MONTHLY CHARGE-OFF AND DELINQUENCY STATISTICS

AS OF AND FOR EACH OF THE THIRTEEN MONTHS ENDED

(unaudited, $ in billions)

The following table provides monthly charge-off and delinquency statistics as of and for each of the thirteen months ended April 30, 2019.

The increase in over-30 day loan delinquencies as a percentage of period-end loan receivables (the "30+ delinquency rate") at April 30, 2019 compared to the same period in the prior year, is primarily due to the reclassification of loan receivables related to the Walmart portfolio to loan receivables held for sale. The loan receivables held for sale do not include certain loan receivables we believe will charge-off prior to the expected closing date of the sale of the Walmart portfolio.

The core 30+ delinquency rate<sup>(1)</sup> at April 30, 2019 increased slightly compared to the same period in the prior year primarily due to the PayPal Credit program. Excluding the PayPal Credit program, the core 30+ delinquency rate at April 30, 2019 was lower than April 30, 2018 by approximately 10 basis points.

The increase in net charge-offs for the month ended April 30, 2019 compared to the prior year was primarily due to lower recoveries. This increase was partially offset by two less charge-off cycles per the table below.

	Apr 30, 2019	Mar 31, 2019	Feb 28, 2019	Jan 31, 2019	Dec 31, 2018	Nov 30, 2018	Oct 31, 2018	Sep 30, 2018	Aug 31, 2018	Jul 31, 2018	Jun 30, 2018	May 31, 2018	Apr 30, 2018

Adjusted net charge-offs as a % of average loan receivables, including held for sale <sup>(4)</sup>	6.5 %	6.1 %	6.4 %	5.7 %	5.7 %	5.6 %	5.3 %	4.8 %	4.9 %	5.2 %	5.7 %	5.9 %	6.4 %

(1) Core 30+ delinquency rate is a non-GAAP financial measure. This measure represents the Company's 30+ days past due loan receivables as a percentage of period-end loan receivables, adjusted to exclude the delinquent accounts related to the Walmart portfolio and the effects of the reclassification of loan receivables related to the Walmart portfolio to loan receivables held for sale. The loan receivables held for sale do not include certain loan receivables we expect to charge-off prior to the sale date, leading to a temporary increase in our delinquency metrics. We believe the presentation of this measure is useful to investors as it represents the measure more indicative of the performance of our ongoing credit programs.

(2) Charge-offs are executed on charge-off cycle dates which occur on various days during each calendar month. The number of different charge-off cycle dates in each month varies based on such factors as the calendar and the timing of billing cycles. As a result, the amount of charged-off loan receivables can vary between monthly periods with no corresponding change in the performance of the portfolio. The following table sets forth the number of different charge-off cycle dates for our consumer credit card loan receivables, which represent greater than 95% of total period-end loan receivables at April 30, 2019, for the calendar months indicated.

	2018	2019
January	29	28
February	28	28
March	25	28
April	30	28
May	28	28
June	26	28
July	30	29
August	28	27
September	28	28
October	29	28
November	27	26
December	28	30

(3) Represents adjustment to allocate recoveries, including debt sales, evenly across the three calendar months of each respective quarterly reporting period. The adjustments for periods other than for the last month of each calendar quarter incorporate estimated recoveries for the applicable full quarterly reporting period. Such estimates are subject to change within each applicable quarter and may differ from actual quarterly results.

(4) Adjusted net charge-offs represent a non-GAAP financial measure. Adjusted net charge-offs as a % of average loan receivables, including held for sale, represent the Company's net charge-off rate for each month including the 'recovery adjustment' defined above. We believe the presentation of this measure is useful to investors as it represents a monthly measure which is more indicative of both our quarterly and annual net charge-off rates.
