First Data's determination. Following such review by First Data and RCSI, First Data shall pay the amounts due and shall invoice RCSI for such charges.

(b) First Data shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ***. With respect to services or materials paid for on a Pass-Through Expenses basis, RCSI reserves the right to: (i) obtain such services or materials ***; (ii) *** for such services or materials; (iii) *** First Data shall obtain, provided that if First Data demonstrates to RCSI that such designation will have an adverse impact on First Data's ability to meet the Service Levels, such designation shall be ***; (iv) require First Data *** share the results thereof with RCSI; and (v) review and approve the Pass-Through Expense for such services or materials ***.

10.3 Incidental Expenses.

First Data acknowledges that, except as may be otherwise provided in this Agreement, expenses that First Data expects to incur in performing the Production Services (including travel and lodging, document reproduction and administrative correspondence shipping, and long-distance telephone) are included in First Data's charges and rates set forth in this Agreement. Accordingly, such First Data expenses are not separately reimbursable by RCSI unless, on a case-by-case basis for unusual expenses, RCSI has agreed in advance and in writing to reimburse First Data for the expense. RCSI acknowledges that it will be responsible for its own incidental expenses (including travel and lodging, document reproduction and administrative correspondence shipping, and long-distance telephone).

10.4 Taxes.

The Parties' respective responsibilities for taxes arising under or in connection with this Agreement shall be as follows:

(a) Each Party shall be responsible for any personal property taxes on property it owns or leases, for franchise and privilege taxes on its business, and for taxes based on its net income or gross receipts.

(b) First Data shall be responsible for any sales, use, excise, gross receipts, value-added, services, consumption, and other taxes and duties payable by First Data on any goods or services used or consumed by First Data in providing the Production Services where the tax is imposed on First Data's acquisition or use of such goods or services and the amount of tax is measured by First Data's costs in acquiring such goods or services.

(c) RCSI shall be responsible for any sales, use, excise, gross receipts, value-added, services, consumption, or other tax existing as of the Effective Date that is assessed on the provision of the Production Services as a whole, or on any particular Production Services received by RCSI from First Data. RCSI will be responsible for any sales, use, excise, gross receipts, value-added, services, consumption, or other tax becoming applicable during the Term (or that is increased during the Term) that is assessed on the provision of the Production Services as a whole, or on any particular service received by RCSI from First Data.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the charges to RCSI shall not include any component related to applicable sales taxes regarding (i) plastic materials for Transaction Cards used by First Data in providing the Production Services or (ii) the Production Services (including sorting services and envelope inserting services) provided by First Data so long as applicable resale certificates are provided to First Data by RCSI. However, First Data may include in the charges to RCSI a component to reimburse First Data for any applicable sales tax paid by First Data with respect to Statements and other printed materials used by First Data in providing the Production Services (other than plastic materials for Transaction Cards).

(e) If a sales, use, excise, gross receipts, value-added, services, consumption, or other tax is assessed on the provision of any of the Production Services, the Parties shall work together to segregate the payments under this Agreement into three (3) payment streams:

(i) those for taxable Production Services;

(ii) those in which First Data functions merely as a payment agent for RCSI in receiving goods, supplies, or services (including leasing and licensing arrangements); and

(iii) those for other nontaxable Production Services.

(f) The Parties agree to cooperate with each other to enable each to more accurately determine its own tax liability and to minimize such liability to the extent legally permissible. First Data's invoices shall separately state the amounts of any taxes First Data is collecting from RCSI. The various charges for the Production

Services provided by First Data are set forth in Schedule C. Each Party shall provide and make available to the other any resale or direct pay certificates, information regarding out-of-state or out-of-country sales or use of equipment, materials or Production Services, other exemption certificates, power of attorney or other necessary authorizations or information reasonably requested by the other Party.

(g) First Data shall promptly notify RCSI of, and coordinate with RCSI the response to, any claim for taxes asserted by applicable taxing authorities for which RCSI is responsible hereunder. RCSI shall, at its option and expense (including, if required by a taxing authority, pay such tax, interest or penalty prior to final resolution of the issue) have the right to request (which request shall not be denied, delayed, subject to any conditions, or withheld by First Data) to seek administrative relief, a ruling, judicial review (original or appellate level) or other appropriate review (hereinafter referred to as "Proceeding(s)") (in a manner deemed appropriate by RCSI), as to the applicability of any tax, interest or penalty, or to protest any assessment and participate with First Data in any legal challenge to such assessment, but RCSI shall be liable hereunder for any such amount ultimately determined to be due. Notwithstanding the above, such indemnity is conditioned upon First Data providing RCSI timely notification within ten (10) Business Days of receiving any proposed assessment of any such additional taxes, interest or penalty due, and First Data shall provide RCSI with the necessary authority or powers to provide RCSI with the opportunity to participate in such Proceeding(s) or other appropriate review as to the applicability of any such taxes prior to any assessment of additional taxes; provided, however, that First Data's failure to provide timely notice shall not affect the indemnity hereunder to the extent such failure does not actually prejudice RCSI. First Data shall, when requested by RCSI and at RCSI's expense, cooperate with and/or allow RCSI to participate with First Data in any such Proceeding, protest or legal challenge related to matters for which RCSI is responsible. In any proceeding which involves issues affecting only RCSI or RCSI and other First Data customers, First Data shall make reasonable efforts to sever the issues relating to RCSI from all other issues raised in the Proceeding, so that RCSI may control the portion of the Proceeding relating to RCSI, and First Data may control the portion of the Proceeding relating to those issues that do not relate to RCSI; provided, however, that if First Data is unable to sever the issues in a Proceeding, First Data shall control the Proceeding, but shall give RCSI the right to participate in any Proceeding(s). Notwithstanding the above, RCSI's participation in any Proceeding shall not prohibit or inhibit First Data from concluding or resolving matters related to First Data or First Data's other clients, provided, however, that First Data shall not pay any claimed liability or settle any Proceeding unless RCSI has consented in writing to such payment or settlement (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld).

(h) RCSI shall be entitled to any tax refunds or rebates granted to the extent such refunds or rebates are of taxes that were paid by RCSI.

11. INVOICING AND PAYMENT*11.1 Invoicing.

(a) First Data shall invoice RCSI on a monthly basis in arrears for all amounts due under this Agreement at its address in Utah, with a copy to Manager of Finance of RCSI, 485 Lake Mirror Road, Bldg 700, College Park, Georgia 30349. First Data will provide RCSI with on line access to all necessary information in order for RCSI to validate the charges, and a monthly paper invoice will follow. The invoice shall show details as to charges as reasonably specified by RCSI. First Data shall include the calculations utilized to establish the charges in sufficient detail to enable RCSI to confirm the accuracy of the charges included in the invoice.

(b) To the extent a credit may be due RCSI pursuant to this Agreement, First Data shall provide RCSI with an appropriate credit against amounts then due and owing; if no further payments are due to First Data, First Data shall pay such amounts to RCSI within thirty (30) days.

(c) First Data shall render a single consolidated invoice for each month's charges, showing such details as reasonably specified by RCSI, including as necessary to satisfy RCSI's internal accounting and chargeback requirements (such as service components, projects, locations, and departments). Such invoice shall separately state the amounts of any taxes First Data is collecting from RCSI. The invoice shall state for each item or service charged the clause in Schedule C authorizing First Data to charge for such item or service.

(d) If First Data discovers that an invoice failed to include any amounts which were properly billable to RCSI, First Data will identify those amounts in detail and will explain the reason for the omission at the time of the appropriate invoice. First Data waives, and RCSI shall not be responsible for, any amount that is invoiced later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after RCSI's receipt of the related invoice.

(e) If First Data incorrectly charges RCSI for Monthly Charges or Pass-Through Expenses two times in a twelve (12) month period in an amount in excess of *** of the aggregate amount of Monthly Charges and Pass-Through Expenses for such months, First Data shall, within thirty (30) days of RCSI's notice to First Data of such fact, *** in the months for which the invoices containing the incorrect charges are made.

11.2 Payment Due.

Subject to the other provisions of this Section 11, invoices provided for under Section 11.1 and properly submitted to RCSI pursuant to this Agreement shall be due and payable by RCSI within *** days after receipt thereof. Any amount due under this Agreement for which a time for payment is not otherwise specified shall be due and payable within *** days after receipt of a proper invoice for such amount. RCSI shall pay amounts due from it to First Data electronically.

11.3 Accountability.

First Data shall maintain complete and accurate records of, and supporting documentation for, the amounts billable to and payments made by RCSI hereunder, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis. First Data agrees to provide RCSI with documentation and other information with respect to each invoice as may be reasonably requested by RCSI to verify accuracy and compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. RCSI and its authorized agents and representatives shall have access to such records for purposes of audit during normal business hours during the Term and during the period for which First Data is required to maintain such records.

11.4 Proration.

Periodic charges under this Agreement are to be computed on a calendar month basis, and shall be prorated for any partial month.

11.5 Refundable Items.

(a) Prepaid Amounts. Where RCSI has prepaid for a service or function for which First Data is assuming financial responsibility under this Agreement, First Data shall refund to RCSI, upon either Party identifying the prepayment, that portion of such prepaid expense which is attributable to periods on and after the Effective Date.

(b) Refunds and Credits. If First Data should receive a refund, credit or other rebate for goods or services previously paid for by RCSI, First Data shall promptly notify RCSI of such refund, credit or rebate and shall promptly pay the full amount of such refund, credit or rebate, as the case may be to RCSI. Unless previously paid to RCSI, First Data will reflect any refund, credit or rebate as a reduction of the amounts payable to First Data in the next invoice delivered to RCSI under this Agreement. If no further payments are due to First Data under this Agreement, First Data shall pay such amounts to RCSI within thirty (30) days of RCSI's request therefor.

11.6 Deduction.

With respect to an amount to be paid by RCSI hereunder, RCSI may deduct from that amount any amount that First Data is obligated to pay or credit to RCSI.

11.7 Disputed Charges.

Subject to Section 11.6, RCSI shall pay undisputed charges when such payments are due under this Section 11 and Schedule C. RCSI may withhold payment of particular charges that RCSI disputes in good faith. RCSI agrees to notify First Data within one hundred eighty (180) days of and to use best efforts to resolve in a timely manner, any material disputed charges.

12.1 RCSI Information.

(a) RCSI Information shall be and remain the property of RCSI. First Data shall not assert any lien or other right against or to RCSI Information. No RCSI Information, or any part thereof, shall be sold, assigned, leased, or otherwise disposed of to third parties by First Data or commercially exploited by or on behalf of First Data, its employees or agents.

(b) Upon any of (i) RCSI's request, (ii) the expiration of this Agreement, or (iii) the termination of this Agreement for any reason (including termination for cause) or, with respect to any particular data, on such earlier date that the same shall be no longer required by First Data in order to render the Production Services hereunder, such RCSI Information (including copies thereof in the possession or under the control of First Data, except as necessary to comply with regulatory requirements applicable to First Data) shall be promptly returned to RCSI by First Data in a form reasonably requested by RCSI or, if RCSI so elects, shall be destroyed.

12.2 Safeguarding RCSI Data.

(a) First Data shall establish and maintain safeguards against the destruction, loss, or alteration of RCSI Data in its possession which are no less rigorous than the most stringent safeguards maintained by First Data for its other customers of services similar to the Production Services. RCSI shall have the right to establish backup security for data and to keep backup data and data files in its possession if it chooses.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Section 12.2(a) above:

(i) First Data Personnel shall not attempt to access, or allow access to, any RCSI Data or RCSI Information which is not required for performance of the Production Services by First Data Personnel. If such access is attained, First Data shall use best efforts to promptly report such incident to RCSI, describe in detail any accessed materials, and return to RCSI any copied or removed materials.

(ii) First Data shall institute industry *** systems security, backup and disaster recovery measures to guard against the unauthorized access, alteration, destruction or loss of RCSI Data. Such measures shall include the installation of software which: (A) requires all users to enter a user identification number and password prior to gaining access to the information systems; (B) controls and tracks the addition and deletion of users; (C) controls user access to areas and features of the systems; and (D) requires passwords to be changed periodically and under specified circumstances.

(b) Upon any of (i) the expiration of this Agreement (ii) the termination of this Agreement for any reason (including termination for cause), or (iii) with respect to any particular data, on such earlier date that the same shall be no longer required by RCSI in order to receive and use the Production Services hereunder, but subject in all cases to the provisions of Section 18.6, such First Data Information (including copies thereof in the possession or under the control of RCSI, except as necessary to comply with regulatory requirements applicable to RCSI) shall be promptly returned to First Data by RCSI in a form reasonably requested by First Data or, if First Data so elects, shall be destroyed.

(c) First Data Information shall not be utilized by RCSI for any purpose other than that of receiving and using the Production Services under this Agreement.

12.4 Safeguarding First Data Data.

(a) RCSI shall establish and maintain safeguards against the destruction, loss, or alteration of First Data Data in its possession which are no less rigorous than those maintained by RCSI for its own information of a similar nature. First Data shall have the right to establish backup security for data and to keep backup data and data files in its possession if it chooses.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Section 12.4(a) above, RCSI employees shall not attempt to access, or allow access to, any First Data Data or First Data Information which is not required for receiving or using the Production Services. If such access is attained, RCSI shall use best efforts to promptly report such incident to First Data, describe in detail any accessed materials, and return to First Data any copied or removed materials.

12.5 Confidentiality.

(a) Confidential Information. First Data and RCSI each acknowledge that they may be furnished with, receive, or otherwise have access to information of or concerning the other Party which such Party considers to be confidential, proprietary, a trade secret or otherwise restricted. "Confidential Information" of a Party means any non-public, commercially proprietary or sensitive information (or materials) belonging to, concerning or in the possession or control of the Party or its Affiliates (the "Furnishing Party") that is furnished, disclosed or otherwise made available to the other Party (the "Receiving Party") (or entities or persons acting on the other Party's behalf) in connection with this Agreement and which is either marked or identified in writing as confidential, proprietary, secret or with another designation sufficient to give notice of its sensitive nature, or is of a type that a reasonable person would recognize it to be commercially sensitive. Without limiting the foregoing, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be deemed Confidential Information.

(d) Obligations.

(i) Each Party's Confidential Information shall remain the property of that Party except as expressly provided otherwise by the other provisions of this Agreement. RCSI and First Data shall each use at least the same degree of care to prevent disclosing to third parties the Confidential Information of the other as it employs to avoid unauthorized disclosure, publication or dissemination of its own information of a similar nature (but at least a reasonable degree of care); provided that the Parties may disclose such information to an employee, officer, director, agents, representative, external or internal auditors and independent contractors of the Party or of an Affiliate of the Party requiring access to the same in the course of his or her employment or his, her or its engagement. Furthermore, the Parties may disclose such information to entities performing services required hereunder where (A) use of such entity is authorized under this Agreement, (B) such disclosure is necessary or otherwise naturally occurs in that entity's scope of responsibility, and (C) the entity agrees in writing to assume the obligations described in this Section 12.5. Neither Party shall retain copies of the other Party's Confidential Information (except as may be necessary to comply with regulatory requirements applicable to the retaining Party).

(iii) Each Party shall take reasonable steps to ensure that its employees comply with these confidentiality provisions.

(iv) Neither Party shall alter or remove any identification, copyright or proprietary rights notice which indicates the ownership of any part of the other Party's Confidential Information.

(e) Exclusions. This Section 12.5 shall not apply to any particular information which First Data or RCSI can demonstrate (i) was, at the time of disclosure to it, in the public knowledge; (ii) after disclosure to it, is published or otherwise becomes part of the public knowledge through no fault of the receiving Party; (iii) was received from a third party who had a lawful right to disclose such information to it without any obligation to restrict its further use or disclosure; or (iv) was independently developed by the receiving Party without reference to Confidential Information of the furnishing Party. In addition, a Party shall not be considered to have breached its obligations by disclosing Confidential Information of the other Party as required to satisfy any legal requirement of a competent government body, provided that, immediately upon receiving any such request and to the extent that it may legally do so, such Party advises the other Party promptly and prior to making such disclosure in order that the other Party may interpose an objection to such disclosure, take action to assure confidential handling of the Confidential Information, or take such other action as it deems appropriate to protect the Confidential Information, including that the Furnishing Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy. If a protective order or similar order is not obtained by the date by which the Receiving Party must comply with the request, the Receiving Party may furnish that portion of the Confidential Information that it determines it is legally required to furnish.

(f) Loss of Confidential Information. In the event of any disclosure or loss of, or inability to account for, any Confidential Information of the furnishing Party, the receiving Party shall promptly, at its own expense: (i) notify the furnishing Party in writing; (ii) take such actions as may be necessary or reasonably requested by the furnishing Party to minimize the violation or the damage resulting therefrom; and (iii) cooperate in all reasonable respects with the furnishing Party to minimize the violation and any damage resulting therefrom.

(g) No Implied Rights. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, nothing in this Section 12.5 shall be construed as obligating a Party to disclose its Confidential Information to the other Party, or as granting to or conferring on a Party, expressly or implied, any rights or license to the Confidential Information of the other Party.

(h) Release of Information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, RCSI agrees that RCSI Confidential Information may be made available to supervisory or regulatory authorities of RCSI or of First Data upon the written request of any of the foregoing; provided, however, upon receipt of the request and prior to making the information available, First Data shall provide notice to RCSI of such request and shall provide RCSI a reasonable period of time in which RCSI may object to such disclosure, including obtaining suitable equitable protection.

12.6 Return or Destruction.

As requested by the Furnishing Party during the Term, the Receiving Party will return or provide the Furnishing Party a copy of any designated Confidential Information of the Furnishing Party. When Confidential Information of the Furnishing Party is no longer required for the Receiving Party's performance under this Agreement, or in any event upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, the Receiving Party will return all materials in any medium that contain Confidential Information of the Furnishing Party or, at the Furnishing Party's election, destroy them. At the Furnishing Party's request, the Receiving Party will certify in writing that it has returned or destroyed all copies of the Furnishing Party's Confidential Information in the possession or control of the Receiving Party's or any of its Affiliates or contractors.

12.7 Provisions for Data Compliance.

(a) In addition to and not in limitation of First Data's other obligations of confidentiality and non-disclosure under this Agreement, (i) First Data will implement appropriate administrative, technical, and physical safeguards and other appropriate measures to protect the security, confidentiality and integrity of Non-Public Personal information relating to customers of RCSI and its Affiliates and, to the extent relative to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act ("GLB Act"), other RCSI Information received by First Data from RCSI and its Affiliates, all as may be appropriate to meet the objectives of the GLB Act, including its implementing regulations promulgated thereunder and the guidelines issued pursuant to § 501 of the GLB Act, and (ii) First Data shall not use any Non-Public Personal Information relating to RCSI Customers received from RCSI or its Affiliates or obtained as a result of Production Services performed for RCSI ("RCSI Customer Information") except as necessary in the ordinary course of business to perform Production Services hereunder or as authorized in writing by RCSI. First Data will ensure that any such third party to whom RCSI authorizes First Data to transfer or provide access to RCSI Customer Information (other than those to whom RCSI has instructed First Data to transfer or provide access, who should be RCSI's responsibility):

(ii) agrees to restrict disclosure of Non-Public Personal Information of RCSI and its Affiliates as provided in this Section; and

(iii) agrees to implement and maintain appropriate administrative technical and physical safeguards to protect the security, confidentiality and integrity of all RCSI Customer Information as provided herein.

(b) First Data will be responsible for the acts or omissions of any third party to whom it transfers or provides access to RCSI Customer Information hereunder, other than a third party whom RCSI or its Affiliates has instructed First Data to make such disclosure.

(c) “Non-Public Personal Information” means information as defined in the GLB Act, including (i) an individual’s name, address, e-mail address, IP address, telephone number and/or social security number; (ii) the fact that an individual has a relationship with RCSI or any of its Affiliates; and (iii) an individual’s or RCSI Customer’s account information.

If RCSI finds deficiencies as a result of this assessment process RCSI may advise First Data of its findings and may request changes to First Data’s processes, facilities, systems or procedures which RCSI reasonably believes will remedy the deficiencies. Final remediation actions will be mutually agreed upon by First Data and RCSI.

13.7 Absence of Litigation.

First Data represents and warrants that there is no claim, or any litigation, proceeding, arbitration, investigation or material controversy pending to which First Data or any of First Data's Affiliates, agents, or representatives is a party, relating to the provision of the services offered by First Data, including the Production Services, or which would have a material adverse effect on First Data's ability to enter into this Agreement and perform its obligations hereunder and, to the best of First Data's knowledge, no such claim, litigation, proceeding, arbitration, investigation, or material controversy has been threatened or is contemplated. First Data shall promptly notify RCSI in writing if it receives written notice of any claim, litigation, proceeding, arbitration, investigation or material controversy to which First Data or any of its Affiliates, representatives or agents is a party, that, if adversely determined, would have a material and adverse effect on RCSI or any of its Affiliates, on any of the Production Services or on First Data's ability to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement.

13.8 Inducements.

First Data represents and warrants to RCSI that it has not knowingly violated any applicable laws or regulations or any RCSI policies of which First Data has been given notice regarding the offering of unlawful inducements in connection with this Agreement. If at any time during the Term, RCSI determines that the foregoing warranty is inaccurate, then, in addition to any other rights RCSI may have at law or in equity, RCSI shall have the right to terminate this Agreement for cause without affording First Data an opportunity to cure.

13.9 Viruses.

First Data represents and warrants that it will ensure that no Viruses are coded or introduced into the First Data System or into the RCSI or RCSI Affiliate information environments through the First Data System or the Production Services. If (a) a Virus which has adversely affected, or could adversely affect, the Production Services or the RCSI Data in the possession or under the control of First

Data, is found to have been introduced into the First Data System or (b) a Virus has been introduced into the RCSI or RCSI Affiliate information environment through the First Data System or the Production Services, First Data promptly will (i) notify RCSI of the introduction and the extent of any known damage to the RCSI Data, (ii) if the Virus is in the First Data System, eradicate the Virus, repair any damage to the RCSI Data and eliminate any adverse effect on the Production Services resulting from the Virus or the eradication thereof, and (iii) if the Virus has been introduced into the RCSI or RCSI Affiliate information environment through the First Data System or the Production Services, assist RCSI and the RCSI Affiliate in eradicating the Virus and reducing the effects of the Virus and, if the Virus causes a loss of operational efficiency or loss of data, assist RCSI and the RCSI Affiliate to mitigate and restore those losses.

13.10 Disabling Code.

First Data represents and warrants that, without the prior written consent of RCSI, First Data shall not knowingly insert into the First Data Software any code which would have the effect of disabling or otherwise shutting down all or any portion of the First Data Software or Production Services. First Data further represents and warrants that, with respect to any disabling code that may be part of the First Data Software, First Data shall not invoke such disabling code at any time, including upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, without RCSI's prior written consent.

13.11 Disclaimer.

EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT, THERE ARE NO OTHER EXPRESS WARRANTIES AND THERE ARE NO IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THIS AGREEMENT IS A SERVICE AGREEMENT AND THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE II OF THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE SHALL NOT APPLY TO IT.

14.1 Insurance.

First Data shall during the Term have and maintain in force the following insurance coverages:

(b) Comprehensive General Liability Insurance, including Products, Completed Operations Liability and Personal Injury, Contractual Liability and Broad Form Property Damage Liability coverage for damages to any property with a minimum combined single limit of $5,000,000 per occurrence. This policy shall be endorsed to name RCSI and its Affiliates as additional insureds.

(c) Electronic Data Processing All Risk Property Insurance on equipment, data, media and valuable papers, including extra expense coverage, with a minimum limit adequate to cover such risks on a replacement costs basis.

(d) Automotive Liability Insurance covering use of all owned, non-owned, and hired automobiles with a minimum combined single limit of $5,000,000 per occurrence for bodily injury and property damage liability. This policy shall be endorsed to name RCSI and its Affiliates as additional insureds.

(e) Umbrella Liability Insurance with a minimum limit of *** in excess of the insurance under policies indicated in Sections 14.1(a), 14.1(b), and 14.1(d).

(f) Employee Dishonesty and Computer Fraud coverage for loss arising out of or in connection with any fraudulent or dishonest acts committed by the employees of First Data, acting alone or in collusion with others, including the property and funds of others in their care, custody or control, in a minimum amount of $10,000,000. This policy shall name RCSI and its Affiliates as loss payees.

(g) Errors and Omissions Liability Insurance covering the liability for financial loss due to error, omission, negligence of employees and machine malfunction in an amount of at least $10,000,000.

The foregoing insurance coverages shall be primary and non-contributing with respect to any other insurance or self insurance which may be maintained by RCSI. Upon request by RCSI, First Data shall cause its insurers to issue certificates of insurance evidencing that the coverages and policy endorsements required under this Agreement are maintained in force and that not less than thirty (30) days written notice shall be given to RCSI prior to any modification, cancellation or non-renewal of the policies. The insurers selected by First Data shall have an A.M. Best rating of A- or better or, if such ratings are no longer available, with a comparable rating from a recognized insurance rating agency. First Data shall assure that its Subcontractors, if any, maintain insurance coverages as specified in this Section 14 or that, if a Subcontractor does not maintain the coverages, each such Subcontractor will be listed as an additional named insured on the related coverage of First Data, as applicable.

14.2 Risk of Loss.

Each Party shall be responsible for risk of loss of, and damage to, any equipment, software or other materials in its possession or under its control.

15. INDEMNITIES

15.1 Indemnity by First Data.

First Data agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless RCSI and its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, and assigns, from any and all Losses and threatened Losses arising from, in connection with, or based on allegations of, any of the following:

(a) First Data's breach of any of its duties or obligations under this Agreement;

(b) Any claims of infringement of any patent, trade secret, copyright or other proprietary rights, alleged to have occurred because of systems or other resources provided by First Data to RCSI, or based upon performance of the Production Services by First Data, except to the extent the claim: (i) is caused by RCSI's use of the First Data System outside the intended scope of Production Services; or (ii) directly relates to technical or business specifications and/or designs required by RCSI in connection with System Enhancements or New Production Services initiated by RCSI (but excluding the development and/or execution of same by First Data Personnel required by such specifications and/or designs); and

(c) For errors arising under this Agreement only (i.e., not to include errors arising under the TSA) with respect to mailing Cardholder Statements, amounts incurred by RCSI Customers and paid to the RCSI Customer by RCSI with respect to the cost of financial rewards (such as the face value of coupons, gift cards, certificates redeemed) sent in any second set of mailings the necessity for which was caused by First Data's errors or omissions; provided that with respect to each such incident (i) RCSI shall bear five percent (5%) of the liability above $500,000 and (ii) First Data's aggregate liability shall be limited to $1,000,000. In settling RCSI Customer claims RCSI will have a duty to act reasonably to mitigate damages, subject to considerations of RCSI Customer relations and following consultation with First Data. In determining damages, RCSI will be allowed to prove damages by reasonable estimation based upon comparing the situation at hand with applicable prior experiences, but the methodology must be reasonably designed to estimate actual damages (i.e., must be a comparable comparison). The Parties will attempt to agree on the amounts of damages and the methodology for estimating such damages. If the Parties cannot agree on the amount of damages or the methodology for estimation thereof, they may have experts present to an arbitrator in binary arbitration pursuant to Section 17.2 (e.g., the arbitrator must consider the amounts proposed by each Party and then choose only between the Parties' respective positions as to which one is more reasonable and the arbitrator may not choose any other alternative). Liability for damages under this Section 15.1(c) shall not include:

(i) Lost interest or late fees;

(ii) Lost sales by the RCSI Customer;

(iii) Any damages of any type (including the type described in Section 16.2(a)) incurred by any person other than with respect to RCSI's and its Affiliates' liability to the RCSI Customer (and its Affiliates), specifically including RCSI and RCSI's Affiliates (other than with respect to RCSI's and its Affiliates' liability to the RCSI Customer impacted); or

(iv) Any damages not specifically provided in this Section 15.1(c).

The indemnity in this Section 15.1(c) is RCSI's sole remedy for damages related to additional financial rewards issued as a result of First Data mailing errors as provided in this Section 15.1(c).

15.2 Indemnity by RCSI.

RCSI agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless First Data and its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, and assigns, from any and all Losses and threatened Losses arising from, in connection with, or based on allegations of, any of the following:

(a) RCSI's breach of any of its duties or obligations under this Agreement and;

(b) Any claims of infringement of any patent, trade secret, copyright or other proprietary rights, alleged to have occurred because of (i) RCSI's use of the First Data System in a manner outside the intended scope of the Production Services; or (ii) technical or business specifications and/or designs provided by RCSI in connection with System Enhancements or New Production Services initiated by RCSI (but excluding the development and/or execution of same by First Data Personnel required by such specifications and/or designs), except to the extent the claim is caused by First Data's use of the of the systems, software or other resources, or detailed business and technical specifications in combination with other systems not expressly authorized by RCSI.

15.3 Additional Indemnities.

Each Party shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Party, and the other Party's Affiliates, and their officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, and assigns, from any and all Losses and threatened Losses arising from, in connection with, or based on allegations of, any of the following: (a) the death or bodily injury of any agent, employee, customer, business invitee, or business visitor or other person caused by the tortious conduct of the indemnitor; (b) the damage, loss or destruction of any real or tangible personal property caused by the tortious conduct of the indemnitor; (c) any claim, demand, charge, action, cause of action, or other proceeding asserted against the indemnitee but resulting from an act or omission of the indemnitor in its capacity as an employer of a person; (d) any claim by any person arising out of his or her employment with the indemnitor, any application for such employment or the termination thereof; and (e) any claim by any person alleging to the effect that such person is jointly employed by the indemnitee as a result of performing any services as an employee or independent contractor of the indemnitor.

15.4 Infringement.

If any item used by First Data to provide the Production Services becomes, or in First Data's reasonable opinion is likely to become, the subject of an infringement or misappropriation claim or proceeding, First Data shall, in addition to indemnifying RCSI as provided in this Section 15 and to the other rights RCSI may have under this Agreement, promptly at First Data's expense take the following actions: (a) secure the right to continue using the item or replace or modify the item to make it non-infringing, provided that any such replacement or modification will not degrade the performance or quality of the affected component of the Production Services; or (b) if (a) is not available to First Data, remove the item from the Production Services and equitably adjust First Data's charges to adequately reflect such removal.

15.5 Indemnification Procedures.

With respect to third-party claims, the following procedures shall apply:

(a) Notice. Promptly after receipt by any entity or individual entitled to indemnification under Sections 15.1 through 15.3 of notice of the commencement or threatened commencement of any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action or proceeding involving a claim in respect of which the indemnitee will seek indemnification pursuant to any such Section, the indemnitee shall notify the indemnitor of such claim in writing. No failure to so notify an indemnitor shall relieve it of its obligations under this Agreement except to the extent that it can demonstrate damages attributable to such failure. Within fifteen (15) days following receipt of written notice from the indemnitee relating to any claim, but no later than ten (10) days before the date on which any response to a complaint or summons is due, the indemnitor shall notify the indemnitee in writing if the indemnitor elects to assume control of the defense and settlement of that claim (a "Notice of Election").

(b) Procedure Following Notice of Election. If the indemnitor delivers a Notice of Election relating to any claim within the required notice period, the indemnitor shall be entitled to have sole control over the defense and settlement of such claim; provided that (i) the indemnitee shall be entitled to participate in the defense of such claim and to employ counsel at its own expense to assist in the handling of such claim, and (ii) the indemnitor shall obtain the prior written approval of the indemnitee before entering into any settlement of such claim or ceasing to defend against such claim. After the indemnitor has delivered a Notice of Election relating to any claim in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the indemnitor shall not be liable to the indemnitee for any legal expenses incurred by the indemnitee in connection with the defense of that claim. In addition, the indemnitor shall not be required to indemnify the indemnitee for any amount paid or payable by the indemnitee in the settlement of any claim for which the indemnitor has delivered a timely Notice of Election if such amount was agreed to without the written consent of the indemnitor.

(c) Procedure Where No Notice of Election Is Delivered. If the indemnitor does not deliver a Notice of Election relating to any claim within the required notice period, the indemnitee shall have the right to defend the claim in such manner as it may deem appropriate, at the cost and expense of the indemnitor. The indemnitor shall promptly reimburse the indemnitee for all such costs and expenses.

15.6 Subrogation.

If an indemnitor shall be obligated to indemnify an indemnitee pursuant to Sections 15.1 through 15.3, the indemnitor shall, upon payment of such indemnity in full, be subrogated to all rights of the indemnitee with respect to the claims to which such indemnification relates.

16. LIABILITY

16.1 General Intent.

Subject to the specific provisions of this Section 16, it is the intent of the Parties that each Party shall be liable to the other Party for any actual damages incurred by the non-breaching Party as a result of the breaching Party's failure to perform its obligations in the manner required by this Agreement.

16.2 Liability Limitations.

(a) Subject to Section 16.2(c), IN NO EVENT, WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR IN TORT (INCLUDING BREACH OF WARRANTY, NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT LIABILITY IN TORT), SHALL A PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT OR CONSEQUENTIAL, LOST PROFITS, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE OR SPECIAL DAMAGES EVEN IF SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES IN ADVANCE. This Section 16.2(a) shall ***.

(b) Subject to Section 16.2(c), each Party's total liability to the other for events occurring within a calendar year, whether in contract or in tort (including breach of warranty, negligence and strict liability in tort), shall be limited to an amount equal to the greater of (i) the aggregate monthly charges incurred by RCSI under this Agreement during the *** months prior to the month in which the event giving rise to the liability occurred (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any amounts incurred under the Original Agreement) and (ii) ***; provided, however, to the extent any such liability results from (a) ***, or (b) ***, First Data's total liability under the preceding clause shall be the greater of (x) the aggregate Monthly Charges incurred by RCSI under this Agreement during the *** months prior to the month in which the event giving rise to the liability occurred (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any amounts incurred under the Original Agreement) and (y) ***. Any liability of First Data under Section 4.6(b) of Schedule B shall be subject to (and count against) the limitations of this Section 16.2(b).

(c) The limitations set forth in Section 16.2(b) shall ***.

(d) In addition to the limitations provided in Section 16.2(b), First Data's aggregate liability over the Term pursuant to Section 15.1(c) of these Terms and Conditions, Sections 4.6(b) and 4.6(c) of Schedule B and the Special Service Levels shall be limited to ***. If, at the beginning of any Renewal Term, the then-current Headroom (as hereinafter defined) is less than ***, the amount of this limitation shall be increased by the amount necessary to make the limitation applicable to such Renewal Term equal to ***. This limitation may also be reset pursuant to Section 18.4. "Headroom" means amount, if any, by which the then-current limitation on liability under this Section 16.2(d) exceeds the then-current amounts that have been subject to and counted against this limitation.

(e) Each Party shall have a duty to mitigate damages for which the other Party is responsible.

16.3 Force Majeure.

(a) Neither Party shall be liable for any default or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement (i) if and to the extent such default or delay is caused, directly or indirectly, by fire, flood, earthquake, elements of nature or acts of God or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of such Party; and (ii) provided the non-performing Party is without fault in causing such default or delay, and such default or delay could not have been prevented by reasonable precautions and cannot reasonably be circumvented by the non-performing Party through the use of alternate sources, workaround plans or other means (including with respect to First Data by First Data meeting its obligations for performing disaster recovery services as described in this Agreement).

(b) In such event the non-performing Party shall be excused from further performance or observance of the obligation(s) so affected for as long as such circumstances prevail and such Party continues to use its best efforts to recommence performance or observance whenever and to whatever extent possible without delay. Any Party so delayed in its performance shall immediately notify the Party to whom performance is due by telephone (to be confirmed in writing within two (2) days of the inception of such delay) and describe at a reasonable level of detail the circumstances causing such delay.

(c) If any event under Section 16.3(a) above substantially prevents, hinders, or delays performance of the Production Services necessary for the performance of RCSI functions reasonably identified by RCSI as critical for more than *** consecutive days, then at RCSI's option, RCSI may procure such Production Services from an alternate source, and First Data shall be liable for payment for such Production Services from the alternate source for so long as the delay in performance shall continue. If any event under Section 16.3(a) above substantially prevents, hinders, or delays performance of the Production Services necessary for the performance of RCSI functions reasonably identified by RCSI as critical for more than thirty (30) consecutive days, then at RCSI's option, (i) RCSI may terminate any portion of this Agreement so affected and the charges payable hereunder shall be equitably adjusted to reflect those terminated Production Services; or (ii) RCSI may terminate this Agreement without liability to RCSI or First Data as of a date specified by RCSI in a written notice of termination to First Data. First Data shall not have the right to any additional payments from RCSI for costs or expenses incurred by First Data as a result of any force majeure occurrence.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute between the Parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including with respect to the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement and with respect to the performance by First Data or RCSI, shall be resolved as provided in this Section 17.

17.1 Informal Dispute Resolution.

Prior to the initiation of formal dispute resolution procedures, the Parties shall first attempt to resolve their dispute informally, as follows:

(a) Upon the written request of a Party, each Party shall appoint a designated representative who does not devote substantially all of his or her time to performance under this Agreement, whose task it will be to meet for the purpose of endeavoring to resolve such dispute.

(i) The designated representatives shall meet as often as the Parties reasonably deem necessary in order to gather and furnish to the other all information with respect to the matter in issue which the Parties believe to be appropriate and germane in connection with its resolution. The representatives shall discuss the problem and attempt to resolve the dispute without the necessity of any formal proceeding.

(ii) During the course of discussion, all reasonable requests made by one Party to another for non-privileged information, reasonably related to this Agreement, shall be honored in order that each of the Parties may be fully advised of the other's position.

(iii) The specific format for the discussions shall be left to the discretion of the designated representatives.

(b) Formal proceedings for the resolution of a dispute may not be commenced until the earlier of:

(i) the designated representatives concluding in good faith that amicable resolution through continued negotiation of the matter does not appear likely; or

(ii) thirty (30) days after the initial written request to appoint a designated representative pursuant to Section 17.1(a) above (this period shall be deemed to run notwithstanding any claim that the process described in this Section 17.1(a) was not followed or completed).

This Section 17.1 shall not be construed to prevent a Party from instituting, and each Party is authorized to institute, formal proceedings earlier to avoid the expiration of any applicable limitations period, or to preserve a superior position with respect to other creditors, and as provided in Sections 17.3(a) and 18.7 (Equitable Remedies).

17.2 Arbitration.

If the Parties are unable to resolve any dispute as contemplated by Section 17.1 and if such dispute is not subject to Sections 17.3(a) or 18.7 (Equitable Remedies), then such dispute shall be submitted to mandatory and binding arbitration at the election of either Party (the "Disputing Party") pursuant to the following conditions:

(a) Selection of Arbitrator. The Disputing Party shall notify the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution ("CPR") and the other Party in writing describing in reasonable detail the nature of the dispute ("the Dispute Notice"), and shall request that the CPR furnish a list of five (5) possible arbitrators who shall have substantial experience in the areas of card processing or print and mail and embossing services. Each Party shall have fifteen (15) days to reject two (2) of the proposed arbitrators. If only one individual has not been so rejected, he or she shall serve as arbitrator; if two or more individuals have not been so rejected, the CPR shall select the arbitrator from those individuals.

(b) Conduct of Arbitration. The arbitrator shall allow reasonable discovery to the extent consistent with the purpose of the arbitration. The arbitrator shall have no power or authority to amend or disregard any provision of this Section 17.2 or any other provision of this Agreement (in particular, the arbitrator shall not have the authority to exclude the right of a Party to terminate this Agreement when a Party would otherwise have such right). The arbitration hearing shall be commenced promptly and conducted expeditiously, with each of RCSI and First Data being allocated one-half of the time for the presentation of its case. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, an arbitration hearing shall be conducted on consecutive days.

(c) Replacement of Arbitrator. Should the arbitrator refuse or be unable to proceed with arbitration proceedings as called for by this Section 17.2, such arbitrator shall be replaced by an arbitrator selected from the other four (4) arbitrators originally proposed by the CPR and not rejected by the Parties, if any, or if there are no remaining proposed arbitrators who have not been rejected, by repeating the process of selection described in Section 17.2(a) above. If an arbitrator is replaced pursuant to this Section 17.2(c), then a rehearing shall take place in accordance with the provisions of this Section 17.2.

(d) Findings and Conclusions. The arbitrator rendering judgment upon disputes between Parties as provided in this Section 17.2 shall, after reaching judgment and award, prepare and distribute to the Parties a writing describing the findings of fact and conclusions of law relevant to such judgment and award and containing an opinion setting forth the reasons for the giving or denial of any award. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Parties, and judgment thereon may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) Place of Arbitration Hearings. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, arbitration hearings hereunder shall be held in Stamford, Connecticut.

(f) Time of the Essence. The arbitrator is instructed that time is of the essence in the arbitration proceeding, and that the arbitrator shall have the right and authority to issue monetary sanctions against either of the Parties if, upon a showing of good cause, that Party is unreasonably delaying the proceeding. The arbitrator shall render his or her judgment or award within fifteen (15) days following the conclusion of the hearing. Recognizing the express desire of the Parties for an expeditious means of dispute resolution, the arbitrator shall limit or allow the Parties to expand the scope of discovery as may be reasonable under the circumstances.

17.3 Litigation

(a) Immediate Injunctive Relief. The Parties agree that the only circumstances in which disputes between them shall not be subject to the provisions of Sections 17.1 and 17.2 is (i) as provided in Section 17.1 and (b) where a Party makes a good faith determination that a breach of the terms of this Agreement by the other Party is such that a temporary restraining order or other injunctive relief is the only adequate remedy. If a Party files a pleading with a court seeking immediate injunctive relief and this pleading is challenged by the other Party and the injunctive relief sought is not awarded in substantial part, the Party filing the pleading seeking immediate injunctive relief shall pay all of the costs and attorneys' fees of the Party successfully challenging the pleading.

(b) Jurisdiction. The Parties consent to venue in the State of New York and to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of competent State of New York court or federal courts in the Southern District of New York for all litigation which may be brought, subject to the requirement for arbitration hereunder, with respect to the terms of, and the transactions and relationships contemplated by, this Agreement. The Parties further consent to the jurisdiction of any state or federal court with appropriate subject matter jurisdiction located within a district which encompasses assets of a Party against which a judgment has been rendered, either through arbitration or through litigation, for the enforcement of such judgment or award against the assets of such Party.

17.4 Continued Performance

Each Party agrees to continue performing its obligations under this Agreement while any dispute is being resolved except to the extent the issue in dispute precludes performance; provided that a dispute over payment shall not be deemed to preclude performance.

17.5 Governing Law

This Agreement and performance under it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without regard to its choice of law principles.

18. TERMINATION*18.1 Termination for Cause.

(a) If First Data:

(i) commits a material breach of this Agreement, which breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after notice of breach from RCSI to First Data; provided, however, that, unless (A) a different period of time to cure is specified in this Agreement or (B) an extension of time to cure which is contingent upon the exercise by First Data of diligent efforts to cure is not specifically provided, if First Data is making diligent efforts to cure any such breach from the start of the thirty-day (30) cure period, then such cure period shall be extended for an additional period (not to exceed thirty (30) days);

(ii) commits a material breach of this Agreement which is not capable of being cured within thirty (30) days;

(iii) commits numerous breaches of its duties or obligations which collectively constitute a material breach of this Agreement and are not cured within a sixty (60) day period after notice of breach from RCSI to First Data; or

(iv) commits an event which under the terms of Schedule B or Schedule C constitutes a Termination Rights Event and RCSI notifies First Data that it elects to terminate within the period provided in the relevant section therein, then RCSI may by giving written notice to First Data terminate this Agreement, in whole or in part, as of a date specified in the notice of termination. If RCSI chooses to terminate this Agreement in part, the charges payable under this Agreement will be equitably adjusted to reflect the fact that neither RCSI nor the RCSI Affiliates are receiving the Production Services which have been terminated.

(b) If RCSI:

(i) fails to pay First Data when due undisputed charges under this Agreement totaling at least *** charges under this Agreement within sixty (60) days of the time specified for such payment and such default remains uncured thirty (30) days after written notice from First Data specifying the nature and extent of such default; or

(ii) materially breaches its obligations under *** of this Agreement and does not either (A) cure such breach promptly upon notice or (B) if such breach is not curable with commercially reasonable efforts, provide adequate assurances to First Data that RCSI has taken diligent steps to remedy the circumstances that led to such breach;

then First Data may by giving written notice to RCSI terminate this Agreement as of a date specified in the notice of termination (which date shall be not less than twelve (12) months following the date of such notice).

18.2 Termination Upon Change of Control.

In the event of a change in Control of First Data where such Control is acquired, directly or indirectly, in a single transaction or series of related transactions with, or all or substantially all of the assets of First Data are acquired by, a Major Competitor of RCSI, or if First Data is merged with or into another entity that is a Major Competitor of RCSI, then RCSI may, in its sole discretion, terminate this Agreement by giving First Data at least ninety (90) days prior written notice and designating a date upon which such termination shall be effective.

18.3 Termination for Convenience.

RCSI may terminate this Agreement for convenience and without cause effective during any Renewal Period by giving First Data prior written notice and designating an anticipated service termination date at least six (6) months after the date of such notice.

18.4 Termination Due To Failure By First Data To Reset Pursuant to Section 16.2(d).

Within twelve (12) months following any event that would have resulted in a credit to RCSI but which was wholly or partially limited by the application of Section 16.2(d), RCSI may notify First Data in writing that it is electing to terminate this Agreement effective as of a date designated in such notice (but not later than twelve (12) months from the date of the notice). If within twenty (20) days of receipt of RCSI's notice First Data notifies RCSI in writing that First Data elects to thereafter reset the cap described in Section 16.2(d) to an amount equal to *** multiplied by each full year remaining in the Term of this Agreement (pro-rated monthly if only a portion of the final year remains) (which reset shall not apply to any events that have occurred prior to the date of First Data's notice) then RCSI's notice shall be voided and the amount of the limitation shall be reset to an amount equal *** multiplied by each full year remaining in the Term of this Agreement (pro-rated monthly if only a portion of the final year remains).

18.5 Extension of Termination Effective Date.

RCSI may request First Data to extend the effective date of any termination. If First Data elects to grant such an extension, First Data may implement revised pricing and other necessary terms applicable to the length of and other circumstances surrounding the requested extension.

18.6 Termination/Expiration Assistance.

(a) Beginning twelve (12) months prior to expiration of this Agreement or on such earlier date as RCSI may request, or commencing upon any notice of termination or of non-renewal of this Agreement (including notice based upon default by RCSI), First Data shall provide the assistance that RCSI requests, either on its own behalf or on the behalf of any successor provider of services (collectively, "Successor") which may reasonably be required in connection with the transition of the Production Services ("Termination/Expiration Assistance"). "Terminated Services" means any Production Services that First Data will cease to provide as a result of any expiration or termination of this Agreement either in its entirety or with respect to such Production Services. If the Successor is an entity other than

RCSI, RCSI shall obtain from the Successor written assurance that the Successor will maintain the confidentiality of First Data's Confidential Information disclosed or provided to the Successor in the course of receiving such Termination/Expiration Assistance. RCSI shall return all First Data Confidential Information provided to RCSI under this Section 18.6 within thirty (30) days after the transition of Production Services is completed. First Data's Termination/Expiration Assistance shall include and be governed by the following:

(b) General. First Data shall:

(i) Provide a plan (the "Termination/Expiration Assistance Plan") for the transition of requested operations from First Data which plan is subject to approval by RCSI, and the Termination/Expiration Assistance Plan shall include at a minimum:

(A) A detailed description of the plan and exhibit for transferring performance of the Terminated Services to RCSI and/or its Successor;

(B) A detailed description of First Data's responsibilities in support of such transfer of the Terminated Services;

(C) Details of First Data Personnel and other resources to be used in providing Termination/Expiration Assistance, which will include identification of any additional personnel to be used by First Data; and

First Data is, and shall at all times be, an independent contractor under this Agreement and not an agent of RCSI. Nothing in this Agreement nor any actions taken by or arrangements entered into between the Parties in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement shall be construed as or deemed to create as to the Parties any partnership or joint venture. First Data shall not have any authority to bind or commit RCSI contractually or otherwise to any obligations whatsoever to third parties.

19.8 Severability.

If any provision of this Agreement conflicts with the law under which this Agreement is to be construed or if any such provision is held invalid by an arbitrator or a court with jurisdiction over the Parties, such provision shall be deemed to be restated to reflect as nearly as possible the original intentions of the Parties in accordance with applicable law. The remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

19.9 Consents and Approval.

Except where expressly provided as being in the discretion of a Party, where agreement, approval, acceptance, consent, or similar action by either Party is required under this Agreement, such action shall not be unreasonably delayed or withheld. An approval or consent given by a Party under this Agreement shall not relieve the other Party from responsibility for complying with the requirements of this Agreement, nor shall it be construed as a waiver of any rights under this Agreement, except as and to the extent otherwise expressly provided in such approval or consent.

19.10 Waiver of Default; Cumulative Remedies.

(a) A delay or omission by either Party to exercise any right or power under this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver thereof. A waiver by either of the Parties of any of the covenants to be performed by the other or any breach thereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of any succeeding breach thereof or of any other covenant in this Agreement.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, all remedies provided for in this Agreement shall be cumulative and in addition to and not in lieu of any other remedies available to either Party at law, in equity or otherwise.

19.11 Survival.

Any provision of this Agreement which contemplates performance or observance subsequent to any termination or expiration of this Agreement, including those provisions relating to the obligations of First Data in connection with the termination/expiration assistance, shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement and continue in full force and effect.

19.14 Third Party Beneficiaries.

Except as provided in Section 15 (Indemnification), this Agreement is entered into solely between, and may be enforced only by, RCSI and First Data; and this Agreement shall not be deemed to create any rights in third parties, including suppliers and customers of a Party, or to create any obligations of a Party to any such third parties.

19.15 Covenant of Good Faith.

Each Party agrees that, in its respective dealings with the other Party under or in connection with this Agreement, it shall act in good faith.

19.16 Order of Precedence

In the event of a conflict between the documents comprising this Agreement as of its Effective Date and the documents comprising a Change Order executed subsequent to the Effective Date, the terms of the Change Order will prevail; provided, however, that a Change Order may amend or override the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement only if (and to the extent that) the Change Order specifically identifies the provision(s) the Parties intend to amend or override and the executed version of the Change Order has been approved by the authorized representatives of both Parties, as evidenced in writing on the executed version of it.

19.18 Relationship to Original Agreement.

This Agreement replaces and supersedes the Original Agreement as of the Effective Date, and shall be deemed a continuation thereof. If any provision of this Agreement purports to be effective prior to the Effective Date it shall be deemed an amendment to the Original Agreement until such time as the Effective Date has occurred. Subject to adjustment to such charges provided for herein, all charges provided for under the Original Agreement for Production Services provided prior to the Effective Date shall be due and payable in the ordinary course.

EXHIBIT A-1
PROCESS FLOW FOR STATEMENT/MAIL PRODUCTION

1. STATEMENT CYCLE DATE SCHEDULING AND SET UP

- (a) RCSI will set the Statement cycle date for an individual Cardholder Account at the time that RCSI opens the Account on the First Data System.
- (b) RCSI utilizes the First Data cycle scheduling which allows RCSI to set Statement cycle dates every day of the month. The last Statement cycle date of the month is the twenty eighth (28th) day.
- (c) For eStatements, RCSI sets a flag at the account level to generate an eStatement.
- (d) RCSI applies appropriate materials and insert strategies to the Accounts via PCF (Product Control File settings) and/or DQ (Decision Quest).
- (e) For materials provided by RCSI or RCSI clients, RCSI works with their materials vendors to send materials to First Data ten (10) Production Days prior to when the materials are to be utilized in the Pre-bill or regular Statement cycle; however, if the materials are sent to First Data in less than ten (10) Production Days, First Data will make commercially reasonable efforts to complete the relevant cycle.

2. PRE-BILL FUNCTIONS

- (a) Five (5) days prior to a Statement cycle date, First Data performs a mock cycle function that generates a subsection of Statements that will also be generated in the actual Statement cycle five (5) days later ("Pre-bill").
- (b) RCSI defines which Statements or Statement conditions are to be included in this Pre-bill process.
- (c) First Data provides the mock Statements generated during Pre-bill in a file that is transmitted to RCSI every day except Sunday by approximately 11:00 am CT. First Data loads these mock Statements into AFP On-Demand, every day except Sunday.
- (d) During Pre-bill, First Data also generates a mock version of the CD-1371 report which provides the details of the insert strategies that RCSI has designated for that Statement cycle. First Data loads the Pre-bill CD-1371 report to IDP.

3. STATEMENT CYCLE REQUIREMENTS

- (a) First Data performs the Statement cycle as a part of First Data's nightly system update. After all of the nightly system update is complete, First Data generates and transmits/loads the following files and reports for use by RCSI:

(i) In accordance with the TSA, First Data provides RCSI (A) the Statement Checker file, (B) the eStatement checker file, and (B) the Statement Checker IDP report of the CD-1371.

(ii) First Data sends the Statement production files to Output Services for printing.

(iii) First Data also loads the Statement Checker files and Statement Production Files into AFP On-demand as such files become available.

(b) RCSI shall utilize the files and reports provided by First Data under this Section 3 to validate the data; however, regardless of whether RCSI has approved the production files, First Data may commence Statement production by 6:00 a.m. CT. First Data is responsible for remedying all known Defects identified prior to 6:00 a.m. CT.

4. STATEMENT PRODUCTION INVENTORY

(a) RCSI is responsible for providing to First Data all RCSI-procured inventory that is required for use in Statement production.

(i) First Data will then move forward to run without that RWO insert as per instructions from RCSI.

(ii) First Data will notify RCSI of the RWO via the Daily Production Call, by email notification, or Dashboard.

(iii) As necessary RCSI will make commercially reasonable efforts to make the needed insert strategy changes in DQ the day of notification, or as quickly as systemically possible, of the RWO situation. In addition to First Data's responsibilities regarding inventory in Schedule A, RCSI will monitor inventory levels.

(c) Legal/Compliance inserts will be on a RWO/notify as designated by RCSI's marketing matrix. First Data will continue the production cycle and run without the insert. First Data will provide a report of Account numbers at the Account level detail that mailed without the legal insert to RCSI by 11:59 p.m. on the fifth (5th) day following the impacted cycle.

5. FILE CYCLE MANAGEMENT

(a) As First Data loads print files into the Production Services system, First Data management reporting is coded to reflect the expected mail date for that cycle. At the end of each day, First Data queries the system to identify any mail pieces that would have a past due mail date. First Data then manages the files through the various processes (print, insert, and delivery to zip sort) with the flow delivering the file of work to the zip sort area by the daily zip sort cutoff time which will vary based by daily production volume. First Data purges the mail through the zip sort process and Releases into the USPS Mailstream by the end of Day 2 of the cycle. For the sake of clarity all mail that First Data presents to the USPS by 11:59 pm CT will be considered accepted by the USPS and recorded on the appropriate USPS mail document to reflect the current mail date.

If after the expiration of the Initial Cure Period for More than 90% Migration, First Data has not yet begun performing the Print Production Services in accordance with this Agreement on one hundred percent (100%) of the RCSI Customer portfolios' volume (excluding Canada and any other excluded portfolios), First Data shall provide RCSI with a credit in the amount of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) for every seven (7) Production Days (or portion thereof) that First Data fails to perform the Print Production Services in accordance with this Agreement on one hundred percent (100%) of the RCSI Customer portfolios' volume (excluding Canada and any other excluded portfolios), up to a maximum aggregate credit of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) under this Section II.B.2.c, and a total maximum aggregate credit under this Section II.B.2 of seven hundred thousand dollars ($700,000).

d. If the maximum credit described in Section II.B.2.c above is reached, RCSI may terminate this Agreement without charge or penalty. RCSI may exercise the termination right described in this Section for up to one (1) year after the date the maximum aggregate credit described in Section II.B.2.c above is reached.

C. If First Data fails to satisfy its obligations described in Section II.A above primarily due to the fault of RCSI, the credits and termination rights described in Section II.B shall not apply except to the extent described in the next sentence. However, the time frames set forth in Section II.B above shall adjust forward one day for each day of delay caused by RCSI.

3. MEASUREMENT, REPORTING, AND SUPPORTING INFORMATION

3.1 Measurement.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided for a particular Service Level in Exhibit B-1, the Measurement Period for each Service Level shall be each calendar month during the Term.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly indicated in this Schedule B, all references to time of day in this Schedule B shall refer to central time and any reference to "hour" or "hours" shall mean clock hours.

3.2 Measurement Tools.

(a) Subject to RCSI's prior written approval, provided that such approval not be unreasonably withheld, First Data shall utilize, develop and implement measurement tools and processes required to measure each Service Level in an automated fashion, where such automation is feasible, such that First Data's actual performance with respect to the Service Level shall be determined using system generated data.

(b) First Data shall measure its performance with respect to each Service Level using tools, processes and methodologies identified for such Service Level in Exhibit B-1 or as otherwise agreed to by the Parties or as specified pursuant to Section 3.2(d) of this Schedule B.

(c) First Data shall provide and utilize (and have operational and administrative responsibility for) the necessary measurement and monitoring tools and procedures required to measure and report First Data's performance of the Production Services against the applicable Service Levels set forth in this Agreement as of the Effective Date, and thereafter in accordance with Section 3.2(d) of this Schedule B. Such measurement and monitoring shall permit reporting at a level of detail sufficient to verify compliance with the Service Levels, and will be subject to verification and review by RCSI. First Data shall provide RCSI with information and access to such tools and procedures upon request, for purposes of verification.

(d) If, after the Effective Date, First Data desires to use a different measurement tool, process or methodology for any Service Level, First Data shall provide written notice to RCSI proposing:

(i) the alternative measurement tool, process or methodology; and

(ii) any reasonable adjustments to the Service Levels that are necessary to account for any increased or decreased sensitivity that will likely result from use of the alternative measurement tool, process or methodology.

(e) First Data may utilize such alternative measurement tool, process or methodology only to the extent such tool, and any associated Service Level adjustments, are approved in writing by RCSI provided the approval is not unreasonably withheld.

3.3 Reports and Supporting Information.

(b) First Data shall make the reporting and supporting information described in this Section 3.3, available to RCSI both (i) in machine-readable form suitable for use on a personal computer; and (ii) via a secure website; provided, however, that if requested by RCSI, First Data shall also provide to RCSI ***, to the extent that the agreed-upon measurement tools used to measure performance are capable of providing such access. To the extent that such tools are not capable of providing RCSI with such *** access, First Data shall promptly provide access to timely data upon RCSI's request. As of the Effective Date, First Data will provide *** seat licenses each at *** for both *** and *** under this Section 3.3(b).

(c) Unless otherwise set forth in this Agreement, First Data shall report at the level of detail (e.g. by individual RCSI Customer or by client number), based on the reporting detail First Data provided to RCSI prior to the Effective Date. RCSI Customers may change from time to time and First Data shall promptly make the necessary adjustments to its reporting in a manner satisfactory to RCSI.

(d) First Data will utilize Control Charts for monitoring the Service Levels.

(e) Trend reporting shall be provided by First Data and Control Charts shall be utilized (where appropriate). The raw data shall be provided in tabular format beneath each report or chart or on an attachment thereto. All reporting shall be secure and available to RCSI through means set forth in Section 3.3(b) as well as in spreadsheet and hard copy form.

(f) The purpose of a Dashboard report is to report on First Data's success in achieving the standards set forth in the relevant Service Level. Dashboard reports shall be generated using the RCSI approved measurement and monitoring tools and procedures required to measure and report on First Data's performance of the relevant Production Services as well as supporting metrics. Dashboard reports shall be provided to RCSI on a daily, weekly and monthly basis and shall be completed at no additional charge to RCSI.

3.4 Process Management Reviews.

(a) First Data shall coordinate and host on all Working Days a daily "Process Management Status Call" with RCSI to discuss any known problems that have an adverse effect on service and/or RCSI Customer satisfaction. First Data shall maintain a constant focus on problem identification, recovery and problem remediation. For the two weeks following August 20, 2009, the Parties shall conduct the Process Management Status Call on every Production Day.

(b) On Saturdays no later than 7:00 a.m. CT, First Data shall send an email to RCSI providing information with respect to any known problems that have an adverse effect on service and/or RCSI Customer satisfaction ("Process Management Status Email"). If there is a problem identified in the Process Management Status Email or any known problem identified by RCSI to First Data that RCSI requires to be resolved immediately, First Data will promptly on Saturday perform the services necessary to resolve such problem.

4. SERVICE LEVEL METHODOLOGY

4.1 General.

(a) First Data shall provide, and RCSI will have access to, all detailed supporting Service Level information (including raw performance data) as reasonably requested by RCSI which is necessary to verify the accuracy of the Service Levels and which is necessary to verify First Data's performance relative to Service Level measurements and methodology described in this Section 4.1, as well as all other supporting information reasonably requested by RCSI. Service Levels constitute one means, but not the exclusive means, of measuring First Data's performance of its commitment under Section 6 of this Agreement.

(b) If a Service Level requires performance of multiple conditions or components (e.g., components (a), (b) and (c)), then First Data's performance must satisfy each such requirement to achieve the corresponding Service Level.

(c) First Data will give the recovery of its capabilities to perform the Production Services and the resumption of its actual performance of the Production Services the same or greater priority it gives to recovering its capabilities to perform substantially similar services and resuming its performance of those services for any other customer of First Data.

(d) If any portion of the Production Services are to be provided from a business continuity recovery environment, the Service Levels will continue to apply, subject to Section 16.3 (Force Majeure) of this Agreement.

4.2 Amounts at Risk.

(a) First Data will place the Amount at Risk for Print Production Services at risk each month for Service Level Credits in this Agreement for Print Service Levels.

(b) First Data will place the Amount at Risk for Plastics Production Services at risk each month for Service Level Credits in this Agreement for Plastics Service Levels.

4.3 Excused Service Level Defaults.

(a) If First Data fails to meet a Service Level and establishes within two (2) months after such failure that: (i) RCSI's failure to perform a retained responsibility was the root cause of First Data's failure to meet such Service Level; (ii) First Data would have achieved such Service Level but for such RCSI failure; (iii) First Data used commercially reasonable efforts to perform and achieve the Service Level notwithstanding the presence and impact of such RCSI failure; and (iv) First Data is without fault in causing such RCSI failure, then no Service Level Credit (if applicable) or Special Service Level Credit will be assessed against First Data for any resulting Service Level Default, and First Data will otherwise be excused from achieving such Service Level for as long as RCSI fails to perform such retained responsibility and First Data continues to use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent, overcome, or mitigate the adverse effects of such failure to the extent required to achieve the applicable Service Level.

(b) First Data will not be excused from a failure to achieve a Service Level other than pursuant to the following circumstances or provisions: (i) Section 4.3(a), (ii) Section 4.7(a), (iii) Section 9.2 (Savings Clause) of this Agreement, (iv) failures caused by the wrongful actions of RCSI, or (v) Section 16.3 (Force Majeure) of this Agreement.

4.4 Service Level Defaults.

(a) First Data shall promptly perform a Root Cause Analysis (i) following any material change in performance of any Service Level, (ii) whenever performance trends dictate same ***, (iii) whenever there occurs any material Service Level Default, or (iv) as otherwise reasonably requested by RCSI. "Root Cause Analysis" shall include: (a) prompt investigation and reporting as to the root causes of the problem; (b) prompt correction of the problem; and (c) regular advice to RCSI as to the status of remedial efforts undertaken to cure such problem. Additionally, First Data shall propose and deliver to RCSI, within thirty (30) days following each material Service Level Default, a written plan (acceptable to RCSI) for prevention of future failures ("Service Level Plan").

(b) First Data recognizes that a Critical Service Level Default may have a material adverse impact on the business and operations of RCSI and that the damage from such Critical Service Level Default is not susceptible to precise determination. Accordingly, in the event of a Critical Service Level Default for reasons other than those set forth in Section 4.3 of this Schedule B (Excused Performance) then, RCSI may *** in lieu of pursuing other monetary remedies to recover as its sole and exclusive monetary remedy for such Critical Service Level Default a credit calculated pursuant to Section 4.5 of this Schedule B as liquidated damages (each such credit, a "Service Level Credit") ***. Neither this Section 4.4(b) nor any *** hereunder shall limit RCSI's rights with respect to the events upon which RCSI may rely as a basis for RCSI's termination of this Agreement for cause.

4.5 Service Level Credits for Critical Service Level Defaults.

(a) Calculation.

(i) For each Critical Service Level Default except those set forth in Section 4.5(d) and 4.5(e) below, the applicable Service Level Credit referenced in Section 4.4(b) above shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Service Level Credit} = A \times B$$

Where:

A = the applicable Weighting Factor for Print Production Services or Weighting Factor for Plastics Production Services; multiplied by

B = the Amount at Risk for Print Production Services or the Amount at Risk for Plastics Production Services for such calendar month.

(ii) For example, assume the Amount at Risk for Print Production Services for the month were ***. Additionally, assume the applicable

Weighting Factor for Print Production Services allocated by RCSI to such Critical Service Level is *** percentage points. The Service Level Credit due to RCSI for such Critical Service Level Default would be computed as follows:

A = ***multiplied by

B = ***

= *** (the amount of the Service Level Credit).

(b) Service Level Credits for Critical Service Level Defaults for Print Production Services (Excluding Timeliness and External Defect-related Critical Print Service Levels).

Beginning on the Effective Date, Service Level Credits for Critical Service Level Defaults for Print Service Levels other than Timeliness and External Defect-related Print Service Levels will be calculated in accordance with Section 4.5(a) above by multiplying the Weighting Factor for Print Production Services assigned to the particular Critical Service Level for which there has been a Critical Service Level Default by the Amount at Risk for Print Production Services.

(c) Service Level Credits for Critical Service Level Defaults for Plastics Production Services (Excluding Timeliness and External Defect-related Critical Plastics Service Levels).

Beginning on the Effective Date, Service Level Credits for Critical Service Level Defaults for Plastics Service Levels other than timeliness and External Defect-related Plastics Service Levels will be calculated in accordance with Section 4.5(a) above by multiplying the Weighting Factor for Plastics Production Services assigned to the particular Critical Service Level for which there has been a Critical Service Level Default by the Amount at Risk for Plastics Production Services.

(d) Service Level Credits for Timeliness-related Critical Service Level Defaults for Print Service Levels and Plastics Service Levels.

(i) The Service Level Credit calculated pursuant to this Section 4.5(d) shall be *** (A) the result of the calculation provided in Section 4.5(d)(ii); and
(B) ***.

(ii) Service Level Credits for timeliness-related Critical Service Level Defaults will be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

Service Level Credit = A x B

Where:

A = the applicable Weighting Factor for Print Production Services or Weighting Factor for Plastics Production Services; multiplied by

B = ***

(iii) For example, assume First Data misses a Critical Service Level for timeliness related to Account detail reporting (2.6 in Exhibit B-1) for RCSI Customer *** in the Consumer Product Category. Assume that the Amount at Risk for Print Production Services for the month were ***. Assume the *** applicable monthly charges for Print Production Services for the Consumer Product Category were ***. Additionally, assume the applicable Weighting Factor for Print Production Services allocated by RCSI to such Critical Service Level is ***. The Service Level Credit due to RCSI for such Critical Service Level Default would be computed as *** and (ii) the following calculation:

A = *** multiplied by

B = ***

= *** (the amount of the Service Level Credit).

As such, the Service Level Credit would be ***.

(iv) The following timeliness-related Service Levels are excepted from the limitations set forth in Sections 4.5(d)(i) through 4.5(d)(iii):

(A) The 2 Day SLA Special Service Level, which shall be calculated in accordance with Section 4.6(b); and

(B) The Recovery Letter Service Level set forth in Exhibit B-1, which shall be calculated in accordance with terms set forth in Exhibit B-1. For the sake of clarity, this Recovery Letter Service Level is a Critical Service Level even though no Weighting Factor for Print Production Services has been assigned to this Service Level.

(e) Critical Service Level for External Defects other than Wrong Materials.

(i) Definition of External Defect

“External Defects” are Defects *** in a calendar month by *** (but were not identified during the First Data sampling process) that per occurrence:

(A) ***; or

(B) ***

(C) The number of Accounts impacted overall determines if a Service Level is missed; the number of Accounts is not used in the calculation of Service Level Credits per occurrence per month.

(D) To determine whether there is an occurrence of an External Defect for ***, the following table shall be utilized in accordance with

Section 4.5(e)(i)(B):

Impact of External Defectives	# Statement Defectives Per Occurrence Per Month	# Card Defectives Per Occurrence Per Month
***	***	***

(ii) The occurrence of any External Defects shall result in Service Level Credits as described below:

(A) The maximum Service Level Credit per incident (not per month) of External Defects shall be limited to the lesser of *** or the calculated Critical Service Level Credit provided in Section 4.5(e)(ii)(B).

(B) The Service Level Credit calculated pursuant to this Section 4.5(e)(ii)(B) shall be the greater of (A) the result of the calculation provided in this Section 4.5(e)(ii)(B); and (B) ***.

(1) Service Level Credits for External Defects-related Critical Service Level Defaults will be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Service Level Credit} = A \times B$$

Where:

A = the applicable Weighting Factor for Print Production Services or Weighting Factor for Plastics Production Services; multiplied by

B = *** for the month in which such Critical Service Level Default occurs.

(2) For example, assume First Data misses the External Defects Service Level (11.2 in Exhibit B-1) for RCSI's Customer, *** Consumer Product Category. Assume that the Amount at Risk for Print Production Services for the month were ***. Assume the applicable individual RCSI Customer monthly charges for Print Production Services for the Product Category for this Customer were $25,000. Additionally, assume the applicable Weighting Factor for Print Production Services allocated by RCSI to such Critical Service Level is ***. The Service Level Credit due to RCSI for such External Defect would be computed as follows:

B = *** (which is *** of $25,000)

= *** (would be the amount of the Service Level Credit).

As such, the Service Level Credit would be *** as (A) *** is greater than *** in accordance with Section 4.5(e)(ii)(B), and (B) *** is less than *** in accordance with Section 4.5(e)(ii)(A).

(3) As another example, assume that in the same month, First Data misses the External Defects Service Level (11.3 in Exhibit B-1) for RCSI's Customer, ***. Assume the Amount at Risk for Plastic Production Services is ***. Assume the individual *** RCSI Customer applicable monthly charges for Plastic Production Services were $45,000. Additionally, assume the applicable Weighting Factor for Plastic Production Services allocated by RCSI to such Critical Service Level is ***. The Service Level Credit due to RCSI for such Critical Service Level Default would be computed as follows:

B = *** (which is *** of $45,000)

= *** (would be the amount of the Service Level Credit).

As such, the Service Level Credit would be *** as (A) *** is greater than *** in accordance with Section 4.5(e)(ii)(B), and (B) *** is less than *** in accordance with Section 4.5(e)(ii)(A).

(iii) The External Defects-related Service Level Credit set forth in Section 4.5(e)(ii)(A) and 4.5(e)(ii)(B) shall not apply, and any other applicable Critical Service Level Credit (if any) will continue to apply if any of the following occur:

(A) If First Data identifies an External Defect and notifies RCSI of such External Defect prior to RCSI either (i) discovering it itself, or (ii) being informed of the External Defect by a client or customer, such External Defect shall not be treated as an External Defect-related Critical Service Level Default under this Section 4.5(e). However, First Data is obligated to contain within a commercially reasonable time any Defects discovered by First Data under this Section;

(B) Any External Defect that RCSI caused or substantially contributed to shall not be treated as an External Defect-related Critical Service Level Default for purposes of this Section 4.5(e);

(C) Any External Defect that in RCSI's judgment has no RCSI Customer, client or Cardholder impact shall not be treated as an External Defect-related Critical Service Level Default for this Section 4.5(e);

(D) At RCSI's sole discretion if the Parties mutually agree to a satisfactory resolution to the problems caused by an External Defect and at its expense First Data undertakes all necessary corrective actions (such as a re-mail, Reprint, Rerun, restuff, or re-emboss and mail) it shall not be treated as an External Defect-related Critical Service Level Default for this Section 4.5(e); and

(E) At RCSI's sole discretion if an External Defect is not significant it may agree that it shall not be treated as an External Defect-related Critical Service Level Default for this Section 4.5(e).

(f) RCSI Customer Billing Groupings

The individual RCSI Customer billing groupings as of the Effective Date for purposes of this Section 4.5(d) and Section 4.5(e) are provided in Exhibit B-4. The Parties may revise the groupings provided in Exhibit B-4 as mutually agreed in writing.

(g) Notification.

For each Critical Service Level Default, First Data shall promptly notify RCSI of such failure.

(h) Limitations.

(i) In no event shall the sum of the Weighting Factors for Print Production Services for all relevant Critical Service Levels exceed the Pool Percentage Available for Allocation for Print Production Services.

(ii) In no event shall the sum of the Weighting Factors for Plastics Production Services for all Critical Service Levels exceed the Pool Percentage Available for Allocation for Plastics Production Services.

(iii) In no event shall the total amount of Service Level Credits payable by First Data for Critical Service Level Defaults for Print Production Services and Wrong Material Special Service Level occurring during a calendar month exceed the Amount at Risk for Print Production Services for such calendar month.

(iv) In no event shall the total amount of Service Level Credits payable by First Data for Critical Service Level Defaults for Plastics Production Services and Wrong Material Special Service Level occurring during a calendar month exceed the Amount at Risk for Plastics Production Services for such calendar month.

(v) If a single incident results in more than one Service Level Default, RCSI shall have the right to determine which Service Level and resulting Service Level Credit will apply. In order for the foregoing to apply, First Data shall have the burden of demonstrating to RCSI's reasonable satisfaction, that a single event resulted in the failure of First Data to meet more than one (1) Service Level. RCSI may not assess more than one (1) Service Level Default against similar incidents occurring within the same month. Furthermore, repeated Service Level Defaults of a particular Service Level in a single month caused by similar incidents shall constitute a single Service Level Default for purposes of assessing Service Level Credits for a particular month.

4.6 Special Service Level Credits for Special Service Level Defaults.

(a) General.

First Data recognizes that a Special Service Level Default may have a material adverse impact on the business and operations of RCSI and that the damage from such Special Service Level Default is not susceptible to precise determination. Accordingly, in the event of a Special Service Level Default for reasons other than those set forth in Section 4.3 of this Schedule B (Excused Performance) RCSI may recover as its sole and exclusive monetary remedy for such Special Service Level Default a credit calculated pursuant to Sections 4.6(b) and 4.6(c) of this Schedule B as liquidated damages (each such credit, a "Special Service Level Credit"). This Section 4.6(a) shall not limit RCSI's rights with respect to the events upon which RCSI may rely as a basis for RCSI's termination of this Agreement for cause as related to the Wrong Materials Special Service Level described in Section 4.6(c) below. For the sake of clarity, the termination rights set forth in Section 4.6(b) relating to the 2 Day SLA are the sole and exclusive termination rights relating to a Special Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA.

(b) Special Service Level for Two Day Statement and Statement Package Timeliness.

(i) The Two Day Statement and Statement Package Timeliness Service Level (the "2 Day SLA") is a Special Service Level in accordance with this Schedule B and Exhibit B-1. The 2 Day SLA shall be effective from August 20, 2009 in accordance with the following terms:

(A) Service Level Credits shall apply for any Special Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA as of the cycle start date of August 20, 2009; and

(B) RCSI's termination rights in accordance with this Section 4.6(b) shall be effective as of the Effective Date (December 1, 2009).

(ii) In the event of a Special Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA in the ranges provided in this Section, the resulting Special Service Level Credit shall be calculated as follows:

(A) If First Data commits a Special Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA measuring below the metric of *** the following rules apply:

(1) RCSI will receive a Special Service Level Credit of the lesser of (a) the *** as a result of First Data's failure, calculated in accordance with Section 4.6(b)(iii) below ("***"); and (b) ***. ***.

(2) In the twelve (12) calendar months following the month in which a Special Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA measuring below the metric of *** (a "Trigger Event"), the following rules shall apply:

a. If there is a subsequent Special Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA measuring below the metric of ***, First Data shall provide RCSI with a Special Service Level Credit of the lesser of (a) ***, and (b) ***.

b. If there are any additional subsequent Special Service Level Defaults of the 2 Day SLA measuring below the metric of *** during the same rolling twelve (12) calendar month period after the initial Trigger Event, during such rolling twelve (12) calendar month period, First Data shall provide RCSI with a Special Service Level Credit of the lesser of (a) ***; and (b) ***. Additionally, such event shall constitute a Termination Rights Event for the purposes of Section 18.1(a)(iv) of this Agreement during which RCSI may terminate this Agreement *** provided that RCSI elects to do so within twelve (12) months following the month in which the last such Service Level Failure occurred, provided that such termination shall be effective no later than twelve (12) months following the provision of such notice. Subsequent to providing notice of termination in accordance with this Section, RCSI shall be excused from failure to meet the Minimum Commitments provided in Schedule C.

c. If there is more than *** Trigger Event in any twelve (12) calendar month period, the determination as to the number of Special Service Level Defaults of the 2 Day SLA that have occurred shall be based upon counting from the earliest Trigger Event within any twelve (12) month period in which a subsequent Special Service Level Default occurred (but no earlier than August 20, 2009). By way of example, if there are Trigger Events in *** and ***, a Special Service Level Default occurring in *** shall be the *** default for the purposes of the *** Trigger Event (each Trigger Event also being a Special Service Level Default). If another Special Service Level Default occurs in *** it would then be the *** default for the purposes of the look-back to the twelve (12) month period that includes the *** Trigger Event. For clarification, each Special Service Level Default may incur only one financial penalty.

(B) If First Data commits a Special Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA measuring below the metric of *** at any time, First Data shall provide RCSI with a Special Service Level Credit of ***. Additionally, such event shall constitute a Termination Rights Event for the purposes of Section 18.1(a)(iv) of this Agreement during which RCSI may terminate this Agreement without fee provided that RCSI elects to do so within twelve (12) calendar months following the month in which the last such Special Service Level Failure occurred, provided that such termination shall be effective no later than twelve (12) months following the provision of such notice. Subsequent to providing notice of termination in accordance with this Section, RCSI shall be excused from failure to meet the Minimum Commitments provided in Schedule C. First Data is not excused from satisfying this threshold during the Major Releases each year. RCSI shall not be entitled to Special Service Level Credits for the 2 Day SLA for any Special Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA under both (i) and (ii), although Special Service Level Defaults under this clause (ii) shall be counted in determining the number of Special Service Level Defaults under clause (i).

(iii) If First Data has failed to meet its two (2) day requirement under the 2 Day SLA, once *** either (A) because RCSI has a reasonable belief that RCSI ***; or (B) because RCSI believes that material commercial issues [related to the First Data failure to meet the 2 day requirement under the 2 Day SLA) ***, the Parties will *** in accordance with the following (and each Party will ***:

(A) To *** RCSI will (subject to (i) First Data's review and validation; and (i) if the Parties are unable to agree on the ***, dispute resolution in accordance with Section 17 of this Agreement):

(1) review the *** (defined as those ***);

(2) with assistance from First Data as necessary to complete the requirements of this Section 4.6(b)(iii)(A)(2), run *** through First Data's query tool (or other tool or process as necessary) to extract the ***; and

(3) in accordance with the process provided in Sections 4.6(b)(iii)(A)(1) and 4.6(b)(iii)(A)(2) above as well as Section 4.6(b)(iii)(D) below, ***.

(B) To ***, RCSI will (subject to (i) First Data's review and validation; and (ii) if the Parties are unable to agree on the ***, dispute resolution in accordance with Section 17 of this Agreement):

(1) review the list of the *** as defined in 4.6(b)(iii)(A)(1) above;

(2) with assistance from First Data as necessary to complete the requirements of this Section 4.6(b)(iii)(B)(2), run *** through First Data's query tool (or other tool or process as necessary) to extract the ***; and

(3) in accordance with the process provided in Sections 4.6(b)(iii)(B)(1) and 4.6(b)(iii)(B)(2) above as well as Section 4.6(b)(iii)(D) below, ***.

(C) If the ***, RCSI with First Data's assistance ((subject to (i) First Data's review and validation; and (ii) if the Parties are unable to agree ***, dispute resolution in accordance with Section 17 of this Agreement) may *** using the approach described in Sections 4.6(b)(iii)(A) and 4.6(b)(iii)(B) above to the greatest extent practicable, and otherwise consistent with the same methodology RCSI applies with respect to its business operations at that time, consistently applied.

(D) The determination by RCSI as to which *** shall be made by RCSI using the same methodology RCSI applies with respect to its business operations at that time, consistently applied.

(c) Special Service Level for Wrong Materials

(i) The Wrong Materials Service Level ("Wrong Materials SLA") shall be designated as a Special Service Level as set forth in the table in Exhibit B-1. The Wrong Materials SLA will be effective on April 1, 2010. Prior to the effective date of the Wrong Materials SLA, all Service Level Defaults that would otherwise be governed by this Wrong Materials SLA shall be calculated using the External Defects Critical Service Level set forth in Section 4.5(e).

(ii) A single instance of Wrong Materials will not necessarily constitute a Special Service Level Default of the Wrong Materials SLA. However, each incident of Wrong Material during a Measurement Period will incur a per incident Special Service Level Credit of ***, regardless of (A) the number of Accounts impacted; or B) the level of DPMO performance achieved in any given month.

(iii) Special Service Level Defaults of the Wrong Materials SLA and the corresponding Special Service Level Credits shall be calculated during each Measurement Period as follows:

(A) Each individual mail piece (e.g. each Statement Package or each Transaction Card Package) shall be a single individual opportunity in the DPMO calculation for the Wrong Materials SLA, regardless of the number of items in the Statement Package or Transaction Card Package that contain Incorrect barcodes or would otherwise constitute Wrong Material.

(B) For purposes of computing the DPMO calculation, Statements, Statement Packages and Letters will qualify as a single calculation category, and Transaction Cards and Transaction Card Packages will qualify as a single calculation category, for a total of two (2) calculation categories.

(C) For the month's (i) total volume of Statements, Statement Packages and Letters; or (ii) total volume of Transaction Cards and Transaction Card Packages, any Wrong Materials incident or combination of Wrong Materials incidences reported in a calendar month which results in a DPMO exceeding *** but less than a DPMO of *** constitutes a Special Service Level Default of the Wrong Materials SLA and will incur a Special Service Level Credit for the Wrong Materials SLA of ***.

(D) For the month's (i) total volume of Statements, Statement Packages and Letters; or (ii) total volume of Transaction Cards and Transaction Card Packages, any Wrong Materials incident or combination of Wrong Materials incidences reported in a calendar month which results in a DPMO exceeding *** constitutes a Special Service Level Default of the Wrong Materials SLA and will incur a Special Service Level Credit for the Wrong Materials SLA of ***.

(E) For illustrative purposes, the following example is utilized to demonstrate how the process will work.

the surrounding facts: (1) During a month's time, *** Wrong Materials events are reported that impact a total of *** Account holders, with the following being

(2) *** Accounts are impacted per occurrence.

(3) *** Wrong Materials instance is a Statements issue, another Wrong Materials instance is a Letters issue, and the *** Wrong Materials instance is a Transaction Card Package issue.

(4) These Wrong Material instances were caused by First Data using Incorrect materials (e.g. the stock number (as identified by the barcode appearing on each insert or envelope) GE defined).

(5) During this same month, First Data Released into the USPS Mailstream a total of *** Statements, Statement Packages, and Letters, and a total of *** Transaction Card Packages.

(6) The DPMO calculation for the Statements, Statement Packages and Letters would be: (*** accounts impacted/*** Statements and Letters, mailed during the calendar month ) x ***= *** DPMO.

(7) The DPMO calculation for the Transaction Card Packages would be: (*** accounts impacted/*** million Transaction Cards mailed during the calendar month) x ***= *** DPMO.

(8) The monthly target threshold to avoid a Special Service Level Default of the Wrong Materials SLA is ***DPMO. Because the DPMO's calculated in Sections 4.6(c)(iii)(E)(6) is each below *** DPMO, no Special Service Level Default of the Wrong Materials SLA has occurred for Print Production Services. However, because the DPMO for the Transaction Card Packages was ***, which falls between *** and *** DPMO, First Data would provide a credit of ***. Additionally, because *** instances of Wrong Material occurred during the Measurement Period, an additional Special Service Level Credit of *** is due (*** Wrong Materials occurrences x *** each), for a total Service Level Credit for the month of *** (subject to the relevant amount at risk pool for the month).

(iv) This Wrong Materials Special Service Level is subject to the Amount at Risk for Plastics Production Services and the Amount at Risk for Print Production Services.

(d) Notification.

For each Special Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA or the Wrong Materials SLA, First Data shall promptly notify RCSI of such failure.

(e) Limitations.

(i) The amounts set forth in this Schedule B as Special Service Level Credits for the 2 Day SLA are not subject to the Amount at Risk for Print Production Services, and any Special Service Level Credits provided by First Data to RCSI as a result of Special Service Level Defaults of the 2 Day SLA are in addition to any Critical Service Level Credits provided by First Data.

4.7 Holds and RCSI System Delays.

(a) In the event that RCSI requests a Hold First Data shall use commercially reasonable efforts to meet the applicable Service Level(s). However, any failure by First Data to achieve the applicable Service Levels shall be excused.

(b) If a Hold is initiated by First Data, First Data will not be excused from any resulting Service Level Default.

5. MODIFICATIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS TO SERVICE LEVELS.*5.1 Addition, Deletion, and Modification of Service Levels.

As required by the RCSI Relationship Executive, but no more frequently than every ninety (90) days, RCSI and First Data will review the Service Levels and shall make adjustments to them as mutually agreed. Additionally, First Data shall add, modify and delete Service Levels, including terms regarding the costs of such additions, modifications and deletions, as mutually agreed upon between the Parties and implemented. First Data shall implement such changes described in this Section 5.1 by the date mutually agreed between the Parties.

5.2 Designation of Critical Service Levels.

(a) As of the Effective Date, the Critical Service Levels are designated as "Critical" in the corresponding "Critical/Special/Tracking" column in Exhibit B-1.

(b) Upon mutual agreement, and no more frequently than every ninety (90) days, RCSI may change the designation of any Service Level to a Critical Service Level, or change the designation of any Critical Service Level to a Tracking Service Level. For clarity, the changes contemplated in this Section shall be accomplished by changing Weighting Factors, as set forth in the next Section, as well as changing the designation in the "Critical/Special/Tracking" column and "Service Level Metric" column if applicable in Exhibit B-1.

(c) First Data shall implement such changes described in this Section 5.2 as mutually agreed by the Parties.

5.3 Tracking Service Levels and Special Service Levels.

(a) As of the Effective Date, the Special Service Levels are designated as "Special" in the corresponding "Critical/Special/Tracking" column in Exhibit B-1.

(b) As of the Effective Date, the Tracking Service Levels are designated as "Tracking" in the corresponding "Critical/Special/Tracking" column in Exhibit B-1.

5.4 Weighting Factors.

(a) Weighting Factors for Print Production Services.

(i) For changes to the Weighting Factors for Print Production Services of more than five (5) percentage points, RCSI, in its sole discretion once during a calendar year upon sixty (60) days notice to First Data, *** the allocation of the Weighting Factor for Print Production Services for any one or more Critical Service Levels; provided, however, that the sum of the Weighting Factors for Print Production Services for all Critical Service Levels shall not exceed the Pool Percentage Available for Allocation for Print Production Services.

(ii) For changes to the Weighting Factors for Print Production Services of five (5) percentage points or less during a calendar year:

(A) RCSI in its sole discretion once a quarter shall provide reasonable notice to First Data of such changes and *** the allocation of the Weighting Factors for Print Production Services for any one or more Critical Print Service Levels within five (5) percentage points of the existing allocation (adjusting larger or smaller for a total range of ten (10) percentage points); provided, however, that the sum of the Weighting Factors for Print Production Services for all Critical Print Service Levels shall not exceed the Pool Percentage Available for Allocation for Print Production Services.

(B) At no time during a calendar year may *** adjust the Weighting Factors for Print Production Services so that the revised allocation per Service Level exceeds five points (either lesser or greater) of the original allocation per Service Level for that calendar year.

(b) Weighting Factors for Plastics Production Services.

(i) For changes to the Weighting Factors for Plastics Production Services of more than five (5) percentage points, RCSI, in its sole discretion, once during a calendar year upon 60 days notice, *** of the Weighting Factor for Plastics Production Services for any one or more Critical Service Levels upon written notice to First Data; provided, however, that the sum of the Weighting Factors for Plastics Production Services for all Critical Service Levels shall not exceed the Pool Percentage Available for Allocation for Plastics Production Services.

(ii) For changes to the Weighting Factors for Plastics Production Services of five (5) percentage points or less during a calendar year:

(A) RCSI in its sole discretion once every quarter shall provide reasonable notice to First Data of such changes and *** the allocation of the Weighting Factors for Plastics Production Services for any one or more Critical Plastics Service Levels within five (5) percentage points of the existing allocation (adjusting larger or smaller for a total range of ten (10) percentage points); provided, however, that the sum of the Weighting Factors for Plastics Production Services for all Critical Plastics Service Levels shall not exceed the Pool Percentage Available for Allocation for Plastics Production Services.

(B) At no time during a single calendar year may RCSI adjust the Weighting Factors for Plastics Production Services so that the revised allocation exceeds five points (either lesser or greater) of the original allocation for that calendar year.

6. QUALITY-RELATED SERVICE LEVELS

6.1 Print Service Levels.

(a) For those quality-related Critical Print Service Levels that (i) utilize a DPMO calculation; and (ii) are so indicated in Exhibit B-1, as of the Effective Date, a DPMO of *** (***) shall apply.

(b) If during any month up until June 30, 2010, First Data commits a Service Level Default of any quality-related Critical Print Service Levels, the following terms shall apply:

(i) First Data is not responsible to pay a Service Level Credit for a Service Level Default during that month if the DPMO measurement is above *** DPMO but lower than or equal to *** DPMO. First Data will then have a sixty (60) day period during which First Data can cure that Service Level Default and not incur any Service Level Credit. If after sixty (60) days, First Data is unable to cure the Service Level Default, First Data will provide RCSI with a Service Level Credit for a Service Level Default of greater than *** DPMO. For example, if First Data commits a Service Level Default of the Statement Accuracy Service Level because at the end of January 2010 the DPMO for the month of January was ***, First Data will not provide RCSI a Service Level Credit for such Service Level Default. First Data will not provide RCSI with a Service Level Credit after February or March 2010 if the DPMO remains *** as February and March constitute the cure period. However, if after the month of April, the DPMO for the Statement Accuracy Service Level remains ***, First Data will provide RCSI with a Service Level Credit at the end of April.

(ii) If a Service Level Default of any quality-related Critical Print Service Levels exceeds *** DPMO at any time after the Effective Date, First Data will provide a Service Level Credit to RCSI with no opportunity to cure such Service Level Default.

6.2 Plastics Service Levels.

For all quality-related Critical or Tracking Plastics Service Levels that utilize a DPMO calculation, as of the Effective Date the DPMO calculation that shall apply is *** DPMO.

7. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TSA REGARDING SERVICE LEVELS

(a) During the Term, there is a complete exclusion from Service Level Credits or other remedies for TSA caused issues, except as set forth in Section 7(b).

(b) Termination Rights Events. After November 1, 2012 if *** is caused by First Data's performance under the TSA instead of under this Agreement, no *** applies but (in addition to whatever rights and remedies RCSI has under the TSA) RCSI will have Termination Right Events rights under this Agreement on the same basis as if the breach were caused under this Agreement. For the sake of clarity, this means that although no *** will be payable to RCSI for *** for TSA caused issues, RCSI will apply any *** for TSA caused issues for purposes of the Termination Rights Events under Section 18.1(a)(iv) of this Agreement. Prior to November 2012, RCSI will not apply any *** for TSA caused issues for purposes of the Termination Rights Events under Section 18.1(a)(iv) of this Agreement.

(c) External Defects. For TSA caused PSA impacting issues, First Data will provide email notification to RCSI the same day of identification of the issue or within twenty-four (24) hours. The RCSI PSA and TSA teams will be involved in the issue resolution discussions. First Data will follow up with a preliminary Root Cause Analysis within seven (7) Production Days and a final Root Cause Analysis no later than thirty-seven (37) Production Days. Preliminary Root Cause Analysis will include root cause, description of impact to RCSI and any preventative actions that have been identified to that point.

(d) TSA caused issues that do not meet the criteria of a defined TSA Service Level are jointly evaluated by First Data and RCSI to determine if the issue has significant impact to be logged as an Other Business Impact (OBI) for purposes of reporting and Root Cause Analysis. Criteria for evaluation of impact have been agreed as of the Effective Date and any changes to the OBI criteria shall be mutually agreed upon by the Parties.

(e) TSA Caused/PSA Impacting OBI's will follow defined OBI reporting and RCA related processes.

(f) TSA Caused/PSA impacting OBI's will be included in the Monthly Performance Report. Reporting will include: 1) number of issues within the reporting month, and 2) a brief description of each issue.

(g) Assessment of whether a Service Level Default was caused by a TSA-caused or PSA-caused issue will be based on the root cause of the issue. For example, a TSA caused embossing accuracy issue would be assessed against a TSA Embossing Accuracy Service Level (if in existence) vs. a PSA embossing accuracy Service Level.

(h) TSA and PSA Service Levels do not create an opportunity for the assessment of a monetary penalty in both Agreements based on the same Defect.

EXHIBIT B-1
SERVICE LEVEL METRICS

The Letter Cycle Time for a specific Letter type is set forth in the Service Level descriptions in Schedule B, Exhibit B-1 or in the RCSI Rules. In the event of a conflict between the Service Level descriptions in this Agreement and the RCSI Rules, the Service Level descriptions in this Agreement shall control.

10. ***
11. “Priority Daily Letters” means Letters that are automatically triggered by the First Data System and do not require a release notification prior to printing, and for which RCSI identifies a Letter Cycle Time requirement that is not to exceed one (1) day.
12. “Recovery Letter” means a Letter, requested by RCSI, due to a Service Level Default of the 2 Day SLA, or a production Hold “run without” scenario after which RCSI would require First Data to send a separate Letter.
13. “Response Required Deadline Determined (R2D2) Letters” means Letters that are automatically triggered by the RCSI System and that specify a response from the recipient prior to a deadline specified by RCSI or an RCSI Customer.
14. “Special Letters” means Letters that are force triggered by RCSI and not automatically triggered by the First Data System, the RCSI System, or co-mingled with Daily Letters, and require an email or hard copy communication from RCSI for print release. Priority legal letters (excluding Recovery Letters) shall be a subset of Special Letters.
15. “Statement Cycle Time” means the elapsed time in Production Days beginning on Day 0 and ending at the time that the Statements and Statement Packages included in that Statement cycle are Released into the USPS Mail Stream. The Statement Cycle Time for Statements and Statement Packages is set forth in the Service Level descriptions in Schedule B, Exhibit B-1 or the RCSI Rules. In the event of a conflict between the Service Level descriptions in this Agreement and the RCSI Rules, the Service Level descriptions in this Agreement shall control.
- B. Other capitalized terms used in this Exhibit B-1, but not defined above, are defined where they are used or elsewhere in this Agreement, and have the meanings there indicated.

II. SERVICE LEVELS.

- A. Service Levels containing (*) shall be subject to the Section 6.1(a) of Schedule B.
- B. Service Levels containing (**) will begin being measured on August 20, 2009.
- C. Service Levels containing (***) shall be assigned a single Weighting Factor for Print Production Services or a single Weighting Factor for Plastics Production Services. That assigned Weighting Factor will be applied consistently to each Service Level calculation under that particular Service Level and will not vary between RCSI Customers or between Product Categories.
- D. Under the 2 Day SLA, First Data will use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain a process for each billing cycle under which approximately *** to *** of Statements and Statement Packages are mailed on Day One, and the remainder of Statements and Statement Packages are mailed on Day 2 of the cycle. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section II.D does not constitute either (A) a condition or component of the 2 Day SLA under Section 4.1(b) of Schedule B; or (B) a separate Service Level.
- E. Unless otherwise noted, all Service Levels will be measured at the conclusion of a Measurement Period.

SCHEDULE C
CHARGES1. Introduction.

This Schedule C describes the charges and methodology for calculating the charges with respect to the Production Services being provided to RCSI pursuant to this Agreement. The pricing elements and associated charges (and any adjustments thereto) set forth herein shall fully compensate First Data for providing the Production Services. The Production Services will be provided to RCSI pursuant to this Agreement without any fee or other charge which is in addition to the pricing elements and associated charges specified in this Schedule C. Notwithstanding that certain pricing elements may be overlapping in their descriptions of various elements of the Production Services, First Data may not charge RCSI more than once for any unique service, function or feature (or any element thereof).

All capitalized terms used and not defined in this Schedule C shall have the meanings given them in this Agreement or in the other Exhibits or Schedules to this Agreement.

2. Statements and Letters and Embossing Charges.2.1 Introduction.

The charges provided in Exhibits C-1, C-2 and C-4, Sections 2.2, 3, and 9 provide an exclusive list (except for New Production Services) of print and mail services for Statements and Letters and embossing services for Transaction Cards and the associated charges therefore that RCSI may elect to obtain from First Data during the Term. If RCSI requests Production Services (other than New Production Services) that are not expressly set forth in Schedule C-1, C-2, or C-4, and are not otherwise identified in this Schedule C as having a separate associated fee, such Production Services shall be deemed to be included in the Production Services described in Schedule A.

2.2 Calculation of Print Ratios.

(a) The charges in Exhibit C-1 are determined based upon the printing volume assumption that RCSI will require printing as part of the Production Services performed by First Data with a Printing Ratio of ***. The Printing Ratio shall be adjusted by mutual agreement of the Parties by the Effective Date to reflect anticipated changes in RCSI's usage resulting from the adoption of printing onserts in lieu of inserts.

(b) To determine the pages printed per Statement and Letter mailed (the "Printing Ratio"), First Data shall calculate the usage pursuant to a fraction, the numerator of which is the total number of Statement and Letter pages printed and the denominator of which is the total number of Statements and Letters produced.

(c) First Data shall perform separate calculations as provided in Section 2.2(b) above for (i) RCSI volumes printed with forms and (ii) for RCSI volumes without forms.

(d) If the actual Printing Ratio calculated at the end of a Production Year is above or below the Printing Ratio, then First Data shall charge RCSI a charge or provide RCSI a credit (as the case may be) that is calculated by:

- (i)  $(\text{actual Printing Ratio} - \text{Printing Ratio}) \times () \times (\text{total \# Statements and Letters produced and mailed with forms})$ ; and
- (ii)  $(\text{actual Printing Ratio} - \text{Printing Ratio}) \times () \times (\text{total \# Statements and Letters produced and mailed without forms})$ .

For example, if in Production Year 2 the actual Printing Ratio was *** pages per Statement or Letter mailed for RCSI volumes printed with forms, then there shall be *** charged to RCSI for printing usage for that period. Additionally, First Data would provide a credit to RCSI of *** x *** x the number of Statements and Letters mailed for RCSI volumes printed with forms.

(e) Although the foregoing calculation is to be made on a Production Year basis against RCSI's volumes in the aggregate, for reporting purposes First Data shall provide such calculations to RCSI quarterly on a pro-forma basis broken down by portfolios as instructed by RCSI.

3. Postage Charges.

3.1 First Data to act as RCSI's Agent for Mailing. First Data agrees to act as an agent of RCSI and its Affiliates for the purchase on behalf of RCSI's and its Affiliates' behalf of postage required to mail materials (including Statements, Letters, and Transaction Card Packages).

3.2 First Ounce From June 1, 2009 to November 30, 2009. From June 1, 2009 through and including November 30, 2009 RCSI shall be charged for postage for the first ounce of each first-class mail piece at the *** rate of ***. At the end of such period (but no later than December 15, 2009) the total of First Data's actual postage cost for RCSI on a Postage Pass-Through Expense Basis for such period shall be calculated and reported to RCSI. ***

3.3 First Ounce From Effective Date and thereafter.

(a) Thereafter (e.g., beginning December 1, 2009), during each month during the Term of this Agreement (and in which RCSI's average daily mail volumes (i.e., the total number of mail pieces divided by the number of mailing days) during such month are at least *** pieces of mail) RCSI shall be charged for postage for the first ounce of each first-class mail piece *** (x) *** and (y):

- (i) ***; and
- (ii) ***.

(b) If RCSI's ***.

3.4 Charge for Mail Above One Ounce

(a) For first-class mail weighing more than one (1) ounce but not greater than 3.5 ounces, RCSI shall pay an additional:

(i) Second ounce rate: *** for the second ounce of each first-class mail piece (For example ***)

(ii) Third ounce rate: *** for the third ounce of each first-class mail piece (For example ***)

(b) For each RCSI mail piece which is greater than 3.5 ounces, *** shall apply, for example, as of August 8, 2009 a 3.6 ounce RCSI mail piece would be ***.

(c) If the USPS increases or decreases postage rates for first-class mail weighing more than one ounce, the amounts shown in this Section 3.4 are subject to adjustment in the amount of any change in the USPS rates for additional ounces.

3.5 The Postage Conditions are:

(a) RCSI's upgradeable mail does not exceed *** percent of all RCSI mail during such month;

(b) RCSI does not have more than *** physical Form Types for Statements in such month; and

(c) First Data has on average daily mail volumes during such month (i.e., the total number of mail pieces divided by the number of mailing days) of at least *** pieces of mail (excluding RCSI's volume).

3.6 Invoicing and Payment. First Data shall invoice RCSI daily for postage at the applicable rates provided above and RCSI shall pay First Data the sum of the applicable invoices ***.

3.7 Intelligent Mail Barcode.

Additionally, First Data will pass through to RCSI the actual USPS Intelligent Mail Barcode (IMB) related discount when that discount goes into effect and is received by First Data (or if First Data failed to qualify and remain a full service IMB mailer (a) for reasons other than changes to the IMB program by the USPS or (b) due to the failure of RCSI to perform its obligations, the amount that would have been received had it done so).

3.8 Calculation of Postage Rate Pass Thru Expense Basis.

(a) This Section 3.8 describes how postage charges calculated on a Postage Pass-Through Expenses Basis is determined.

(b) For each discount category which is offered by the USPS in connection with applicable types of mailings and utilized by First Data on behalf of its customers during the month (the "Discount Category"), First Data shall calculate a monthly ratio (expressed as a percentage) based upon, and for use with all applicable First Data customers, in which the numerator is the total number of items mailed that qualified for the applicable Discount Category, and the denominator is the total number of items mailed (the "Qualifying Percentage");

(c) In order to determine the volume of items mailed by First Data for RCSI during the month which are entitled to a discount under each Discount Category, the Qualifying Percentage for each Discount Category shall then be multiplied by the total number of items mailed by First Data for RCSI during the month (the "RCSI Discount Volume"); and

(d) For each Discount Category, the RCSI Discount Volume shall then be multiplied by the then current discount associated with such Discount Category (the "Category Amount"), and the total charge to RCSI for the month will be the sum of the Category Amounts for the month.

3.9 Charges for Special Mail Categories.

(a) United States Standard A Mailings. With respect to Standard A mailings, First Data agrees to act as an agent on behalf of RCSI and RCSI shall reimburse First Data in accordance with First Data's then current Pass-Through Expense basis methodology for the purchase on RCSI's behalf of the Standard A postage (including third party expenses related thereto on a Pass-Through Expense basis) required to mail any materials which are mailed by First Data on behalf of RCSI.

(b) International Mailings. With respect to international mailings, First Data agrees to act as an agent on behalf of RCSI and RCSI shall reimburse First Data in accordance with First Data's then current Pass-Through Expenses basis methodology for the purchase on RCSI's behalf of the postage (including third party expenses related thereto on a Pass-Through Expenses basis) required to mail any materials which are mailed by First Data on behalf of RCSI.

3.10 Postage Rate Adjustment.

This Section 3.10 describes how the Tier 1 and Tier 2 Postage Rates are to be adjusted if after the Execution Date the USPS changes postage rates, discounts, or the categories or structures of the rates or discounts. In such case:

(a) If the only change is a change in rates and/or discounts and not in any other regulations or requirements that affect postage rates, each of the Tier 1 and Tier 2 Postage Rates shall be increased or decreased by substituting the new USPS rate and applicable discount in Columns B and C below and recalculating columns D and F accordingly (to four digits to the right of the decimal point for the Tier 1 Postage Rates and to five digits to the right of the decimal point for the Tier 2 Postage Rates) using the value shown in % Discount Category Represents (which value is firm and fixed and shall not change) (Column E), and then arriving at a new total. By way of example, if the only change is that the Discount (Column C) for 3-Digit mail is changed to *** then the net rate for 3-Digit becomes ***, the imputed Tier 1 rate becomes ***, the imputed Tier 2 rate becomes ***, decreasing the Tier 1 Postage Rate to *** and the Tier 2 Postage Rate to ***.

(b) If the change is a change other than a change described in Section above 3.10(a), then the Parties shall equitably adjust the foregoing calculation with the view of accomplishing the foregoing as nearly as possible given the other changes made by the USPS.

3.11 RCSI Right To Use Third Parties For Mailings.

The postage and pre-sort services provided in this Agreement are non-exclusive. In accordance with Section 3.4(a) of this Agreement and Section 3.1(c) of the TSA RCSI may perform such services for itself or have third parties perform such services on its behalf; provided, however, that if RCSI so elects to perform such postage and pre-sort services itself or to have them performed by a third party, RCSI shall be subject to a separate and additional charge. As a result of RCSI utilizing a third party vendor for such Postage and Pre-sort mail services, RCSI and First Data will mutually agree to a *** charge *** that will cover the expense increases that First Data incurs for such services to RCSI as it relates to separating, packaging the mail and making ready for pickup by a third party vendor. If RCSI desires to elect such option RCSI shall give First Data at least six (6) months advance notice in order that First Data may have sufficient time to prepare to perform such separation, packaging and delivery services.

3.12 Conditions to Discounts.

(a) RCSI agrees to complete, execute and provide to First Data a copy of USPS Form 6014, Certificate of Move Update Compliance, or its then current equivalent, within a reasonable time following the Execution Date, annually thereafter, and whenever under the applicable USPS regulations a change of circumstances requires that RCSI provide a replacement. If at any time RCSI is not in compliance with USPS requirements related to first-class presorted, automated rates or other discounts (including but not limited to, the Move Update requirements) (i) to the extent applicable based on the postal regulations RCSI will pay for postage at the full USPS postage rate without USPS discounts and (ii) if First Data incurs additional charges, penalties, expenses, or other amounts in connection with such non-compliance RCSI shall reimburse First Data therefore. First Data shall promptly notify RCSI's Vice President of Portfolio Service Operations if First Data becomes aware of information that would reasonably indicate that RCSI is not in compliance with such requirements.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16.3 (Force Majeure) of the Agreement (including the last sentence of Section 16.3(c)) if a force majeure event interferes with First Data's ability to provide ***, First Data may *** during the first sixty (60) days after the occurrence of the force majeure event provided that the *** to RCSI therefore with regard to such sixty (60) day period shall not exceed ***, which shall be prorated if the duration of the impact of the force majeure event is less than sixty (60) days (i.e., if the impact period is thirty (30) days the limitation amount shall be ***).

[The following five pages were omitted pursuant to the confidential treatment request.]

5. Minimum Commitment.

5.1 RCSI agrees to purchase minimum Production Services from First Data during the Term as follows:

(a) During Production Year 1, *** of GE Consumer Finance's demand for the Production Services.

(b) During Production ***:

(i) *** of GE Consumer Finance's demand for the Production Services *** and

(ii) *** of the volume of Production Services purchased from First Data in the prior Production Year (measured by charges, normalized for reductions from year to year for ***).

(c) During Production Years 4 and 5 *** of the volume of Production Services purchased from First Data in the prior Production Year (measured by charges, normalized for reductions from year to year for ***).

(d) ***, there shall be *** minimum commitment.

5.2 The foregoing obligations will not apply:

(a) after the date that either Party has given the other notice of termination;

(b) with respect to the *** requirement with regard to demand for Production Services that is converted to new technologies (such as e-bill) or cancellation/transfers of portfolios to non-Affiliates of RCSI; and

(c) as provided in Section 4.6(b)(ii)(A)(2)(b) and 4.6(b)(ii)(B) of Schedule B.

6. Volume Discount.

6.1 Under Section 11.7(b) of the Original Agreement RCSI was entitled to discounts against the charges for Basic Production Services for Statements and Letters and Embossing as certain thresholds were reached. The charges provided in Exhibit C-1 already reflect the impact of such discounts for thresholds reached as of the Execution Date.

6.2 If after the date of execution of this Agreement (even if before the Effective Date) RCSI's volumes reach a new Volume Discount Level in Table 6A or Table 6B, as appropriate, RCSI shall be entitled to such additional discount. Volumes shall be measured over a rolling *** month period. Once earned discounts shall be effective as of and from the first day of the following month for the remainder of the Term.

6.3 Each individual volume threshold identified in Section 6.2 shall be referred to individually herein as a "Volume Discount Level" and, collectively, as the "Volume Discount Levels". Each percentage decrease in the prices for the identified Basic Production Services shall be referred to individually herein as a "Percentage Discount" and collectively, as the "Percentage Discounts".

6.4 Percentage Discounts shall be *** such that the price of the Basic Production Services to which each Percentage Discount shall apply shall already reflect all Percentage Discounts which have already been applied.

6.5 For purposes of determining whether the Volume Discount Levels for Statements and Letters produced during a year of the Term have been reached, all Statements and Letters produced (in whole or in part) by First Data or First Data Affiliates for RCSI under this Agreement during such year, all Statements and Letters produced (in whole or in part) by First Data or First Data Affiliates at any location for RCSI (or its successors or assigns) under the TSA shall be aggregated and counted. For purposes of determining whether the Volume Discount Levels for Transaction Cards embossed during a year of the Term have been reached, all Transaction Cards embossed (in whole or in part) by First Data or First Data Affiliates for RCSI under this Agreement during such year and Transaction Cards embossed (in whole or in part) by First Data or First Data Affiliates at any location for RCSI (or its successors or assigns) under the Technology Sourcing Agreement shall be aggregated and counted. For purposes of calculating the volumes of Transaction Cards embossed for RCSI pursuant to this Section 6, First Data shall aggregate and count all Transaction Cards embossed for RCSI, including for Accounts obtained by RCSI or RCSI Affiliates through acquisition, purchase, RCSI Customer increases, evolution of RCSI Customer requirements, evolution of RCSI and RCSI Affiliate service or product offerings and by any other means.

6.6 If the volume of Statements and Letters produced or Transaction Cards embossed increases to or past more than *** Volume Discount Level within a calendar year, the Percentage Discount corresponding to each such Volume Discount Level shall nonetheless be applied.

6.7 RCSI will provide First Data with non-binding quarterly forecast information regarding anticipated Statement, Letter and embossing volume.

7. Price Increases Pursuant to Consumer Price Index Increases

If (a) the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers, U.S. City Average, for All Items (1982- 1984 = 100), as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. Department of Labor ("CPI-U") increases (such increase, the "CPI-U Increase") by more than *** in any calendar year, and (b) such CPI-U Increase results in an increase of more than *** in the unit cost related to the Production Services (such increase, the “Unit Cost Increase”) in such calendar year (as reasonably verified by First Data), the charges under this Agreement for the Production Services for the following calendar year shall be adjusted by a percentage amount thereof equal to the portion of the Unit Cost Increase which is in excess of *** As an example, if the CPI-U Increase published in the month of December for calendar year 2000 is *** and it causes a Unit Cost Increase of ***, the Parties will increase the charges hereunder for such Production Services effective January 1, 2001 by *** of the prices in calendar year 2000. If the Bureau of Labor Statistics redefines the base year or index composition or discontinues publishing such index, the Parties shall either equitably adjust their calculations by using a reasonable conversion formula or select an alternative and comparable index published by a mutually agreeable source, as applicable.

8. Product Composition Charges

8.1 Definitions

“Product Composition for Statements and Letters” means the mix of commercial and consumer Statements and Letters products and the component makeup thereof (including CommericaLine, Business Revolving Charge and consumer products, any paper weight ranging from 17.5 to 24 pound paper, hand assembly and mechanical assembly insertions, rush courier expenses, insert per mailing set-ups (but not the number of inserts), zip sort, reports per page and number of Form Types per RCSI Customer) provided by First Data under this Agreement. RCSI Volume increases or decreases, Cycle Schedules, and fourteen (14) inch forms for the *** Portfolio shall not be considered Product Composition for Statements and Letters.

8.2 Until such time as the Parties agree on the *** and associated specifications for a particular category or categories (envelopes, cut sheet forms, and D hole card carriers) otherwise included in Product Composition for Statements and Letters (at which point Sections 9.4 and 9.7 shall apply to such category or categories), if :

8.3 First Data shall notify RCSI as soon as it is apparent that such an increase may have occurred and bill RCSI provisionally, with a credit after twelve (12) months if in fact the extra charges were not due. The baseline used to calculate the *** Product Composition for Statements and Letters calculation described in Section 8.2 will continue as provided in, and calculated under, the Original Agreement and shall be normalized for changes in new lower weight paper being considered by the Parties.

9. Miscellaneous Charges & Credits.

9.1 2 Day SLA Surcharge. From August 20, 2009 until the date when all of the Production Services are converted to SCS (or would have been converted to SCS except for First Data's failure to meet its obligations) (which is anticipated to be by the end of February, 2010), RCSI shall be charged an additional *** per Statement. This is item #7828 in Exhibit C-4.

9.2 Accounting Credit. Each month during the Term RCSI shall receive a *** credit which shall offset other charges. This credit will be provided to RCSI on the monthly invoice.

9.3 Reruns or Reprints. If a Rerun or Reprint is required due to the fault of First Data (except if the fault is primarily due to First Data's performance under the TSA and RCSI is compensated for the Rerun or Reprint under the TSA), there shall be no additional charge to RCSI (including additional charges for postage) hereunder as a result thereof and First Data shall reimburse RCSI for all additional *** incurred by RCSI as a result of such fault.

9.4 Custom Form Orders. RCSI will pay First Data on an order-by-order basis (and on a Pass-Through Expense Basis) the amount, if any, by which the cost to First Data of an order of Custom Forms exceeds the Imputed Cost of the applicable category of Custom Forms. "Custom Forms" means (a) continuous roll paper (other than paper which (x) is 17.5 to 24lb white laser bond MOCR, (y) is not converted, and (z) is not preprinted) or (b) certain types of envelopes (outer mail and return), cut sheet forms and D hole card carriers, the specifications of which in each case will be mutually agreed by the Parties along with the associated Imputed Cost.

9.5 Form Type pricing impact above the *** physical Form Types.

If the number of Statement Form Types in use by RCSI in any month exceeds *** Form Types the charge for all Statements will increase as follows:

(a) For incremental Form Types from ***, charge for the addition of the *** form *** with an increase for every additional form of ***. For example form *** would be *** plus *** *** X 9) for a total of *** per form if there are *** forms, plus

(b) For incremental Form Types from ***, charge for the addition of the *** form *** with an increase for every additional form of ***. For example form *** would be *** plus *** *** X 4) for a total of *** per form if there are *** forms, plus

(c) For incremental forms *** charge for the addition of the *** form *** with an increase for every additional form of ***.

RCSI shall not be entitled to more than *** Statement Form Types unless the applicable charge shall be agreed upon by the Parties. For every additional portfolio added after the Effective Date RCSI shall be entitled to *** additional Form Type and the charges above shall be appropriately adjusted.

9.6 Programming Services. The charges for all programming services charged to RCSI in connection with the Production Services shall be as provided in Schedule C, Section 11.3 of the TSA.

9.7 *** Purchase of Paper.

(a) The following provisions shall apply to paper and envelopes (each referred to herein as a "Consumable Category"), each being treated separately and independently. RCSI may elect different options from time to time for each Consumable Category.

(a) On a monthly basis, RCSI or RCSI Customers will provide to First Data *** of all promotional envelopes ***. For example, if monthly RCSI volumes equal *** Statements, RCSI or RCSI Customers will provide up to a maximum of *** envelopes. If RCSI provides less than *** of monthly envelope volume, First Data will provide the difference of envelopes on behalf of RCSI at ***. (b) If during any month, RCSI or RCSI Customers provides more than *** of all promotional envelopes, First Data shall provide RCSI a credit of *** per envelope for each envelope provided above *** on the next invoice following such month. Conversely, if during any month, RCSI or RCSI Customers provide *** of all promotional envelopes, First Data shall provide a credit for that month, on the next invoice following such month, as reflected in the schedule below corresponding with the applicable range of monthly envelope volume.

For illustration purposes, the examples set forth below reflect RCSI’s eligibility for monthly credits based on selected promotional envelope volumes:

- If RCSI were to provide thirty-eight and one-half percent (38.5%) of envelopes for a given month, RCSI would receive a credit for that month in the amount of ***.
- If RCSI were to provide fifty percent (50.0%) of envelopes for a given month, RCSI would receive a credit for that month in the amount of *** for each envelope provided above ***.
- If RCSI were to provide twenty-five percent (25.0%) of envelopes for a given month, RCSI would receive a credit for that month in the amount of ***. In addition, First Data will provide *** of the envelopes at ***. Such cost and fee will appear on the next invoice following such month.

For the purposes of reference only, below is a schedule of First Data’s cost of certain envelope types as of the date in the schedule below. For the avoidance of doubt, including this price information in this Amendment is not a commitment to RCSI of future price nor is it a projection of future price by any means whatsoever. For more than a century, RCSI, its businesses, and its employees have created an asset of incalculable value — the Company’s worldwide reputation for integrity and high standards of business conduct. RCSI’s quest for competitive excellence begins and ends with its unyielding commitment to integrity.

Each employee in the RCSI community is expected to make a personal commitment to integrity, and we also expect and require high ethical conduct from all of our suppliers. A company’s strong commitment in this regard is a requirement for being an RCSI supplier and is the foundation for our mutually beneficial business relationship.

In particular, we expect RCSI suppliers to:

- Comply with laws and regulations protecting the environment and not adversely affect the local community.
- Provide workers a safe and healthy workplace.
- Employ workers above the applicable minimum age requirement or the age of 16, whichever is higher.
- Comply with laws and regulations governing wages, hours, days of service, and overtime payment for workers.

- Allow their workers to freely choose whether or not to organize or join associations for the purpose of collective bargaining as provided by local law.
- Prohibit physical, sexual or psychological harassment or coercion.
- Assure that workers are hired, paid and otherwise subject to terms and conditions of employment based on their ability to do the job, not on the basis of their personal characteristics such as race, national origin, sex, religion, ethnicity, disability, maternity, age, and other characteristics protected by local law. (This does not bar compliance with affirmative preferences that may be required by local law).
- Maintain and enforce a company policy requiring adherence to ethical business practices, including a prohibition on bribery of government officials.

- Maintain security measures consistent with international standards for the protection of their operations and facilities against exploitation by criminal or terrorist individuals and organizations.

VOLUNTARY PRINCIPLES ON SECURITY AND HUMAN RIGHTS

STATEMENT BY THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE UNITED KINGDOM

The Governments of the United States and the United Kingdom, companies in the extractive sectors (“Companies”), and non-governmental organizations, all with an interest in human rights and corporate social responsibility, have engaged in a dialogue on security and human rights.

We recognise the importance of the promotion and protection of human rights throughout the world and the constructive role business and civil society (including non-governmental organizations, labor/trade unions and local communities) can play in advancing these goals. The participants in this dialogue developed a set of voluntary principles to guide Companies in maintaining the safety and security of their operations within an operating framework that ensures respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms. Mindful of these goals, the participants agree to continue this dialogue and keep under review these principles to ensure their continuing relevance and efficacy.

This has been a cooperative and constructive process. The Governments salute the willingness of the participants — Companies and civil society alike — to address these issues seriously and with a determination to both understand and account for each other’s concerns. We look forward to continuing this dialogue in the spirit of cooperation and mutual understanding that led to broad consensus among the participants on these voluntary principles.

We hope that other companies, governments, and civil society organizations as well as international institutions will share these goals and choose to be involved in this continuing dialogue. We welcome their support for these principles as well as their participation in this dialogue. Those wishing to take up this invitation should contact either the U.S. Department of State or the Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

The companies and organizations listed below support this process and welcome these principles:

Chevron, Texaco, Freeport MacMoran, Conoco, Shell, BP, Rio Tinto, Human Rights Watch, Amnesty International, International Alert, Lawyers Committee for Human Rights, Fund for Peace, Council on Economic Priorities, Business for Social Responsibility, the Prince of Wales Business Leaders Forum, and the International Federation of Chemical, Energy, Mine and General Workers’ Unions.

Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights

The Governments of the United States and the United Kingdom, companies in the extractive and energy sectors (“Companies”), and non-governmental organizations, all with an interest in human rights and corporate social responsibility, have engaged in a dialogue on security and human rights.

The participants recognize the importance of the promotion and protection of human rights throughout the world and the constructive role business and civil society (including non-governmental organizations, labor/trade unions and local communities) can play in advancing these goals. Through this dialogue, the participants have developed the following set of voluntary principles to guide Companies in maintaining the safety and security of their operations within an operating framework that ensures respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms. Mindful of these goals, the participants agree to the importance of continuing this dialogue and keeping under review these principles to ensure their continuing relevance and efficacy.

Acknowledging that security is a fundamental need, shared by individuals, communities, businesses and governments alike, and acknowledging the difficult security issues faced by Companies operating globally, we recognize that security and respect for human rights can and should be consistent;

Understanding that governments have the primary responsibility to promote and protect human rights and that all parties to a conflict are obliged to observe applicable international humanitarian law, we recognize that we share the common goal of promoting respect for human rights, particularly those set forth in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and international humanitarian law;

Emphasizing the importance of safeguarding the integrity of company personnel and property, Companies recognize a commitment to act in a manner consistent with the laws of the countries within which they are present, to be mindful of the highest applicable international standards, and to promote the observance of applicable international law enforcement principles (e.g., the U.N. Code of Conduct for Law Enforcement Officials and the U.N. Basic Principles on the Use of Force and Firearms by Law Enforcement Officials), particularly with regard to the use of force;

Taking note of the effect that Companies’ activities may have on local communities, we recognize the value of engaging with civil society and host and home governments to contribute to the welfare of the local community while mitigating any potential for conflict where possible;

Understanding that useful, credible information is a vital component of security and human rights, we recognize the importance of sharing and understanding our respective experiences regarding, inter alia, best security practices and procedures, country human rights situations, and public and private security, subject to confidentiality constraints;

Acknowledging that home governments and multilateral institutions may, on occasion, assist host governments with security sector reform, developing institutional capacities and strengthening the rule of law, we recognize the important role Companies and civil society can play in supporting these efforts;

We hereby express our support for the following voluntary principles regarding security and human rights in the extractive sector, which fall into three categories, risk assessment, relations with public security and relations with private security:

RISK ASSESSMENT

The ability to assess accurately risks present in a Company's operating environment is critical to the security of personnel, local communities and assets; the success of the Company's short and long-term operations; and to the promotion and protection of human rights. In some circumstances, this is relatively simple; in others, it is important to obtain extensive background information from different sources; monitoring and adapting to changing, complex political, economic, law enforcement, military and social situations; and maintaining productive relations with local communities and government officials.

The quality of complicated risk assessments is largely dependent on the assembling of regularly updated, credible information from a broad range of perspectives — local and national governments, security firms, other companies, home governments, multilateral institutions and civil society knowledgeable about local conditions. This information may be most effective when shared to the fullest extent possible (bearing in mind confidentiality considerations) between Companies, concerned civil society, and governments.

Bearing in mind these general principles, we recognize that accurate, effective risk assessments should consider the following factors:

- Identification of security risks. Security risks can result from political, economic, civil or social factors. Moreover, certain personnel and assets may be at greater risk than others. Identification of security risks allows a Company to take measures to minimize risk and to assess whether Company actions may heighten risk.
- Potential for violence. Depending on the environment, violence can be widespread or limited to particular regions, and it can develop with little or no warning. Civil society, home and host government representatives and other sources should be consulted to identify risks presented by the potential for violence. Risk assessments should examine patterns of violence in areas of Company operations for educational, predictive and preventative purposes.
- Human rights records. Risk assessments should consider the available human rights records of public security forces, paramilitaries, local and national law enforcement, as well as the reputation of private security. Awareness of past abuses and allegations can help Companies to avoid recurrences as well as to promote accountability. Also, identification of the capability of the above entities to respond to situations of violence in a lawful manner (i.e., consistent with applicable international standards) allows Companies to develop appropriate measures in operating environments.
- Rule of law. Risk assessments should consider the local prosecuting authority and judiciary's capacity to hold accountable those responsible for human rights abuses and for those responsible for violations of international humanitarian law in a manner that respects the rights of the accused.
- Conflict analysis. Identification of and understanding the root causes and nature of local conflicts, as well as the level of adherence to human rights and international humanitarian law standards by key actors, can be instructive for the development of strategies for managing relations between the Company, local communities, Company employees and their unions, and host governments. Risk assessments should also consider the potential for future conflicts.

- Equipment transfers. Where Companies provide equipment (including lethal and non-lethal equipment) to public or private security, they should consider the risk of such transfers, any relevant export licensing requirements, and the feasibility of measures to mitigate foreseeable negative consequences, including adequate controls to prevent misappropriation or diversion of equipment which may lead to human rights abuses. In making risk assessments, companies should consider any relevant past incidents involving previous equipment transfers.

INTERACTIONS BETWEEN COMPANIES AND PUBLIC SECURITY

Although governments have the primary role of maintaining law and order, security and respect for human rights, Companies have an interest in ensuring that actions taken by governments, particularly the actions of public security providers, are consistent with the protection and promotion of human rights. In cases where there is a need to supplement security provided by host governments, Companies may be required or expected to contribute to, or otherwise reimburse, the costs of protecting Company facilities and personnel borne by public security. While public security is expected to act in a manner consistent with local and national laws as well as with human rights standards and international humanitarian law, within this context abuses may nevertheless occur.

In an effort to reduce the risk of such abuses and to promote respect for human rights generally, we have identified the following voluntary principles to guide relationships between Companies and public security regarding security provided to Companies:

Security Arrangements

- Companies should consult regularly with host governments and local communities about the impact of their security arrangements on those communities.
- Companies should communicate their policies regarding ethical conduct and human rights to public security providers, and express their desire that security be provided in a manner consistent with those policies by personnel with adequate and effective training.
- Companies should encourage host governments to permit making security arrangements transparent and accessible to the public, subject to any overriding safety and security concerns.

Deployment and Conduct

- The primary role of public security should be to maintain the rule of law, including safeguarding human rights and deterring acts that threaten Company personnel and facilities. The type and number of public security forces deployed should be competent, appropriate and proportional to the threat.
- Equipment imports and exports should comply with all applicable law and regulations. Companies that provide equipment to public security should take all appropriate and lawful measures to mitigate any foreseeable negative consequences, including human rights abuses and violations of international humanitarian law.
- Companies should use their influence to promote the following principles with public security: (a) individuals credibly implicated in human rights abuses should not provide security services for Companies; (b) force should be used only when strictly necessary and to an extent proportional to the threat; and (c) the rights of individuals should not be violated while exercising the right to exercise freedom of association and peaceful assembly, the right to engage in collective bargaining, or other related rights of Company employees as recognized by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

- In cases where physical force is used by public security, such incidents should be reported to the appropriate authorities and to the Company. Where force is used, medical aid should be provided to injured persons, including to offenders.

Consultation and Advice

- Companies should hold structured meetings with public security on a regular basis to discuss security, human rights and related work-place safety issues. Companies should also consult regularly with other Companies, host and home governments, and civil society to discuss security and human rights. Where Companies operating in the same region have common concerns, they should consider collectively raising those concerns with the host and home governments.
- In their consultations with host governments, Companies should take all appropriate measures to promote observance of applicable international law enforcement principles, particularly those reflected in the U.N. Code of Conduct for Law Enforcement Officials and the U.N. Basic Principles on the Use of Force and Firearms.
- Companies should support efforts by governments, civil society and multilateral institutions to provide human rights training and education for public security as well as their efforts to strengthen state institutions to ensure accountability and respect for human rights.

Responses to Human Rights Abuses

- Companies should record and report any credible allegations of human rights abuses by public security in their areas of operation to appropriate host government authorities. Where appropriate, Companies should urge investigation and that action be taken to prevent any recurrence.
- Companies should actively monitor the status of investigations and press for their proper resolution.
- Companies should, to the extent reasonable, monitor the use of equipment provided by the Company and to investigate properly situations in which such equipment is used in an inappropriate manner.
- Every effort should be made to ensure that information used as the basis for allegations of human rights abuses is credible and based on reliable evidence. The security and safety of sources should be protected. Additional or more accurate information that may alter previous allegations should be made available as appropriate to concerned parties.

INTERACTIONS BETWEEN COMPANIES AND PRIVATE SECURITY

Where host governments are unable or unwilling to provide adequate security to protect a Company's personnel or assets, it may be necessary to engage private security providers as a complement to public security. In this context, private security may have to coordinate with state forces, (law enforcement, in particular) to carry weapons and to consider the defensive local use of force. Given the risks associated with such activities, we recognize the following voluntary principles to guide private security conduct:

- Private security should observe the policies of the contracting Company regarding ethical conduct and human rights; the law and professional standards of the country in which they operate; emerging best practices developed by industry, civil society, and governments; and promote the observance of international humanitarian law.
- Private security should maintain high levels of technical and professional proficiency, particularly with regard to the local use of force and firearms.
- Private security should act in a lawful manner. They should exercise restraint and caution in a manner consistent with applicable international guidelines regarding the local use of force, including the U.N. Principles on the Use of Force and Firearms by Law Enforcement Officials and the U.N. Code of Conduct for Law Enforcement Officials, as well as with emerging best practices developed by Companies, civil society, and governments.
- Private security should have policies regarding appropriate conduct and the local use of force (e.g., rules of engagement). Practice under these policies should be capable of being monitored by Companies or, where appropriate, by independent third parties. Such monitoring should encompass detailed investigations into allegations of abusive or unlawful acts; the availability of disciplinary measures sufficient to prevent and deter; and procedures for reporting allegations to relevant local law enforcement authorities when appropriate.
- All allegations of human rights abuses by private security should be recorded. Credible allegations should be properly investigated. In those cases where allegations against private security providers are forwarded to the relevant law enforcement authorities, Companies should actively monitor the status of investigations and press for their proper resolution.
- Consistent with their function, private security should provide only preventative and defensive services and should not engage in activities exclusively the responsibility of state military or law enforcement authorities. Companies should designate services, technology and equipment capable of offensive and defensive purposes as being for defensive use only.
- Private security should (a) not employ individuals credibly implicated in human rights abuses to provide security services; (b) use force only when strictly necessary and to an extent proportional to the threat; and (c) not violate the rights of individuals while exercising the right to exercise freedom of association and peaceful assembly, to engage in collective bargaining, or other related rights of Company employees as recognized by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

- In cases where physical force is used, private security should properly investigate and report the incident to the Company. Private security should refer the matter to local authorities and/or take disciplinary action where appropriate. Where force is used, medical aid should be provided to injured persons, including to offenders.
- Private security should maintain the confidentiality of information obtained as a result of its position as security provider, except where to do so would jeopardize the principles contained herein.

To minimize the risk that private security exceed their authority as providers of security, and to promote respect for human rights generally, we have developed the following additional voluntary principles and guidelines:

- Where appropriate, Companies should include the principles outlined above as contractual provisions in agreements with private security providers and ensure that private security personnel are adequately trained to respect the rights of employees and the local community. To the extent practicable, agreements between Companies and private security should require investigation of unlawful or abusive behavior and appropriate disciplinary action. Agreements should also permit termination of the relationship by Companies where there is credible evidence of unlawful or abusive behavior by private security personnel.
- Companies should consult and monitor private security providers to ensure they fulfil their obligation to provide security in a manner consistent with the principles outlined above. Where appropriate, Companies should seek to employ private security providers that are representative of the local population.
- Companies should review the background of private security they intend to employ, particularly with regard to the use of excessive force. Such reviews should include an assessment of previous services provided to the host government and whether these services raise concern about the private security firm's dual role as a private security provider and government contractor.
- Companies should consult with other Companies, home country officials, host country officials, and civil society regarding experiences with private security.

Where appropriate and lawful, Companies should facilitate the exchange of information about unlawful activity and abuses committed by private security providers.

EXHIBIT X-3
DIGITAL CARD PRINT SERVICES PROVISIONS

1.1 General

The provisions set forth in this Exhibit X-3 apply only to Section 4.6 of Schedule A to this Agreement regarding Digital Card Print Services.

1.2 Digital Card Print Services Specific Provisions

- (a) RCSI understands and agrees that RCSI is solely responsible for, and that First Data assumes no responsibility of any type or kind for, any images or marks submitted to First Data by RCSI, RCSI's Cardholders, or such third party contracted by RCSI for use in connection with the Digital Card Print Services, including but not limited to (i) reviewing such images and marks for appropriateness of content and (ii) securing and maintaining any required licenses or other usage rights from or with any third parties in any intellectual property incorporated into or related to such images or marks.
- (b) RCSI represents and warrants to First Data that RCSI has obtained all necessary rights for First Data to use, reproduce, distribute and prepare derivative works of the images and marks for purposes of performing the Digital Card Print Services. Furthermore, RCSI shall defend, indemnify and hold First Data harmless against any claim or action against First Data arising from or with respect to any breach of the foregoing representation and warranty, including but not limited to any claim or allegation that First Data's use, reproduction, distribution or preparation of derivative works of the images and marks in connection with the Digital Card Print Services (i) infringes any third party patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark or trade dress; (ii) violate third party rights of privacy, publicity, defamation, confidentiality or moral rights; or (iii) violate any other third party proprietary right; provided, however, that RCSI's obligations set forth in this sentence shall not apply to the extent that the claim or allegation is caused by (a) the reproduction by First Data of the digital images or marks in a way which varies from the images or marks submitted by RCSI or a third party contracted by RCSI for this purpose or (b) First Data's use of the software, systems or other resources necessary to implement the Digital Card Print Services or First Data's deviation from the detailed business or technical specifications required to implement the Digital Card Print Services.
- (c) For purposes of the Liability Restrictions set forth in Section 16.2 of this Agreement, RCSI's indemnification for a breach by RCSI of the foregoing representation and warranty shall be deemed to be included under the terms of Section 15.2(b) of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything in this paragraph to the contrary, RCSI agrees that First Data shall have the right, upon mutual agreement of the Parties, to reject any images or marks submitted by RCSI, RCSI's Cardholders, or such third party contracted by RCSI in connection with the Digital Card Print Services which First Data reasonably believes to contain any inappropriate or infringing content.

- (d) RCSI and First Data hereby agree that, except as otherwise specified in this Exhibit X-3, the Digital Card Print Services set forth in this Agreement shall not affect First Data's obligation to meet all Service Levels. In the event that the volume of RCSI's plastics receiving Digital Card Print Services hereunder should, for any day, exceed eight thousand (8,000), then to the extent that a delay in First Data's ability to meet any affected Service Level results from such excess in the volume of plastics receiving Digital Card Print Services, such delay shall be deemed excused and no remedy (either monetary or otherwise) shall apply with respect to such delay for only those volumes, greater than 8,000 for any day (e.g., if the volume of plastics receiving Digital Card Print Services in a day is 10,000, First Data's failure to meet any affected Service Level would be deemed excused only as to the additional 2,000 plastics above the first 8,000). In addition, in the event the average daily volume of RCSI's plastics receiving Digital Card Print Services hereunder for any two consecutive months exceeds eight thousand (8,000), then First Data and RCSI agree to (a) review and discuss, in good faith, a reduction in the fees for billing elements 7642 and 7797 from the price schedule set forth in Schedule C and (b) negotiate, in good faith, a new threshold, higher than the eight thousand (8,000) cards per day set forth above, for purposes of determining implications of not meeting applicable Service Levels. Any mutually agreed upon change to the items in (a) and (b) of the preceding sentence will be made in writing by the Parties.

***PLASTICARD EXPEDITED TURNAROUND

The provisions set forth in this Exhibit X-4 apply only to the Billing Element number 7640 for PlastiCard expedited turnaround services as set forth in Exhibit C-4 of Schedule C to this Agreement.

1.2 PlastiCard Expedited Turnaround Specific Provisions

- (a) As of the Effective Date, the PlastiCard expedited service applies only to the *** PLCC and Dual Card portfolios. If RCSI wants other portfolios to receive this service, First Data and RCSI will discuss and agree on terms.
- (b) RCSI may discontinue this billing element and service at its discretion, at any time for any or no reason, with thirty (30) days' written notice to First Data.
- (c) This PlastiCard expedited service and the related incremental fee do not apply to mass reissues and natural reissues.
- (d) For those *** Transaction Cards and Transaction Card Packages not mailed within one (1) Business Day, First Data will provide an explanation in writing defining why the *** Transaction Card or Transaction Card Package was not produced and mailed in accordance with this Service Level.
- (e) Any volume increase of greater than 125% of the rolling three month average of ***'s daily volume will require a 75 calendar day written notice from RCSI to First Data. If the notice is not provided, the Service Level Credit regarding timeliness for the volume greater than the 25% overage will be waived. By way of example, if the 90-day rolling average daily volume is 2,000 plastics per day and First Data receives embossing files from RCSI calling for 2,700 plastics on a specific day without the 75 calendar day notice, then the first 2,500 plastics are required to be embossed, inserted into complete card packages and mailed the same day that the embossing files were received by First Data. First Data would provide best efforts to emboss and mail the remaining 200 plastics (the overage), however, no Service Level Credit would apply if those 200 plastics were not embossed and mailed same day.
- (f) The Plastic Processing Timelines are attached to this Exhibit X-4 as Attachment X-4-1.

CERTIFIED MAIL PROVISION

Regarding Certified Mail (billing element 7211), the Parties agree that:

1. To the extent that RCSI generates a minimum of *** certified collection Letters in any given calendar month, the price of billing element 7211 will be reduced from ***/letter to ***/letter. In the event volumes average less than *** per month, calculated during the entire calendar year, a true-up will be completed at the end of the calendar year by assessing a charge for the difference between *** Letters and the volumes actually billed at the rate of ***/letter. For purposes of example, if RCSI produces *** Letters for the calendar year (***/mo), First Data will assess a charge of *** [(*** - ***) x ***/letter] on the next invoice following year-end.
2. At least *** of the daily certified letter volume will be produced and mailed the same day that the certified letter production file is received by First Data; and
3. *** of the daily certified letter volume will be produced and mailed within two (2) Business Days of the date the daily certified letter production file is received by First Data.

CANADIAN REGULATORY AND DATA PRIVACY TERMS

The following provisions shall apply only to the extent that Production Services are provided to, or for the benefit of, an Affiliate of RCSI that is regulated by Guideline B-10 (“B-10”) of Canada’s Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (“OSFI”) (each such regulated entity, a “Regulated Affiliate”) and in such case, references to RCSI in the Agreement shall be interpreted to include the Regulated Affiliate.

I. Generally

- A. The Production Services provided to the Regulated Affiliate are provided as of the Execution Date by First Data primarily from the locations set forth in Schedule F to the Agreement.
- B. At any time during the Term, at RCSI’s request, First Data shall provide RCSI with access to any RCSI equipment, furnishings and fixtures, including routers, within First Data’s control, and when such property is no longer required for the performance of the Production Services, at RCSI’s request, First Data shall return such property to RCSI.”
- C. First Data shall promptly give RCSI notice of an event affecting First Data or any permitted Subcontractor which First Data reasonably believes may have a material adverse effect on First Data’s ability to comply with any of its obligations under this Agreement.
- D. For the purposes of this Section I.D, “Material Subcontractor” means a subcontractor that has been *** in accordance with this Agreement, and that: (i) is not a public company filing publicly available financial statements; (ii) is performing a material part of the Production Services; (iii) is performing such Production Services in respect of a Regulated Affiliate; and (iv) is performing Production Services which, should the Material Subcontractor become unable to perform, First Data would not be able to transfer to another Material Subcontractor *** in accordance with this Agreement, or provide itself, on a reasonably prompt basis and otherwise without a material adverse effect on the continuing operations of the Regulated Affiliate. First Data shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause any Material Subcontractor, within 120 days of the last day of each financial year end of that Material Subcontractor that occurs during the term of this Agreement, to provide RCSI with (or with access to) audited consolidated financial statements consisting of a balance sheet, a statement of income and a statement of cash flows, prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP (the “Financial Statements”). RCSI’s use of the Financial Statements shall be strictly limited to the fulfillment by it of its obligations pertaining to the annual monitoring of the Material Subcontractor’s financial strength as required by OSFI or any similar requirements by any other governmental or regulatory authority.
- E. The references to “regulators,” in Section 8 of the Agreement shall be deemed to include OSFI.

F. The following is hereby added to the end of Section 8.2(b) of the Agreement:

“First Data shall permit such auditors, inspectors, regulators (including OSFI) and representatives to access and make copies of any internal audit reports (and associated working papers and recommendations) prepared by or for First Data in respect of the Production Services being performed for RCSI, and to access findings in the external audit of First Data (and associated working papers and recommendations) that address the Production Services being performed for RCSI, all subject to confidentiality documentation being signed that is satisfactory in form and content to First Data, its external auditors, and the receiving party.”

G. The following is hereby added as Section 8.8 of the Agreement:

“RCSI may provide OSFI with access to records under this Agreement, including those records referred to in Sections 243 and 244 of the Trust and Loan Companies Act (Canada), from facilities of RCSI or RCSI Affiliates in Canada.”

H. The following is hereby added as Section 18.8 of the Agreement:

“If OSFI takes control or possession of the Regulated Affiliate, First Data shall continue to provide the Production Services under and in accordance with this Agreement so long as RCSI shall continue to meet its obligations to pay under and in accordance with this Agreement.”

I. At RCSI’s request, First Data, at a reasonable time and in accordance with the disaster recovery plan, shall promptly provide to RCSI access to all records in First Data’s possession or control (or in the possession or control of its subcontractors) relating to this Agreement, including all RCSI Data, RCSI Information and RCSI Customer Information and all other data or records of RCSI or First Data reasonably necessary to allow RCSI to: (i) sustain business operations; or (ii) meet its statutory obligations. In addition, at the request of RCSI or OSFI, First Data shall immediately provide all information required by OSFI in accordance with OSFI’s legislative mandate, if First Data is unable to continue to provide any Service in the manner required pursuant to this Agreement.

II. Canadian Privacy Law

If Production Services being provided by First Data are subject to Canada’s Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act or other Canadian federal or provincial legislation deemed to be substantially similar (“Canadian Privacy Law”) applies, then this Section II shall apply in addition to and not in limitation of, First Data’s other obligations of confidentiality and non-disclosure under this Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the other provisions of this Agreement and this Section II, the requirements of this Section II will prevail. Where Section 12.7 of the Agreement is referred to in this Section II, obligations with respect to the GLB Act shall be interpreted as obligations in respect of Canadian Privacy Law.

A. First Data shall collect, use, store, disclose, dispose of and otherwise handle RCSI Customer Information in accordance with all RCSI regulations and policies described in this Section II of this Agreement and other mutually agreed upon information security practices, including those described in Sections 12.7 of this Agreement.

- B. If RCSI is dependent on the performance by First Data of an obligation in order for RCSI to comply with any Canadian Privacy Law, then, at RCSI's reasonable request, First Data shall perform such obligation in a manner that shall enable RCSI to comply with such Canadian Privacy Law.
  - C. Without limiting Section 12, except as required by applicable law, First Data shall not disclose, provide access to, or otherwise make available to any person RCSI Customer Information under the care or control of, or accessible by, First Data, without RCSI's prior consent, except as permitted by Section 12 of this Agreement. If First Data is required to disclose RCSI Customer Information in connection with any judicial proceeding or government investigation, then First Data shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, advise RCSI promptly and prior to making such disclosure in order that RCSI may interpose an objection to such disclosure, take action to assure confidential handling of the RCSI Customer Information, or take such other action as it deems appropriate to protect the RCSI Confidential Information. First Data shall also comply with the provisions of Section 12 of this Agreement, where applicable. Thereafter, First Data may disclose RCSI Customer Information but only to the extent required by applicable law and subject to any applicable protective order.
  - D. First Data shall collect, use, store, disclose, dispose of and otherwise handle RCSI Customer Information solely for the purpose of performing the Production Services.
  - E. First Data shall refer to RCSI all requests for access to RCSI Customer Information and shall respond to any such request only by making reference to such referral. If RCSI is required by any Canadian Privacy Law to provide RCSI Customer Information that is in First Data's possession or control to an individual, at RCSI's request, and provided that RCSI has provided First Data with reasonable prior notice, First Data shall provide (or provide a mechanism for RCSI to provide) such RCSI Customer Information and shall meet any reasonable deadlines imposed by RCSI for such provision required to enable RCSI to comply with any deadlines applicable under such Canadian Privacy Law to the provision of such RCSI Customer Information. In addition, at RCSI's request, First Data shall accept and process updates (including corrections or deletions) to RCSI Customer Information in the ordinary course of providing the Production Services as detailed in this Agreement, including Schedule A (Production Services) hereto, within ten days from the date upon which the request therefor is made by RCSI.

- F. First Data shall store and protect RCSI Customer Information from loss, theft, unauthorized access, copying, modification, use or disclosure during utilization, transmission and storage using technology, physical protection measures, processes and standards of practice that are consistent with industry accepted best practices used or observed by comparable suppliers of similar services for the financial services industry in North America, including those measures, processes or standards set forth in Section 12 of this Agreement. In the event any loss, theft or unauthorized access, copying, modification, use or disclosure occurs, First Data shall promptly notify RCSI of the nature and details of such loss, theft or unauthorized access, copying, modification, use or disclosure, and shall promptly take action and co-operate as set forth in Section 12 of this Agreement.
- G. First Data shall reasonably cooperate and comply with any requests or instructions issued by any privacy or data protection authority, including the Canadian Privacy Commissioner and any other governmental or regulatory authority applicable to RCSI or RCSI Customer Information.
- H. Upon completion of First Data's required use of RCSI Customer Information, or upon RCSI's written request, as further described in Section 12.1(b) and 12.5(d) (ii) of this Agreement, First Data shall return or destroy all RCSI Customer Information in accordance with RCSI's instructions. If RCSI requests the destruction of any RCSI Customer Information, then First Data shall complete the destruction as requested and provide RCSI with written confirmation of the actions taken within a reasonable period of time from receipt of RCSI's written instructions.
- I. First Data and RCSI shall mutually agree on a designated employee of First Data who shall be responsible for administering and ensuring compliance with all aspects of this Agreement, including compliance by First Data and its subcontractors with Canadian Privacy Law and this Schedule X-6.
- J. The definition of Non-Public Personal Information provided in Section 12.7 of the Agreement is hereby amended to add after the definition of GLB Act" the words "or information deemed to be personal information pursuant to Canadian Privacy Law".

AMENDMENT NUMBER 2 TO
PRODUCTION SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Amendment Number 2 (this "Amendment") to the First Amended and Restated Production Services Agreement, dated as of December 1, 2009 (the "FAAR PSA") is made and entered into this 12th day of October, 2010 (the "Amendment Execution Date"), and, except as otherwise specified in this Amendment, effective as of March 1, 2010 (the "Amendment Effective Date") by and between RETAILER CREDIT SERVICES, INC. ("RCSI") and FIRST DATA RESOURCES, LLC ("First Data"). For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the Parties, RCSI and First Data agree as follows:

1. Additional Postage Related Services. Section 6.5 of Schedule A (Services) to the FAAR PSA is hereby amended by adding the following subsections (h), (i) and (j):

(h) Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 6.5(i) below, commencing on May 5, 2010, First Data may perform co-mingling across virtual form types (hereinafter referred to as "Virtual Sorting") at the client number level for RCSI's Sales Finance Portfolio. Also commencing on May 5, 2010, First Data may, for any RCSI portfolios, optimize postage by sorting at or within the virtual form level through the use of MailStream Plus, or alternative software that performs the same functionality, provided that such alternative software has no material negative impact to existing RCSI processes, performance, expenses and efficiency.

(i) Notwithstanding Section 6.5(h) above, First Data will not, for any RCSI portfolio, perform Virtual Sorting during the Friday cycle following a major First Data System release, nor will First Data perform Virtual Sorting during the Wednesday cycle following a minor First Data System release. In addition, First Data agrees to not perform Virtual Sorting for any RCSI portfolio during the first cycle following a scheduled First Data statement code release. Further, First Data will provide reasonable advance notification to RCSI of any instance in which statement code for a specific RCSI portfolio or portfolios is being modified or implemented as a result of a request by RCSI in connection with an IR or exception request, and RCSI may, at its discretion by giving reasonable advance notice to First Data, elect not to have First Data perform Virtual Sorting with respect to such portfolio or portfolios. In order to invoke such an election, RCSI must notify First Data in writing prior to 12:00 noon Central Time for the particular night's cycle; provided, that for a Sunday night cycle, such request must be received prior to 12:00 noon Central Time the Friday before the particular cycle.

The process set forth in this Section 6.5(i) will be reviewed not later than six (6) months following First Data's installation of the Divert Management Process described in Section 6.50) below, and every six (6) months thereafter until RCSI, in its sole discretion, decides such process is no longer necessary. No changes to the terms set forth in the FAAR PSA (as amended herein) will be made based upon any such review without the mutual written agreement of RCSI and First Data.

(j) Upon the implementation by First Data of the Divert Management Process functionality, First Data may use Virtual Sorting for all RCSI portfolios serviced by First Data under the FAAR PSA RCSI, in its sole discretion, either remotely or on-site at the applicable First Data facility, will have the right to view a test or multiple tests of the Divert Management Process functionality and approve that the functionality works as described in the definition of the Divert Management Process prior to such roll out process. For purposes of this Section 6.5(j), the "Divert Management Process" means the ability to divert selected accounts that share the same virtual form type, within client numbers and across client numbers, from the print job prior to or during the inserting process, preventing the selected accounts that share the same virtual form type from entering the mail stream while allowing all non-selected accounts to process and mail normally.

2. Changes to Postage Charges. The following changes are made to Schedule C (Charges) to the FAAR PSA:

(a) Section 3.3(a)(i) is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

"(i) ***, (A) for the period commencing on March 1, 2010 and ending on March 31, 2010, *** based upon First Data's average daily mail volumes during such month (i.e., the total number of RCSI and non-RCSI mail pieces produced by or on behalf of First Data in the United States divided by the number of mailing days)(hereinafter referred to as 'First Data's Average Daily Mail Volume'), (B) for the period commencing on April 1, 2010 and ending on August 31, 2010, *** based upon First Data's Average Daily Mail Volume during such month, ***, and (C) commencing on September 1, 2010 and thereafter, *** based upon First Data's Average Daily Mail Volume:

Each of the fees in this Section 3.3(a)(i) are subject to Postage Rate Adjustment; and”

(b) Section 3.5(c) is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

GE Capital Executive Incentive Compensation Plan

I. Plan Objective

The GE Capital Corporation (“GECC” or “the Company”) Executive Incentive Compensation Plan (“EIC” or “the “Plan”) is an annual variable compensation plan that rewards eligible Executive Band and above participants for their contributions to the overall success of GECC and its individual business segments. The objective of the Plan is to incentivize executive leaders to deliver on their assigned annual goals and objectives and, in so doing, help GECC achieve its annual strategic operating goals while simultaneously ensuring the Company’s long-term safety and soundness.

This longer-term focus is ensured by rewarding consistent performance over time. The Plan accomplishes this by providing the greatest pay opportunity to those who deliver superior performance over sustained periods. The highest paid participants are typically those who have served the Company for many years in diverse positions with increasing levels of responsibility. The quantum of their EIC reflects the fact that they have consistently contributed, and are expected to continue to contribute, to GECC’s overall success. As a result of this plan design, year-over-year percentage increases or decreases in EIC tend to be more gradual than in a framework focused solely on current year performance and therefore has the effect of encouraging both the longer-term focus and retention of GECC’s leadership team.

II. Plan Design

Pool funding is calculated and expressed as a percentage variance (“V%”), either positive or negative, to the sum of all prior year EIC awards for “Continuing” Plan participants. Continuing EIC Plan participants are those who have and will receive a full-year EIC award (non-prorated) for both the prior and current performance years. Participants receiving either their first full-year award or a pro rata award for the current performance year are not included in the Continuing EIC V% calculation and are funded separately based on estimated spend.

Each year, the GE Chairman & CEO and GE Senior Vice President - Human Resources determine the Continuing EIC V% awarded to each GE business within the funding limits of the overall GE EIC pool, as approved by the Management Development and Compensation Committee (“MDCC”) of the GE Board of Directors. For GECC, the Continuing EIC V% is based on a quantitative and qualitative assessment of GECC’s overall business performance relative to its strategic operating goals in the context of economic market factors and competitive landscape. Consideration is also given to GECC’s governance, and in particular adverse outcomes, in the areas of audit, compliance and risk.

Once the GECC Continuing EIC V% is known, the GECC Compensation Committee (“the Committee”) allocates a portion to each GECC business unit (BU) based on an assessment of BU performance similar to that outlined above. To avoid any potential conflict of interest and ensure the appropriate level of independence, each Control Function is allocated their own Continuing EIC V% separate and apart from those assigned to the BUs. While overall BU performance is a factor, significant emphasis is placed on the performance of each Control Function in the execution of their respective functional mandate. Once a Continuing EIC V% has been allocated to a given GECC BU or Control Function, the senior most leader of that organization may then further allocate his/her assigned Continuing EIC V% across their respective sub-organizations. The allocation process continues until ultimately the managers of all Plan participants are given a Continuing EIC V% guideline for use in determining individual awards.

Managers are responsible for recommending individual EIC award amounts within the funding limits of their Continuing EIC V% allocation. Individual award recommendations are based on each participant’s achievement of his/her annual goals and objectives, the participant’s demonstration of the GE Growth Values, and other relevant factors. Based on this assessment, managers apply a V%, either positive or negative, to each continuing participant’s prior year EIC payment to determine his/her recommended award. Managers may take into account other relevant factors (e.g. the participant’s total compensation level relative to external market) and are given broad latitude to strongly differentiate awards among their direct reports. Participants are not guaranteed to receive an award or an award of any particular amount.

All individual EIC award recommendations are subject to review and amendment by successively higher levels of senior management up to and including the GECC Chairman & CEO. EIC award recommendations for all Company Officers and Senior Executive Band employees are reviewed by the GE Chairman & CEO. To ensure proper functional independence, the senior most functional leader at GECC Headquarters has the final say on EIC award recommendation for all Control Function employees prior to GE Chairman review.

III. Risk Alignment

It is the Committee's view that the Plan is well balanced and does not incentivize excessive risk taking that may expose GECC to material risk or financial loss. However, in accordance with regulatory requirements and to ensure that awards under the Plan are appropriately balanced with risk, the Committee may, in its sole discretion, adjust pool funding based on risk, compliance and audit findings or other such reasons as the Committee deems appropriate.

Also, as outlined in the GECC Compensation Policy, incentive compensation awards provided to any current or former employee may be reduced prospectively and/or retrospectively in the event that; 1.) it is determined that an employee has engaged in conduct detrimental to GECC either through direct action or failure to act in carrying out his/her responsibilities, or 2.) there is evidence of a serious breach of internal risk management or compliance procedures on the part of the employee.* Should this occur, action may include, but is not limited to, the reimbursement of any portion of the incentive award payment that is determined to be greater than would have been awarded had the Company been fully aware of the conduct or actual performance at the time the incentive decision was made. Thus, EIC awards are not earned until all of the above criteria have been satisfied, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion. The terms and conditions of awards under the Plan, including the reimbursement requirement in this paragraph, shall survive the payment of the award.

* Additional award adjustment criteria may apply to those select individuals who have been designated by the Company (either in accordance with local law, regulation or policy) as a Covered Employee. Refer to the GECC Compensation Policy for additional information.

IV. Terms and Conditions

Control Functions

In accordance with the GECC Compensation Policy, Control Functions are defined as Finance, Human Resources, Internal Audit, Legal, Regulatory & Compliance, and Risk Management. To ensure their objective independence, the Committee funds Control Function pools independent of other functions covered by the Plan and with significant consideration given to the Control Functions performance and execution of their functional mandates.

Incentive Compensation Deferrals

Where required by local law, regulation, or policy, GECC may defer some, or all, of an individual participant's award under the Plan for up to three years from the end of a given Plan Year. Any such deferred amount shall not be deemed earned until vested and paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the given deferral plan. Plan participants subject to deferral shall be notified accordingly and provided with the terms and conditions of the deferral plan.

Plan Effective Date and Plan Year

The Plan is effective as of January 1, 2013, and will run January 1st through December 31st of each year (the "Plan Year") until such time that the Plan is modified, superseded or otherwise terminated.

Plan Award Date

Awards will be reviewed and approved in the first quarter, following the end of the Plan Year. Awards will then be communicated and paid as soon thereafter as is practical. Awards, net of any deferred amounts, will be issued via payroll and are subject to all applicable payroll deductions.

Plan Eligibility

To be eligible for participation in the Plan, an employee must be actively working in an eligible position for no less than three consecutive months during the Plan Year, must not have given notice of resignation, and must be actively employed on the date the award is paid unless otherwise specified under the section of the Plan entitled "Leaving the Plan". In order to successfully attract external candidates, exceptions may be granted on a case-by-case basis to external new hires who would otherwise forfeit a portion of their annual incentive award upon resignation from their former employer. Eligibility will be communicated to new Plan participants via offer letter, promotion letter, or other written notification.

Eligible Positions

The Plan covers all Executive Band and above employees of GECC who do not otherwise participate in another incentive compensation plan. Below Executive Band employees are not eligible to participate in the Plan.

New Hires, Promotions and Transfers into Eligible Positions

Employees hired or promoted into an eligible position before October 1st of the Plan Year will be eligible to receive a pro rata award based on the number of days actively at work in the eligible position during the Plan Year, provided they meet all other conditions of the Plan.

Company Initiated Change in Incentive Compensation Eligibility or Individual Award Level

The Company may, from time to time, modify incentive compensation eligibility requirements and/or individual award levels to ensure internal parity and/or market competitiveness. In so doing, the Company, at its sole discretion, may fully implement such changes either at the beginning of a Plan Year or introduce them over a period of time. Employees impacted by such changes shall be notified in writing.

Overpayment

In the event that a Plan participant receives an overpayment or otherwise owes the Company money which has not been repaid during the course of or at the conclusion of employment with the Company; the Company reserves the right to adjust any incentive compensation awarded under the Plan by the amount of the overpayment or to otherwise recover the overpayment by any lawful means. If such deductions are insufficient, the employee agrees to reimburse the Company for the balance.

Transfers Out of Eligible Positions

Plan participants who transfer to a non-incentive compensation eligible position or an alternative plan during the Plan Year will be eligible to receive a pro rata award under the Plan based on the number of active days worked in an eligible position provided they meet all other conditions of the Plan. For the ease of administration, any such award may be combined with amounts earned under other incentive compensation plans within GE during the same Plan Year.

Leave of Absence

Participants absent from work due to an approved Leave of Absence during the Plan Year may still be eligible for an award under the Plan. Such award shall be paid on the Plan Award Date, and the amount of any such award will be based on the number of days actively at work in an eligible position during the Plan Year.

Leaving the Plan

If a Plan participant gives notice of resignation, or if their employment with the Company ends prior to receiving a payment under the Plan for any reason other than those described hereafter, he/she shall no longer be eligible for any payment under the Plan. Under no circumstances shall an award under the Plan be considered earned unless and until it is calculated, determined, and paid to the Participant, and all other conditions are satisfied, including any terms and conditions applicable to deferred or restricted awards.

- Participants impacted by layoff/redundancy will be treated in accordance with their local layoff/redundancy practice. If eligible under local practice, the award will be pro rata based on the number of days actively at work in an eligible position during the Plan Year provided they sign a release provided by the Company and meet all other conditions of the Plan.
- Participants who are eligible to retire from the Company under the terms of the U.S.-based GE Pension Plan (or retire from an affiliate under the terms of that affiliate's active pension plan) and do so during the Plan Year will be eligible for a pro rata award based on the number of active days worked in an eligible position provided they sign a release provided by the Company and meet all other conditions of the Plan.
- In the event a Plan participant leaves the Plan due to his or her own death or long-term disability, a pro rata award will be paid to the employee or the employee's estate based on the number of days actively at work in an eligible position during the Plan Year.

Former Plan participants who qualify for an award under the terms described in this section will receive their award in the normal course as described in the Plan Award section above, provided they sign a release provided by the Company and meet all other conditions of the Plan including having actively worked in an eligible position for no less than three consecutive months during the Plan Year.

Plan Interpretation, Modification and Termination

The Plan is offered at the sole discretion of the Company, which reserves the right to modify, adjust, change, or terminate the Plan at any time. Additionally, award amounts under the Plan may be modified, reduced and/or withheld in whole or in part if the Company determines that the eligible employee has violated the Company's written policies or procedures, including but not limited to adherence to Compliance Goals and Objectives set forth by the participating businesses, The Spirit & The Letter, the Employee Innovation and Proprietary Information Agreement, the Acceptable Use and Company Data Security Policy and/or the Employment Data Protection Standards. Any changes to the Plan will be provided to eligible employees in writing, and any such changes may not be made orally.

Authority and responsibility for interpretation and application of the Plan (including calculation of all amounts due or alleged to be due hereunder), rests solely with the Company. In the event of a disagreement, the Company is entitled to make the final and binding decision. The Company has full authority to amend, modify or alter the terms of and/or terminate the Plan at any time subject to the review and approval by the Committee.

The Plan represents the full and complete understanding between Plan-eligible employees with regard to the Plan and incentive compensation. Excluding signed offer letters, the Plan supersedes all prior agreements and understandings concerning the subject matter of the Plan, and neither Plan-eligible employees nor the Company has relied on any prior discussions or negotiations pertaining to the subject matter of the Plan.

If a final determination is made by a court of competent jurisdiction that any provision contained in the Plan is unlawful, the Plan shall be considered amended in that instance to apply to such extent as the court may determine to be enforceable, but only to the extent consistent with the original intent of the drafter. Alternatively, if such a court finds that any provision contained in this Agreement is unlawful, and that provision cannot be amended, consistent with the original intent of the drafter, so as to make it lawful, such finding shall not affect the effectiveness of any other provision of this Agreement.

Discrepancy Procedures

Plan participants have 30 days from the date of payment to raise any disputes with awards delivered under the Plan. Disputes should be submitted in writing to the attention of the participant's Human Resources Manager. The Human Resources Manager (or his or her designee) will research the dispute and report back to the Plan participant within 30 days of receiving all relevant documentation. Any dispute relative to the Plan will be addressed pursuant to the Company's current alternative dispute resolution program, including any final and binding arbitration procedure.

Disclaimer

Nothing contained in the Plan should be construed as a promise of employment for the entire Plan Year, or any other specific time period, or a guarantee of payment. The Plan supersedes any prior agreements/understandings whether written or verbal. The Company, subject to the Committee's approval, reserves the right to amend, suspend, interpret, terminate and/or, replace any program, plan or incentive payment described herein at its sole discretion.

ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT

ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT, dated as of June 20, 2014 (this "Agreement"), by and between General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("GECC") and Synchrony Financial, a Delaware corporation ("Synchrony"). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meaning described in the GECC Cash Pooling Master Terms and Conditions and the related USD Cash Pooling Confirmation by and between GECC, as Pool Leader and GE Capital International Holdings Corporation, as Participant ("GECIH"), dated June 17, 2010 (collectively, the "Cash Pooling Agreement").

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, GECC historically has allocated certain amounts of its debt to Synchrony for management accounting purposes; and

WHEREAS, in anticipation of a potential initial public offering by Synchrony of its common stock, the parties desire to provide for Synchrony's liability, as between the parties hereto, for the payment of obligations relating to certain debt as set forth in the Cash Pooling Agreement; and

WHEREAS Synchrony agrees herein, solely as between the parties hereto, to be liable for and to pay all of the payment obligations of GECC with respect to $7,335,000,000 aggregate principal amount of debt owed by GECC to GECIH pursuant to the Cash Pooling Agreement (the "Assumed Debt"); and

WHEREAS, the Assumed Debt is payable on demand and bears interest at a floating rate of interest per quarter (assuming no acceleration thereof in accordance with its terms) as set forth in the terms of the Cash Pooling Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Assumed Debt represents a portion of the total principal amount of debt (and interest thereon) owed by GECC to GECIH pursuant to the Cash Pooling Agreement (such amount, the "Total Debt"); and

WHEREAS, Synchrony shall have no obligations, and as between GECC and Synchrony GECC shall remain fully liable, with regard to the portion of the Total Debt that is not included in the Assumed Debt (the "Unassumed Debt").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Assumption of the Assumed Debt. Effective as of the date and time of execution and delivery by each party hereto of this Agreement (the "Effective Time"). Synchrony hereby expressly, unconditionally and irrevocably agrees, solely as between the parties hereto, to be liable for and to pay all of the payment obligations of GECC with respect to the Assumed Debt (including, without limitation, all interest due with regard to the Assumed Debt subject to the terms and conditions of the Cash Pooling Agreement (reflecting any changes in the Spread (as defined in the Cash Pooling Agreement) applicable to the Assumed Debt) and confirms and agrees, as between the parties hereto, to perform and observe all of the payment obligations with respect to the Assumed Debt as fully as if Synchrony were originally the obligor in respect thereof (the "Assumption"). After the Effective Time and after giving effect to the Assumption, solely as between GECC and Synchrony, Synchrony shall be deemed a "primary obligor" (and not merely as a "surety") in respect of GECC's obligations under the Assumed Debt. In furtherance of the foregoing, Synchrony hereby indemnifies and holds harmless GECC from and against all liabilities attributable to any payment or other obligations under the Assumed Debt.

2. Allocation of the Total Debt. The obligations of Synchrony set forth in Section 1 hereof shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

- a. At no time will the payment obligation of Synchrony under this Agreement exceed the sum of the Assumed Debt plus the amount of any accrued but unpaid interest thereon. In furtherance of the foregoing, GECC hereby indemnifies and holds harmless Synchrony from and against all liabilities attributable to any payment or other obligations under the Unassumed Debt.
- b. The entire balance of, and any interest on, any increase in the Total Debt after the Effective Time shall be deemed to be Unassumed Debt for purposes of this Agreement, regardless of the then outstanding balance of the Assumed Debt.
- c. Any decrease in the Total Debt after the Effective Time (other than as a result of a payment by Synchrony to GECIH with regard to the Assumed Debt) shall be allocated first, to the Unassumed Debt until the balance of Unassumed Debt shall equal $0, and then, second, to the Assumed Debt.
- d. Any payment by Synchrony to GECIH with regard to the Assumed Debt shall be allocated to reduce the outstanding balance of the Assumed Debt on a dollar for dollar basis.
- e. Upon the repayment or other elimination in full of the Assumed Debt, Synchrony's obligations under this Agreement shall cease.

3. Method of Payment. Synchrony shall make principal and interest payments on the Assumed Debt when due in accordance with instructions provided by GECC to Synchrony.

4. Further Assurances. Synchrony hereby agrees, from time to time as and when requested by GECC, to execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered, all such documents, instruments and agreements and to take or cause to be taken such further or other action as GECC may reasonably deem necessary in order to carry out the intent and purposes of this Agreement.

5. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY CLAIM, CONTROVERSY OR DISPUTE ARISING UNDER OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER IN TORT, CONTRACT (AT LAW OR IN EQUITY) OR OTHERWISE, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF ANY LAW OTHER THAN THE LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AGREES THAT THIS AGREEMENT INVOLVES AT LEAST $100,000.00, AND HAS BEEN ENTERED INTO BY THE PARTIES HERETO IN EXPRESS RELIANCE UPON 6 DEL. C. § 2708.

6. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Agreement on any number of separate counterparts, and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed signature page of this Agreement by facsimile (or other electronic) transmission (including in ".pdf" or ".tif" format) shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart hereof.

7. Section Headings. The section headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction hereof or to be taken into consideration in the interpretation hereof.

8. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

9. No Third Party Beneficiaries or Change in Rights or Obligations under the Debt. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall: (a) change, modify or release in any way GECC's obligations to GECIH with regard to the Total Debt, (b) create any obligation by Synchrony to GECIH with regard to the Total Debtor any obligation by GECIH to Synchrony or (c) confer on any other Person (including GECIH) any legal or equitable benefit or remedy under or by reason of this Agreement.

EACH PARTY HERETO (a) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (b) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

[Debt Assumption Agreement (Successor)]

FORM OF INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

THIS INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into, effective as of [EFFECTIVE DATE], between SYNCHRONY FINANCIAL, a Delaware corporation (the "Company") and [NAME OF DIRECTOR/OFFICER/KEY EMPLOYEE] ("Indemnitee").

WHEREAS, it is essential to the Company to retain and attract as directors, officers and key employees the most capable persons available;

WHEREAS, Indemnitee is a director, officer or key employee of the Company;

WHEREAS, both the Company and Indemnitee recognize the risk of litigation and other claims being asserted against directors, officers and key employees of corporations;

WHEREAS, in recognition of Indemnitee's need for substantial protection against personal liability in order to enhance Indemnitee's continued and effective service to the Company, and in order to induce Indemnitee to provide continued services to the Company as a director, officer or employee, the Company wishes to provide in this Agreement for the indemnification of and the advancing of expenses to Indemnitee to the fullest extent (whether partial or complete) permitted by law and as set forth in this Agreement and for the coverage of Indemnitee under the Company's directors' and officers' liability insurance policies; and

WHEREAS, this Agreement is intended to be supplemental to and in furtherance of the indemnification and advancement rights provided to the Company's directors or officers under the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws and any resolutions adopted pursuant thereto, and shall not be deemed a substitution therefor, nor to diminish any rights of Indemnitee thereunder.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above premises and of Indemnitee's service or continuing to serve as a director, officer or employee of the Company and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

1. Certain Definitions:

(a) Board: The Board of Directors of the Company.

(b) Change in Control:

(i) the acquisition by any individual, entity or group (a "Person"), including any "person" within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) or 14(d)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), of beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act) of 25% or more of either (A) the then outstanding shares of common stock of the Company (the "Outstanding Common Stock") or (B) the combined voting power of the then outstanding securities of the Company entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (the "Outstanding Voting Securities"); excluding, however, the following: (1)

any acquisition directly from the Company (excluding any acquisition resulting from the exercise of an exercise, conversion or exchange privilege unless the security being so exercised, converted or exchanged was acquired directly from the Company), (2) any acquisition by the Company, (3) any acquisition by an employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by the Company or any corporation controlled by the Company, or (4) any acquisition by any corporation pursuant to a transaction which complies with clauses (A), (B) and (C) of subsection (iii) of this Section; provided further, that for purposes of clause (2), if any Person (other than the Company or any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by the Company or any corporation controlled by the Company) shall become the beneficial owner of 25% or more of the Outstanding Common Stock or 25% or more of the Outstanding Voting Securities by reason of an acquisition by the Company, and such Person shall, after such acquisition by the Company, become the beneficial owner of any additional shares of the Outstanding Common Stock or any additional Outstanding Voting Securities and such beneficial ownership is publicly announced, such additional beneficial ownership shall constitute a Change in Control; or

(ii) the cessation of individuals who, as of the date hereof, constitute the Board (the "Incumbent Board") to constitute at least a majority of such Board; provided that any individual who becomes a director of the Company subsequent to the date hereof whose election, or nomination for election by the Company's stockholders, was approved by the vote of at least a majority of the directors then comprising the Incumbent Board shall be deemed a member of the Incumbent Board; and provided further, that any individual who was initially elected as a director of the Company as a result of an actual or threatened solicitation by a Person other than the Board for the purpose of opposing a solicitation by any other Person with respect to the election or removal of directors, or any other actual or threatened solicitation of proxies or consents by or on behalf of any Person other than the Board shall not be deemed a member of the Incumbent Board; or

(iii) the consummation of a reorganization, merger or consolidation or sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (a "Corporate Transaction"); excluding, however, a Corporate Transaction pursuant to which (A) all or substantially all of the individuals or entities who are the beneficial owners, respectively, of the Outstanding Common Stock and the Outstanding Voting Securities immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction will beneficially own, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of, respectively, the outstanding shares of common stock, and the combined voting power of the outstanding securities entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, as the case may be, of the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction (including, without limitation, a corporation which as a result of such transaction owns, directly or indirectly, the Company or all or substantially all of the Company's assets) in substantially the same proportions relative to each other as their ownership, immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction, of the Outstanding Common Stock and the Outstanding Voting Securities, as the case may be, (B) no Person (other than: the Company; any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by the Company or any corporation controlled by the Company; the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction; and any Person which beneficially owned, immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction, directly or indirectly, 25% or more of the Outstanding Common Stock or the Outstanding Voting Securities, as the case may be) will beneficially own, directly or indirectly, 25% or more of, respectively, the outstanding shares of common stock of the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction or the combined voting power of the outstanding securities of such corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors and (C) individuals who were members of the Incumbent Board will constitute at least a majority of the members of the board of directors of the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction; or

(iv) the consummation of a plan of complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (A) for so long as General Electric Company and its affiliates beneficially own a majority of the Outstanding Common Stock, no Change in Control shall be deemed to have occurred, (B) any transaction pursuant to which common stock of the Company is transferred from one wholly-owned subsidiary of General Electric Company to another wholly-owned subsidiary of General Electric Company shall not be deemed to be a Change in Control and (C) the transactions pursuant to which General Electric Company and its affiliates reduce their ownership of common stock of the Company shall not constitute a Change in Control, provided that in connection with any such transaction no other Person acquires beneficial ownership of common stock of the Company in an amount that would constitute a Change in Control pursuant to Section 1(b)(i).

(c) Disinterested Director: A director of the Company who is not and was not a party to the Proceeding in respect of which indemnification is sought by Indemnitee.

(d) Expenses: Any expense broadly construed, including without limitation, attorneys' fees, retainers, court costs, transcript costs, fees and expenses of experts, including accountants and other advisors, travel expenses, duplicating costs, postage, delivery service fees, filing fees, and all other disbursements or expenses of the types typically paid or incurred in connection with investigating, defending, being a witness in, or participating (including on appeal), or preparing for any of the foregoing, in any Proceeding relating to any Indemnifiable Event, and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under any of Sections 2, 4 or 5 of this Agreement.

(e) Indemnifiable Costs: Any and all Expenses reasonably incurred, liabilities, losses, judgments, fines (including any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement and any interest, assessments, or other charges imposed thereon, and any federal, state, local, or foreign taxes imposed as a result of the actual or deemed receipt of any payments under this Agreement.

(f) Indemnifiable Event: Any event or occurrence that takes place either prior to or after the execution of this Agreement, by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or has or had agreed to become a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or, while a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, or related to anything done or not done by Indemnitee in any such capacity, whether or not the basis of the Proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer or employee of the Company, or in any other capacity, as described above.

(g) Independent Counsel: means a law firm, or a member of a law firm, that is experienced in matters of corporation law and banking regulation, and neither presently is, nor in the past three years has been, retained to represent: (i) the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, (ii) the Indemnitee or (iii) any other party to the Proceeding giving rise to a claim for indemnification or Expense Advances hereunder, in any matter material to such law firm or member of a law firm (other than with respect to matters relating to indemnification and advancement of expenses). No law firm or lawyer shall qualify to serve as Independent Counsel if that law firm or lawyer would, under the applicable standards of professional conduct then prevailing, have a conflict of interest in representing either the Company or Indemnitee in an action to determine Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement. The Board shall select a law firm or lawyer to serve as Independent Counsel, subject to the consent of the Indemnitee, which consent shall be withheld only if the Independent Counsel selected by the Board does not meet the requirements of the foregoing definition of Independent Counsel, and the Indemnitee sets forth with particularity, in writing, the factual basis of such assertion. The Company agrees to pay the reasonable fees of the Independent Counsel and to indemnify fully such counsel against any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees), claims, liabilities, loss, and damages arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the engagement of Independent Counsel pursuant hereto.

(h) Proceeding: Any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative that relates to an Indemnifiable Event.

(i) Reviewing Party: Reviewing Party shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in Section 3.

2. Agreement to Indemnify.

(a) General Agreement Regarding Indemnification. In the event Indemnitee was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in a Proceeding by reason of an Indemnifiable Event, the Company shall indemnify Indemnitee from and against Indemnifiable Costs, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended; provided that the Company's commitment set forth in this Section 2(a) to indemnify the Indemnitee shall be subject to the limitations and procedural requirements set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Partial Indemnification. If Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of Indemnifiable Costs, but not, however, for the total amount thereof, the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee for the portion thereof to which Indemnitee is entitled.

(c) Advancement of Expenses. If so requested by Indemnitee, the Company shall advance to Indemnitee, to the fullest extent not prohibited by applicable law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended or interpreted, any and all Expenses incurred by Indemnitee (an “Expense Advance” or an “Advance”) in defending any Proceeding in advance of its final disposition within 30 calendar days after the receipt by the Company of a request from Indemnitee for an Advance, whether prior to or after final disposition of any Proceeding; provided, that the Company shall not advance any expenses to Indemnitee unless and until it shall have received a request and undertaking substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. Any request for an Expense Advance shall be accompanied by an itemization, in reasonable detail, of the Expenses for which advancement is sought; provided, however, that Indemnitee need not submit to the Company any information that counsel for Indemnitee deems is privileged and exempt from compulsory disclosure in any proceeding. Subject to applicable law, Advances shall be made without regard to Indemnitee’s ability to repay the Expenses and without regard to Indemnitee’s ultimate entitlement to indemnification under the other provisions of this Agreement. If Indemnitee has commenced legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Delaware to secure a determination that Indemnitee should be indemnified under applicable law, as provided in Section 4, any determination made by the Reviewing Party that Indemnitee would not be permitted to be indemnified under applicable law shall not be binding and Indemnitee shall not be required to reimburse the Company for any Expense Advance until a final judicial determination is made with respect thereto (as to which all rights of appeal therefrom have been exhausted or have lapsed). Indemnitee’s obligation to reimburse the Company for Expense Advances shall be unsecured and no interest shall be charged thereon. This Section 2(c) shall not apply to any claim by Indemnitee for which indemnity is excluded pursuant to Section 2(d).

(d) Exception to Obligation to Indemnify. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall not be obligated under this Agreement to make any indemnification payment in connection with any claim made against Indemnitee:

(i) except as otherwise provided in Section 5, in connection with any Proceeding commenced by Indemnitee, unless the commencement of such Proceeding by the Indemnitee was authorized in the specific case by the Board; or

(ii) for which payment has actually been made to or on behalf of Indemnitee under any insurance policy or other indemnity provision, except with respect to any excess beyond the amount paid under any insurance policy or other indemnity provision.

3. Reviewing Party.

(a) Definition of Reviewing Party. Other than as contemplated by Section 3(b) or as ordered by a court, the person, persons or entity who shall determine whether Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification (the “Reviewing Party”), (i) if Indemnitee is a director, officer or employee at the time of such determination, shall be (A) the Board acting by a majority vote of Disinterested Directors, even though less than a quorum, (B) a committee of Disinterested Directors designated by a majority vote of Disinterested Directors on the Board, even though less than a quorum, (C) if there are no Disinterested Directors, or if the Disinterested Directors so direct, by Independent Counsel in a written opinion to the Board, a copy of which shall be delivered to Indemnitee, or (D) by the stockholders of the Company and (ii) if Indemnitee is a former director, officer or employee at the time of such determination, shall be any person, persons or entity having the authority to act on the matter on behalf of the Company.

(b) Reviewing Party Following Change in Control. After a Change in Control (other than a Change in Control approved by a majority of the Incumbent Board), the Reviewing Party shall be Independent Counsel. With respect to all matters arising from such a Change in Control concerning the rights of Indemnitee to indemnity payments and Expense Advances under this Agreement or any other agreement or under applicable law or the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Amended and Restated Bylaws now or hereafter in effect relating to indemnification for Indemnifiable Events, the Company shall seek legal advice only from Independent Counsel. Such counsel, among other things, shall render its written opinion to the Board and Indemnitee as to whether and to what extent the Indemnitee should be indemnified under applicable law.

(c) Successful Proceeding or Defense. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, to the extent that Indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any Proceeding by reason of (or arising in part out of) an Indemnifiable Event or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, Indemnitee shall be indemnified against Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization or determination by the Reviewing Party as to whether Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification in the specific case.

4. Indemnification Process and Appeal.

(a) Indemnification Payment.

(i) Subject to the last sentence of Section 5, the determination with respect to Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification shall be made by the Reviewing Party not later than 30 calendar days after receipt by the Company of a written demand on the Company for indemnification (which written demand shall include such documentation and information as is reasonably available to Indemnitee and is reasonably necessary to determine whether and to what extent Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification). The Reviewing Party making the determination with respect to Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification shall notify Indemnitee of such written determination no later than two business days thereafter.

(ii) Unless the Reviewing Party has provided a written determination to the Company that Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification under this Agreement, Indemnitee shall be entitled to indemnification of Indemnifiable Costs, and shall receive payment thereof, from the Company in accordance with this Agreement within 10 business days after the Reviewing Party has made its determination with respect to Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification or, if the Reviewing Party has not made such determination, within 30 calendar days after the date by which it was required to do so pursuant to Section 4(a)(i) of this Agreement.

(b) Suit to Enforce Rights. If (i) payment of indemnification pursuant to Section 4(a)(ii) is not made within the period permitted for such payment by such section, (ii) the Reviewing Party determines pursuant to Section 4(a) that Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification under this Agreement, (iii) Indemnitee has not received advancement of Expenses within the time period permitted for such advancement by Section 2(c), or (iv) the Company or any other Person takes or threatens to take any action to declare this Agreement void or unenforceable, or institutes any litigation or other action or Proceeding designed to deny, or to recover from, the Indemnitee the benefits provided or intended to be provided to the Indemnitee hereunder, then Indemnitee shall have the right to enforce the indemnification and advancement rights granted under this Agreement by commencing litigation in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Delaware seeking an initial determination by the court or challenging any determination by the Reviewing Party or any aspect thereof. The remedy provided for in this Section 4 shall be in addition to any other remedies available to Indemnitee in law or equity.

(c) Defense to Indemnification, Burden of Proof, and Presumptions.

(i) To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law in making a determination with respect to entitlement to indemnification hereunder, the Reviewing Party shall presume that an Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under this Agreement if Indemnitee has submitted a request for indemnification in accordance with Section 4(a), and the Company shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption in connection with the making by the Reviewing Party of any determination contrary to that presumption. Neither the failure of the Company (including by its directors or Independent Counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of any action pursuant to this Agreement that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because Indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct, nor an actual determination by the Company (including by its directors or Independent Counsel) that Indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that Indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(ii) It shall be a defense to any action brought by Indemnitee against the Company to enforce this Agreement that it is not permissible under applicable law for the Company to indemnify or to make an Advance of Expenses to Indemnitee for the amount claimed.

(iii) For purposes of this Agreement, the termination of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or matter therein, by judgment, order, settlement (whether with or without court approval and whether with or without an admission of liability on the part of the Indemnitee), conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not create of itself a presumption that Indemnitee did not meet any particular standard of conduct or have any particular belief or that a court has determined that indemnification is not permitted by applicable law.

(iv) For purposes of any determination under this Agreement, Indemnitee shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, or, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe Indemnitee's conduct was unlawful, if Indemnitee's action was based on good faith reliance on the records or books of account of the Company or another enterprise, including financial statements, or on information supplied to Indemnitee by the directors or officers of the Company or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Company or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Company or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Company or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4(c)(iv), shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which Indemnitee is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent. For purposes of this Agreement, references to "serving at the request of the Company," shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries, and if Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan, Indemnitee shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the Company." The provisions of this Section 4(c)(iv) shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the other circumstances in which the Indemnitee may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this Agreement.

(v) The knowledge and/or actions, or failure to act, of any director, officer, agent or employee of the Company shall not be imputed to Indemnitee for purposes of determining the right to indemnification under this Agreement.

5. Indemnification for Expenses Incurred in Enforcing Rights. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee against any and all Expenses to the fullest extent permitted by law as the same exists or may hereafter be amended and, if requested by Indemnitee pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 2(c), shall advance such Expenses to Indemnitee, that are incurred by Indemnitee in connection with any claim asserted against or action brought by Indemnitee for:

(i) interpretation, enforcement or defense of Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement;

(ii) indemnification of Indemnifiable Costs or payment of Expense Advances by the Company under this Agreement or any other agreement or under applicable law or the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Amended and Restated Bylaws now or hereafter in effect relating to indemnification for Indemnifiable Events; and/or

(iii) recovery under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by the Company.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no determination as to entitlement of Indemnitee to indemnification under this Agreement shall be required to be made prior to the final disposition of the Proceeding.

6. Notification and Defense of Proceeding.

(a) Notice. Promptly upon being served with any summons, citation, subpoena, complaint, indictment, information or other document relating to any Proceeding or matter which may be subject to indemnification or advancement of Expenses covered hereunder Indemnitee will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the Company under this Agreement, notify the Company thereof. The failure to notify or promptly notify the Company shall not relieve the Company from any liability which it may have to the Indemnitee otherwise than under this Agreement, and shall not relieve the Company from liability hereunder except to the extent the Company has been prejudiced or as further provided in Section 6(c).

(b) Defense. With respect to any Proceeding as to which Indemnitee notifies the Company of the commencement thereof, the Company will be entitled to participate in the Proceeding at its own expense and except as otherwise provided below, to the extent the Company so wishes, it may assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Company. After notice from the Company to Indemnitee of its election to assume the defense of any Proceeding, the Company will not be liable to Indemnitee under this Agreement or otherwise for any Expenses subsequently incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the defense of such Proceeding other than as provided below. Indemnitee shall have the right to employ separate counsel in such Proceeding, but, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, all Expenses related thereto incurred after notice from the Company of its assumption of the defense shall be at Indemnitee's expense unless: (i) the employment of counsel by Indemnitee has been authorized by the Company, (ii) Indemnitee has reasonably determined that there may be a conflict of interest between Indemnitee and the Company in the defense of the Proceeding, (iii) after a Change in Control, the employment of counsel by Indemnitee has been approved by Independent Counsel, or (iv) the Company shall not within 60 calendar days in fact have employed counsel to assume the defense of such Proceeding, in each of which case, all Expenses of the Proceeding shall be borne by the Company. If the Company has selected counsel to represent Indemnitee and other current and former directors, officers or employees of the Company in the defense of a Proceeding, and a majority of such persons, including Indemnitee, reasonably object to such counsel selected by the Company pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6(b), then such persons, including Indemnitee, shall be permitted to employ one additional counsel of their choice and the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of the Company; provided, however, that such counsel shall be chosen from amongst the list of counsel, if any, approved by any company with which the Company obtains or maintains directors and officers insurance. In the event separate counsel is retained by a group of persons including Indemnitee pursuant to this Section 6(b), the Company shall cooperate with such counsel with respect to the defense of the Proceeding, including making documents, witnesses and other reasonable information related to the defense available to such separate counsel pursuant to joint-defense agreements or confidentiality agreements, as appropriate. The Company shall not be entitled to assume the defense of any Proceeding brought by or on behalf of the Company or as to which Indemnitee shall have made the determination provided for in clause (ii) in the third sentence of this Section 6(b).

(c) Settlement of Claims. The Company shall not be liable to indemnify Indemnitee under this Agreement or otherwise for any amounts paid in settlement of any Proceeding effected without the Company's prior written consent. The Company shall not settle any Proceeding in any manner that would impose any penalty or limitation on Indemnitee without Indemnitee's prior written consent. Neither the Company nor the Indemnitee will unreasonably withhold their consent to any proposed settlement. The Company shall not be liable to indemnify the Indemnitee under this Agreement with regard to any judicial award if the Company was not given a reasonable and timely opportunity, at its expense, to participate in the defense of such action; the Company's liability hereunder shall not be excused if participation in the Proceeding by the Company was barred by this Agreement.

7. Non-Exclusivity. The rights of Indemnitee hereunder shall be in addition to any other rights Indemnitee may have under the laws of the State of Delaware, the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws, applicable law, any agreement, a resolution of the Board or otherwise; provided that in no event will Indemnitee be permitted to receive indemnification or advancement of expenses more than once for the same Expenses and Indemnifiable Costs. No amendment, alteration or repeal of this Agreement or of any provision hereof shall limit or restrict any right of Indemnitee under this Agreement in respect of any action taken or omitted by Indemnitee in Indemnitee's capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or of any other corporation, limited liability company, partnership or joint venture, trust or other enterprise which such person is or was serving at the request of the Company, prior to such amendment, alteration or repeal. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other right or remedy.

8. Liability Insurance. To the extent the Company maintains an insurance policy or policies providing directors' or officers' liability insurance, Indemnitee, if a director or officer of the Company, shall be covered by such policy or policies, in accordance with its or their terms.

9. Amendment of this Agreement. No supplement, modification, or amendment of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by both of the parties hereto. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of any other provisions hereof (whether or not similar), nor shall such waiver constitute a continuing waiver. Except as specifically provided herein, no failure to exercise or any delay in exercising any right or remedy hereunder shall constitute a waiver thereof.

10. Subrogation. In the event of payment under this Agreement, the Company shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the rights of recovery of Indemnitee, who shall execute all papers required and shall do everything that may be necessary to secure such rights, including the execution of such documents necessary to enable the Company effectively to bring suit to enforce such rights.

11. No Duplication of Payments. The Company shall not be liable under this Agreement to make any payment in connection with any claim made against Indemnitee to the extent Indemnitee has otherwise actually received payment (whether under the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws, any insurance policy, by law, or otherwise) of the amounts otherwise indemnifiable hereunder.

12. Duration and Binding Effect. This Agreement shall continue until and terminate upon the later of: (a) ten years after the date that Indemnitee shall have ceased to serve as a director, officer or employee of the Company or at the request of the Company, as a director, officer, employee, agent, or fiduciary, of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, as applicable, or (b) one year after the later of the final disposition of any Proceeding then pending in respect of which Indemnitee is granted rights of indemnification or advancement of Expenses hereunder and the final disposition of any proceeding commenced by Indemnitee pursuant to Section 5 of this Agreement relating thereto. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors, assigns, including any direct or indirect successor by purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company, spouses, heirs, executors, administrators and personal and legal representatives. The Company shall require and cause any successor (whether direct or indirect by purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise) to all, substantially all, or a substantial part, of the business and/or assets of the Company, by written agreement in form and substance satisfactory to Indemnitee, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform if no such succession had taken place. This Agreement shall continue in effect regardless of whether Indemnitee continues to serve as a director, officer or employee of the Company or of any other enterprise at the Company's request.

13. Enforcement.

(a) The Company expressly confirms and agrees that it has entered into this Agreement and assumed the obligations imposed on it hereby in order to induce Indemnitee to serve or continue to serve as a director, officer or employee of the Company, and the Company acknowledges that Indemnitee is relying upon this Agreement in serving or continuing to serve as a director, officer or employee of the Company.

(b) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral, written and implied, between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof; provided, however, that this Agreement is a supplement to and in furtherance of the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws, any resolutions adopted pursuant thereto and applicable law, and shall not be deemed a substitute therefor, nor to diminish any rights of Indemnitee thereunder.

14. Severability. If any provision (or portion thereof) of this Agreement shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or otherwise unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. Furthermore, to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, each portion of this Agreement containing any provision held to be invalid, void, or otherwise unenforceable, that is not itself invalid, void, or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested by the provision held invalid, void, or unenforceable.

15. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts made and to be performed in such State without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of laws. The Company and Indemnitee hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agree that any action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be brought only in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, and not in any other state or federal court in the United States of America or in the courts of any other country.

16. If the audited Party’s compliance with, cooperation with and/or support of any such Records review related to such audited Party will cause the audited Party to expend additional resources that it otherwise would not spend in the normal course of providing the Services, the audited Party will notify the requesting Party of such requirement for additional resources (and the hourly rate associated with each). Upon the requesting Party’s authorization, the audited Party will provide such assistance, the requesting Party will be charged at such associated hourly rates for person hours expended by the audited Party personnel in supporting the requesting Party in connection with such Records review; provided that after the occurrence of a Termination Event, any reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred by Service Recipient in connection with a review of the Records of Service Provider shall be borne by Service Provider and Service Provider shall not be entitled to charge Service Recipient for its costs and expenses in connection with assisting in such review.

- 4.3 [Service Provider's transfer pricing material directly relating to the Services (it being understood that Service Provider may redact or reformat portions of such material to protect any data not directly related to the Services or otherwise sensitive data) shall be available upon request for an independent review by Service Recipient's internal or external local statutory and/or tax auditor or Governmental Entities.]
- 4.4 Each Party, at its own expense, agrees to permit an audit to be undertaken upon advance written notice and as reasonably necessary, when it is requested by the other Party or its representatives in order to comply with applicable Laws related to banking, financial, or data privacy rules or regulations.
- 4.5 In addition to audit rights as described in the previous section, Service Recipient and its auditors, agents and regulators shall have the right, upon reasonable prior notice and during normal business hours, to conduct on-site and off-site reviews and audits of Service Provider's operations and performance with respect to the provision of the Services and compliance with the terms of this Agreement and laws applicable to Service Provider. For the avoidance of doubt in the event that VAT is chargeable, including when in addition to the amounts determined in accordance with Schedule 2, Service Recipient shall pay all VAT amounts to Service Provider (including in addition to those amounts on provision of a valid VAT invoice to Service Recipient). If applicable, the parties shall reasonably cooperate with respect to preparing any statements, forms, documentation or other necessary information to establish an exemption or reduction in any such taxes.

6. Withholding For Tax

- 6.1 All payments under this Agreement will be made without any deduction or withholding for, or on account of, any Tax unless such deduction or withholding is required by any applicable Law in effect at the time that the Tax is due to be paid.
- 6.2 To the extent Service Recipient (the “payor”) is not required to deduct or withhold Tax by virtue of Service Provider’s (the “payee”) exempt status under a specific treaty or Law, payee will provide payor with all necessary documents to support payor’s exempt status.
- 6.3 If payor is so required to deduct or withhold Tax, then payor will:
  - 6.3.1 promptly notify payee of such requirement;
  - 6.3.2 pay to the relevant authorities the full amount required to be deducted or withheld; and
  - 6.3.3 promptly forward to the payee an official receipt (or a certified copy), or other documentation reasonably acceptable to the payee, evidencing such payment to the authorities.

If the payor is not a “United States person” (as that term is defined in section 7701(a)(30) of the United States Internal Revenue Code), payor shall pay and bear such withholding, such that payee shall receive (after all such applicable withholding) an amount equal to the amount it would have received under this Agreement in the absence of such withholding.

7. Term and Termination; Remedies

- 7.1 The “Term” of this Agreement shall begin on the Effective Date and end on the earlier of (i) termination of this Agreement by Service Recipient or Service Provider in accordance with Section 7.2, 7.3 or 13 and (ii) the date on which Service Recipient shall transfer servicing under the Securitization Servicing Agreement to Service Provider or an Affiliate thereof or to a successor Servicer in accordance with Section 7.6. Other than as set forth in Section 7.10, Service Provider shall have the sole right to perform the Services during the Term and Service Recipient shall not have the right to engage others to perform any portion of the Services or to perform the Services internally during the Term.
- 7.2 Service Provider may terminate this Agreement and its obligations to provide the Services, in whole, for cause, if (i) Service Recipient fails to pay any material amount owing under this Agreement on a timely basis or (ii) Service Provider’s ability to provide a material portion of the Services is prohibited by any law, rule or regulatory requirement.
- 7.3 Service Recipient may terminate the Services, in whole or in part upon the occurrence of one of the following events (each, a “Termination Event”): (i) a Change of Control; (ii) the occurrence of an Insolvency Event of Service Provider; (iii) Service Provider or an Affiliate thereof shall be qualified to accept an assignment of Service Recipient’s rights and obligations under the Securitization Servicing Agreement and shall fail to accept such assignment from Service Recipient within 120 days after the earlier of (x) the date on which Service Provider meets the rating requirements in Section 6.2 of the Securitization Servicing Agreement and the Rating Agency Condition is satisfied with respect to such assignment and (y) the date on which the Notes of all Series that are Outstanding on the date hereof shall have either been paid in full or shall have consented to such assignment and, if required by the Securitization Servicing Agreement, the Rating Agency Condition is satisfied with respect to such assignment; provided that no Termination Event shall result if the failure to accept such assignment shall result from Service Recipient’s failure to cooperate in good faith with Service Provider to accomplish such assignment or (iv) the failure of Service Provider to perform any Service in accordance with this Agreement that, with giving of notice or lapse of time, would constitute a Servicer Default, which such failure continues unremedied for 53 days (or, if the Termination Event is a result of Service Provider’s failure to make any payment, transfer or deposit, 4 business days) after the date of written notice thereof shall have been received by Service Provider; provided that if Service Provider’s failure was caused by an act of God or other similar occurrence then a Termination Event shall not be deemed to have occurred until 7 days prior to the date on which a Servicer Default would result from such failure.
- 7.4 Service Provider shall promptly, and in any event within 2 Business Days, notify Service Recipient of the occurrence of a Termination Event.

- 7.5 Termination or expiration of this Agreement or any SOW shall not terminate the obligation of the Parties to pay fees and expenses that may be due and unpaid on the date of termination or expiration or for Services that have been provided but which have not yet been invoiced on the date of termination or expiration.
- 7.6 Upon the termination of Service Provider's appointment or the termination or expiration of this Agreement, Service Provider agrees to reasonably facilitate the transition of all or the terminated portion of the Services, as applicable, from Service Provider to one or more alternate subservicers or to Service Recipient and shall pay commercially reasonable costs and expenses related to the transition of Services. At the request of Service Recipient, Service Provider will continue to provide the Services for a transition period not to exceed 12 months following the expiration or termination of this Agreement in order to ensure a smooth transition. During such transition period, Service Provider shall continue to be paid the Fee. Thereafter, Service Provider will provide reasonable post-termination assistance, on a time and materials basis, with respect to transactions occurring prior to the end of such transition period. If requested by Service Provider, prior to provision of termination or expiration assistance to any designee of Service Recipient, Service Recipient will ensure that such designee has first signed a confidentiality agreement with Service Provider, which contains terms and conditions reasonably acceptable to Service Provider.
- 7.7 Service Recipient covenants and agrees that it shall not resign as Servicer under the Securitization Servicing Agreement during the Term of this Agreement unless (i) permitted to resign in accordance with the Securitization Servicing Agreement and (ii) any successor Servicer has entered into a subservicing agreement with Service Provider to perform the Services on substantially the same terms provided in this Agreement, with such subservicing agreement to be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Service Provider. Service Provider and Service Recipient agree to cooperate to take all actions reasonably necessary to cause the transition of servicing under the Securitization Servicing Agreement to Service Provider or an Affiliate thereof as soon as reasonably practicable after the assignment of servicing to Service Provider would become permissible under the Securitization Servicing Agreement, but in no event later than 120 days after the latest maturity date of any Series of Notes outstanding on the Effective Date.
- 7.8 If, as of the last day of any fiscal quarter beginning with the fiscal quarter ending September 2014, either a Minimum Liquidity Warm Trigger Event or a Tier 1 Capital Warm Trigger Event occurs, Service Recipient may require Service Provider to take the following actions:
- (1) permit Service Recipient to conduct additional inspections and/or audits, not more frequently than once during any 90-day period and to reimburse Service Recipient for any reasonable out of pocket expenses in connection therewith; and

- (2) at Service Provider's expense, enter into a backup subservicing agreement with a backup servicer to perform the obligations of a "warm" backup servicer, which obligations shall include:
    - a. an agreement by the backup servicer to perform the Services and the obligations of the Servicer Provider under this Agreement within 90 days of receiving written notice of the occurrence of a Termination Event; and
    - b. receiving copies of a computer file from Service Provider no later than 30 days following the end of each Monthly Period, confirming that the information contained therein is readable and contains the information necessary to permit the backup servicer to prepare all monthly noteholder statements required to be delivered in accordance with the Securitization Servicing Agreement.

7.9 If, as of the last day of any fiscal quarter beginning with the fiscal quarter ending September 2014, either a Minimum Liquidity Hot Trigger Event or a Tier 1 Capital Hot Trigger Event occurs, Service Recipient may require Service Provider to take the following actions:

- (1) permit Service Recipient to conduct additional inspections and/or audits, not more frequently than once during any 30-day period and to reimburse Service Recipient for any reasonable out of pocket expenses in connection therewith; and
- (2) at Service Provider's expense, enter into a backup subservicing agreement with a backup servicer to perform the obligations of a "hot" backup servicer, which obligations shall include:
  - a. an agreement by the backup servicer to perform the Services and the obligations of the Servicer Provider under this Agreement within 45 days of receiving written notice of the occurrence of a Termination Event;
  - b. receiving copies of a computer file from Service Provider no later than 7 days following the end of each calendar month, confirming that the information contained therein is readable and contains the information necessary to permit the backup servicer to prepare all monthly noteholder statements required to be delivered in accordance with the Securitization Servicing Agreement;
  - c. completing trial conversions to transfer the data contained in the computer file described above to the backup servicer's servicing system; and
  - d. recalculating all monthly noteholder statements that Service Provider is required to deliver pursuant to the Securitization Servicing Agreement.

7.10 If Service Provider fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, and such failure has a material adverse effect on either the Securitization Trust or Service Recipient's ability to satisfy its obligations under the Securitization Servicing Agreement and such failure has not been cured after seven Business Days (or two Business Days with respect to Service Provider's failure to make any payment, transfer or deposit when required) after the date written notice thereof shall have been received by Service Provider, Service Recipient shall be entitled to conduct not more than two additional inspections and/or audits per calendar year and Service Provider shall reimburse Service Recipient for any invoiced reasonable out of pocket costs and expenses in connection therewith. Additionally, if Service Provider's failure to perform any part of the Services results in a material adverse effect on either the Securitization Trust or Service Recipient's ability to satisfy its obligations under the Securitization Servicing Agreement and Service Provider has not resumed providing such services within 30 days (or three Business Days with respect to Service Provider's failure to make any payment, transfer or deposit when required) after the date written notice thereof shall have been received by Service Provider, Service Recipient may, at its option, take control of the related Services that Service Provider has failed to perform and, in doing so, may take such other action as Service Recipient deems reasonably necessary to prevent a "Servicer Default" (as defined in the Securitization Servicing Agreement) resulting from such failure to perform, including engaging a Third Party service provider. Such step-in rights will continue until Service Provider establishes to Service Recipient's reasonable satisfaction that Service Provider is capable of providing the Services and can resume providing the Services. Service Provider shall promptly and duly execute and deliver any and all further instruments and documents, and take such further action, that may be necessary or desirable or that Service Recipient may request to enable the Service Recipient to exercise and enforce its step-in rights under this Section 7.10. Service Provider shall reimburse Service Recipient for any invoiced reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses in connection with exercising step-in rights as described in this Section 7.10.

each such case, the receiving entity first agrees in writing to obligations substantially similar to those described in this Section 8, and subject to applicable Law, as and to the extent necessary for enforcement of this Agreement. Both Parties agree to limit disclosure of the other Party's Confidential Information to individuals who have a legitimate "need to know" the same. "Confidential Information" shall mean all information, in any form: (i) that is furnished to, obtained from, or disclosed to, directly or indirectly, the other Party under this Agreement or disclosed to Service Recipient under the Securitization Servicing Agreement (whether prior to or on and after the Effective Date) and (ii) that is (A) marked or designated in writing in a manner to indicate it is confidential, restricted, or with a similar designation or (B) of a nature that a reasonable person would understand it to be confidential. In connection with the disclosure of any Confidential Information in a Dispute or proceeding to enforce this Agreement, the disclosing Party will in doing so make every effort to secure confidential treatment of any materials disclosed.

8.2 Confidential Information of a Party shall not:

- 8.2.1 be used by the other Party for any purpose other than that of provision or receipt of the Services under this Agreement or the Securitization Servicing Agreement or the enforcement of this Agreement; and
- 8.2.2 be used except to the extent necessary to satisfy that Party's obligations under this Agreement or the Securitization Servicing Agreement or the enforcement of its rights hereunder.

No portion of a Party's Confidential Information shall be sold, assigned, leased, commercially exploited, or otherwise disposed of by or on behalf of the other Party, its Affiliates, authorized representatives, employees or agents.

8.3 Consistent with applicable Law, this obligation of secrecy and confidentiality shall not apply to information which:

- 8.3.1 at the time of disclosure to the receiving Party is in the public knowledge as evidenced by printed publication or otherwise; or
- 8.3.2 after disclosure to the receiving Party becomes part of the public knowledge through no fault of a Party;
- 8.3.3 was in the possession of the receiving Party at the time of disclosure to it, without obligation of confidentiality; it being understood that Confidential Information received by Service Recipient as Servicer under the Securitization Servicing Agreement, whether prior to or on and after the Effective Date, shall be deemed to have been received subject to an obligation of confidentiality;

- 8.3.4 after its disclosure to the receiving Party, was legally received from a Third Party who had a lawful right to disclose such information to it without any obligation to restrict its further use or disclosure;
- 8.3.5 was independently developed by the receiving Party without reference to, reliance on, or knowledge of Confidential Information of the disclosing Party; or
- 8.3.6 the receiving Party has received permission in writing from the disclosing Party to disclose.
- 8.4 A Party shall not be considered to have breached its obligations by disclosing Confidential Information of the disclosing Party as required to satisfy any legal requirement of a competent Government Entity (including a court order, subpoena, or other valid administrative or judicial notice), in a manner consistent with applicable Law, provided that, immediately upon receiving any such request and to the extent that it may legally do so, the receiving Party promptly advises the disclosing Party of the request prior to making such disclosure. If (absent a protective order, the receipt of a waiver hereunder, or for any reason) the receiving Party is nonetheless legally compelled to disclose such Confidential Information, the receiving Party may disclose such Confidential Information without liability hereunder, but will in doing so make every effort to secure confidential treatment of any materials disclosed. In addition, a Party shall not be considered to have breached its obligations by disclosing Confidential Information (other than data that is personally identifiable to a particular person) to its attorneys, auditors, and other professional advisors, consistent with applicable Law, in connection with services rendered by such advisors, provided that such Party has confidentiality agreements with such professional advisors or such advisors owe professional confidentiality obligations to the Party.
- 8.5 In the event of any actual or suspected misuse, disclosure or loss of, or inability to account for, any Confidential Information of the disclosing Party, the receiving Party promptly shall (i) notify the disclosing Party upon becoming aware thereof; (ii) promptly furnish to the other Party full details of the unauthorized possession, use, or knowledge, or attempt thereof, and use reasonable efforts to assist the other Party in investigating or preventing the reoccurrence of any unauthorized possession, use, or knowledge, or attempt thereof, of Confidential Information; (iii) take such actions as may be necessary or reasonably requested by the disclosing Party to minimize the violation; (iv) reimburse the disclosing Party for all costs, losses and expenses actually incurred by the disclosing Party; and (v) cooperate in all reasonable respects with the disclosing Party to minimize the violation and any damage resulting therefrom.
- 8.6 The Parties acknowledge and agree that all such Confidential Information in any form, and any copies and/or extracts thereof, are and shall remain the sole and exclusive property of the disclosing Party. Upon the termination of this Agreement or as requested by the disclosing Party during the term of this Agreement, the receiving Party shall promptly destroy or deliver to the disclosing Party all Confidential Information of the disclosing Party, provided that each Party may keep such Confidential Information if and as long as required by any applicable Law or court or Governmental Entity order (or as a result of any automatic electronic archive and back-up procedures) and provided further that a Party shall have no obligation to destroy any Confidential Information that is subject to a claim, dispute, lawsuit, or subpoena or in any other circumstances in which such Party reasonably believes that destruction of such Confidential Information would be unethical or unlawful. Subject to the previous, if Confidential Information is destroyed by the receiving Party rather than returned to the disclosing Party, an officer duly authorized to bind the receiving Party will provide a written certification of same to the disclosing Party.

8.7 This Section 8 shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any termination of this Agreement.

9. Liability

9.1 Either Party will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Party, its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives (collectively, “Indemnitees”), for all claims, losses or damages suffered by the other Party that result from such Party’s failure to observe or perform any of its duties, obligations or covenants, any acts or omissions of such Party or its agents, any breach of such Party’s representations and warranties, unauthorized cessation of the Services, infringement of any third parties intellectual property rights or other breach of provisions relating to intellectual property or any bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of its duties, including, without limitation:

- Any claim that, if true, would arise from or be attributable to a breach of such Party’s obligations under Section 8 (Confidentiality) and/or Section 11 (Data Privacy and Security);
- Any claim that, if true, would arise from or be attributable to an intentional tort, willful misconduct (including intentional breach of contract), unlawful conduct, or gross negligence of a Party (or any Person for which that Party is responsible).

9.2 NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY, NO PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE OR LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY INDIRECT, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY OR CONSEQUENTIAL LOSS, DAMAGE OR EXPENSE THAT MAY BE ALLEGED AS A RESULT OF ANY TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREUNDER.

9.3 A Party’s non-performance of its obligations under this Agreement or a SOW hereunder shall be excused if and to the extent such non-performance results from the other Party's failure to perform its responsibilities hereunder; provided that such Party (i) has notified the other Party of the effect of that other Party's failure on such Party promptly after such Party becomes aware of it, and (ii) uses commercially reasonable efforts to perform notwithstanding the other Party's failure.

- 9.4 EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, SERVICE PROVIDER EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, NON-INTERRUPTION OF USE, AND FREEDOM FROM PROGRAM ERRORS WITH RESPECT TO THE SERVICES.
- 9.5 In no event shall Service Provider or Service Recipient have any responsibility or liability under this Agreement for or with respect to the origination or underwriting of the Transferred Receivables, determining eligibility of the Receivables for inclusion in the Securitization Trust, the credit performance of the Transferred Receivables, the ability of the Securitization Trust to generate the payments to be distributed to the noteholders or the solvency of the Securitization Trust; it being understood that certain Affiliates of Service Provider may be responsible for the aforementioned duties under the agreements governing the Securitization Trust's securitization program and nothing in this Agreement shall impact that duties and obligations of such parties under the agreements relating to the Securitization Trust's securitization program.

11.4 Data Security.

11.4.1 Either Party shall, upon the other Party's request, provide the requesting Party with all information pertaining to its data security systems and procedures (physical, technological and organizational) reasonably required by the requesting Party to assess the adequacy (in the requesting Party's sole discretion) of such systems and procedures with respect to the Services.

The security measures taken shall be in compliance with applicable Data Protection Laws and any applicable local data or IT security requirements, and shall be adapted to the risks represented by the Processing and the nature of Service Recipient Data or Service Provider Data to be Processed, having regard to the state of the art and the cost of implementation.

11.5 European Union. If in the course of the Parties' performance of this Agreement, any Personal Data will be transferred from a member state of the European Union to a jurisdiction outside the EU that has not been declared "adequate" for personal data protection by the European Commission, the Party becoming aware of this situation will inform the other unless it is already specified under a SOW, and Service Recipient and Service Provider (or other party who Processes data, if approved by both Parties) agree each Party shall comply with all Data Protection Laws applicable to its role in connection with such data transfer on its behalf and on behalf of the other Party, and shall comply with and, where needed, assist the other Party to comply with, all formalities required to be met, including the need to (a) execute the Standard Contractual Clauses for Controller-to-Processor

11.6 Agreements with Third Parties. Each Party represents and warrants that to the extent it provides any of the other Party's Service Recipient Data or Service Provider Data (as applicable) to any of its suppliers, subcontractors and/or agents (such provision being necessary to Service Provider's performance of (or Service Recipient's receipt of) the Services), it shall maintain with such suppliers, subcontractors and/or agents during the Term contractual arrangements obligating such Third Parties to implement and maintain physical, technical and organizational data security measures consistent with the obligations placed on the Parties in Section 11.4.

The notifying Party shall also provide the other Party with a detailed description of the Security Breach, the type of data that was the subject of the Security Breach, the identity of each affected person, and any other information the other Party may request concerning such affected persons and the details of the Security Breach, as promptly as such information can be collected or otherwise becomes available.

11.7.2 The notifying Party shall take action immediately to investigate the Security Breach and to identify, prevent and mitigate the effects of any such Security Breach, and to carry out any recovery necessary to remedy the impact.

11.7.3 The Parties shall agree on which of them shall send out all Security Notices, provide all credit monitoring or other fraud alert services, and effect all other remedies to the extent any of the foregoing are required by applicable Law in relation to any Security Breach. To the extent such responsible Party takes any action in relation to any Security Breach experienced by Service Provider that is not required by any Governmental Entity or applicable Law, but is nonetheless customary in the industry or required under the other Party's existing policies or contractual commitments, Service Recipient and Service Provider shall cooperate, in good faith, to equitably allocate the cost of such voluntary efforts between themselves.

11.7.4 To the extent permitted by applicable Law, the Party responsible under Section 11.7.3 shall provide the other Party with reasonable notice of, and the opportunity to comment on and approve, the content of all Security Notices prior to any publication or communication thereof to any Third Party, except the non-responsible Party shall not have the right to reject any content in a Security Notice that the responsible Party must include in order to comply with applicable Law.

11.7.5 Notwithstanding anything in this Section 11 or this Agreement to the contrary, Service Recipient and Service Provider shall cooperate with each other to ensure that Service Recipient provides Service Provider with only as much Service Recipient Data as is required for Service Provider to provide the Services hereunder. If Service Recipient intends to deliver to Service Provider more Service Recipient Data than is necessary for Service Provider to perform the Services and Service Provider, in light of this Section 11.7, does not wish to receive such Service Recipient Data, Service Recipient and Service Provider shall escalate the matter to their respective relationship managers who shall, in good faith, attempt to resolve the issue, including, if appropriate, by modification to this Section 11.7 solely for the specific Services for which the issue arose.

11.8 The Parties understand and agree that each may require the other to provide certain Personal Data such as the name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of representatives in transactions, and that each may store such data in databases located and accessible globally by their personnel and use it for purposes reasonably related to the performance of this Agreement. Each Party agrees that it will comply with all legal requirements associated with transferring any Personal Data, will not share the other's Personal Data beyond itself, its affiliates and its contractors, and shall use reasonable technical and organizational measures to ensure that the other's Personal Data is processed in conformity with applicable data protection Laws. Each Party may obtain a copy of its Personal Data from the other and may submit updates and corrections to it by sending written notice in accordance with the "notice" provision in this Agreement.

12. Notices

That Notice shall only be effective on the third (3rd) business day after the date that the Notice has been received in accordance with Section 12.1.4 below or such later date as may be specified in the Notice.

- 12.1.4 Duly Given. Any Notice shall, in the absence of earlier receipt, be deemed to have been duly given as follows:
- (i) if delivered personally, on delivery;
  - (ii) if sent by courier, on delivery; or
  - (iii) if emailed, when the sender receives an automated message confirming delivery.
- 12.1.5 Outside Working Hours. Any Notice given outside working hours in the place to which it is addressed shall be deemed not to have been given until the start of the next period of working hours in such place.

13. Force Majeure

- 13.1 No Party shall be held in breach of its obligation hereunder to the extent the performance or observance of such obligation (except payment of Fees hereunder) is prevented or delayed by reason of act of God, war and other hostilities, civil commotion, accident, strikes, lock-outs, trade disputes acts or restraints of governments, restrictions of imports or exports or any other cause not within the control of the Party concerned. However, this Section 13 shall not limit the rights of termination referred to in Section 7.
- 13.2 Where a Party is unable to comply with an obligation hereunder due to an event or circumstances referred to in Section 13.1 above, it shall forthwith notify the other Party of the nature and effect of such event or circumstance, and the Parties, where the same is practicable, shall use every reasonable endeavor to minimize such effect and to comply with their respective obligations herein contained, as nearly as may be practicable in their original form.

14. Agency

Except as otherwise provided, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to place a Party or its employees in the position of a partner, agent or employee of another Party and no Party or its employees shall have the power to bind the other Party with respect to Third Parties. Each Party covenants and agrees not to hold itself or its employees out as a partner, agent or employee of another Party with respect to this Agreement.

15. Assignment

This Agreement shall not be assignable in whole or in part by either Party without the other Party's written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, and any attempted assignment without such consent shall be void; except that Service Provider may assign this Agreement or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to Synchrony Bank without the consent of Service Recipient. Nothing in this Section 15 shall restrict the ability of Service Provider to delegate or subcontract its obligations in accordance with Section 20.

16.1 General Provisions.

- 16.1.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a “Dispute”), shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 16, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such Dispute unless otherwise specified below.
- 16.1.2 Commencing with a request contemplated by Section 16.2 set forth below, all communications between the Parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute, including any mediator’s evaluation referred to in Section 16.3 set forth below, shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.
- 16.1.3 In connection with any Dispute, the Parties expressly waive and forego any right to (i) special, indirect, incidental, punitive, consequential, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages (provided that liability for any such damages with respect to a third-party claim shall be considered direct damages) and (ii) trial by jury.
- 16.1.4 The specific procedures set forth below, including but not limited to the time limits referenced therein, may be modified by agreement of the Parties in writing.
- 16.1.5 All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures specified in this Section 16 are pending. The Parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

- 16.2 Consideration by Senior Executives. If a Dispute is not resolved in the normal course of business at the operational level, the Parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve such Dispute by negotiation between executives who hold, at a minimum, the office of President and CEO of the respective business entities (or their respective designees) involved in such Dispute. Either Party may initiate the executive negotiation process by providing a written notice to the other (the “Initial Notice”). Fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Initial Notice, the receiving Party shall submit to the other a written response (the “Response”). The Initial Notice and the Response shall include (i) a statement of the Dispute and of each Party's position, and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that Party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Such executives will meet in person or by telephone within thirty (30) days of the date of the Initial Notice to seek a resolution of the Dispute.

16.3 Mediation. If a Dispute is not resolved by negotiation as provided in Section 16.2 within forty-five (45) days from the delivery of the Initial Notice, then either Party may submit the Dispute for resolution by mediation pursuant to the CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution (the "CPR") Model Mediation Procedure as then in effect. The Parties will select a mediator from the CPR Panels of Distinguished Neutrals. Either Party at commencement of the mediation may ask the mediator to provide an evaluation of the Dispute and the Parties' relative positions.

16.4 Arbitration.

16.4.1 If a Dispute is not resolved by mediation as provided in Section 16.3 within thirty (30) days of the selection of a mediator (unless the mediator chooses to withdraw sooner), either Party may submit the Dispute to be finally resolved by arbitration pursuant to the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration as then in effect (the "CPR Arbitration Rules"). The Parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all known Disputes existing at the time of the arbitration and for which arbitration is permitted.

16.4.2 The neutral organization for purposes of the CPR Arbitration Rules will be the CPR. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators, of whom each Party shall appoint one in accordance with the "screened" appointment procedure provided in Rule 5.4 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The third arbitrator shall be appointed by the arbitrators selected by each Party in accordance with Rules 5.2 and 6 of the CPR Arbitration Rules. The arbitration shall be conducted in New York City. Each Party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other Party. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the Parties. The arbitrators shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the law of the State of New York, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement; provided, however, that the provisions of this Agreement relating to arbitration shall in any event be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.

16.4.3 The Parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted in accordance with this Section 16.4 and further agree that judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section 16.4 may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

- 16.4.4 Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no Party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by Section 16.4.3 above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (e) below. For purposes of the foregoing, the Parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York.
- 16.4.5 In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding Section 16.4.4 above, each Party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of the provisions of Section 8, Section 11 or Section 21, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either Party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the Parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.
- 16.4.6 Each Party will bear its own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the resolution of any Dispute in accordance with this Section 16.

- 17.1 This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to any provision that would require or permit the application of a different jurisdiction's law.
- 17.2 Except to the extent expressly provided herein, this Agreement (and each SOW hereunder) shall not be deemed to create any rights in Third Parties, or to create any obligations of a Party to any such Third Parties. There are no Third Party beneficiaries of this Agreement, whether intended, incidental, or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement is between Service Provider and Service Recipient alone, and the Securitization Trust shall not be deemed to be a party hereto, and the Securitization Trust shall have no obligations, duties or liabilities with respect to Service Provider.
- 17.3 Each Party shall, at the request of the other Party, perform those actions, including executing additional documents and instruments, reasonably necessary to give full effect to the terms of this Agreement or any SOW.

- 17.4 The invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement will in no way affect any other provision which will remain in full force and effect.
- 17.5 Language. Regardless of any language into which this Agreement may be translated and/or thereafter executed, the official, controlling and governing version of this Agreement shall be exclusively the English language version. The headings as to the contents of particular sections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall in no way define, limit, expand, or otherwise affect the construction or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. The language of all parts of this Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against either of the parties.
- 17.6 Severability. Each provision herein shall be treated as a separate and independent clause, and the unenforceability of any one clause shall in no way impair the enforceability of any of the other clauses of this Agreement. Moreover, if any provision contained in this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be excessively broad as to scope, activity, subject, or otherwise unenforceable, such provision shall be construed by the appropriate judicial body by limiting or reducing it or them so as to be enforceable to the maximum extent compatible with the applicable law.
- 17.7 Survival. All provisions of this Agreement related to confidentiality, data privacy or security; indemnification; intellectual property rights; representations, warranties and/or covenants; non-solicitation; limitations on liability; record retention; inspection or audit rights; and transition servicing shall expressly survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.
- 17.8 With effect from the Effective Date, this Agreement, including any schedules and exhibits referred to herein and attached hereto and any SOWs executed hereunder, each of which is incorporated herein for all purposes, constitutes the full and entire understanding and agreement between the Parties with regard to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any prior agreements currently in force between the Parties governing the Services, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties.

18. Amendments and Execution

This Agreement may be modified or amended by an agreement in writing executed by an authorized representative of each Party.

19. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed by the different Parties hereto on separate counterparts and by facsimile or scanned (.pdf) signature, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all of which together constitute one and the same Agreement with the same effect as if all the signatures were upon the same instrument. A facsimile, scanned or telecopy signature shall be as legally effective as an original signature.

- 20.1 Unless otherwise provided in Section 20.2 below, Schedule 3 or a SOW, Service Provider shall be permitted to subcontract any or all of its obligations under this Agreement to an Affiliate or a Third Party, so long as such entity is contractually obligated to provide services to Service Provider (such entity, a “Contractor”). Such subcontracting to a Contractor pursuant to this Section 20 shall in no way release Service Provider from its obligations under this Agreement, and Service Provider shall remain liable for any failure of Contractor to comply with this Agreement.
- 20.2 In addition to any terms set forth in Schedule 3 or a SOW, Service Provider’s ability to delegate or subcontract its obligations under this Agreement is subject to the following:
- 20.2.1 If Service Provider intends to subcontract to a Third Party, Service Provider shall so notify Service Recipient of such intent.

- 20.3 With respect to any Services that are subcontracted to a Third Party, Service Provider will remain responsible for the performance of such Services and will cause any Contractor to comply with the provisions of this Agreement. If a Contractor fails to comply with its obligations relating to this Agreement in any material respect, and such failure has not been cured within 45 days after Service Provider receives notice from Service Recipient, Service Recipient may direct Service Provider to use commercially reasonable efforts to discontinue use of the Contractor’s products and/or services for Service Recipient and provide substitutes as soon as reasonably practicable.

21. Intellectual Property

- 21.1 The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Services will not typically include the creation of Materials containing Intellectual Property Rights. However, if and to the extent Materials containing Intellectual Property Rights may be created pursuant to the provision of the Services, the Parties acknowledge and understand that, as between Service Provider and Service Recipient, such Material generated or created as an output of a Service whether solely by a Party or jointly between the Parties and/or Third Parties, including Contractors hereunder (collectively, “Deliverables”), shall belong to Service Provider, which will possess all ownership rights and all Intellectual Property Rights associated therewith. Re: SYNCHRONY FINANCIAL Amendment No. 4 to Registration Statement on Form S-1 Filed June 27, 2014 (File No. 333-194528)

Dear Mr. Clampitt:

SYNCHRONY FINANCIAL, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), has filed today Amendment No. 4 ("Amendment No. 4") to its Registration Statement on Form S-1 (Registration No. 333-194528) (the "Registration Statement").

In connection with the filing, set forth below are the Company's responses to the comments from the Commission staff (the "Staff") communicated in its letter addressed to the Company, dated June 18, 2014. The Company is sending to the Staff under separate cover courtesy copies of Amendment No. 4, including copies marked to show the changes effected by Amendment No. 4.

For ease of reference, each of the Staff's comments is reproduced below in bold and is followed by the Company's response. In addition, unless otherwise indicated, all references to page numbers in such responses are to page numbers in Amendment No. 4.

Management's Discussion and Analysis, page 79

Loan Receivables, page 110

1. We note your disclosure on page 111 stating the increase in allowance for loan losses during the three month period ended March 31, 2014 was mostly driven by an increase in your expected losses "driven by growth in loan receivables." While we noted the growth in loan receivables from $52.3 billion at December 31, 2012 to $57.3 billion at December 31, 2013, loan receivables actually decreased to $54.3 billion at March 31, 2014. Please revise your disclosure accordingly.

The Company has revised its disclosure on pages 112 to 113 in response to the Staff's comment. The modified disclosure also refers to the disclosure on page 84 under the heading "Seasonality," which has been modified in response to Staff comment #2 below.

2. We note the increase in allowance for loan losses from December 31, 2013 to March 31, 2014. We further note that the allowance for loan losses as a percentage of total loan receivables increased from December 31, 2013 to March 31, 2014 while past due accounts as a percentage of total loans decreased. We also note your disclosure on page 84 related to the seasonality of your loan receivables. Please revise your filing to more clearly discuss the reasons for the increase in the allowance for loan losses as a percentage of loan receivables in comparison to the apparent positive trends in the credit quality of your loan portfolio.

Please be as specific and detailed as needed to provide an investor with a clear understanding of the observed change in the credit quality of your loan portfolio and how this change, as well as any other key drivers, impacted your allowance for loan loss. For instance, you may discuss trends in the active accounts and purchase volume per account, any trends in the FICO scores of the active accounts, the impact of seasonality on your allowance for loan loss, and other trends observed in specific qualitative factors.

The Company has revised its disclosure on page 84 and pages 112 to 113 in response to the Staff's comment.

Should any questions arise in connection with the filing or this response letter, please contact the undersigned at (203) 585-2400.

Sincerely yours,
